BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Seed corn at Harrison's.
Matting 20 cents at Bartmess'.
2-bit cigars at the Drug Store.
A fine line of fresh cigars at the Drug Store.
You can suit yourself in a smoke, according to your pile, at the Drug Store.
School closes in this district in two weeks.
Pictures framed to order at the furniture store.
James Langille is again at work at the factory.
The bridge near Disbrow's is being raised this week.
The Dalles has decided to have a 4th of July celebration.

All kinds of country produce bought and sold at Harrison's.
Trimmed hats at cost; come and see them at Miss Stillson's.

Ice for sale, pasture and houses to rent. Enquire of J. H. Groves.

The Regulator made a trip from The Dalles to the Cascades this day.

Mrs. Foster of Vancouver, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Bert Graham.

Captain Frank Coe is visiting his relatives here, arriving Thursday.

Rustic, flooring, ceiling and lath at Hood River Manufacturing Company.

We have been appointed agent for the sale of Joseph A. Wilson's property.

Sash and doors made to order at Hood River Manufacturing Company.

Cherries are abundant in the market and vegetables are getting quite plentiful.

The injured by the runaway on Dec oration day are all about fully recovered.

Have you seen the $15.00 antique mahogany room set at the furniture store?

Get your line of the Hood River Manufacturing Company, at $1.50 per barrel.

Call early and see the latest styles in spring millinery, just received at Mrs. Hunt's.

Mrs. Stout of Portland visited her sister-in-law, Miss Stillson, here during the week.

A small key found near the U. B. church can be had by the owner calling at this office.

As will be seen by an advertisement in this issue The Dalles proposes to celebrate the 4th. Read it.

A fine lot of home-rendered lard and Oregon hams, shoulders and bacon just received at the meat market.

Mr. John Watson came up from Portland Thursday, and will build a cottage near the old Coe homestead.

The rainy weather has not been at all beneficial to the strawberry crop, but still the yield has been a good one.

M. H. Nickelsen is at The Dalles, but is not improving in health as rapidly as was hoped, though he is somewhat better.

Miss Henry will leave Monday for her old home in Nebraska for a visit. She will stop at Denver for a few weeks on her way.

Mrs. Harrison returned last Saturday from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler at Eugene. She comes back much improved in health.

One thousand dollars an acre is a big yield even for small fruits, but some of our strawberry patches have crowded that sum this year.

Some thoughtful friend sent us the vote of Baldwin precinct, which we were glad indeed to get, and for which he has our thanks.

Hon. E. L. Smith visited P. M. of Tuesday, and will leave for the Dalles to attend the Grand Lodge A. O. U. W. to-morrow or Monday.

Mr. Stranahan, the new turner at the factory, did some very pretty work for us in the shape of stair rounds and posts. He is an expert.

Mr. Coffinbury did not do the correct thing by us, but under the circumstances we forgive him. He went and got married, that's what he did.

If you want your horse insured, remember that the German American, for which we are agent, is one of the largest and most reliable in the world.

It is quite probable the Columbia has reached its highest mark for the year. If it will just stop where it is for awhile the fish wheel owners will make a fortune.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McFarland are visiting Mrs. McFarland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Potter. They have spent the winter in Southern California.

A few sharp peals of thunder Thursday reminded us of old times in the states. It's a rare thing in Oregon, though, we believe, more frequent now than in former years.

Mr. and Mrs. West arrived here from Wisconsin Monday and are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard. They are looking for a place to locate, and may conclude to remain with us.

The strawberry shipments still hold up, but the price is down considerably. As most of the berries here were contracted for by the crop, the change of prices affects only the shippers.

Last week we stated that Will Graham and James Langille had done the artistic work in our residence. This was a mistake, as it was Bert Graham and not our young friend Will.

Miss Laura Wilson, came down from The Dalles Thursday to visit her parents and will remain over Sunday.

The state horticultural society will meet here on the 11th and 12th and Hood River should exert herself to make their visit one long to be remembered.

There will be special Children's day exercises at the Congregational church tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. All friends of the school, especially parents of the children, are invited.

The moonlight social at Belmont was a very pleasant affair and gathered in $12 for the Young People's Christian Endeavor. The money, we understand, is for buying a carpet for the church.

The salmon are running plentifully, and our friends, the Winans, are scooping them up in great shape. If the run holds through the season they will not know what to do with their money.

J. M. Huntington was here Wednesday seeking some evidence on which to throw the precinct out. It is not likely that he will find anything to suit him, but if he does, all he has to do is to try it on. Us fellows don't mind being disfranchised if some other fellow can get an office.

This office has been kindly remembered during the week by several of our berry growers. Mr. Bishop with some fine Triumphs, George Jordan with a fine lot of Hood River's pride the Clark's seedling E. C. Rogers with another lot of same kind. The last lot went to the box.

Election day brought in the largest crowd that Hood River has seen for some time, and although 294 votes were polled, there were a large number that did not attend. We think from a careful count that the two precincts, Hood River and Baldwin, contain 300 voters, or a population of about 1,300.

People coming in from the country complain of the foot-ball game played on Oak street. It is quite true that the game is liable to cause a runaway, and perhaps do serious damage if it is kept up. We like to see the boys enjoy themselves, but it would be better, all things considered, if the game was played down on Silver street, or some other place where travel is not impeded by it.

The conductors of the Union Pacific, are making arrangements for having a picnic at Bonneville, June 20th, and will run a special train from Portland, and if possible a special will also be run from The Dalles. We will give the matter further mention next week. The railroad employees are an exceedingly clever lot of gentlemen and will, no doubt have a large number of visitors.

Last week O. L. Stranahan met with an accident that came near costing him his life. While working at the factory he carelessly undertook to kick a belt on to the lower pulley, when a set screw caught in his pants. Oscar set his foot down on the support, and the leg of his pants, his drawers, sock and boot top were torn off. His leg was quite badly bruised, but he is perfectly satisfied with the result.

Some very peculiar ballots were put in the ballot-boxes, but none more amusing than two found in precinct No. 3, East Portland. Some one put in the whole ticket without a scratch until he came to the last name, James Sprague. He marked this out and then wrote under it, "I scratch this man's name for being on the tail end of such a d---n ballot." Another ballot was put in with all the senators and representatives scratched off, and none of the others were touched. The voter then wrote on the bottom, "I scratch these names so you will have less trouble in counting."

A special on the Oregon Pacific struck a hand car on which were the section boss, Pruett, his wife and children and Jacob Devine, eleven in all. The accident occurred on a curve, and as Pruett put the brakes on the hand car, and this threw Mrs. Pruett off under the approaching train, which passed over her, cutting off her head. The engine lifted the car and the others from the track. Pruett's 5-year-old boy had his leg and ankle mashed, requiring amputation, a 2-year-old child killed, as was a child of Manning's. Manning had a leg broken, and his wife an arm, and injured internally so she is paralyzed.

Attention! Ladies.

The W. C. T. U. meeting has been changed from Saturday to Thursday, therefore the regular meeting will be next Thursday, June 16th, at half-past 3, in the U. B. chapel. All are requested to be present.

MRS. BISHOP, Sup't. of Press.

A Lively Runaway.

Wednesday afternoon, as Bert Stranahan was hauling a load of wood to the factory and going down the hill in the Watson field, the wood, which was loaded on some loose boards on the wagon, slipped forward carrying Bert along with it and dropping him on the double trees to the ground. George Rankin had hold of the brake, but he was also thrown off, or else jumped, the horses ran away, dragging Bert quite a distance, he being entangled in the lines, and breaking one of the bones in his right arm before he got loose. The team then ran through the fence, upsetting the wagon. At this place the wagon uncoupled and the horses dashed into a pile of lumber by the factory, checked up and then lit out again. In a short distance they ran into a small ash tree, breaking loose from the wagon, and from this on each horse took his own course. Bert is not hurt seriously, but it was an awful close call.

The Midnight Social.

The strawberry and ice cream social of the Belmont Y. P. S. C. E., was a grand success, notwithstanding the coolness of the weather. There were quite a number of representatives for berries and ice cream; and each one appeared to be happy. The proceeds were $12.75 for which the society is thankful. After supper the young people engaged in playing games.

BORN.

Friday, June 3, 1892, to Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Hill, a son.

Two Points to Observe in Walking.

There are two vital points indispensable to a good walk, which, if the student will observe, he will acquire a free and elastic carriage. These two points are to let the chest lead, and to feel the balls of the feet as one walks. I do not say point the toes downward, for this will give a strained and mincing gait at first. But as you walk, so pose yourself that the heels touch but lightly, and as it were, incidentally, and all the weight and strain coming on the balls. This, with a forward and erect chest, will give the main items for a good walk, and the minor points, such as controlling the hips, restraining the arms slightly, etc., may follow as incidentals.—Chicago Woman's News.

The Largest Bible.

A German lady living in Manchester, England, possesses what is supposed to be the largest Bible, in one volume, in the world. It is an heirloom, 200 years old, with pages two feet long and but little less in width, and at the head of each page is a line in red ink which translated reads, "This is a history."—Mechanical News.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.

Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 200,000 more of his make; that means a business of $20,000,000; if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence. Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for catalogue.

We have some fine farm properties for sale and those desiring to purchase in the neighborhood will do well to give us a call.
