The Oregon Lumber Co. are moving Mill A to the forks of the canyon above the Parker mill, and expect to have it running by the middle of the month.

According to the last census, Oregon is next to the healthiest state in the Union, Idaho only being ahead with 11 per cent. of deaths to every 100 inhabitants.

Since the decision on the Phelps creek water case the Oregon Lumber company has repaired and lined its flume and thinks there will be no trouble in running the flume.

The democratic nominees for presidential electors are Robert A. Miller and W. M. Colvig, both of Jacksonville, George Nolan of Astoria, and W. F. Butcher of Baker City.

The trouble with the water pipes recently was caused by the screen getting worn out, and water crept getting into them, which choked the cut offs. There will probably be no further trouble.

We are perfectly willing to take wood on subscription, but we want it distinctly understood it must be pine or fir, no hard wood, for from present indications we will have to cut it ourselves.

N. C. Evans drove 300 cords of wood down the river from his place last week, C. S. Stowell having charge of the job. The wood is about all on the bank now, the drive occupying three days.

It was hotter than healthy Monday and Tuesday, but the thermometer told us it was only 66. We firmly believe that thermometer formerly belonged to a government statistician, and just lied from the force of habit.

Will Langille came in from the Elk beds Wednesday. He reports the road to Cloud Cap Inn as open for travel. The Inn itself was opened yesterday, and to-day two Portland parties are expected to make the first trip of the season.

J. H. Middleton is again home, after a trip to Portland and Seattle. From him we learn that Mr. and Mrs. Van Asselt are in excellent health, but that their daughter Nellie is in California sick, and that her brother, J. H. Van Asselt, is with her.

J. R. Rankin loaded his furniture and household goods on the ferry-boat, Wednesday, for the purpose of moving to his new home across the Columbia. The gentle zephyr prevailed, and as a result the river was too rough to be crossed without danger of damage to his goods.

Some of our subscribers responded to our urgent appeal last week, but generally they were the persons whom we were not appealing to. Those who owe for the paper for more than a year, and especially those who have forgotten us since 1889, are persons we most desire to have settle up.

We are going to celebrate on the 4th, and we want everybody to join us. There will be an interesting programme, music by our new band and fireworks in the evening. The steamer Regulator will bring quite a number from The Dalles. The river is still at a good stage and the boat will land within fifty yards of the railroad depot.

If it be true as the saying is that "He who makes two blades of grass to grow where only one grew before is a benefactor to mankind," it is certainly also true that he is a benefactor who makes only one fern grow where two grew before. Our gardeners and fruit growers who are kept busy these hot days fighting ferns are welcome to all the consolation they can get out of this.

Messrs. Smith and LaFrance have built a reservoir at their spring on the hill, and will lay pipes to their houses to get water for irrigation. The first 100 feet will be 2-inch pipe, and after that 100 feet of 1 1/2 pipe. From this LaFrance will lay 600 feet of inch pipe to his place, and Mr. Smith 1600 to his. The reservoir is ten feet square and four feet deep.

Marvin Rand has a fine selection of fireworks; he also has a cub bear. We offer a suggestion, that in case he has any sky rockets left, he attach them to the bear's collar and shoot him back into Washington, where he came from. Up to date there are not more than a dozen pairs of scratched hands to the cub's credit, but he is patiently and persistently swelling the number.

The steamer Regulator will leave The Dalles Monday morning, July 4th, at 6 o'clock, arriving here shortly after 7 and leaving for The Dalles at 8. She will leave The Dalles again in the afternoon at 6, getting back at 8:30, in time for the fireworks. This arrangement will permit Dalles people to visit us for the day, or our people to go there. It will be observed also that the day can be spent here and the evening at our metropolis.

Lawrence and his wife have also located at that point, he taking a half interest in the store, of which he will be in charge. They will put up a new store building at the turn in the road, just south of the present store, and Lawrence will build a residence, the Hood River Manufacturing company already having an order for all the doors, windows and dressed lumber. This company will frame Lawrence's house and ship it over.

U. B. Quarterly Meeting.
Saturday and Sunday, July, 9th and 10th. Preaching Saturday eve and Sunday at 11 a. m., and 8:30 p. m., by Rev. G. Sicksfosse, of Portland.

U. B. church services: Preaching morning and evening. Sabbath school at 10 a. m., Y. P. C. U. meeting at 7:45 in the evening. Prayer meeting Wednesday eve at 8:30. Welcome to all.

Programme for the 4th.
Procession to form at 10 a. m., near Harrison's store, led by the Hood River brass band, and Company D O. N. G., followed by civic societies, citizens in carriages; citizens on horse, back and citizens on foot.

On arriving at the grounds the following exercises will be held: Music by the band; patriotic song; prayer by Rev. C. W. Wells; oration; song, national ode with band accompaniment; reading the Declaration of Independence; music by band; basket dinner; foot ball game between married and single men; base ball game between two selected nines; foot race 100 yards; climbing greased pole; plug ugly parade; tug of war between mill and town teams; ladies' foot race; boys' race under 14 years; girls' race under 14 years; sack race; catling greased pig.

Suitable prizes will be awarded the successful competitors. Grandest display of fire works at night ever given east of Portland.

Dance.
At Tucker's hall Monday evening, July 4th. The girls will take a cake (Hood River girls always take the cake), and their escorts will be taxed 50 cents to pay the musicians. The bridge is now completed so that the heaviest team loaded with the biggest boys and the handsomest girls can cross in safety.

Cheap Labor.
Now that the season for picking fruit and harvesting crops has arrived, I beg leave to announce that I am on hand and will do all such work cheaper than the cheapest. Talk about the Chinaman being cheap, I can underbid him any day. To expedite matters in a hurrying line, I always bring along my six children, who are experts at picking fruit, and it is astonishing what loads they will carry out of a field of grain. Any one wanting work done need only let us know where his crops are and we will attend to them. We ask nothing for our services, not even our dinner, as we always look out for that. Some folks seem to think that after picking all their fruit that we should be treated to poison wheat, but as it somehow disagrees with our constitutions and unfits us for work, we prefer to just let alone.

Your humble servants,
GRAY DIGGER & Co.

Read This.
C. Stanley Stowell has been appointed agent in Wasco county for the monthly magazines and elegant imported photograph albums of Messrs. True & Co. He will visit the citizens of Hood river valley during the ensuing week for the purpose of introducing these desirable publications, and at the same time will distribute free of cost a splendid collection of art treasures to each subscriber. Also agent for the world renowned "Story of Man."

Frankton Notes.
The strawberry season just closed was, as usual, quite remunerative to the growers. New ground is now being prepared and next year in this locality the land planted to strawberries will probably double the area for this year. Mr. M. Foley has his land in readiness for plants and will begin setting in a few days.

Will Rogers, our photographer, got a good picture of our school house and the assembled picnickers at the May day picnic. Will is getting to be quite an artist. His views of Mitchell's Point from the fruit ranches of Absten and Locke are good.

Old Sol left his mark on the south-west side of a good many apples during the hot days the first of this week.

Mrs. E. Snow has been on the sick list, but we are glad to note that she is improving.

Mr. H. A. Pratt went to Portland Monday to superintend the construction of a wind mill.

Miss Shattuck, daughter of Judge E. D. Shattuck, is stopping with Mrs. Lyman Smith.

S. J. LaFrance and family will occupy the Elliot cottage, on the Smith place, for the summer.

Lyman Smith is expected home Saturday.

The robins and black woodpeckers were destructive as usual on the cherry crop. At least one-third of the crop in this community was gathered by these bold foragers, and in some instances the boys from town got away with the other two-thirds.

A tramp entered the house of J. T. Neff Sunday, during the absence of Mr. Neff, and helped himself to cold victuals. Mr. B. Warren found one of these tourists in his barn Monday morning. He said he was looking for work. Mr. Warren hurt his feelings by offering him a job of hoeing. He said he was on his way to the planer and if he did not strike work there he would come back. In about an hour he returned and struck a few licks with the hoe, but soon went off to rest and forgot to come back.

The grass is fast drying up and so are the cows. We have a dairy country only for about two months in the year. If we ever get a ditch these conditions will be changed. With water to irrigate fields of clover there would be money in butter at 35 cents a roll during the summer months. Z.

Matting 20 cents at Bartmess.

A Busy Place.
The Hood River Manufacturing company's shops present a busy appearance. Stacks of moldings of all designs and patterns have been made, two hundred doors of the very best quality have been added to their stock during the past week, and a great pile of windows are being made. At the rear of the shop Coe & Mathias' boat is being rapidly put together, and just west of the shop Stranaban is building a residence. The company has put in a fine stock of lumber, including 60,000 of cedar from Latourelle, and are prepared to make anything on short notice. The Coe-Mathias boat is a very pretty model, 30 feet long, and will carry forty persons. The planking was put on her Thursday, and she will probably be finished by the 10th of this month. There is an air of business prosperity about the shops that in these dull times is worth going much further than to them to see.

BEATTY'S PIANOS AND ORGANS.
Hon. Daniel F. Beatty, the great Organ and Piano manufacturer, is building and shipping more Organs and Pianos than ever. In 1870 Mr. Beatty left home a penniless plow boy, and by his indomitable will he has worked his way up so as to sell so far nearly 100,000 of Beatty's Organs and Pianos since 1870. Nothing seems to dishearten him; obstacles laid in his way, that would have wrecked any ordinary man forever, he turns to an advertisement and comes out of it brighter than ever. His instruments, as is well known, are very popular and are to be found in all parts of the world. We are informed that during the next ten years he intends to sell 200,000 more of his make; that means a business of $20,000,000, if we average them at $100 each. It is already the largest business of the kind in existence. Send to Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey, for catalogue.
