BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Thanksgiving next Thursday.
Mrs. Bast will leave for Eugene Monday.
Pictures framed to order at the furniture store.
Captain Lombard was up from Portland Monday.
Marvin Rand is again in business at his old stand.
Does S. B. get there? Well I should smile, S. B.
Coffins and undertakers supplies at the furniture store.
Call and see the new school suits for boys at Hanna's.
Rev. LeRoy is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Will Rand.
Mr. and Mrs. Bishop have moved into the Baker residence.
All kinds of county produce bought and sold at Harris's.
T. C. Dallas has the lumber on his lots and will build a small barn.
R. E. Harrison shot a swan this week, measuring seven feet nine inches.
Having been appointed Notary Public we are prepared to do all work in that line.
We understand that Lieutenant Burr has been relieved from duty at the Cascade Locks.
Mrs. Howells has moved her stock of millinery into Hon. E. L. Smith's office building.
The Harrison brothers will have their houses completed by the middle of December.
Mr. Delk, accompanied by his attorney, Mr. Heald, went to The Dalles Wednesday.
Mr. F. M. Seeley, of Chenoweth, Wash., was here Tuesday. We acknowledge a pleasant call.
Mr. T. L. Clark has been quite sick for a couple of weeks, but we are glad to state is improving.
Mrs. Champin desires us to state that hereafter the post office will be closed from noon until 12:30.
For any one purchasing ten dollars worth of furniture of me, I will deliver the same at landing free of charge.
S. E. BARTMESS.

Mrs. Monroe is expected here at any time. She will remain over the winter, occupying her house next to Hanna's.
Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bartmess, who have been visiting Mrs. Ziegler at Eugene, are again here to remain during the winter.

Quite a number of Hood Riverites were at The Dalles during the week, at the solicitation of Deputy Sheriff Phelan, as witnesses in the Delk case.

Ten of the fourteen applying for teachers' certificates at the quarterly examination last week were successful, though none of them captured the first grade.

We have received a stock of deeds, mortgages, etc., which we will sell to those in need of that kind of material at considerably less than 100 per cent. profit.

The "deestric school" last night at Armory hall was too late for the roll of honor to be printed this week. In fact, the GLACIER was printed before the school began.

The armory promises to be an assured fact. The capital stock has been increased to $2,200, and we understand work will be commenced in the immediate future.

A literary society has been formed by the school here. We understand their first meeting will be held next Friday evening. The name adopted is the "Gladstonian."

The case of Tieman against Tieman, tried this term of court and resulting in a decree of divorce for Mrs. Tieman and judgment for one-third of the real property, has been appealed.

The Congregational church has put in a new heater. Mr. Dallas did the sheet-iron work. So now they expect to be just warm enough for this world and none too warm for the next.

Thomas Ryan, who broke into Delk's building here, and also into the Buskirk house below town, was sentenced to the penitentiary Monday, getting one year for burglary and two years for larceny from a dwelling.

The insane asylum at Salem is said to contain 722 inmates and that all the rooms are filled. This is sad, when one takes into consideration the number of persons at large that are entitled to a room in that building.

U. B. church services: Preaching this evening at 7 p. m. and on Sabbath at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., by Rev. G. Siskafoose of Portland. Young People's meeting Sunday evening at 6:30. Sabbath school at 10 a. m. A welcome to all.

M. C. Dethman had a horse killed by the cars a few weeks ago, and though the company claimed that it was killed at the crossing of a public road, the matter was finally settled by the payment of $30, which Mr. Dethman may count as "money found."

There will be services in the Riverside Congregational church to-morrow at 11:30 a. m. Sabbath school at 10:30 a. m. The services in the valley church will be at 3 p. m. Sabbath school at 2 p. m. All are cordially invited to be present. F. M. Atkins, Pastor.

George Aleck, a ten-year-old Indian boy, has made himself a small wagon, with bed and brake complete, and has a team of from six to eight white boys to haul him around. All of which shows that George is possessed of more than the average amount of ingenuity.

Lawson, the brute that committed the assault on the old lady at The Dalles, was sentenced Monday. Judge Bradshaw, in passing sentence, remarked that the legislature had fixed the limit of the court's leniency, and then sentenced him to twenty years in the penitentiary.

The weather clerk turned on a small section of cold weather Sunday night, and Monday night gave the faucet another twist, causing a thin layer of ice to form on the shallow waters. Tuesday night he repeated and gave us just a little sprinkle of rain, and Wednesday a perfect spring day.

Seven chairs were placed in the school rooms here Monday in order to accommodate new pupils. Every seat was filled before and the aisles are becoming valuable. The time has arrived when a new school house is a necessity, and its building should not be put off later than the early spring.

Watch our for sale columns for some of the best real estate bargains in the country. If you want to buy call on us, and if you want to sell, come and see what we can do for you. We advertise all property placed in our hands free of charge, and are so situated as to make the quickest sales. It will cost you nothing unless a sale is made.

It is rumored that after the first of next month there will be but one passenger train a day each way. Nos. 7 and 8, the trains arriving here at 11 o'clock in the morning and 7:30 in the evening, will be withdrawn, so that in order to get in or out of Hood River will require either sitting up late or getting up very early.

At the quarterly examination of applicants for teachers' certificates, held last week, the following were successful: Second grade certificates—Louis P. Dorais, Wapinitia; Susannah Ward, Kingsley; Miss M. P. Anderson, Malinda Hollister and Florence Crum of The Dalles. Third grade—John Dotsey, Kingsley; George M. Cole, Grass Valley; Minnie E. McCoy, Hood River; Cassie Cheese, Antelope; Emma E. Vogt, The Dalles.

While it is perfectly proper for every one to call after the arrival of each train for their mail, it is not necessary for every member of the family to do so. The school children have a habit of visiting the post office four times a day and asking for mail, and in cases where there is more than one in the family, every child assumes that he or she should call for it and does so. It would save lots of annoyance if parents would put a stop to it.

Last week we mentioned the fact that Mr. John A. Wilson had presented us a sack of cornmeal made from corn raised by himself and ground in the valley. Since that time we have sampled it to some purpose and unhesitatingly pronounce it the best we ever tasted. If Uncle Jerry Rusk would send some of this kind over to Germany, the diet would soon become popular and the Kaiser himself would not turn away from it.

BORN.

Saturday, the 14th inst., to Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Binns, a ten-pound girl.

DINED ON ROASTED MEN.

Tale of a Fiji Cannibal Who Claims to Have Eaten Human Flesh.

The general curiosity of our entire town was aroused by the appearance upon our streets of a native of India, who was born upon one of the Fiji islands. He wore a very red or cardinal colored suit of clothes, knee pants, and jacket trimmed with black velvet collar and cuffs. Over his shoulder he carried a cloak that was tied over the left shoulder and under the right, made of white and red flannel. His head was covered with a blouse that fell down his back, and still over this a sombrero. His shoes were tied under the instep with a one-half inch white braid that wound around the leg up to the knees. His general appearance was very gaudy.

This native was converted when 23 years old, and is now 74 years of age. His father lived to be 130 years of age. His life has been spent in lecturing on the condition of his people. He speaks twenty languages fluently. When five or six years old he saw an Indian woman throw her child to a crocodile that weighed 1,000 pounds. The animal missed the child, and the mother caught it as it ran back to her begging for its life, when she threw it again. This time the crocodile struck it with its claws, tore it into two pieces and ate it very quickly. She then reported her acts to the pagan priest, and he blessed her, saying to her, "Go sin no more."

He also was a cannibal. When he was 7 years old there were twenty-one ministers who were caught traveling and prospecting for places to locate churches, and one of these ministers was beheaded every morning by his high priest and his flesh cooked, and the natives were made to stand in a row and each one was given a part of the flesh, and they stood and ate it. This was continued every day for twenty-one days, until all of the ministers were eaten up, and he ate part of twenty-one preachers.

He says the natives never do eat one another unless one is taken in war or as a missionary; that it is a mistaken idea that they slay one another to eat when that man and that is fat enough to eat; that the beasts of the field never slay one of their kind to prey upon, and that the savages have never gotten to be lower than wild animals.—Atlanta Constitution.

Dr. J. H. Gallinger, who has been elected United States senator from New Hampshire, was a compositor on The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette twenty-five years ago, and studied medicine in the intervals of his labors at the case.

Another addition to the ice house is being built. It is 24 feet wide by 80 long, 20 feet high, and will be used for storing sawdust, etc., and if the supply of ice more than fills the big houses, will be packed full of coldness. Next year arrangements will be made for storing at least 10,000 tons from this pond near town, and probably double that amount at Celilo. This will give the company storage room for over fifty thousand tons of ice, enough almost to supply the city of Portland.

Grand Masquerade Ball.

At Armory hall Thursday evening, the 20th inst., by Idlewild Lodge, No. 107, I. O. O. F. Invitation is extended to all. Committee on Invitation and Reception—Emil Schütz of The Dalles; R. F. Hardwick, Mosier; C. Broomfield, Cascade Locks; and J. B. Hunt and M. P. Watson, Hood River. Floor Managers—W. B. Perry, J. J. Luckey, W. H. Allen. Register of Costumes—J. H. Crallebaugh. Supper Committee—Mrs. William Ellison, Mrs. A. B. Jones, Mrs. W. B. Perry, Mrs. Henry Hilliard. There will be four prizes given—one each for best sustained character, lady and gentleman, and one each for best dressed character, lady and gentleman. The prizes will be awarded by a committee.

Almost a Fire.

We are glad indeed that we have not to chronicle the destruction by fire of M. V. Harrison's fine new residence Thursday evening, and yet it was only by a scratch that this was not the case. As Mrs. Harrison and Miss Coppel started to church that evening, they went into the new building, and on opening an inner door were almost suffocated with smoke, but discovered the floor was on fire. They did not lose their heads but got a bucket of water and soon had the fire out. It seems the carpenters had left a fire in the fireplace and from this the floor in front of it caught. Had Mrs. Harrison been a few minutes later the fire would have been beyond control.

Belmont.

The wife and daughter of Rev. Rigby, of the Methodist church here, arrived from Eastern Washington last Friday evening. Mr. Rigby joined his family at Arlington and came down with them. Arrived at the parsonage, about 9 p. m., they were agreeably surprised to find the house in possession of about forty of the members of Mr. Rigby's church and his neighbors. Every one came with a well-filled basket, and the ladies set a handsome table for supper, with hot tea and coffee. An enjoyable evening was spent and it was 11 o'clock before the gathering broke up. Those present were: Rev. Rigby and wife and daughter Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Soesbe, Mr. and Mrs. B. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Nickelsen, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse A. Keene, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Miller, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Markham, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blythe, Mrs. F. M. King, Miss Nettie Foley, Miss Bernice Foley, Miss Josie Rogers, Miss Hattie Ketchum, Miss Madge Warren, Miss Clara Blythe, Miss Grace King, Miss Lily King, Miss Rose Nickelsen, Miss Ida Nickelsen, Mr. Willis, John Rogers, Wm. Rogers, Charles Wallace, Edward Blythe, Dock Foley, Melvin Foley, Wm. Warren.

A New Schoolhouse.

These long winter evenings give abundant time for quiet thinking, and should be utilized by all. One subject deserves considerable attention and that is the building of a schoolhouse. It is no longer a question of policy, it is an absolute necessity, and will have to be taken care of at the regular school meeting in March. Every property owner should give the matter quiet and thorough consideration and be prepared to suggest as well as vote on the proposition. The school room is over crowded now and next spring will not begin to accommodate the pupils. It would seem that the plan of bonding the district, and building for the future as well as the present would be the proper plan; but these matters should be digested and ready for action at our next school meeting.

A fine line of gent's furnishing goods just received at Hanna's.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the stockholders of the Hood River Armory Association is called to meet in Blowers' hall, Hood River, Oregon, Monday evening, November 23, 1891, at 7 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of voting on the question of increasing the capital stock of said association from twelve hundred ($1200) dollars to twenty-two hundred ($2200) dollars, and to increase the number of shares of said stock from one hundred and twenty (120) to two hundred and twenty (220).
J. H. DUKES,
Chairman Board of Directors.
P. A. SNYDER, Secretary.

Respecting the above notice, it is necessary that every person who has subscribed a single share to be present at this meeting, for the plan cannot be carried out unless a majority of all the stock subscribed votes in favor of the proposition. In the former meeting only part of the proposition required by law was voted on: So it becomes necessary to call another meeting. Let every person who has subscribed a share come. If you stay away it means no armory this winter.

A Live Chess Tournament.

The living chess tournament which was held at St. Leonard's in aid of the funds of the Men's Help society was a curious sight, the floor of Royal Concert hall being for the time converted into a large chess board, while the gallery was reserved for spectators. The Hon. Reginald Capell and Mr. Shatforth Boyer were the players and were well matched, each side scoring a win. As you watched the figures moving over the board you felt as if you were realizing the dream of Alice in her travels on the other side of the looking glass, though the Tudor dresses were certainly more graceful than those worn by Alice's dream friend, and the White Queen did not seem to have lost a single pin, while her Red Majesty moved with a charming smile on her face.

The pawns were played by children, and admirably they acted their parts, though it must have been dull for those who were never moved during the game. Two ushers in court suits fetched the "pieces" that were taken, and when the White Queen was taken prisoner several other white captives came to escort Her Majesty off the board. Among the "pieces" were Lord and Lady Brassey as the Red King and Queen, the Hon. Muriel and the Hon. Marie Brassey as the Red King and Queen's Books, the Lady Beatrice Capell as the Red Queen's Bishop, and the Hon. T. Brassey as the Red King's Knight, while on the white side Miss Forbes and Capt. Gaskell were the King and Queen, and Baron von Roemer the Queen's Knight.—London Cor. Philadelphia Telegraph.

Mr. Kanzier's Strange Affliction.
Mr. Jacob Kanzier, a well known business man of Sandusky, is the victim of a most peculiar affliction which baffles medical skill. Saturday night he retired at the usual hour in full possession of all his faculties. When he awoke he found he could not speak, his vocal organs refusing absolutely to perform their usual functions. Finding that he could not utter a word, he attempted to write what he could not speak, but his hand refused to trace the words upon the paper.

He moves about as usual; having perfect control over his lower limbs and likewise over his hands until he attempts to use the latter to give expression on paper to his thoughts, and then they fail him completely. His mind is as bright and clear apparently as ever. He understands all that is going on about his home and place of business, but lacks the power to express himself in any manner. Mr. Kanzier is about 55 years of age and hale and hearty. His affliction is not paralysis or any kindred ailment. Just what it is, however, is a poser to the medical men who have seen him. It is believed to be the only case ever known.—Cleveland Leader.

Unwilling to Eat with the Jurors.
A good story is told on Deputy Marshal Conway, who is said to be proof against the fears of superstition. He was ordered to take a federal jury to the Denison for ten Friday night, and as he went into the dining room with the twelve men he was conducted to a table that had been specially prepared for the party. The jurors were all seated, but Mr. Conway remained standing. "Sit down, boss," said the head waiter, as he drew out the last chair.

"I think I'll take another table," said the deputy.
"Sit right down, sah; sit right down," insisted the negro: "there's plenty of room."
"Yes, but I can't be the thirteenth man at any meal," and Conway took another seat.

"Does yo' know, sah, I never thought of that?" asked the head waiter in a whisper: "I'd done exactly the same as yo' did."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Typical Case.
A sad story has just come in by canal boat from Cumminsville. A patrolman on one of the outside boats was informed by the passengers on a railroad train that a fight was in progress on the opposite end of his boat. He made a hurried trip to the point indicated, and as soon as he arrived there he asked if any one had heard of a fight. The inhabitants informed him that there had been a murder some time before, but that the victim had been dead and buried several weeks. The officer then returned with all speed to the point from which he started. Terrible news awaited him. During his absence he had been dismissed from the force for failing to answer calls, and his wife had married again.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Something Pretty.
A sea captain who is exercising his land legs here brings a curio from Punta Arena, Straits of Magellan. It is a fur rug or spread made of guanaco skins, a llama like animal that bears domestication. Ten of the light tan pelts, with their white under fur making the outline, have been skillfully stitched together to resemble a pattern in fur.—San Diego Union.

Thomas W. Phillips, of New Castle, Pa., who has been elected to congress, once lost a fortune of nearly $1,000,000 that he had made in the oil fields of the Keystone State. He has since retrieved this lost fortune, and is again one of the richest of oil producers.

The sale by Mrs. King, of Corpus Christi, the "cattle queen" of Texas, of 15,000 2-year-old steers, is probably the largest single order for cattle ever filled in Texas. The consideration was $32,000. Mrs. King's ranch is worth $900,000.

Edward Lennon, the Irishman who has just died in New York at the age of 105 years, carried a pike in the great Irish rebellion of 1798. He had papers in his possession proving his birth in County Derry, Ireland, in 1785.

The "manna" which fell from the sky in Asia Minor last August and was baked into bread has recently been examined by men of science, and is identified as a lichen, belonging to the family Lecanora esculenta.
