A bar tender in Rainier was exceedingly shocked when he heard profanity used in his presence the other day.

A business man in Rainier stated to us a short time ago that since he had been in the county that he was safe in saying that the saloons had cost him not less than $25,000 and he is not nor never has been a drinking man.

Rev. C. W. Stewart, pastor of the Methodist church Bay City, Or, spent the week visiting his parents here. He returned to his field of labor Saturday morning. He is meeting with marked success in his new field of labor.
