

Hood River Glacier

HOOD RIVER, OR., MAY 28, 1892.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Seed corn at Harrison's.
Matting 20 cents at Bartmess'.
2-bit cigars at the Drug Store.
A fine line of fresh cigars at the Drug Store.

You can suit yourself in a smoke, according to your pile, at the Drug Store.
T. C. Dallas visited Portland Wednesday.

Henry Howe is teaching the school at the mills.

Ice for sale, pasture and houses to rent. Enquire of J. H. Gerdes.

Dr. Newcombe, after a few days' visit here, went on to California.

Mrs. Ross has gone to Portland to remain during the summer.

Misses Cora Cople and Della Watson went to Portland Wednesday.

Furniture and wood work made to look like new. Kenna & Emmerson.

Have you seen the $15.00 antique maple bed room set at the furniture store?

Van Johnson remembered the printer last Saturday with a box of fine strawberries.

Call early and see the latest styles in cycling millinery, just received at Mrs. Hunt's.

J. R. Rankin returned from a trip to Vancouver and Portland Wednesday evening.

We regret exceedingly to learn that our old friend Tom Wickens is seriously ill.

W. H. Hershey, who has been taking a trip through Sherman county, is again home.

The cruisers Baltimore and Charleston will remain at Portland until after Decoration day.

Perry & Jones shipped a crate of cherries, the first of the season, to Portland Wednesday.

Fred Goodfellow went to Astoria during the week and will probably be there for some time.

It would surprise you to see the new lot of boys' suits at Hanna's, which he is selling cheaper than ever.

The Columbia is rising very rapidly, and if the warm weather holds it is liable to give us extra high water.

Get your front room frescoed with gold border $3.00 to $5.00.

Kenna & Emmerson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bartmess and their family, including Mr. Bartmess' father and mother, visited Portland Wednesday.

A fine lot of home-rendered lard and Oregon hams, houlders and bacon just received at the meat market.

... a something. You can get a pair of pants or a shirt cheaper at Hanna than any other man in town.

The Winans brothers are catching lots of salmon, for a continuation of which they have our very best wishes.

Do you want a good pair of pants for $1.50? If so, look at Hanna's new stock; they are the best in town for the price.

Thursday was about the windiest, dustiest and generally most disagreeable day that Hood River has experienced.

If the river is high enough on the 4th the Regulator will land her passengers at the railroad track, just east of the depot.

Geo. T. Prather went to The Dalles Wednesday, and will make a short trip through the country, being away until the election.

Mr. W. P. Watson and Mrs. Erwin and family came up from Portland Wednesday, and are domiciled in the Watson cottage.

We are pleased to state that Rev. C. W. Wells has been continued in charge of the church here, and will remain here another year, at least.

The royal chook is now on his way up the river and the fishermen are happy. The wheels at and above The Dalles are making splendid catches.

If you want your house insured, remember that the German American; for which we are agent, is one of the largest and most reliable in the world.

The grand jury at this term of court are: W. H. Taylor foreman, R. J. Tucker, J. J. Lewis, George Smith, J. N. Mosier, C. A. Allen, Wallace Fargher.

Mrs. E. Rand, who has been visiting her father, Mr. Turner, for some time, was joined by her husband Wednesday. They will return to Washington in a few days.

Judge Bradshaw had the civil docket cleared off Tuesday, and as soon as the grand jury adjourns the May term of court will be closed, the shortest term on record.

Spokane Falls had a $300,000 fire Monday, principally confined to her mills and lumber yards, and Chehalis about the same time had a disastrous conflagration.

The State Horticultural society will meet here July 12th and 13th, and it is quite probable that most of them will visit Cloud Cap Inn and Mt. Hood before they leave us.

Several drunken Indians have made a nuisance of themselves in this vicinity in the past week. It is quite probable that they have been investing in Jamaica ginger or lemon extract.

Nick Billen has moved the old shingle mill to the corner of Oak and Cipler streets, and by tearing it to pieces and putting a new building in its place has made a real neat little cottage of it.

Charley Wallace undertook to ride a colt last Monday, and did for a few minutes. It made several plunges trying to unseat him, fell over backwards and died. It is supposed a ruptured blood vessel was the cause of its death.

A new stock of suits for the boys at Hanna's.

Pictures framed to order at the furniture store.

All kinds of country produce bought and sold at Harrison's.

Get a bottle of Kenna's furniture polish at the furniture store.

Calculating in fresco colors any tint $2.00 per room and upwards.

Hanna has just received a new and complete line of gent's furnishing goods; you can buy a pair of pants from $1 to $4.50, according to your fancy. Come in and see them, whether you want to buy or not. No trouble to show goods.

The strawberry crop this year will be double that of last year, and as the price will average 13 cents a box, some of the coin of the realm will find its way here in exchange for the scarlet dressed and gold bespangled queen of small fruits.

The grand jury has found a true bill against J. T. Delk, charging him with selling spirituous liquors in less quantities than one gallon, without first procuring a license therefor. If he is convicted the penalty will probably be severe, as it will be a second offense.

We are glad to state that a band has been organized of home talent. Nearly all were members of the old band, and with a little practice will be in good shape. The boys are in earnest, and will furnish the music for the 4th of July celebration.

Will Langille returned from Portland Wednesday, having completed arrangements for opening Cloud Cap Inn as soon as the snow will permit. If the present weather keeps up it is probable the snow will be about all gone by the 15th or 20th of June.

Messrs. J. A. Smith and H. E. Moore, candidates for joint senator and representative for Wasco and Sherman counties, made a two-days' trip through the valley during the week and are well pleased with their reception. Mr. Blythe accompanied them and introduced them to our people.

Mr. M. V. Harrison made glad the heart of ye editor Wednesday by the present of a Clarke thread case, just the thing required for keeping blanks in. It is ornamental, extremely useful, and a daily reminder that the world is growing better, since even the editor of a small country paper can have friends.

E. Locke has shipped a large number of crates of strawberries to Montana, and will probably have several hundred crates more, as the season is only fairly begun. From the sample of six boxes he left us Thursday evening, we can easily understand why the eastern market takes all we can raise and calls for more.

Union services will be held in the Riverside Congregational church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Arthur G. Evans of Pendleton, the gentleman who desires to establish a school here, will conduct the services. Mr. Evans will also preach at the Valley Congregational church at 8 o'clock p. m., immediately after Sunday school.

The Riverside Congregational Sunday school will meet tomorrow at 10 o'clock, instead of 10:30. It is expected that Rev. John B. Devins of New York city, a member of the Presbyterian General Assembly now being held in Portland, and also the Rev. Arthur G. Evans of Pendleton will be present and address the Sunday school. Everybody is invited to come and hear these gentlemen.

We hope to have the programme for the 4th of July in our next issue. The committee have worked energetically and will get up a celebration that will be a credit to us. Quite a sum has been contributed towards meeting the expenses, and this should be swelled by contributions from everybody. It will be a big advertisement for us, and will keep money here that would otherwise go to Portland on that day.

While our Eastern readers are in the midst of dire disaster in the shape of storm and flood, and the buds are but starting, here the strawberry, the gooseberry, the cherry, besides all kinds of "garden sass," are in abundance, and on the 23d ye editor feasted on new potatoes from his own garden. Oregon against the world, and Hood River in the front rank of that magnificent state. That's where she is.

County Judge Thornbury was here Tuesday and went out to Tucker's to examine the bridge across Hood river. The timbers were found to be rotten and the bridge unsafe, so that it was ordered closed for repairs. It will be repaired as quickly as possible, but it will take a month at the best to have it ready for travel. In the meanwhile the public will bear this in mind and travel some other road.

Moonlight Social.

There will be a social at the M. E. church, given by the Belmont Y. P. S. C. E., on Friday evening, June 3d, commencing at 8:30 and will continue as long as the moon shines. Ice cream and cake, 15 cents; strawberries, 10 cents. The proceeds will be used for furnishing a carpet for the M. E. church. Everybody is cordially invited to be present, but do not forget your pocket-book.

Programme for Decoration Day.

Company D will meet at their armory and start for the cemetery at 9:30. Citizens will meet at W. B. Perry's place and fall in behind D company.

Comrade Frank Noble will be marshal of the day.

After decoration of graves and services at the cemetery all will proceed to the school house, where among other things the lunch baskets will be interviewed. Do not fail to attend and to bring your lunch baskets well filled.

Following is the programme for the exercises at the school house:

Music by the band.
Prayer by Rev. Wells.
Music—Hood River Sunday schools.
Recitation by Miss Isenberg.

Music by the band.
Short addresses by comrades and others.
Music—Quartette.
Music by the band.

A Good Scheme.

At this season of the year the ground squirrel, or, as it is more commonly called, the digger, is an unmitigated nuisance. From now on until winter sets in he will be busy at work either digging up young corn and potatoes or barking young trees, and as soon as fruit begins to have any size he may be found in the trees hunting and spoiling the finest specimens. Several plans have been tried to exterminate them, with varying results. The Horticultural society several years ago offered a bounty of 2 cents per head, which materially thinned them out for awhile. There has been talk of "chipping in" and hiring a man with poison to go all over the valley feeding them. Another plan tried was for a large number of men whose lands are contiguous to have one man mix up a large lot of poison and distribute among the others who agree to make thorough work of it on their own premises.

A plan similar to this is now being started and is to include all who will join. The more the better. Now is the time the work should be done, as this is the breeding season, and one killed now is as good as half a dozen a few weeks hence. The poison used with best results is wheat and strychnine in the proportion of one bottle of strychnine to a quart of wheat. Less will sometimes answer, but as either the strength of the poison or the digestive apparatus of the digger varies, it is best to make sure of it and have them "get a plenty while they are getting." Dissolve the poison in a cup of warm water and then add enough flour to make a thin batter. Pour this over the wheat and stir it thoroughly. As soon as it is dry put a few kernels at their holes or runways.

The following persons are already agreed on the plan and are making a united effort to get rid of them this summer. Others are requested to join by following out the suggestions above: A. L. Disbrow, J. H. McCoy, H. C. Bateham, C. P. Heald, H. C. Coe, H. F. Davidson, T. L. Clark, J. S. Tendick, J. T. Nealeigh and others.

"A Yard of Pansies."

Here is a chance for everybody to get, free of cost, an exquisite oil picture 36 inches long, a companion to "A Yard of Roses," which all have seen and admired. This exquisite picture, "A Yard of Pansies," was painted by the same noted artist who did the "Roses." It is the same size, and is pronounced by art critics to be far superior to the "Roses." The reproduction is equal in every respect to the original, which cost $300, and is being given free with every copy of the June number of Demorest's Family Magazine. This June number is a grand souvenir number in celebration of the seventieth anniversary of the birthday of the publisher, and is worth many times the cost, which is only 20 cents, as every purchaser will get, practically free, an exquisite picture; and to those who already have "A Yard of Roses" "A Yard of Pansies" will be doubly valuable, especially as accompanying it are full directions for framing either the "Pansies" or "Roses" at home, at a cost of a few cents. You can get the June number of Demorest's Family Magazine, containing "A Yard of Pansies," of any of our local newsdealers; or send 20 cents to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th St., New York.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.

Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Oregon Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 200,000 more of his make; that means a business of $20,000,000, if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence. Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for catalogue.

Hot coffee and lunch at the bakery. Bread, cakes and pies constantly on hand. Bread six loaves for a quarter.

We have some fine farm properties for sale and those desiring to purchase in the neighborhood will do well to give us a call.

Dr. F. C. Brosius, having succeeded to the medical practice of Dr. E. J. Thomas, can be found at the drug store day or night.
