Remember that the Register club with all papers of Portland.

Nels Larson, the butcher, of Mayger, visited Houlton and the county seat on Tuesday.

S. H. Freeman, of Deer Island, was a pleasant caller at our sanctum last Monday morning.

Sheriff White says it is a sty on his eye. Guess he must be right about it. It looks bad enough to baptize a black eye.

Morgus of the New York store at St. Helens is offering special inducements for cash trade. See him for fine premium dishes.

Mrs. James Grant was a caller at our sanctum Tuesday and added the name of Mrs. Matilda Stumpf, of Scappoose, to our subscription list.

We notice a very pleasant smile on the faces of the Cooperage people, both employes and those interested in the plant. Guess it is because of rains in Oregon.

Mad Malcom, of Rainier, was seen wondering around aimlessly on the streets of Houlton Tuesday morning. He came over to kill time, as there was nothing doing until court met at St. Helens.

The old opera house of St. Helens has been moved and is rapidly being transformed into a hotel to accommodate the public. When completed it will be one of the best in the county.

W. P. Tucker returned from Yaquina last Friday. His father, Thomas Tucker, came up for a short visit with his children. Mrs. Allen Robinson is the daughter of Mr. Tucker.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found two tabulated statements of educational data, compiled by our efficient county school superintendent, which will be of interest to all patrons of the public schools of the county.

Matt Englert, of Scappoose, was in Houlton last Saturday. He said that the dairymen up in that end of the county had about finished putting in their crop of ensilage for winter use. The West's and Mr. Higglee put up about 100 acres of corn. This is the largest crop for them since going into business.

McAllen & McDonnell, the well-known exclusive dry goods house of Portland, have seen fit to place a large ad with the Register for this month, and it is our especial desire that our readers take advantage of the many bargains they are now offering. Do not expect to find a brass band or a concert to entertain you while in their establishment. Their prices and way of doing business is sufficient to make it interesting and worth your while when in Portland to go and see them. For twenty-five years—a quarter of a century—they have done business at the old stand, corner of Third and Morrison. This is not a department store where you can buy a crowd bar or a darning needle—but it is an exclusive dry goods house, carrying only such lines of goods as is usual in houses of this class. They buy in larger lots than do any other dry goods house in the city of Portland; in fact, they are the only exclusive dry goods in the city. They do not keep a big retinue of clerks and a large number of pages and floor walkers—but those they have are efficient and accommodating, and can be depended upon. If our readers will make it a point to mention having seen this advertisement of their house it will confer a great favor on us and will also assist you as a passport to some of their best bargains.

Phoenix like, St. Helens Lodge No. 117, I. O. O. F., has arisen from its ashes and promises to outstrip itself by way of interest and usefulness. At the last session of the lodge the matter of purchasing paraphernalia and furniture and all the supplies necessary to put the lodge back in as good or better condition than it was before it was taken. An order for nearly $600 worth of paraphernalia and about $300 worth of furniture has been placed and as soon as it arrives the lodge will be itself again, only it will have renewed its youth. The regular meeting nights is the second and fourth Saturday of each month.

The Northern Pacific freight train last Saturday morning killed a fine Durham cow for ye editor, and now the little editors will have to go without milk until we can rustle up new subscriptions enough to pay for another. The same freight it was which killed a valuable cow for Will Mellinger a short time since. The state law should be so amended that all trains should run at not to exceed ten miles an hour through any switch where it is unfenced, no matter whether it is within the incorporated limits of a city or town, or otherwise.

Mr. Conboy and family, lately from Goble, have rented the Pullen house in Rainier and have moved thereto.

Mrs. Edith Clark, of Rainier, visited Portland, Tuesday.

Miss Jessie Mitchell was home from her school over Saturday.

Stop that cough with compound syrup White Pine and Tar. For sale by A. J. Denning, druggist, St. Helens.

Capt. C. I. Hoogkirk and wife, of Rainier, visited Seaside this week. The captain went as a delegate to the Knights of Pythias grand lodge.

H. F. Kilby, of Apiary, was up attending court the first of this week. He says the rains, though late, will do considerable good on the range in that locality.

While in Rainier Wednesday morning we noticed extensive decorations at the new residence of Robert Yount. We understand that Miss Daisy Silva and P. A. Archer were married last evening.

The Rainier Grange meat market is closed. It appears that there is not room for more than two shops in that city at present. Mr. Brown says he is enjoying a good trade, while Mr. Rice says his trade is much better than he had expected.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO APPLY FOR LIQUOR LICENSE TO ALL PERSONS CONCERNED.

YOU AND EACH OF YOU WILL TAKE NOTICE that I, John Freeman will on the 21 day of October, 1911, at a special term of the County Court of Columbia County, State of Oregon, apply for a license to sell spirituous, vinous, and malt liquors and hard cider in quantities less than one gallon for a period of six months, in the Village of Scappoose, Precinct, Columbia County, Oregon; which application will be based upon the following petition:

PETITION.
In the county court in the State of Oregon, for Columbia County, in the matter of the application of John Freeman for a license to sell spirituous, malt or vinous liquors and fermented cider in quantities less than a gallon. To the Hon. Court of the county of Columbia and State of Oregon:
We, the undersigned legal voters and residents of Scappoose Precinct, in Columbia County, State of Oregon, and who have actually resided in said Precinct thirty days prior to the signing and filing of this petition, would respectfully petition your Hon. Body at an adjourned session of the said court, to be held on the 21 day of October, 1911, in the Village of Scappoose, in said Columbia County, State of Oregon, and that such license be issued to said John Freeman for a period of six months from the 21 day of October, 1911, all of which your petitioners will ever pray.

John K. Carney, the postoffice clerk, Sundayed at his home in Portland.

Ed. James, of the Gem saloon, added his name to the Register list this week. He said he wanted a good, live paper.

Michael Pieters was too ill to attend this term of court and is still confined in the St. Vincent hospital at Portland.

Mrs. Rose and her daughter Florence were in Houlton the first of the week attending to some matters before the court at St. Helens.

R. Sesseman is doing some fine work for the Odd Fellows and K. of P. societies at St. Helens in helping to fit up their new hall.

John Maynard, of Fishhawk, was a visitor in our town Tuesday night. He and Al Blackford, of Clatskanie, interested the waiting passengers on the down train by a lively discussion of political matters from the Socialistic point of view.

Mr. Wm. Fisher, the logger of Rhiperson's Slough, and Mrs. Minnie Adams, of Rainier, were married in Portland last Saturday. They are both well and favorably known in this county. The Register wishes them much joy and a prosperous voyage through life.

R. P. Burns, of Beaver Valley, attended court as a juror the first of the week. He says Mrs. Burns' health is greatly improved. A short time since she was taken to Portland to the hospital for treatment, and it will be good news for her friends to learn of her recovery.

A. L. Clark, the popular painter and paper hanger of Rainier, is just completing the work of painting, papering and decorating Joseph Brown's new residence at Rainier. The old Gazette building has been transformed into a very handsome residence. And Mr. Brown has a convenient place in which to live.

George Rice, who has lived in the Nehalem for the last ten or fifteen years, is making preparations to move out with his family. George has the contract for carrying the mail from Vernonia to Houlton. He can handle his contract and live at this end of the route as easy as living at the other.

About ten years ago S. Saulser planted out some English Walnuts on the place owned by George Case. A few days since he brought to this office a handful of very fine walnuts as the first fruits of the trees. The trees received little or no cultivation until within the last year or two. The crop this year will not be large but it will be sufficient to demonstrate that with proper care walnuts may be profitably grown here, and will take but a few years to begin to be profitable trees.
