The 4th of July committee have not yet completed the programme, but have reached a point where they can safely assure our people a grand time.

The heavy winds got in their work on the sand above The Dalles Sunday, and as a result the evening passenger was derailed and made six hours late.
If you want your house insured, remember that the German American; for which we are agent, is one of the largest and most reliable in the world.

Decoration day was not very well observed, the programme being not well prepared, and being also changed so that many were deceived thereby. It was a case of general mismanagement.
Mr. Perry A. Snyder was down from Wasco Sunday visiting C. E. Markham, and returned to his school duties Monday. His many friends, among them most of his old pupils, were glad to see him.

On account of the rush of work during this month in the strawberries the June meeting of the Horticultural society has been omitted. The next meeting will be the state meeting, held here July 12th and 13th.
We have received through the kindness of General Superintendent Lonax, of the Union Pacific, "a dictionary of Chicago," a 300 page work giving a map of the city and a whole wagon-load of information concerning that city.

Citizens of the town should vote as soon as the polls are opened as the precinct is a large one, and under the Australian ballot system it is going to take every minute of the time. Vote early and give the valley people a chance.
Memorial exercises passed off very smoothly and pleasantly. Although not a large crowd, everybody seemed in the best of humor. The day was all that could be asked. The only thing to mar the happiness of any was the runaway.

Hanna has just received a new and complete line of gen's furnishing goods; you can buy a pair of pants from $1 to $4.50, according to your fancy. Come in and see them, whether you want to buy or not. No trouble to show goods.

The old GLACIER shop has been converted into a very neat and tasty residence, James Langille and Will Graham doing the converting. J. W. Keena did the painting, and it is quite evident that he is an "artist with his brush" by profession.

The U. B. Sunday school have in preparation a beautiful service, entitled: "In blossom time." It is for children's day; and will be rendered one week from next Sunday evening. The exercises consisting of responsive readings, songs and recitations.

Green peas and new potatoes maketh the weary housewife's heart glad, likewise the housewife's husband's heart, and the hearts of the children also. These graceful and grateful vegetables take the short cut to the seat of the affections, namely, the stomach route.

Monday the berry shipment reached 244 crates of 24 boxes each, or 5,856 boxes, which, at 14 cents, the average price, would mean $819.84. The cold weather has cut the yield, or it would have made by this time 400 crates, which number will probably be reached next week.

The Union Pacific would do well to put in a side track from the section house to the depot on the south side of track. With proper conveniences for loading cars an immense amount of wood would be shipped from this point. As it is there will probably be 2500 cords shipped this year.

Mr. Stranahan, nephew of O. L. Stranahan, a first class wood turner, came up from Portland Wednesday, and will take a place in the factory here for a while at least. Mr. Stranahan will be remembered by many of our people as the gentleman who turned the cups and goblets at the exposition in Portland.

Will Langille went out to Cloud Cap Monday, getting home Wednesday evening. He reports snow to a depth of sixteen feet this side of the Inn, and that it snowed Tuesday an inch in an hour. It is probable the Inn cannot be opened before the 25 of this month, or if the weather stays cool before July 1st. He brought in some handsome rhododendron, some of which graces our table.

Constable Olinger stopped a youthful couple of runaways, brother and sister, last Sunday. They were from the Cascade Locks, and the girl, aged about thirteen, had dressed herself in a suit of her brother's clothes, and the two were riding blind baggage for the East. They were taken off the train and sent home at once, where, if they knew anything at all of the uncharitable world, they would stay.

Wednesday was a showery day, doing some damage to the ripe strawberries, but making it possible for a denizen of this favored spot of earth to get some of the products of it. As a matter of fact, Hood River strawberries are more abundant in the Helena market than here. The slight damage to the berries was more than offset by the good done to other crops by the rain.

The trainmen here have been complaining of the berry crates not being piled close enough to the track, and Thursday night Mr. Coon undertook to please them, the result was that when the train came in the corner of the car struck the boxes upsetting them onto Mr. Foote, bruising him severely. About $25 worth of berries were destroyed. The company should have two more trucks.

Hon. E. L. Smith sold the 40 acres on Indian creek formerly belonging to Samuel Clark, Wednesday, to H. Gray, H. E. Wiley, E. B. Clark and E. C. Wiley, for $2,000, an increase of over 50 per cent. in value since last summer. In this connection it is appropriate to state that nearly all transfers of farm property in the valley have been of lands situated along Indian creek. This is a silent yet powerful suggestion, as to the needs of the valley. The water privileges, small though they are, have sold the lands.

We have heard several times that some of the residents on the East Side are of the opinion that the GLACIER is inimical to that side of the valley. A moment's thought would convince any reasonable person that there is no foundation for such an idea. Our support comes largely from that side, and of course the greater population and prosperity on that side the better for us. It is true we have refused to publish several communications from that side, just because in our opinion they were not just the thing to publish in the interest of the valley, just as we have refused to publish them from this side, but the reasons were good and sufficient.

U. B. Church Services.
Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Morning theme "Reasonable service." Subject for the evening service: "Hidden Treasure." Sunday school at 10 o'clock in the morning. Young people's meeting at 7 p. m. sharp. This meeting will be held by J. E. Hanna.

For Democrats.
The members of the Hood River Democratic Club, are requested to meet at Prather's building this afternoon (Saturday) at 1 o'clock. Important business is to be transacted, and all that possibly can should attend.

Chandler, Acting Secretary of the Interior, modifies departmental order of May 25, 1888, withdrawing from entry Township 2 North Ranges 13, 14, and 15 East, Klickitat County, Washington, for the use of the Yakima Indians, thereby restoring to the public domain all of the odd sections in said townships, except section 25 in Tp. 2 N. R. 14 E., and sections 13, 17 and 19 in Tp., 2 N. R. 14 E. On and after the 11th day of July, 1892 the above restored lands will be subject to entry or filing.

BORN.
At Mosier, Thursday, June 2nd to Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Creede, a son.

Handsome Berries.
Last week Dr. Brosius sent a crate of strawberries to his friends in Nebraska, just to show them what Hood River could do. The berries were raised by Mr. Cordes and were packed in layers in the boxes, each box containing four layers, and each layer consisting of sixteen berries, or 64 to the box. It is safe to say that such berries were never seen in Nebraska, and when the good people of that country were in the spring is but just commencing realization that at a higher latitude on this side of the Rockies there is a country blessed with a prolific soil and an unequalled climate, there will be more than one who will make up their minds to "come west and grow up with the country."

White Salmon.
While Hood River gets the credit of all berries shipped from this point, it should not be forgotten that our neighbors across the river at White Salmon furnish a goodly number of them. Palmer, Brooks, Sukdorf and others add daily to the shipments, and their berries are first class, too. The fact is, White Salmon, like Hood River, is one of the finest of fruit countries, and, as it becomes known, will be thickly settled. With a railroad down the north side of the river, or even a steamboat line that will run the entire season, White Salmon will be one of the most important, as it is one of the best points on the river.

A Narrow Escape.
Decoration day came near furnishing a fatal accident in the shape of a runaway. Mr. Stewart, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. Georgia Rand and little Dot Watt were returning from the cemetery, where they had been decorating graves, about 10 o'clock in the morning, and when near the old Luckey place they met D company on its way down. The horse took fright at the flag and became unmanageable. Mr. Stewart pulled her out of the road among the rocks, thinking to stop her, but instead the buckboard was upset and the entire party thrown out. The wheels passed over Mrs. Stewart's back, injuring her severely, and Mrs. Smith was thrown so that she fell on her arm, shoulder and head, bruising her badly. Mrs. Rand was also badly bruised, but we are glad indeed to state that a little time and arnica will repair all damages.

Why Did You Not Sing?
The above question has been asked me by a number of persons that knew we had prepared to sing on Decoration day in connection with the G. A. R. celebration at the school house. And the only answer I could give the inquiring parties was, I do not know. And the other members of the song can only say as much. But I would say that the M. E. Sunday school was kindly invited to sing a song Decoration day and it kindly accepted the invitation, willing to do all it could to render the occasion a joyful one, and so eight of the older members of the Sunday school practiced a piece to sing, and came to the ground fully prepared and waiting to be called upon at any moment, but finally it was announced that the literary programme was finished, so we were left in the cold.

Why did you not sing? I do not know. Perhaps the reason was that they were afraid that if we appeared upon the platform we would become scorned. Or, the reason may be that the person or persons that had charge of this part of the programme were afraid that we might from opening our mouths catch cold. Or, the person or persons in charge of the exercises may have thought that our talent would disgrace the occasion. We admit and acknowledge that we are not professional singers, neither do we profess to be. We did not offer our services, but were invited. And as a member of the song I feel highly encouraged by being thus publicly ignored. Why did you not sing? I do not know.

Gilmer Notes.
Mr. Coland Chugman's house was blown from its foundation last week. The roads are drying up fast. R. Heyting has just returned from Caminas Prairie, and reports the ground as still too wet to sow. The prospects for an abundant hay crop are good. Rev. Schyne is getting out the timbers for a frame barn. Your butchers would do well to give us a call if they want some fine fat beef cattle. Grass is plentiful, the best for years. Mr. T. Myers is getting out timber for a frame barn, which will soon be ready to raise. The mill contract has changed hands, the Talmer brothers carrying it, instead of Frank Keel. Mr. W. Gilmer is putting up a new barn on his homestead just south of the old Gilmer place.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 200,000 more of his make; that means a business of $20,000,000, if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence. Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for catalogue.

We have some fine farm properties for sale and those desiring to purchase in the neighborhood will do well to give us a call.
Dr. F. C. Brosius, having succeeded to the medical practice of Dr. E. J. Thomas, can be found at the drug store day or night.
