THE UNCONSCIOUS PHILOSOPHER.

I ain't no philosopher, like some people say I am. Philosophy won't fall a tree, an' it never broke a jam. I ain't figured out no law for to run the universe; I take things just as they be, be they better, be they worse. Livin' up here in the woods with the sky an' sun an' trees Won't make any fellah wise, make him any Socrates. Be they better, be they worse, I take things just as they be. An' I try to be content--thet there's my philosophy.

If a tree should crooked grow, grunts'll never straighten it. If an ax ain't hung just right, words'll never make it fit. If it snows when it should rain, if it rains when it should snow. Prays or cusses's never changed any weather thet I know. We kin only hope for snow just to keep the roads alive, We kin only hope for rain when we're ready for the drive. When the road is gittin' bare an' old mother earth you see, Then a shovel beats a prayer--thet there's my philosophy.

Other folks has worldly goods, I'm as poor as Dago's monk; But I git my thirty bones, get my grub and get a bunk. Other folks ride grunt-machines; when I travel I must walk; But you can't wish money in, no one gives you coin for talk. I don't cuss because I'm broke, I don't holler at the rich. Some is rich and some is poor; what's the matter which is which? I'm a reg'lar millionaire, I'm as rich as any be, If I'm only satisfied--thet there's my philosophy.

Some folks long for fame and such, long to mingle with the 'great, Long to hold some fancy job while the public pays the freight. I don't long to be no king, long to be no senator. When the mighty sit to dine, I ain't hangin' round the door. I ain't tryin' much to teach, I ain't tryin' much to learn; I try to do what's right--then I never give a dern. Be they better, be they worse, I take things just as they be, An' I try to be content--thet there's my philosophy.

There ain't no iron railings there, your feet and grass between; In the woods a bird is singin'--spillin' joy to beat the cars-- An' he ain't no sick canary cheepin' mournful through the bars. In the woods the sun is shinin', siftin' softly through the trees; In the woods the sweetest perfume travels on the mornin' breeze; In the woods the flowers are peepin' from their little velvet hoods-- Oh, there ain't no spring whatever like the springtime in the woods!--
American Timberman.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters which cured me and have kept me well for eleven." Sure cure for biliousness, neuralgia, weakness and all stomach, liver, kidney and bladder derangement. A wonderful tonic. 50 cents. PERRY & GRAHAM.

Attempt to Assassinate.

While walking down an unfrequented street at 5:30 this afternoon, W. C. Fischer a prominent lawyer and assistant editor of the Advance, the local Anti-Saloon League publication, was struck from behind by an unknown man and knocked to the ground. The blow, apparently from a slugsnot, dazed Mr. Fischer, and as he attempted to rise his assailant rained repeated blows on his face, either with the slugsnot or the toe of his shoe.

Joe Brough, bartender for Miles Sheerin, in company with one or two other men, is said to have been on the Blanchard dock about 100 feet away from the place where the assault was made. These men are supposed to have seen the blows struck as they had an unobstructed view.

Without offering any aid to the victim, who was in a dazed condition, Brough hurried up town and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mr. Fischer on a charge of using profane language. Later Brough was arrested on a charge of complicity in the assault on Mr. Fischer, with intent to kill.

J. W. Wilkinson, principal of the public schools, circulated a paper among the business men late this afternoon.

FOR BOTH

One disease of thinness in children is scrofula; in adults, consumption. Both have poor blood; both need more fat. These diseases thrive on leanness. Fat is the best means of overcoming them; cod liver oil makes the best and healthiest fat and is the easiest and most effective form of cod liver oil. Here's a natural order of things that shows why Scott's Emulsion is of so much value in all cases of scrofula and consumption. More fat, more weight, more nourishment, that's why.

and the sum of $100 was subscribed as a reward for the arrest of the perpetrator of the assault.

Since his arrival in Rainier, the first of last October, Rev. H. G. Kemp has waged active war on the saloons which have openly violated the Sunday closing law. To further this work the Advance was established, of which Mr. Kemp is the editor and Mr. Fischer the assistant editor. An Anti-Saloon League of 30 members, in which are a number of the prominent business men of the town has also been organized.

Three weeks ago the saloons were closed on Sunday, and last Monday eight saloon keepers were arrested on the charge of allowing gambling in their places. All were found guilty in the Justice Court and they were fined $10 each and costs. A writ of review was taken to the Circuit Court.

Rev. Mr. Kemp says it has been currently reported that $40 would be paid anyone who would administer a thrashing to him or Mr. Fischer.

Mr. Fischer is badly cut up about the head and face. He says he did not see the thug who struck him from behind. He had no intimation he was followed until he felt the blow on top of his head. Then, as he attempted to rise, the thug either kicked him in the face or struck him repeated blows on the face with the slugsnot.

There is great indignation here over the affair.--Oregonian.

A republican committee consisting of three doctors two merchants, one lawyer and a number of candidates for political pie met in St Helens last Saturday and bought a barrel for contributions from the state committee. It is said the boys chipped in enough to see that the barrel would hold.
