

GOOD LUCK.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is often called the Good-Luck Baking Powder.

Owing to the fact that good luck always attends the use of Dr. Price's, it is not essential to use it the moment it is mixed nor is it required to have the oven always just so, as in the case with ammonia or alum powders. It is not luck after all, but the exact accuracy and care exercised in the preparation and combination of all the ingredients of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. Competent chemists are employed to test the strength and purity of each ingredient. Nothing is trusted to chance. Hence; it is always uniform in its work.

House wives never fail to have "good luck" in making most delicious bread, biscuit, pastry and cakes that remain moist and sweet. Only Baking Powder that contains the white of eggs.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

Getting and Saving Money.

Some men have the money getting, others the money saving faculty, very few have both. Those endowed with the former in its plenitude, and who exercise it to the utmost, often become rich while indulging in all the expensive luxuries which sumptuous tastes can suggest, but the colossal figures of finance, the giants of the "bank note world," by whose side the half million and million fellows are merely respectable dwarfs, are generally rigid economists in their personal expenditures, and some people are discourteous enough to call them "screws."

Upon the whole it is much easier to make money than to save it, and although we would not advise any one to be miserly, it is certainly the part of wisdom and prudence to set aside a considerable portion of a large income as a provision for the future, and so to invest this reserve fund as to place it, if possible, beyond the reach of all the ordinary contingencies of business. It is a pleasant thing during one of those financial cyclones which every now and then make shipwreck of innumerable fortunes to feel that one has an anchor to windward that will not drag. Therefore while you are making money save it, and as you save it put it where no monetary convulsion can bring your "nobles to nine pence."—New York Ledger.

A Skin Milk Whitewash.

It is found that a most effective composition for fireproofing exterior surfaces may be formed by slaking a sufficient quantity of freshly burned quicklime of the best grade, and when the slaking is complete there is added such an amount of skin milk or water in its absence, as will make a liquid of the consistency of cream. To every ten gallons of this liquid are added, separately and in powder, stirring constantly, the following ingredients in the order named: Two pounds of alum, twenty-four ounces subcarbonate of potassium or commercial potash, and one pound of common salt.

If white paint is desired no further addition is made to the liquid, though the whiteness is found to be improved by a few ounces of plaster of Paris. Lamplblack has the effect of giving a number of shades, from slate color to black. Whatever tint is used it is incorporated at this stage, and the whole, after being strained through a sieve, is run through a paint mill. When ready to apply the paint is heated usually to the boiling point of water, and is put on in its hot condition. It is found that the addition of a quantity of fine white sand to this composition renders it a valuable covering for roof and crumbling brick walls, which it serves to protect.—New York Journal.

A Hornet Carries Off a Spider.

"You may talk about the cunning of the fox, but you should have seen how a wasp turned the tables on a spider," said a man the other evening when they were telling hunting stories. "One day a fellow sportsman and I were returning from a successful tramp for 'gentry' on the Teonderoga flats, up in Essex county. We were resting on the top rail of an old fence when our attention was attracted by a buzzing sound near by, which we soon found to come from one of those big black hornets that hunters generally steer clear of."

The old fellow lay in a spider's web, buzzing away. We saw at a second glance, however, that he was not entangled in the meshes at all. He would keep quiet a moment and then buzz again. He continued to act in this manner for about a minute, and we were unable to account for his strange conduct. Pretty soon, up from its den among the rails, came a good sized spider, which bravely grappled with the huge intruder.

It then became clear that the action of the hornet had been only a wily ruse to attract the spider, for he at once stung the plucky little defender to death, and flew away with it to his big nest in a thicket of blue beeches on a neighboring hill.—New York Tribune.

Not Very Princely Wages.

"Come, now," I said to the bearded Italian who was blacking my shoes at the corner of Third Avenue and Thirty-third street, "speak up frankly and tell me honestly what you make a week."

"Two dollar, two dollar half a week," said the Italian.

"What?" said I, incredulous: "two dollar a week? Oh, come now!"

"That's all, boss. Honest!" His voice was impregnated with sorrow.

"But how can you live on two dollars and a half a week?"

"I don't live. I don't live at all. But what can I do? It's a bad corner, but I get no better. The man up there at Thirty-fourth street he make big wage. He make six, eight dollar week. I get no customer. Perhaps some day he die. Then I get his corner. That is all."

Water in Extinguishing Fires.

The theory of all fire extinguishers is to cut off the burning object from the surrounding atmosphere. This can be done by either a liquid or a solid substance, but water is the simplest and most natural one. Its efficacy as a fire extinguisher may, however, be increased by an addition of pulverized alum in sufficient quantity to give a saturated solution. On evaporating this solution will leave on the material on which it has fallen a thin coating, having a high heat resisting power. Potash and common salt should not be used, as the salts will volatilize and afterward precipitate themselves in various parts of a room or building, and tend to produce dampness, from their affinity for moisture.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

SCHOOLBURY, Wash., Aug. 19, 1901.
Dr. J. Eugene Jordan, Seattle, Wash.—DEAR DOCTOR: Will have to write you that I am surprised to find myself so greatly improved in so little time, and am pleased to say that I could not give your medicines too great praise. My health was gone. I felt that medicines could do me no good. I was hopeless of ever recovering. I thought too late to try your medicines, but with death staring me in the face I determined to do so. I am pleased that I did it, for at this date I have received tenfold the price of the medicines. If I should say one hundred fold, it would not be overvaluing the difference in my health. I feel like another man. Yours respectfully,
JAMES H. HYSON.

EAST SOUND, Wash., Aug. 15, 1901.
Dr. J. Eugene Jordan, Seattle, Wash.—DEAR SIR: It has been some time since I have written to you, but I have been getting along so well that I did not think it necessary. I have stopped taking the treatment now, and I believe I am entirely well. Your medicines have done what you told us they would do—they have made a new woman of me. I now feel like myself again, after suffering for eight years with catarrh of the head and brain, and that very painful thing—neuritis of the stomach. I took three months' medicine. Both my husband and myself feel as though we cannot thank you enough for what you have done for me. I hope that every one who is suffering as I was will hear of Dr. Jordan's medicine. It is the most valuable medicine. Yours most respectfully,
Mrs. C. A. ANDERSON.

Leading medical authorities state that new and improperly cured tobacco when heated in the pipe produces a rank vegetable poison.

Tobacco like liquor can only be enjoyed by age. This is the reason why "Seal of North Carolina" is the most popular brand of smoking tobacco in the United States. It is made from tobacco, at least three years old. Its rich mellow smoke has never been equaled.

Seal of North Carolina is now packed in Patent Cloth Pouches, as well as in foil.
