Mr. Merriman of Centerville was here Thursday looking after farm property. We hope he may find something suitable and settle among us.
An order for lot stakes has we understand been left with the factory by T. J. Watson, from which we infer Idlewild will be surveyed in the near future.
Mrs. Lvman Smith, who started for Nehalem last week, returned Tuesday. She got only as far as Astoria, and there being no boats for Nehalem, had to abandon the trip.

Mr. Sam Hughes of San Francisco, who has been visiting Matt Watson, left for his home Friday last. Mr. Hughes is a clever young gentleman and made numerous friends during his stay here.

The school assessment of this district is completed and the directors will meet as a board of equalization at the post office Saturday, the 10th, for the purpose of correcting any discrepancies or errors that may appear therein.
Idlewild lodge of Odd Fellows will celebrate the anniversary of the Order on the 20th. Lodges from The Dalles, Cascades and Latourelle will be present and the brass band from the latter place will probably furnish music for the occasion.
The armory is steadily approaching completion. We have heard it rumored that the lower story would be used for hotel purposes, but can find no foundation for the rumor. The building is roofed in and the painters are at work. Company D. will take possession Saturday.

The frosts of last week did no damage to the fruit. In fact it would be beneficial if one-half or more of the buds were killed. The prospects for a big yield of fruit of all kinds were never better, and although the season is early there is but little probability of further frosts severe enough to do any damage.
Mr. Will Rand received a dispatch from Mrs. Rand Tuesday morning that their baby, a boy a few months old, was seriously ill. He took the morning train to go to them, but a telegram from Mrs. Rand announced the death of the child before he arrived. It is indeed a sad loss to them, and the sympathy of the entire community is with them in their bereavement.
Tuesday the Indian woman Nellie left for Pendleton. She was richly, not to say gaudily, dressed in a "toot assemble" surmounted with an Easter bonnet that looked like a section of the morning robes of spring. Her red blanket neatly rolled and fastened with a shawl strap gave her a distingue appearance, and the equipage of her bearing was only equaled by the song froid with which she grasped the car rail and swung herself aboard as the train pulled out with the easy grace of a Pullman porter, and the blushing diffidence and careless indifference peculiar to the saddle-covered colored maiden of the Oregon woods.
Quarterly meeting. Quarterly meetings will be held at Belmont chapel to-morrow (Sabbath). The first services will be at 2 p. m. R. C. Mater, presiding elder of The Dalles district, will fill the appointment at the Congregational church in town Sabbath evening.

White Salmon Side. WHITE SALMON, April 5. — Our friend J. E. Jacobson has been somewhat indisposed for the last few days. But as he has just got his water pipe completed we think it is only an over-dose of water, and as he becomes accustomed to its use such attacks will not occur again.
Mr. Joseph Aerne of Trout Lake has returned from Portland to reside on his farm and brings with him a new "frau." The "deal" adds to Mr. Aerne's family and to the Trout Lake school district three good-sized children.
Complaint is made recently that some land jumping is being indulged in. While we make no particular allusions, it is well for every one to understand that this practice should be accompanied with judgment and caution if the peace of the neighborhood is desired. There is nothing stirs a man up so as what he considers the willful and malicious appropriation of his rights by another; and, besides, this business is unnecessary.
"For Uncle Sam is rich enough to give us all a farm!"
Mrs. J. O. Shaw of Cammas Prairie was called to the bedside of her son Chauncey last week, who was lying very low with typhoid pneumonia at the Good Samaritan hospital. A dispatch received here at the first of the week indicated no change in his condition.
The politician is on the wing now, and like the Irishman's flea, when you put your finger on him he isn't there.
At the meeting of the other day relative to the establishment of permanent cemetery grounds a committee was appointed to ascertain if the present grounds could not be enlarged or a new location of greater dimensions secured.
Fresh butter is now being brought in in considerable quantities.
The strawberry crop promises to be large.
Small kitchen garden crops are up and enjoying the April showers.

W. S. BORN. In Hood River valley, Tuesday the 5th inst. to Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Coon, a daughter.
DIED. At the Cascade Locks, Wednesday April 6th William A. Blaine, aged 21 years, 9 months and 24 days. Funeral Thursday at 3 p. m., Rev. J. W. Rigby of this place officiating.
Deceased leaves a widowed mother and a younger brother and sister to mourn his loss. He had been in the Locks for only a week or two having come from his home in Kentucky to find employment, that he might assist his mother. He had a severe attack of typhoid pneumonia soon after his arrival, and this caused his death. The big hearted people of the Locks did everything in their power for him, and his widowed mother may be comforted by the knowledge that tender, womanly hands smoothed his pillow, and generous hearts provided for his every need. There were over one-hundred persons attended the funeral services and the long procession that followed the stranger to his long home, and the beautiful flowers that decked his coffin, tell their story of sorrow and sympathy. A photograph of the procession was taken to be sent to his relatives.
Last Chance. Cabinet size full figure, and family groups, for only $2.00 per dozen. April 8, 9, and 10th only. Views 2xets each. O. M. POPE.

We the undersigned desire to extend our thanks, and heartfelt gratitude to the friends who assisted in the care of our loved one just departed. And especially so to those who stood so faithfully by her bed side during the last days of her illness. G. W. BACKUS. Fred Howe. H. L. Howe.

County Court Proceedings. At the adjourned meeting of the county court, held on Monday and Tuesday, Judge Thornbury and Commissioners Leavens and Kincaid being present, the following business was transacted.
In the matter of road district No. 53 it was ordered that the sum of $40 be appropriated to this district in addition to the amount due from the 2-mill tax, which amounts to a total of $52.
The time for payment of taxes for 1891 was ordered extended to April 25, 1891.
In the matter of the petition of Wm. Hernimann for a license to sell spirituous, malt and vinous liquors at retail in Hood River precinct, it appearing that the petitioner has not a number of legal voters equal to a majority of the legal votes cast at Hood River precinct at the last general election, exclusive of those who signed the petition and remonstrance, the prayer of the petitioner was therefore rejected.
In the matter of the petition of D. L. Cates, sheriff, his commission on $82,513.61, taxes collected, amounting to $433.51, was allowed.
The sum of $7.50 was ordered to be paid to Dr. W. E. Rinehart for money advanced by him to aid a non-resident pauper to reach friends.
An exhibit of the present financial condition of Wasco county was ordered to be printed once in each weekly paper published in the county.
The Liquor Petition. The application of Wm. Hernimann for a license to sell liquors at Hood River in quantities less than a gallon was up for hearing before the commissioners' court, Monday, and on motion of applicant's attorney, was continued until Tuesday. The GLACIER editor appeared for the remonstrance, and seeing that a determined effort was going to be made, asked that the case be set for 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, so that witnesses could be brought from Hood River as to the citizenship of the signers of both petition and remonstrance, which was done. Tuesday morning O. L. Stranahan and J. W. Morton went up to testify, and to their testimony is largely due the result. The petition was gone through carefully, such names as were unknown to the witnesses being challenged until but 87 of the 131 on the petition remained, though no doubt many of those challenged were legal voters. At this point the question as to how names that were on both petition and remonstrance were to be counted came up, and the court ruled that they should be counted in neither. This left the petitioners without a legal majority of the voters of the precinct, and so the case went out. To perfect the record, however, the remonstrance was gone through, and leaving off all names of persons not known to the witnesses, there were left 169, a majority of forty over the petition admitting every name on it to be that of a legal voter and to be counted. This settles the question of license in this precinct for a little while at least, and no doubt settles it to the satisfaction of a large majority of our people.

An Insane Man. Tuesday morning a man named J. E. S. Kelley went to the office of Justice Wells and asked that a warrant be issued for the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. Gifford of Viento and several other persons. He was directed to this information dispensary, where a few moments' conversation demonstrated the fact that he was insane. He imagined he had been chased all night by Gifford and others with a gun, that he had fallen or jumped off a bluff into the Columbia, and that finally, in trying to escape, he had crawled into a rotten log, which, when he tried to get out of it, had turned to solid wood, imprisoning him in the heart of a sound tree. He was taken to The Dalles on the morning train and to Salem on the evening passenger the same day. His insanity was caused by intemperance, and the story he told of his nights' experience was enough to set the chills playing hide-and-seek up and down one's spinal column.

Beatty's Pianos. Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Oregon and piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 200,000 more of his make; that means a business of $20,000,000, if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence. Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for catalogue.
