Go to the furniture store and see the 25 and 35 cent matting.
Captain A. S. Blowers was at The Dalles Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left for Olympia Thursday.
It is expected that some of our mills will start up about March 1st.
Senator J. H. Hunscher was here Monday enroute to Olympia.
We have baled hay for sale at $16 per ton, Blowers & Crowell.
Miss Lilly Richardson made this office a pleasant call Monday.
Mrs. M. E. Loy bought lot 4 of block 21 of the Townsite Co., Thursday.
J. R. Martin our former night agent here was up from Portland Sunday.
Mr. C. A. Bell visited us yesterday and the GLACIER will return his visits weekly.
A new boxcar of seats' furnishing goods received this week at Hanna & Ziegler's.
Hanna & Ziegler have just received a new boxcar of lemons, oranges and confectionery.
A. J. Hoyt of Purlevy was here Monday looking after his interests in some lumber purchases.
Grant Evans returned from Portland Tuesday where he has been for the past two or three months.
If you want to purchase some fine pictures or elegant looking chairs, see them at S. E. Bartness' furniture store.
J. L. Langille was engaged Tuesday in building a fence across the block in which Blowers & Crowell's store stands.
Monday was busy day at Mr. John Stoddard's mills which leaves several thousand dollars in circulation in the valley.
There will be a dance at Mr. Chas. Chandler Monday night the 23rd inst. All are invited and a good social time is anticipated.
Hanna & Ziegler have added to their school and dress suits and extra pants to their stock. Call and price before purchasing elsewhere.
Mr. Jud Ferguson has returned to stay, and is prepared to do all kinds of repairing in the jewelry line. Clocks and watches a specialty.
A nice lot of fresh butter just received at Blowers & Crowell's. Try a roll and be convinced that they make good butter at LaGrande.
Charley Haight of The Dalles has had a beautiful robe made of bear skins captured by Wm. Stewart and himself last fall at Mr. Stump's place.
Robert McLean purchased of Mr. Watson of The Dalles a fine large span of horses for logging purpose which were brought down overland by Mr. Watson Monday.
Mrs. Allen Lloyd of Kent Washington arrived here Monday to see her mother Mrs. Snow, who has been very sick, but we are glad to state is getting well again.
The latest novelty out is the "Matchless Repeating Air Gun." Shoots B. B. shot of any kind. Once loading prepares you for 66 shots. For sale at the Furniture store.
Joseph A. Wilson took the plats of the blocks in Parkhurst, laid off in town lots by Messrs. MacEachern & MacLeod and C. G. Roberts, to The Dalles Friday morning.
Eastern mails have been delayed for the past two weeks from one to ten hours every day on account of the show on the Pocotello division. There is an immense amount of snow in the Blue mountains.
Found a G. A. R. watch charm or locket near the residence of J. F. Reichard who is living on the Wickerson place. The owner can have the same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.
Lost in Columbia hall or between there and Mrs. Esther Backus' place a white and old gold silk handkerchief. The finder will oblige by leaving the same at the post office or at the residence of Esther Backus.

The building on Oak street to be occupied by S. E. Bartness as a furniture store will be finished by the first of the month. It will present a very neat appearance when finished and add to the looks of the street greatly.
Mr. W. J. Smith and family came up from Astoria Friday last week on a visit and returned home Thursday. Mr. Smith paid the office a pleasant call and two big dollars while here. Dorance Smith is at present in Astoria.
R. J. Ellis lost fifteen laying hens this week by their eating shorts which by some means contained poison. The shorts had been in the bottom of the feed box for a long time but he can't account for the poison getting into it.
Mrs. Haynes was in town Tuesday looking after her building. She was not satisfied with the height of the foundation and had it lowered two feet. The frame work is nearly all up and the building will be completed as rapidly as the weather will permit.
The property owners on River street turned out Tuesday and Wednesday and trimmed the trees along the street, and commenced clearing and grading the same. They propose putting the street in first-class condition, from Second to the Waukesha line, or to Mr. Perry's house.
Congregational services for Feb. 22, 1891. Services in the valley Congregational church at 11 a. m. In Columbia hall by Riverside Congregational church at 7 p. m. Subject: one way of success in life. Text: John, 2:5. Whatever He saith unto you do it. F. M. Aunks, pastor.
The end party last Saturday night at K. of P. hall was a very pleasant affair; those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Berdan, Mrs. Klein, Mrs. Armstrong, Misses Perry, Georgia Smith, Cowperthwaite, and Messrs. L. Neff, Curran, Walling, Hunt, Buck, Bone Prather and McLean.
An eight horse team hauling the boiler for the wash and door factory arrived in Thursday morning from Parker's mill. The Townsite company have given the Stranahan Bros. a lease of the lots where the factory stands for two years, with the privilege of buying them at the end of that time at a stated sum.
One day this week some dogs chased three deer into the Columbia on the White Salmon side, which were seen by an Indian and having his boat and gun near started in pursuit. He fired several shots at them missing them, and in the mean time had paddled up so near to the last one that he could have caught it by the ears and cut its throat but did not seem to think of this, but kept trying to reload the gun. When this was accomplished the deer had made good their escape going up the bank and disappearing near the Stanley place.
A pleasant party at Mr. A. S. Blowers' residence Wednesday evening was attended by the following friends: Mrs. Perry, James, Harri, Klein, Armstrong and Yates. The Misses Kendricks and Groshom, Misses Middleton, Perry, Bush and Feuley; and Messrs. J. B. Hunt, A. S. Blowers, Paul Wallin, A. B. and Frank Jones, Chas. Early, Frank York, Will Rankin, C. R. Bone, D. E. Rand, L. Hedington, D. A. Jones, and Will Yates. The evening was spent in dancing, games etc., and a most excellent lunch was served. The farewells were not said until 2 o'clock Thursday morning.
Captain A. S. Blowers appointed the following officers last week for G. Company: L. N. Blowers, 1st, Sergeant, Sergeants James B. Hunt, Chas. Early, Wm. L. Donoho, Wm. Yates, Eph. Williams, Corporals Robt. McLean, E. Ollinger, L. E. Morse, Frank Neff, Treasurer Ed Miller, Recruiting Committee Lieutenant A. Winans, A. Oiler C. L. Morse. The boys are turning their whole attention to drilling, using at present the hall over Blowers & Crowell's store for that purpose, but expect to drill there for the last time tonight, having rented the building now occupied by S. E. Bartness as a furniture store. This building they will use until they are able to build an Armory which we hope will be in the near future. Col. Houghton was here from The Dalles Saturday and says the equipments will arrive in a day or two. The Company will give a Military ball in the near future. Saturday night has been fixed for regular drill.

CORVALLIS, Or., Feb. 19, 1891.

EDITOR GLACIER:
The GLACIER reaches this place every week, and you may be sure it is always welcome, and read with eagerness. The editorial in the issue of January 31st, seemed only a repetition of our own thoughts, and was appreciated by us, only as these can appreciate who have drunk in the pure refreshing mountain air, and joined in the sports of hunting and fishing, afforded by the wooded hills and the pure clear streams flowing from hoary Hood.
Thinking over the past good times we have spent in the valley, we rejoice to know that in four short months we will again shoulder our gun and rod and spend a delightful week or so in the heart of the Cascades. Too much credit can not be given to Hood River as a summer resort, and it is evident that it is fast becoming the popular resort and everywhere one can hear inquiries in regard to its climate, and the productiveness of its soil. In regard to the winters they will compare very favorably with the winters of the Willamette valley. But for mud Hood River is far behind. The mud here is of an adhesive quality, so much so that it has been said, "A thief trying to make his escape," in some time past, "could not be tracked the mud being so sticky that the tracks all stuck to his feet." In this part of the Willamette valley a brisk thriving business seems to be a thing of the past, and only old remnants remain as mementoes of the days of '49.
The Oregon Agricultural College is the main feature of this place.

There are at present about 180 scholars enrolled. It is under excellent management, and bids fair to become the leading school of the state in the near future. It has just received an appropriation of $25,000 which was much needed to improve the buildings and grounds. Speaking of a college brings to mind the excellent advantages Hood River has for an institution of that kind, and also the fact that the state is in need of another college, and very much so indeed, as all the state colleges are now crowded.
This place will no doubt be much duller the coming week as the employees of the Oregon Pacific railroad struck Feb. 13th. The company are four months behind with their pay hence the strike.
Well Mr. Editor it is rather hard on our constitutions to stay in this place after having lived in Hood River so long, but hope to return in June.
Yours Truly,
ALPHA AND OMEGA.
DIED.
At Maria B. C. Thursday Feb. 19, Marlan, wife of Dr. C. E. Newcomb, aged about 30 years.
Dr. and Mrs. Newcomb resided here a number of years and the entire community is their friend. The bereaved husband and motherless little ones have the tenderest sympathies of this neighborhood in their sad affliction. Mrs. Newcomb was a cousin of Mr. George Mathias of this place, who left Friday to attend the funeral.
From the Dalles Chronicle.
License to wed was issued to R. Prather and Mrs. M. J. Huskey, both of Hood River. A few days ago Mrs. Huskey's son was married to Mr. Prather's daughter. This is entirely a family affair, and by a happy stroke of policy prevents a multiplicity of mother-in-law.
Although it has been kept secret and is still trying to be, we have known for several days that coal of good quality had been discovered near the Deschutes. On M. D. Adams' place near the head of the grade the other side of the Deschutes free bridge is a well. It has been noticed for some time that when the water got low in this well stock refused to drink it. The Adams boys concluded to examine into it and cutting through a ledge of red rock, discovered an excellent quality of coal. It is impossible to say yet how valuable their find is as they have not cut through the vein, but the coal is there, and tests show that it burns freely. This is the most important discovery ever made in this section, if the quantity is there and there seems to be no doubt of it.
It is probable now that Judge Webster can be persuaded to remain here until the docket is cleared. A bill passed recently gives his district an extra judge and this will make it possible for him to remain here.
The following railroad cases were settled in court Friday by the railroad company paying $2000 each and costs: John J. Faherty, Ingelborg Freight, Thomas Coyle and Henry Restorff.
George P. Morgan and E. W. Nevins have opened an office in the store formerly occupied by Mr. Garretson as a jewelry store, on Second street, next door to George Ruch's grocery store, and are prepared to make all papers for filings or entries either upon the forfeited lands or government lands of any sort. They will act as attorneys in contests, hearings and land law cases of every description. Both these gentlemen are ex-clerks of the U. S. land office at The Dalles, and certainly possess the requisite knowledge and experience. Call and see them when you go to The Dalles on land business.
"Lohengrin" in Paris.
Nearly the whole of an act of "Lohengrin" has at last been performed at the Grand Opera, but the trick was managed in such a way that no Chauvinistic prejudices could be hurt. It was announced that at the performance given for the benefit of M. Dumaine a duet from Wagner's opera would be sung by Mme. Caron and M. Vergnet. When the audience expected the two singers to come on in ordinary dress the conductor gave the signal for the orchestra to attack the first chord of the prelude to the third act.
The curtain then rose on the bridal choral, and this finished. Elsa and Lohengrin were left on the stage to sing the most interesting and the most impassioned love duet that has ever been written. Now that an attempt has been made to reverse the sentence passed upon Tannhauser five and twenty years ago at the Opera, and to make amends for the brutal treatment of "Lohengrin" at the Eden theatre, it is to be hoped that the hundreds who applaud Wagner at the Sunday concerts week after week and year after year may at length have a chance of hearing his masterpiece at the French Academy of Music.—Paris Cor. London Telegraph.
Grew Over 100 Feet in Nineteen Years.
Monday morning the tall blue gum tree standing at the northeast corner of German Senter's house was cut down. A careful measurement of the tree showed it to be about 115 feet high from the ground to the topmost branch. It was 4 feet in diameter and about 13 feet in circumference at the ground. We are informed by a Portuguese that he set the tree out nineteen years ago. Think of it! A tree only nineteen years old, 115 feet high and showing a diameter in proportion. The residents of that quarter watched the fall of the monarch with genuine regret, but its great height made the cutting of it down a necessity, as it was liable to break and fall on some of the residences around.—Santa Clara (Cal.) Journal.

A Sunday with a Country Doctor.
Sunday is a busy day for the doctor. A good many people put off being sick till Sunday, especially in laying time, and the calls began to come in early. So the narrow buggy went down the road and did not return till late. Sunday school was in session and the children sang:
"O my of all the week the best,
Lullaby of eternal rest."
A group of young women in white came out into the little burying ground, and through my open window I could hear gossip and laughter, as they picked their way among the gleaming white headstones. Then a party of ladies dressed in deep mourning appeared. Standing apart was a young couple chatting in a sheepish way.
A small girl, with curiosity abnormally developed, pretended to read the inscription on a tombstone near by, while she absorbed the conversation. The cabinet organ was played again, and the children with the older people in the church, sang "He will carry you through." The voice of good Dominie Thompson rolled out in stirring tones as he sought divine guidance and blessing for the beloved children of his flock—Frank French in Scribner's.
The Thinness of Gold.
Gold beaters, by hammering, can reduce gold leaves to such minute thickness that 222,000 must be laid upon each other to produce the thickness of an inch. Yet each leaf is so perfect and free from holes that one of them laid on any surface, as in gilding, gives the appearance of solid gold. They are so thin that if formed into a book 1,500 would only occupy the space of a single leaf of book paper. A single volume of a gold leaf book one inch in thickness would have as many pages as an entire library of 1,500 volumes of common books, even though the volumes averaged 400 pages each.—St. Louis Republic.
A physician has succeeded in grafting the skin of a frog to that of a tortoise, and the skin of a tortoise to that of a frog, and also in securing the growth of a frog's skin upon the skin of a man 54 years old. Bone grafting is not so far advanced, but has met with the same success as skin grafting.
Have lots of fun, laugh all you can and keep the sunshine in your heart if you want to be well, young and popular. The world hates a woman with a grievance. It pays to be honestly happy. There is absolutely no profit in being blue and very little sympathy attending it.
Olives by common consent are taken in the fingers, and it is also permissible to help one's self to cut sugar with the digits, although the use of the sugar tongs is preferable.
