PEN, PASTE AND SCISSORS.

1905 opens next Thursday.

President Roosevelt will press the button.

The man who has "nothing to arbitrate" is usually in the wrong.

Plenty of rain—enough to satisfy even a web-footed Oregonian.

Republican reform of the tariff continues to do a remarkable stunt of Patcrowning.

It appears that neither Mr. Hyde nor Mr. Alexander are quite big enough to hold down the lid on the Equitable scandal.

The terrible Cossacks have again pulled off a great victory. They attacked a procession of peaceable laborers and killed hundreds.

The packers are elevating the price of dressed beef, which fact indicates that the packers misunderstood the real views of the people concerning the Garfield report.

Mr. Shonts says that the canal will be built on the same principle as a railroad. Does this mean the investment of $3 for water for every dollar invested in actual work?

A leader in New York society recently gave a "clown dinner" at the Waldorf-Astoria. The attendance was large and thoroughly representative of the Four Hundred.

Secretary Morton's friends announce that he is not the man to "retire under fire." That is a bit of mock heroics usually indulged in by the man who has been "caught with the goods."

The people will notice that the price of wheat was high while the farmers had no wheat to sell, and that it suddenly dropped before the farmers had an opportunity to raise a new crop.

Viewing the announcement that Senator Warner's election cost $27.80 and Senator Frazier's cost $11.50, "Gas" Addicks is thinking of appointing a committee to investigate and learn how it was done.

The little difference between Secretary Morton and Secretary Taft on the rate regulation question indicates that President Roosevelt is determined to have at least a part of his cabinet on the right side of the question.

An exchange on our table says: "The Astorian makes a more hellish charge against Heney and his co-workers in the prosecution of Mitchell and Herman than any that have ever been brought against those under indictment; that the jury list (to try these men) has been confided to Mr. Heney, and that he has his secret service agents out looking up these men whose names are on this list, and insure also that the knowledge thus gained is to be used by the prosecuting officers against these defendants.' Well, it is none of our affair, but if the statement is true, steps should be taken to remove Heney and draw a new jury. A fair deal will do no harm, gentlemen.

The Elko Quartette for Rainier

Rainier, Oregon, May 22, 1905.

It gives us great pleasure to announce that we are at last enabled to present to the music-loving public of Rainier the second of a series of musical entertainments.

On Saturday evening, June 3rd, 1905, through the efforts of The Ladies of the Maccabees of The World, will appear the celebrated Elko Ladies' Quartette, of Portland, Oregon, under the able direction of Miss Kathryn Linehan. This quartette is a musical aggregation of exceptional merit, composed of Miss Lina Linehan, Miss Stella Linehan, Miss Kathryn Ligean and Miss Anna English.

Aside from the rendition of a musical program, extraordinarily meritorious, Miss Stella Linehan will appear as a reader, also delineating and impersonating child characters. Miss Anna English will render some selections on the violin, which she handles with much ease and grace. The press is unanimous in its praise of the Elko Quartette, placing them second to none as entertainers.

In sending you and a few others advance notice, we feel sure we are reaching the more intelligent and appreciative people. And in this manner we hope to come in contact with, and interest those whom we fell will embrace this opportunity to witness a program of so meritorious a nature.

General admission will be 35 cents. Reserved seats, 50 cents. Trusting you will be enabled to be with us on Saturday evening, June 3, 1905, and fully believing you will enjoy hearing the Elko Ladies' Quartette, we beg to remain,

Yours very truly,
Rainier Hive No. 20,

Ladies of The Maccabees of The World.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which falls of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kauble, of Nevada, O., says: "I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me."
