BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Oil cloth at the furniture store.
Building paper at furniture store.
All land papers prepared at this office.
Read J. H. Ferguson's ad in this issue.
Rev. T. L. Elliot of Portland was here Monday.
Does S. B. get there? Well I should smile. S. B.
Coffins and undertakers supplies at the furniture store.
Furniture at Portland prices at S. E. Bartness' furniture store.
Grant Evans has a handsome sign, painting being done by George Mathias.
Mrs. C. H. Stranahan and the baby arrived home from Portland Wednesday.
Last Friday night Perry & Jones new hall was dedicated the occasion being a dance.

Blowers & Crowell's stock of dry goods have arrived. Call in and see them.
Mrs. C. W. Wells will start on her return home June 1st arriving here the 4th.
We noticed several crates of berries at the depot Thursday evening marked Butte, Montana.

Mr. Charles Ross who is employed at the Cascade Locks, visited his place here Sunday.
M. V. Harrison has a practical tinner, who is prepared to do all work in his line on short notice.

Will Langille will take charge of Cloud Cap June 1st, and visitors can follow as soon as they please.
Mrs. John Filson of The Dalles, and Miss Bettie Chappelle of Goldendale, visited friends here Monday.

Mrs. Rhoda Johnson of Tillamook, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Haynes, and will remain until sometime in June.
The Columbia is now nearly as high as any time last year, Hood River being backed to the railroad bridge.

T. R. Coon made the first shipment of strawberries to Portland Friday night last. They sold for 40 cents a box.
Mrs. W. H. Search, wife of conductor Search, visited friends here during the week, and went to The Dalles Wednesday.

The Stranahan Bros. are putting up the shelving in the Langille building, and Mr. Hanna will move into it by the first of the month.
L. H. Adams, McAlpine, the Portland photographer, Will Langille, and perhaps Mr. Ladd of Portland will visit Lost Lake Monday.

Don't listen to what the neighbors say, but come and see for yourself. A beautiful antique maple bedroom set for $23.00, at the furniture store.
Mr. E. M. Sealey of Chenoweth, was in town Wednesday, and made us a pleasant call. The GLACIER will be a constant visitor at his home hereafter.

For any one purchasing ten dollars worth of furniture of me, I will deliver the same at landing free of charge.
S. E. BARTNESS.

The U. B. church is nearly completed and will be dedicated June 21st. Bishop J. W. Hott assisted by bishop N. Castle, will conduct the services.
J. L. Ziegler and family will move to Eugene next week. Their many friends here regret their departure and send their best wishes along with them.

The public will please take notice that the following stores will close May 30 at 9 o'clock a. m. M. V. Harrison, Blowers & Crowell, Rand Dent & Co., J. E. Hanna.
Mr. Henry Hibbard and family, who have been living in Klickitat county, Wash. for nearly a year arrived here Thursday, and went out to their farm. They all come back.

Mr. Van Johnson always remembers the printer, and Thursday presented us a fine lot of strawberries. We looked at the Portland quotations for Hood River berries, and fed like a millionaire.
Mrs. Alpheus Smith and son of Chicago, who came to visit their uncle, Mr. Wm. Foss, went to The Dalles on the boat Wednesday evening, accompanied by Miss Ida. On their return Thursday morning Miss Ida landed at home while the rest went on to San Francisco.

The remarkably cool weather has caused our berries to ripen slowly, yet as heretofore we had the first in the market from Oregon. This is a comment on our climate situate as we are in the heart of the Cascade mountains, that needs no endorsement in printers ink.
We are selling glassware and crockery cheaper than it was ever sold in this place. We have a full line of fruit jars, and we are selling 2 quart Mason jars complete, at $1.50 per doz., 1 quart $1.20 per doz. Perfection, qts. $1.40 per doz. all other goods correspondingly low. Call and get quotations on sugar. The fact is we will not be understood by anyone who does business on business principals. BLOWERS & CROWELL.

The Mt. Hood hotel under the efficient management of Mr. and Mrs. Harbert is crowded to its utmost capacity. George expects the addition to be completed by the first of June, and this will give him much needed room.

When the first shipment of Hood River strawberries reached Portland they sold for forty cents a box, while the California berries were selling at fifteen cents. The last quotation of our berries was thirty cents per box.

The strawberry crop this year bids fair to be the best and largest ever raised here, and the prices will no doubt equal those of last year. If so some of our patches will yield well up towards $1,000 worth to the acre. This looks like a big figure but we believe it is not far out of the way.

The GLACIER would like to have a correspondent in every neighborhood, not only on this side of the river, but at White Salmon, Trout Lake, Gilmer, Cammas prairie and Chenoweth and points across the Columbia. We want local news, and not essays, for we have not room for the latter.

The regular May term of the District court meets at The Dalles Monday. The following jurors are on the panel from this section: D. G. Hill, Robert Hand, J. R. Rankin, F. R. Absten, H. C. Cox, J. J. Gibbon, D. C. Crapper, S. R. Husbands, and D. A. Hamilton, Cascades.

Blowers & Crowell have just placed an order direct with the manufacturer in Boston for $3,000 worth of boots and shoes, thereby cutting off the commission paid middlemen, and will give their customers the advantage of it. Will retail at Portland wholesale prices. When the goods arrive call and be convinced.

Mr. T. J. Watson is advertising Idlewild thoroughly, and in doing so is giving Hood River a very good send off. We understand from him that as soon as possible, probably Sunday the last day of this month an excursion train will be run from Portland to this place. If so, the visitors will see the prettiest place in Oregon.

Mr. Watson informs us that as soon as the title to Waucoma is transferred to him, he will throw it open and lay out and grade River street through to Idlewild. This will be a great improvement and will add to the value of both properties. He also tells us he will build a big hotel during the summer. Fifteen acres near the spring are to be reserved but whether for hotel purposes or not we cannot say.

Math., 14, 31. Oh ye of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt, is the text for the sermon of the Congregational church services which will be held in the U. B. church Sunday, May 24th at 7:45 p. m., instead of Armory hall. This change is to avoid unnecessary labor in returning seats to the hall on Sunday. Valley services at 11 a. m. all are cordially invited. F. M. Aunks Pastor.

Mr. T. J. Watson and his attorney Mr. Perry came up from Portland Wednesday for the purpose of completing the transfer of the Waucoma property from Capt. H. C. Cox to Watson, but owing to the fact that some Portland property is a part of the consideration, and the Captain wanted to examine the title the matter was postponed until Friday. Captain and Mrs. Cox went to Portland Thursday night to attend to the matter.

Issue Jokes of The Dalles, so says the Chronicle went fishing Saturday morning, and came home Saturday night with a fine specimen of gold bearing quartz. While it might be possible to find strings of quartz in the basalt near The Dalles, it would be about as hopeful a task to seek a mine of hot plum pudding or the lost Charley Ross. Looking for quartz in basalt is like shearing a pig for wool it is sheer nonsense.

Last Friday night Perry & Jones' new hall was crowded with the youth and beauty of Hood River, and dancing was kept up until after midnight. The hall is a very pretty one, though it was not finished at the time. The music was furnished by the Evans Bros. and a very pleasant time was had. It was probably the last dance of the season which assisted materially in augmenting the crowd.

We understand a gentleman is canvassing the valley and getting members for a purchasing society. The idea is that each member pays seven dollars membership fee, and this entitles him to purchase in Portland any article at the wholesale market quotations of the day. We know nothing of the merits of this particular company, but as a general thing the plan is not a practical one for the buyer. A trial however will demonstrate the merits of the plan, and if it is not all that is claimed for it its members can console themselves with the reflection that the Jack can't be turned every deal.

Death of William Odell.

William Odell died at his home on the east side last Friday evening at 7 o'clock. He had been under Dr. Van derpool's care at Dufur for several months, being treated for cancer, and about a month ago became partially paralyzed. Giving up all hope of being cured he was brought home, and although his death was momentarily expected he lived for nearly three weeks, suffering agony all the time, until death came to his relief. He was a native of Tennessee and came to Oregon in 1861, settling in this valley, and has resided here ever since. He was well known all over the county, and served a term as county commissioner. Mr. Odell was a man of generous impulses, a good neighbor, a true friend, and an honest and valuable citizen. He was in his 50th year, and leaves a wife and six children. The funeral took place last Sunday, Rev. Troy Shelly conducting the services.

Improved town lot for sale. Inquire at this office.

NOTICE.

Parties desiring to buy or trade for milk cows can be accommodated by calling at Newton Clark's place Monday May 25th, at noon, at which time Perry & Jones will have their cattle up.

A Beautiful Place.

Mr. Peter Stoller, of Trout lake, was here Wednesday and made us a pleasant call. Mr. Stoller owns a fine property situate at the outlet of Trout lake and thirty miles distant from the mouth of White Salmon. The country around the east side of the lake is level and is a vast meadow of timothy, which grows luxuriantly. The outlet is a good sized stream, and is filled with trout as is the lake which seems to be the breeding ground, and which makes the supply inexhaustible. The lake itself is shallow, and the greater portion grows a long moss which rises nearly to the surface and in which the trout find safe and pleasant shelter. It is a rare sight when a gentle breeze stirs the ripples in the lake to see the trout by thousands leaping from the water. The road up the White Salmon is an excellent one, and with the abundant pasturage, beautiful camping spots, fresh butter and milk from Mr. Stoller's dairy and unexcelled fishing and hunting, this is one of the most available and attractive places in which to take a few weeks outing on the coast. The wonderful ice caves are only five miles from his place, and his place is the best starting point for Mt. Adams, which is distant but a few miles. We advise our Portland friends who want a few weeks in the mountains to visit Trout lake. The route is by rail to this point, and by team from here to the lake.

Go to the furniture store and see the 25 and 35 cent matting.

Programme for Memorial Day.

G. A. R. Post will assemble at their hall at 9 o'clock a. m. all comrades who are able will march to cemetery escorted by Co. D. Third Regiment Infantry. Comrades unable to march, Ladies Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans all the schools and citizens generally will join the procession at corner in front of Mrs. Hull's place in charge of the Marshal of the day Capt. Dukes and proceed to the cemetery, where the regular service of the G. A. R. will be gone through with including firing salute by squad of Co. D after which each Sunday school in the valley will sing one selection each.

All decoration is left in the hands of the Ladies Relief Corps. As soon as services at cemetery are concluded all will repair to the grove near the school house and partake of dinner including hot coffee to be used in soldier style in camp kettles. Every one is requested to bring a big basket. After dinner there will be speaking by members of the G. A. R. Sons of Veterans, and speaking or reading by Relief Corps, and one selection will be sung by each public school in the valley, also declamations by several of the little children, all to conclude with singing America by the congregation.

By order of committee,
A. S. BLOWERS, Chairman.

Pictures framed to order at the furniture store.

G. A. R. Memorial Service.

Services will be held in Grace U. B. church tomorrow at 3 o'clock p. m. Following is the program of exercises: Singing Invocation. Scripture reading. Singing, "My Country 'tis of thee." Prayer. Announcements. Song—Anthem. Sermon. Song solo and chorus. "Give me the wing of faith." Singing—Doxology. Benediction. Gentlemen ushers will wait on the congregation.

Why cough, when S. B. will stop it.

The undersigned being located near Hood River, wishes to inform parties who may be desirous of having surveying done, that he is a practical surveyor of many years experience, and that work entrusted to him will be performed with dispatch and correctness. He takes pleasure in referring to Mr. A. S. Blowers, (who for years was county commissioner in Minnesota,) and for whom he did county work as county surveyor, as to his ability. Parties writing me at Hood will receive prompt attention.
