FORMER HUBBARD MAN
HEAD CALIFORNIA BANK

A number of Hubbard parties this week received a copy of the Long Beach, California Daily Telegram giving an account of an important change in the officers of the Exchange bank of that city. The account says:

A substantial amount of the capital stock of the Exchange National bank, comprising shares formerly held by Charles A. Wiley, W. J. Gardiner, W. J. Morrison and George L. Craig, has been purchased by Leo M. Meeker, from El Monte, who will succeed Mr. Wiley as president of that institution.

Mr. Meeker is president of the First National bank of Puente, the Puente Savings bank, and the First National bank of Garden Grove. J. R. Davis cashier of the First National bank of Ontario, will be associated with Mr. Meeker and will succeed Mr. Gardiner as cashier of the Exchange National after June 1.

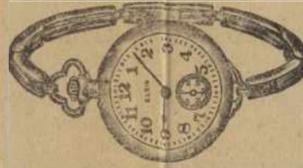

Mr. Meeker had been negotiating for some time with Messrs. Wiley, Gardiner, Morrison and Craig for the purchase of the stock and on yesterday the transaction was completed. At a special meeting of the board of directors to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William S. Stevens, and was elected as president of the bank to succeed Mr. Wiley.

Mr. Meeker, the new president of the Exchange National bank, was born and raised in Nebraska, and comes from a family who have been bankers in Eastern Nebraska for the last 40 years. He came to California several years ago and has been actively associated with banking institutions at Garden Grove, El Monte and Puente since that time. He is married and has one boy, and the family will remove to Long Beach at once from their suburban home of 100 acres on which they live two miles west of El Monte. His father, G. W. Meeker, a retired banker from Lincoln, Neb., is at present a resident of Alhambra, but probably will remove to Long Beach within a short time.

Mr. Meeker was formerly president of the State Bank of Hubbard, selling his interests here about five years ago.
