 Remember the Normal Institute at The Dalles the last week in August.
 Sells Brothers circus will be at Portland on the 14th and 15th of this month.
 Mr. T. J. Watson brought his family here Saturday, to remain during the summer.
 C. L. Gilbert has been in Portland for the past week attending the teachers institute.
 Miss Fannie Baldwin, of the Chehalis, visited Miss Fraser of this valley Sunday.
 Before purchasing railroad and steamship tickets, consult agents Union Pacific system.
 S. J. LaFrance left for eastern Oregon Monday, and will return about the middle of the month.
 Hon. E. L. Smith is said to be improving in health slowly, and will be brought home soon.
 Mrs. Mooney came up from Cleone last week to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stramahan.
 The ice cream social last Saturday night at Perry & Jones' hall was well attended, and patronized.
 Messrs. Bartness and Hanna and their families will go to Trout Lake next week for a few days outing.
 The assessment roll of this school district has been turned over to the sheriff for collection of delinquents.
 Mrs. Sallie A. Capps made final proof on her timber claim in the U. S. land office at The Dalles Wednesday.
 Mr. Harrison's house is rapidly nearing completion, and is certainly the handsomest residence in the county.
 Miss Ida Foss has gone to Portland to visit Mrs. Frank Hoskins, and will remain until after the Mechanics fair.
 Mr. L. Henry and W. B. Perry and their families, who have been camping at the forks of the river, are again at home.
 Waucoma lodge K. of P. had work in the First last Saturday, and will probably have both first and second to night.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, of Woodburn, are visiting Mr. Eastman and wife. They are relatives, but have not met for nineteen years.
 It is estimated that to move the Mantola wheat crop this year will require ten trains of twenty cars each, every day for seven months.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caddy went to their homestead on section 12, north of the latterly mill, on the 25th, and intend making a home there.
 Miss Alice Cleaver, and Meigs and Earl Bartness went to The Dalles to visit Miss Anna Roberts last week. Miss Cleaver returned Tuesday.
 Don't listen to what the neighbors say, but come and see for yourself. A beautiful antique maple bedroom set for $23 at the furniture store.
 For any one purchasing ten dollars worth of furniture of me, I will deliver the same at landing free of charge.
 S. E. BARTNESS.
 Messrs. Thomas W. and J. T. Dunlap, live business men of Detroit, Minn. who are making a tour of the coast, stopped off here Tuesday to visit Capt. Blowers.
 Mrs. Crockett, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Warren for some time, returned to Kent, Washington, Wednesday last, stopping a few days in Portland to visit friends.
 Col. C. A. Lousberry, a special agent of the general land office of the United States, has been assigned to the Pacific coast work and will make his headquarters at Vancouver Wash.

Mr. F. Fields returned from Eugene and Florence, Wednesday, perfectly satisfied that Hood River is the best little town in Oregon.
 Mr. Fields lost thirty dollars from his pocket Wednesday night or Thursday morning; the money was in two fells, a ten and a twenty.
 Lincoln Evans has arranged for giving lessons on the violin, and as he is a fine musician those who desire to learn will do well to call on him.
 Rev. Eli D. Sutcliffe and family, came down from The Dalles Wednesday. Mrs. Sutcliffe and the children will remain for several days.
 Mr. Berdan and wife left Wednesday evening for Seio, in the Willamette valley, and will probably remain there as they have a fine farm in that neighborhood.
 Mr. Frank McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Will Potter, and Mrs. Potter's sister, Miss Miner, were at Trout Lake last week, caught lots of fish, and had a delightful trip.
 Mr. F. H. Stanton came up from Portland Saturday, and after visiting The Dalles returned to complete his work. He will be home about September 1st to remain during the winter.
 Mr. Boorman has purchased his old home place which he sold a month or more ago to Wm. Tedford. Which goes to show that a man who sells his farm in this neighborhood, generally regrets his bargain before the trade gets cold.
 While Mr. Binns was out for a drive Sunday morning, his horse fell, throwing him out of the buggy. The only damage was a skinned shin and a broken thigh, the former being the property of Mr. Binns, and the latter happening to the buggy.
 The railroad company has men and teams at work removing the cinders and ashes from the track near the depot. This is a decided improvement, and if the unsightly sand patch was covered up the appearance of the depot grounds would be creditable.
 Mr. Lockhead, the enterprising merchant of The Dalles, was here Wednesday. He is engaged in selling grain, hay, mill-feed etc., has his own mill, and being an energetic hustler, can bid defiance to any and all competitors. Read his new ad., in this issue.
 Mr. Amos Ketchum, who was here last winter looking for a location, arrived here with his family from Esterville Iowa Friday night. He has purchased the old parsonage, ten acres. Other parties from that neighborhood are making arrangements to come here.
 Blowers & Crowell expect a carload of the famous "Peerless" flour today, of which they have been out for about a month. They have sold the above brand of flour a number of years, and have not had a sack returned. It needs no advertising, everybody knows what it is.
 Mr. Bert Langille went to Portland Thursday morning to be examined for admission to the Stanford university. Professor Joseph Swain who occupies the chair of mathematics in the university was at the Esmond hotel Thursday and Friday for the purpose of making the examinations.
 The Second Oregon District Agricultural Association words to that effect has sent us a number of their premium lists, which we will be glad to give away. The fair begins at The Dalles September 22nd, and will hold five days. Call and get a copy and then arrange for making a good exhibit.
 Lee Pan, our enterprising washman went to Portland Monday. He is the owner of a fish wheel above The Dalles which fills a long felt want as a tail-ender, having caught the best fish, at the greatest expense, of any fishing device on the river except the Standard oil cannularum of The Dalles, which, it is said runs them ashore for about sixty dollars apiece.
 Mr. J. H. Middleton accompanied by his cousin Mr. Charles Thwait, came up from Portland Friday night, and Saturday morning took the boat for Wind river for a day's fishing. They arrived home the same evening, and went to Portland Tuesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Middleton went to the seaside to remain until September. Mrs. Middleton's health is much improved.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brant of Vancouver visited friends here during the week. In the long ago when we first grasped a cedar to pen the gaudy editorial, and corral the lecting local item Joe jerked the antimony. The little political Free Lance was as neat as a pin mechanically, and it was said to be a chrysanthemum by its large circle of readers. It was printed at night, partly for convenience, and partly to avoid back talk.
 A party consisting of Mrs. H. D. Green, the Misses Lang, Miss Edna Moody, and Messrs. H. J. Green, C. H. Hastings, F. Jeslyn, H. C. Rooper, and M. A. Moody, will leave The Dalles today to go to Cloudeup Inn. They will camp tonight at Mr. Harrison Coan's place, and expect to reach the Inn Sunday afternoon. After a day or so at the mountain, they will come here and then visit Trout lake and the ice caves.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bast go to Portland the last of next week, but will remain but a short time as he has Mr. Harrison's house to finish here. As soon as this is done he will return to Albina, where he has the contract for building the Baptist church. The U. B. church built by him here, is a model of beauty and convenience, built at a remarkably reasonable figure, and we congratulate the good people of Albina in having secured his services, for he will make them a building that will gratify their pride.
 The only head of cauliflower we have ever seen that was raised in this section was grown and presented by Mr. and Mrs. Chandler to us. It was a beauty, and lest some of our facetious contemporaries should tumble to the peculiarness of the gift, we will add that it was accompanied by its first cousin, a head of fine cabbage, which we tackled like a cannibal. Tom Wickens plumed us, and B. Warren sent us a box of red apples that had they been in the garden of Eden, would have fired the wily snake as well as our illustrious progenitors; for the measly old crawler would have swallowed the core.

A K. of P. lodge will be instituted at the Cascade Locks one week from tonight, and many of the members of Waucoma lodge of this place will be there.
 Quite a number of Dalles ladies are stopping at the Mt. Hood; among them Mrs. T. A. Hurlson, Mrs. Schenck, Mrs. Gilman, and Misses Louise Rich, and Mabel Mack.
 Mr. F. E. Bronson and wife of The Dalles arrived here Thursday evening. Mr. Bronson returned yesterday morning, while Mrs. Bronson will remain for several days.
 Mr. J. E. Barnett, county assessor is attending to his duties in the valley. He has been on the east side for a week or more, and will no doubt call on every body ere he leaves.
 The U. B. church services, morning and evening, in the evening at 7 o'clock steps will be taken looking to the formation of a "Young People's Christian Union." At 8 o'clock p. m. Rev. W. H. Bast will address the young people. Subject: "Formation of Character." Sunday school at 10 a. m. A welcome to all. C. W. Wells, pastor.
 Rod and Gun Club.
 A meeting was held at the furniture store Thursday evening for the purpose of organizing a Rod and Gun Club, the object being to protect the game and fish in this vicinity, and to stock the streams and groves with new varieties. On motion Joseph Wilson, was elected chairman, and S. E. Bartness secretary pro tem. Mr. Coe stated the object of the meeting, and moved that a committee of three be appointed with Mr. Wilson as chairman, to draft constitution and By-laws, and Messrs. Coe and Snyder were appointed as such committee. It was moved and carried that the proceedings of the meeting be published in the GLACIER that a full representation of our citizens may be at the next meeting. The importance of such an organization is surely apparent to everyone. It is not proposed to ask new laws, but to enforce those existing. If this is not done before many years this place will have lost much of its attractiveness, while a little effort now will increase its attractions. Adjourned to meet Monday evening at the furniture store. Every one who feels the importance of this movement should be present. S. E. Bartness, Secretary.
 Houses to rent by E. W. Winans.
 Wife of Judge Backus Dead.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Backus, wife of Judge C. F. Backus, died at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, of consumption. The funeral took place Monday from the family residence in Spokane Falls Washington. Interment at Fairmount cemetery. Mrs. Backus was 43 years of age and leaves two daughters to mourn her loss.
 Lawn Social.
 The Ladies Aid Society will give a lawn social at the residence of Mrs. Hunt, Friday evening Aug. 14th. Guests will be served with ice cream and cake of the very best. Music games and a social good time will be the order of the occasion. Come and bring your friends. Remember the time and place. Friday eve August 14th. Committee.
 S. of V. Attention!
 Grant Camp Sons of Veterans meets next Thursday evening. There is business of the utmost importance to be attended to, and it is desired that every member be present.
 NOTICE.
 I have appointed J. T. Dolk, my Agent to sell my beer at Hood River, at wholesale. AUGUST BUEHLER. The Dalles, March 16, 1891.
 Private Interview.
 One may sometimes be made to see the uselessness of a foolish habit by being made the victim of similar behavior on the part of another. Here is an example of being paid "in one's own coin."
 A landlord in a country village was busily employed at his desk when a farmer came to the door and asked to see him.
 The man was asked his errand, but he persisted that he must see the hotel keeper alone. The latter stepped outside, when the farmer motioned him to follow and walked around to the rear of the hotel.
 When they were well around the corner the farmer stated that he wished to buy a cow and had heard that the landlord had one to sell.
 "Come on," said the other, and led the way through a garden, a patch of potatoes, and after climbing a fence, through a muddy barnyard and into the hotel barn.
 When they were inside the landlord put his mouth near the other's ear and whispered:
 "Say, neighbor, I've sold my cow!"—Yonah's Companion.
 A Wonderful Memory.
 The following anecdote of Mozart shows that he must have been a born musician:
 "When fourteen years old he heard in Rome the 'Miserere of Allegri' and knowing that it was forbidden to take or give a copy of this famous piece, he paid such attention to the music that when he reached home he noted down the entire piece. He was enabled a few days afterward to check the copy, when he found that he had not made a single mistake. The next day he produced such a sensation in Rome by singing the 'Miserere' at a concert that Pope Clement XIV requested that he should be presented to him. Thus, by his wonderful memory, he was enabled to begin with success his musical career."—New York Ledger.
