On steamboats, cars and stage coaches, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is carried as the most important item in the materia medica of the traveling public. It deprives vitlated, brackish water of its hurtful properties and execrable flavor, counteracts the pernicious effects upon the stomach of bad or indigestible food, remedies cramps, hearburn and wind upon the stomach. It is a fine defense against malarial disorders, nullifies the effects of excessive heat coid and damp, relieves sick headsche, and is an incomparable cure for costiveness and bil jousn ss. The fatigue of travel often tells most disastrously upon invalids and conval-scents, occasionally to such an extent as to joupardize life. Persons in feeble health, apprehensive of had effects from travel, will, if provid d with the Bitters, be far less likely to have their fears realized.

"Yes; it grows straight up from the forehead like a tuft of grass, as if a cow had licked it up-and it is so stubborn that ladies afflicted with them often part their hair on the side to avoid them. They are a great trouble and no one knows why they have them."

The hairdresser took a roll of hairpins and put a dozen or so in her mouth. "E-v'r h-e-a-r of I-ove locks?"

"No: that hairpin went right into my brain-what are they?"

"Love locks? Oh, they are not in fashion now. They were made by cutting a lock of the hair by the ear and letting it fall straight against the cheek for about an inch. Ever see white locks? STARS OF HEAVEN FELL AS IF

Child's Wonderment at the Scene Superstitious Awe of Colored People.

One of the earliest and most vivid of my personal recollections is of the grand meteoric shower of Nov. 13, 1833. A similar occurrence is recorded as happening in northern Europe near the close of way to deprive them of all assistance the last century. But no meteorological display has equaled that of 1833 in extent and duration from the beginning of

VEXED QUESTIONS.

With reference to the origin of these meteors there have been divers conjectures, most of which are at best haphazard speculations. A number of astronomers have regarded them appragments has "the homing instinct" is as lame as of an exploded planet small "size, but that which ascribes to the bird the power of a like sort with the hundred and odd asteroids that have been discovered between the orbits of Mars and Jupiter. Kepler himself thought that a large planet was needed in this vast interplanetary space to perfect the rhythm of the skies and the fabled music of the spheres. The subsequent discoveries of Piazzi and Olbers and their successors have fully justified this opinion. This old astronomical fancy of a lost Pleiad likewise finds its vindication, it may be in these asteroids and in the far more numerous meteoroids which have since been seen in name, but not an explanation .- Youth's all parts of the world. Whether they be, as suggested, the disjecta membra of some errant and wrecked orb doomed and damaed for some earlier Adamic transgression, they certainly occupy a definite place in our system.

Their periodical occurrence with greater or lesser brilliancy in May and November and likewise in August and December, establish the facts that at these dates our earth in its annual travel comes in It may require another century of investigation with the aid of mightier instruments than that of the Link observatory to determine whether, as is probable, these meteoric exhibitions result from a vast volume of nebulous matter revolving around the sun, and itself the nursery of embryonic planets.

Whatever our conclusion on these vexed questions, it was certainly not only the privilege of a lifetime, but a millennium, to be an eye witness of such a stupendous and resplendent spectacle. I distinctly remember being aroused about 4 o'clock in the morning by the weird outeries of the domestic servants. They seemed possessed with the idea that the day of judgment was at hand, and I readily recall the efforts of my father to quiet the uproar by assuring them that there was no cause of alarm.

Of course, I knew nothing of scientific import. My impressions were those of elation rather than fright. To me the whole scene was about what I have since conceived of the pyrotechnic displays of the Vanxball gorden or a full fle:Iged Chinese feast of lanterns. A boy reader will best understand the aspect of things when I add that aside from the fizz and the pop it was like a thousand Christmases condensed into one.

Leo. For this reason they have been since called Leonids. My boyish remembrance accords with this statement of the scientists. Usually they issued singly, but at times they had the appearance of a stream of fire. In my boyhood there was a story current of a wealthy slaveholder in western Georgia, who was besides something of a philosopher. He resided in the center of a large negro quarter, and being awakened by the shricks and yells of nearly one hundred slaves, he hurriedly equipped himself in pants and slippers and stepped out on his front piazza. He was soon surrounded with a large number of slaves who were frantic with terror. For a time he surveyed the heavens with a decree of painful apprehension. Noticing in the crowd an old negro preacher, in whose piety he had much confidence, he addressed him in this wise. "Uncle Joe, do you watch the 'seven stitious fears of master and slave. Most astronomers tell us that another such spectacle will probably never be witnessed again through all the generations of men. St. John, who was a prisoner in Patmos, says: "I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal" that "the sun became as blood; and the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs when she is shaken of a mighty wind."-Rev. and Lung Specialty.

Those who have not used Boschee's German Syrup for some severe and chronic trouble of the Throat and Lungs can hardly appreciate what a truly wonderful medicine it is. The delicious sensations of healing, easing, clearing, strength-gathering and recovering are unknown joys. For German Syrup we do not ask easy cases. Sugar and water may smooth a throat or stop a tickling-for a while. This is as far as the ordinary cough medicine goes. Boschee's German Syrup is a discovery, a great Throat and Lung Specialty. Where for years there have been sensitiveness, pain, coughing, spitting, hemorrhage, voice failure, weakness, slipping down hill, where doctors and medicine and advice have been swallowed and followed to the gulf of despair, where there is the sickening conviction that all is over and the end is inevitable, there we place German Syrup. It cures. You are a live man yet if you take it.
