Frances Thomas spent Saturday in Oregon City visiting with her sister Mary Thomas.

Irent Boje was home from Salem over the week-end visiting with her parents and friends.

Mrs. Phoebe Weaver of Portland, came Thursday of last week to spend several days with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoffman.

Mrs. Esther Gamstone attended Grand Lodge at many last week, as delegate of the Rebekah lodge. She reports a very fine session, and very largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Calvert and Mr. and Mrs. Calvert spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Calvert. Percy held down his old position on first base in the ball game Sunday afternoon in the Donald-Hubbard game and fully enjoyed it too.

Oscar Nendel, of Woodburn, who was reported three weeks ago to have dislocated his hip when jumping from a truck to keep it from being thrown, has not made satisfactory progress and was taken to Salem Tuesday to have an x-ray made of the hip to learn its exact condition. Dr. Weaver accompanied him to Salem.

Full announcement of the special school booster meeting called by the local Parent-Teacher Association for Friday evening, June the 3rd, will be given next week. Practical forethought has demanded a broad and complete campaign inaugurated, a preparedness campaign, that will meet the growing demand of our schools. Plan to attend the meeting.

DONALD-HUBBARD BALL TEAMS MEET

The ball game played on the local diamond Sunday afternoon between the fast teams mentioned above was won by the visiting nine after a hard battle.

Many rooters came with the visiting team and these with the more powerful home rooters kept the boys on nerves edge during the entire game.

The two teams are well matched as to the class of ball that they play and but for a number of poor plays made by the home boys in the first inning Hubbard would have captured her second game with Donald. The first game was played on the Donald diamond a week ago Sunday. The score at that game being five to three in favor of Hubbard, and the game played on the local school diamond being ten to nine in favor of the visitors. The home boys play Canby next Sunday, so we have been informed.

Mr and Mrs. G. N. Beck visited with Portland friends from Sunday to Tuesday.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

Saturday evening, May 20th, Hazel Mills was pleasantly surprised by fifty-six of her friends, who called on her unexpectedly. The party being in honor of her nineteenth birthday.

The young folks spent the evening in playing popular games while the older folks enjoyed music and a social good time.

A delightful supper was enjoyed at a late hour after which the guests departed. All present said that they had a good time. Miss Hazel received some pretty presents.

Frank Murk this week moved into the property recently purchased by him from A. Christen.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

H. N. Beck and J. E. Langdon were Portland visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Roberts of Portland are spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Braden.

Mrs. S. E. Hardeastle, formerly of Woodburn but now of Salem, spent Sunday evening in Hubbard, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Melvin.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Malone, Errol Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Christen Stauffer were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Garland, west of here.

Rev. Oscar Payne of Salem conducted services Sunday morning at the Methodist church for the pastor, Rev. Wm. Nicholl, who was called to Dayton that morning.

The recent operation at Portland upon Mrs. Guy Stryke for the removal of a cancerous growth from her right breast has been reported so successful that Mrs. Stryker was brought home this week. When removing the growth a muscle of the right arm from the shoulder to the elbow was removed.

The C. H. Cleaver residence now under remodeling on the Highway at G street is far enough along to give an impression of comfort and convenience when the work is completed. The barn on the north has been torn

Men Are the Housebuilders

Women the Homemakers

A WOMAN'S HOME reflects her soul. It bespeaks her inmost desires, her whims and fancies. One of life's keenest joys is in watching the woman convert a house into a HOME.

How much more will be the happiness—the reward—if besides living in a place made homelike under the spell of her own fancies she can feel that this place is really her HOME. Increased rent or other bug-a-boos which some day might have caused her to lose the results of her toil and care will hold no tears for her then. Homes of their own are not for the rich only, nor is the City the only place where you can have all of the modern conveniences. We can surprise you by showing you how easily it can be done.
