 Mrs. A. D. Goodfellow, sister of A. B. Jones and sister-in-law to Mr. Fred Goodfellow of Mt. Hood, arrived here Wednesday to visit her relatives for a week or two.
 C. J. Bright, candidate for congress on the prohibition ticket, was here Tuesday. A card in this issue explains his failure to be present last week at the meeting advertised.
 Mrs. Sothorn has gone to Eugene to her people. After the sudden death of her husband she made her home with Rev. and Mrs. Wells until her arrangements for leaving were completed.
 Hon. W. B. Ellis, republican candidate for congress, and H. B. Miller of Grant's Pass, candidate for presidential elector, addressed a good sized audience at the new Armory Tuesday evening.
 Mr. Locke brought in a crate of strawberries Tuesday, which was the first shipped from this place. Under the contracts with Perry & Jones Tuesday commenced the shipping season.
 Work will commence on the new road from Tucker's mill up the river to Diver's place, Monday, and Supervisor Dethman desires those who have volunteered work to be on hand as soon as possible to assist in the good cause.
 Every one should read the Australian ballot law, as it is somewhat cumbersome. We give the substance of what is required of the voter. Study it carefully, so that you can vote intelligently.
 Captain George W. Bell will address the people of this section at the New Armory at 1:30 this afternoon on the subject of the tariff. He is well worth listening to, and everybody that can possibly attend should do so.

A new stock of suits for the boys at Hanna's.
 Pictures framed to order at the furniture store.
 All kinds of country produce bought and sold at Harrison's.

 Mrs. Heald's father and mother of New York, are visiting her.
 Miss Jennie Henry will visit her old home in Nebraska, starting about the first of June.
 Mr. Blythe has made a trip through this and Sherman county, and like Cincinnati is again at work on his farm.
 The bridge across the east fork of Hood river is completed and is a good piece of work. It is 200 feet long, and was opened for travel Thursday.
 Rand Dent & Co., are building a room for storing flour etc, and as soon as this is completed the Rand & Morse livery stable will be moved.
 George Prather returned from Pullman Monday. He was summoned by telegram to the bedside of his brother, but arrived too late to see him alive.
 The east fork wood drive is being banked, and it is expected it will be put in the river in about three weeks. It will contain in the neighborhood of a thousand cords.
 Dr. S. V. Flint, brought his wife here recently for her health, and finds her so much improved that he has leased a piece of land of Dr. W. L. Adams, and is building a residence.
 Speaking this afternoon at the armory at 1:30. There will be a meeting to perfect arrangements for the celebration on the 4th of July, immediately following and every body should attend it.
 If the boys who are interested in getting up a band will develop a little energy, they can get assistance from the 4th of July committee, towards buying their instruments. We have good material for a band and should have it.
 Hanna has just received a new and complete line of gent's furnishing goods; you can buy a pair of pants from $1 to $4.50, according to your fancy. Come in and see them, whether you want to buy or not. No trouble to show goods.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hoag are now living on the E. L. Smith place at Trout Lake, the old Peter Stoeker place. Mr. Hoag came over Thursday and expressed himself as well pleased with his new home. He takes over a big boat for use on the lake.
 Captain Blowers arrived home Tuesday. Mrs. Lawrence Blowers coming with him. Lawrence stopped on the Sound for a short time. The captain is now thoroughly convinced that there is no place like home, especially if that home is in Hood River.
 The democracy was well represented Tuesday and Wednesday by Messrs. Blakely, Crossen, Ward and Corson, nominees respectively for county judge, clerk, sheriff and treasurer. They made a trip out into Baldwin precinct, taking dinner at Mr. Graham's Tuesday, and visited the mills Wednesday.
 Perry & Jones shipped a crate of strawberries to Portland Saturday; they were part from Hood River and seven boxes came from Mr. Brooks' place at White Salmon. The cool, wet weather has made them ripen slowly, but they are coming in rather plentifully now and next week will see them in abundance.
 Mr. Wm. Mercer was in The Dalles Thursday, and at his hands on his return we received from an old friend Sam Thurman, a fine salmon caught by him. Sam knows us, and as he reads the GLACIER occasionally, knows just what was needed. Next week you will see an improvement in the literary qualities of this thought disseminator.
 The steamer Dalles City has been laid off temporarily on account of having no landing at the Locks at this stage of water. If arrangements can be made for landing she will be put on the route again at once. The Regulator seems to be making regular trips for the local trade, but we are unable to learn what arrangements will be made by her.
 H. C. McCamey, while hauling wood last Tuesday, in some tanner lost control of his team which ran away. About half the load of wood was thrown off, and then Mr. McCamey's turn came. He was thrown forward on to the double trees and thence to the ground, the wagon wheels passing over one arm and his back. He is badly bruised up, but will be around again in a few days.
 We are glad to state that the building boom at Mosier, which we mentioned rather dubiously last week, is a reality, and that several buildings will be erected at once. Mr. Hoimes is having a general merchandise store put up, with a hall in the second story, and a fruit dryer is also to be assured. Besides this, several residences will be built. We understand, also, that a tract of land will be platted sufficient to make 150 lots.
 Flowers, Scenery, and—Fish.
 The first section of the train bearing the delegates to the Presbyterian Assembly stopped here for a few moments, and some of our good citizens did the gallant by explaining the beauties of Hood River, showing a picture of Mount Hood among other things, and mentioning the wealth of flowers that cover our verdant hills. The lady listeners grew enthusiastic, and finally one of them broke forth rapturously. "And oh! such lovely salmon. We only get them canned in the East." All of which shows that while the eyes may be surfeited with color and the ear ravished with melodious tales, the stomach after all lies nearest the heart and is the seat of genuine sentimentality.

Mrs. Arthur Dusbrow, who has been sick nearly all the past winter, has improved greatly, and is able to be about.
 The following Hood Riverites are on the jury list for the next term of court which convenes Monday: W. G. Clelland, C. B. Bone and B. R. Tucker. Mosier is represented by J. N. Mosier and J. J. Lewis, and Cascade Locks by J. Hamilton.
 Paul the six year-old son of Lucas Blank of The Dalles died at that place Thursday of diphtheria. While there is considerable alarm expressed at the appearance of the disease, every precaution is being taken to prevent its spread; and it is hoped that no further harm may be done by it.
Memorial Services.
 Memorial services will be held in the Congregational church Sunday morning, the 29th inst., at 11 o'clock, Rev. J. W. Rigby officiating. Decoration day will also be appropriately observed under the charge of Canby Post, G.A.R. Company D will participate in the exercises, the programme of which will be printed next week.
Gilmer Notes.
 R. Heyting has just returned from attendance on court at Goldendale.
 The grade at Kliekkat bridge is in good condition.
 Some sheepmen were driven back from Cammas Prairie by a number of settlers May 3d.
 Shaw's saw mill at Glenwood is running full blast.
 Duck and geese are plentiful at Cammas lake.
 Grain looks well and grass is abundant.
 The road from Cammas to Gilmer is in bad condition.
 Mrs. Burschhut's father came from Minnesota last week.
 School Superintendent Brooks visited our school last week.
 Our fruit trees are in full bloom and have escaped the frost so far.
 Mr. C. Carson is putting up a frame barn.
 Sunday school started last Sunday, with Rev. Schyne superintendent.
 Mrs. P. P. Whitcomb and son W. Gilmer, made a flying trip to Goldendale last week.
 John Dethman has taken his stock from the early range along the Columbia to Cammas.
 We have a large increase in the grain acreage over previous years.
FARMER.
White Salmon Side.
 May 19.—Well, Mr. Editor, just as we were addressing your last communication and got to the fourth letter and was as usual making a z instead of a c, a sudden flash of lightning struck us. Our mind reverted to all our past sins where we had been making an oily dauber and putty smeared of us instead of one of those great counterpane of the snow-capped sentinels pointing skywards about us. Of course the joke on me is limited to your humble sanctum; but I'm willing to let it out.
 Our neighbors on the bottom lands are having bad weather for haying. Some has been cured now the second time and is wet again. Messrs. Egan and Warner have their crop all cut, but Mrs. Byrketts has the greater part of her meadow to mow yet. Mr. H. J. Byrketts of Trout Lake is in with his mower assisting.
 Mr. B. S. Ford has gone to Portland to master a few weeks.
 Master Ealus Jewett gave his young friends a genuine candy pulling last Friday. The occasion celebrated his birthday and the little folks had a real frolic.
 Flint Bradford says he is getting rich faster than any man in the country. He threatens, if his good luck in the fishing business continues, to seriously interfere with the trade now monopolized by our White Salmon merchants.
 The Dalles people are talking of a Sunday-school picnic to our shaded lawns. Why not Hood River, too?
 Last Sunday a party of White Salmon folks planned a picnic to the falls. We might call it a Sunday-school picnic, as it was to be composed largely of Sunday school attendants and was to be celebrated on Sunday. But the rain interfered, the leaves and fishes were spared, and the trout that did not dangle at the end of our line that day will live for another week.
 Mr. J. P. Jones' strawberry crop has been cut short by the deer eating the vines off. One would think that there is worlds of grass for them this spring, as there certainly is, but they seem to have a taste for strawberry vines. A few nights ago a couple of our nimrods, with their guns and ramrods, took themselves to Mr. J.'s strawberry patch to capture the intruders. They might have succeeded had they only snored in whispers.
 Mr. J. H. Butler has purchased a handsome hammock cart from J. Hunsaker for only $4.
 Mr. Harvey of Lyle was here last week visiting his daughter, Miss Bird Harvey.
 Mr. James W. Overbaugh has been confined to his home for the past week or more.
 Several of our gardeners are going to experiment in peanuts this season.
 Mr. H. Woodruff, the mail contractor between here and Glenwood, came in Saturday quite indisposed.
 Our very efficient school teacher, Mr. McKay, spent the latter part of last week in Goldendale at the teachers' examination.
 Mr. Ehner Wright was down from The Dalles during the week and went out to Cammas Prairie to see Mrs. Wright, who is visiting at her father's Mr. Staup.
 At the political convention of week before last Messrs. Jewett and Perry were chosen delegates to attend the county convention. W. S.

Attention!
 There will be preaching in the Armory building, Sabbath, at 3:30 p. m., to which all are invited. At the close of services there will be an effort to form a society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. All persons interested are invited to attend the meeting.
 Rev. J. W. Rigby,
 Paston M. E. Church.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
 Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 200,000 more of his make; that means a business of $20,000,000, if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence. Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for catalogue.

Hot coffee and lunch at the bakery. Bread, cakes and pies constantly on hand. Bread six loaves for a quarter.

We have some fine farm properties for sale and those desiring to purchase in the neighborhood will do well to give us a call.
