

THE LADIES BEHIND THE GUNS

to serve the fine spread August 17. With ten beautiful Campfire Girls these ALSO beautiful ladies "dished out the goodies and take it from us they worked and WORKED and WORKED: Mrs. Hal Hoss, Mrs. Ed Wolfer, Mrs. Gordon Taylor, Miss Frances Weaver, Mrs. George Knight, Mrs. Jerome Jackson, Mrs. George Leffler, Dr. Ethel Riley, Mrs. Alice Weaver, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. Jack Alexander, Mrs. Thomas Erharison, Mrs. Harry Hugill, Mrs. H. E. Adams, Mrs. Bertha Dillon and Mrs. S. L. Johnson.

And with them that "prince of good fellows, Jerome Jackson, (may we never lose him), who never stopped until the last cake was gone. We would have been in an awful fix without this fine group. Do we like you? Well, does Tippy Wolfer like candy?

WESTERN DAIRY PRODUCTS CO. BOOSTERS

The Western Dairy Products Co. of Salem through that fine type Kiwanian, Howard Hulsey, was a generous donor for our Clackamas-Marion meeting.

Their ice cream is the best made. "A turn about is fair play", so we are asking all of you to remember the Western Products Co. and ask for that ice cream when you are in the notion of ice cream. It can't be beat.

PINK AND LAVENDER CLUB

Mrs. Alice Weaver and daughter, Miss Frances, entertained the Pink and Lavender Club in a most hospitable manner at their home Thursday afternoon, August 16th. The guests assembled under the grand cedar tree making a setting of a real garden party. There were 33 members and 5 visitors present. Mrs. Adams, President.

MRS. ANNA SCHOLL GIVES WONDERFUL CAKE

Mrs. Anna Scholl of the Pink and Lavender Club donated a fine luscious cake to the Clackamas-Marion meeting. My! but those cakes were good. Thanks to Mrs. Scholl.

A BOOST

Read the editorial in the Oregon Daily Journal (Portland) August 20, "The New Epoch", in which the meeting at Hubbard is lauded. This advertising could not be bought. It is worth thousands of dollars in publicity. Is it not worth while then to work for your town and forget your selfish purposes? Gee! What a few public spirited men and women can do if they work together. The community spirit just means working together. No more; no less.

WM. BLIVEN RETURNS

William Bliven, the hustling representative for the Butteville Farmers' Fire Relief insurance Co., of Donald, is back on the job again and ready "to write you up". This company is the farmer's friend and has that splendid reputation of always living up to its agreement. Bill Bliven is well-known hereabouts and is as honest as the day. Just phone Mr. Bliven and he will visit you.

MR. SANDBLAST VISITS

Mr. and Mrs. Sandblast and family of Portland visited and dined with Mrs. George Speight, Sunday. They visited the Mineral Springs and Mr. Sandblast was more than surprised at the improvements.

HOWARD PEMBLE IS DRIVER

Howard Pemble is substituting for Joe Weaver on the truck and Joe could not have chosen a better man. Howard is popular, careful and strictly honest. The business is safe in Howard's hands.

CHARLIE EILERS FINE PEACHES

You have just got to see them to realize how wonderful they are. The finest Crawfords we have ever seen are at Charlie Eilers peach farm near Aurora.

Fear for British Oaks

Britain's most noble tree—the oak—is being rapidly depleted by a mysterious epidemic, which is engaging the attention of research workers on the forest commission. Mildew, together with the rover moth, is responsible for the disease, which has spread over the southern counties of England. The only oaks being grown to replenish the national supply are those planted by the forestry commission.

JOE WEAVER GOES EAST

Joe Weaver, the Marion county truckman, left with his fine family for a trip East last Saturday. He expects to be away until January 1. Joe is one of those likeable fellows you hate to see go for he is a "booster" and worker. During his absence Howard Pemble will be in charge of the truck business. Miss Agnes Weaver will drive 1000 miles with her uncle to meet her folks. The children will enter school at Goshen, Indiana. Have a good time "Joe" and REMEMBER old Hubbard wants you back again.

A 76-YEAR-OLD HELPER

Mrs. Thomas Erkarison, mother of Mrs. John Moore and Mrs. Harry Hugill, was one our best workers at the Community meet. God bless her and may she be working when she reaches a hundred. She kept those fine workers, Mrs. Jack Alexander of Portland and Harry Hugill's good wife, "a stepping." We can't thank you enough ladies and only hope we may be able some day to reciprocate. You know the number, ring it.
