

Hood River Glacier.

HOOD RIVER, OR., OCT. 15, 1862.

THE MAIL.

The mail arrives from Mt. Hood at 11 o'clock A.M. Wednesday and Saturday; also on Monday and Friday evenings.

For Chehalis, leaves at 4 A.M. arrives at 1 P.M. Saturday.

For White Salmon, leaves daily at 8 A.M. arrives at 1 P.M. Saturday.

From White Salmon, leaves for Pudding, 4 P.M.; from Trout Lake and Greenwood Mountain, Wednesdays and Fridays.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

S. J. LaFrance arrived home Monday.

Do not forget the water meeting today.

Alvin Hensley went to Grant's Wednesday.

New line of fine toilet soap at the drug store.

Pictures framed to order at the furniture store.

True to name—"Perfection" dyes at the drug store.

Some fine violins for sale at M. H. Nickelson's.

Wm. Hand is in attendance at the county fair.

Fresh cigars, of the best brands only, kept at the drug store.

Smoke the Heemann 10 cent cigar.

M. H. Nickelson's.

Lou Morse and J. E. Hanna were in The Dalles Monday.

Flower pots, plain and fancy, in profusion, at the drug store.

Jud Ferguson is taking in the exposition at Portland this week.

William F. Tate made final proof on his homestead last Saturday.

William Bierman proved up on his claim Wednesday at The Dalles.

I. X. L. tree spruce as well as all other insecticides at the drug store.

Bertha Prather is very sick, being threatened with an attack of fever.

Best quality of Boeche Harbor lime at $1.30 per barrel. S. C. Bartsch.

A large supply of handsome wall paper just received by S. C. Bartsch.

M. V. Harrison went to Portland Wednesday evening on a business trip.

New stock of Oliver chilled and other pieces just received at Oliver & Bone's.

Leave your orders for newspapers and magazines, with M. H. Nickelson.

Handkerchief extracts and toilet perfumes of the best grades, at the drug store.

Sewing machine needles for all machines, oil and extras at M. H. Nickelson's.

There was a dance at Blowers' hall, at White Salmon, last evening (Friday).

Mrs. Charlotte Hartleit for her home, Syracuse, Nebraska, Wednesday evening.

F. H. Button, who has been taking in the Walla Walla mists, got home Saturday.

Many of our people are in attendance at the county fair or the Portland exposition.

Matt Watson is up from California and made Hood River a flying visit Saturday.

Charles Chandler commenced yesterday to set out an acre of two to strawberry plants.

Firstclass cedar shingles $2.25 per thousand at the Hood River M. F. G. Co.'s store.

Portland George Bretell and wife of Portland are visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Blythe this week.

S. C. Bartsch and sons Meijer and Earl went as far as Portland Monday with Mr. Bartsch's parents.

Mrs. S. F. Blythe, Ned and Clara returned home Friday of last week, after a two-weeks visit in Portland.

Jasper Wickham has set out this fall 30,000 strawberry plants, more than doubling his patch of last year.

Dr. and Mrs. Brosius went to The Dalles Thursday to attend the fair, returning on the last Friday morning.

T. J. Watson was here Saturday and informs us he will put teams at work grading the streets in Wauna this fall.

J. P. Watson has his new residence about completed and will have one of the neatest homes in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Letta Gray arrived here from the Sound Monday and is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Rogers.

H. C. Cox and the Glacier editor were at Eugene this week attending the grand lodge meeting of the Knights of Pythias.

Mrs. King, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Sheppard of Tacoma, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Henry Crapper.

Mrs. C. G. Roberts and family started to Portland Monday from The Dalles on their way to California to spend the winter.

Mrs. B. Warren, Madge and Willie returned last week from their trip to Kent, Washington. Miss Bessie Lloyd returned with them.

Remember that the celebration of Columbus day will take place at the school house next Friday, and be on hand to make it a success.

Supt. M. W. Smith of the State Reform School stopped off at Hood River Monday evening, looking after two boys that had escaped from the school.

Arrangements have been completed for carrying out the official programme for the celebration of Columbus day in District No. 3. See programme elsewhere.

J. C. Roeggs, who removed from here to LaFonda about two years ago, has returned to Hood River and is living on Newton Clarke's place.

Mr. Detweller, the Portland surveyor, arrived here Wednesday and is making a survey and estimates for the East Columbia Irrigation company.

Mrs. Adair, Inspector of relief corps of the G. A. R., accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Patterson of The Dalles, inspected the W. R. C there Saturday evening.

Will Harris returned from Spokane much sooner than he expected, and stopped off here for a brief visit Sunday, leaving for Portland that evening.

Mr. Blows has purchased a lot of W. P. and T. J. Watson in Wauna, and is buying the lumber stored on the ground preparatory to building a residence.

R. M. Wilson will put up a building 18x24 for a harness shop next to the building occupied by Mr. Wehrs, and on part of the ground leased by Engle and Woodward.

Mrs. Milton Peeler and family have returned from the Sound to Hood River testing, and will for the present make their home with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Peeler.

The salmon-trout fishing is excellent, and the market is well supplied with them. Mr. O. C. Bartmessennant two very fine ones recently, the larger weighing four and a half pounds.

Fidney Young, The Dalles Jeweler, dearies to say that he is still in business and can be found in T. C. Nickelson's store on Second street, next door to his old stand. Watch repairing a specialty.

Mr. Bert Graham moved into J. W. Walker's house Tuesday, having formerly lived in the house purchased by Mr. Bissel of Mrs. Hall. Mr. Husband will move into his new home at once.

The apple crop next year should be a large one as thousands of young trees will yield their first crop in 1863. Yet a few years and Hood River will be more famous for its orchard fruits than for its berries.

Judee Moulton of Portland, who has been stamping Clatsop County in the interests of the people's party, stopped at Hood River Wednesday on his way home. He made a call in company with Mr. H. Jewett.

The Portland exposition has but one week to run, so those desiring to visit it must get a move on. It is the best exhibit Portland has ever had. It is heavy duty due to the efforts of Superintendent Mitchell.

Saturday is grueling day at Hartman Bros' with business in full blossom. Near neighbors are always ready to give precedence to those from a distance, so they need not go home without their grist.

From estimates made by parties interested it is quite probable that the area planted to strawberries has been nearly doubled this fall, and with a good season the shipments next year ought to amount to $40,000.

The GLACIER received through Jas. Lamore several copies of the Daily Pudding, printed and published by the students of Stanford University, California. The paper is ably edited and presents a neat appearance typographically.

The names of 140 people who have been enlisted during the present term of school have been sent to I. C. Nickelson, at The Dalles. Any representative of the family can secure the badges for Columbia Day free by calling at Mr. Nickelson's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Ziegler, father and mother of our former townsmen, J. A. Ziegler, who were here visiting about a year ago, were as well pleased with Oregon that they have disposed of their home in Indiana and returned to stay. They are located at Arlington.

Mrs. J. L. Langille received notice by telegram Wednesday of the death of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hardinge, at Tuckel, Nova Scotia. She was aged 20 years, 7 months and 7 days. As she had been sick for the past five months, her death was not entirely unexpected.

A five-cent contribution will be solicited on Columbus day in District No. 3, to help carry on the Oregon state educational exhibit at the World's fair.

The executive committee desire to raise twenty-five hundred dollars for that purpose. Photographs of the schools will be sent.

Clarence English and Bert Woodard have leased the corner lot opposite Harrison's store of Mrs. E. L. Smith and Mrs. S. J. LaFrance, for five years, and will put up a store building 24x40 ft. Once. They will use the same when finished to carry a large stock of paints, oils, furniture, etc.

Jasper Wickham sold forty acres to C. W. Reed, who has built a house and barn and moved his family into the place. Mr. Reed is from Morrow county, where he is at present attending to the shipment of the balance of his goods to this place. He will engage in strawberry culture, for which his purse is well adapted.

Troy Shelley made an official visit to the schools of District No. 3 last Wednesday, and after giving a brief talk on the necessities of knowledge for future usefulness, explained the grade system for the schools of Wasco county. Those pupils who complete the course and pass an examination equal to that for securing a third-grade certificate will be entitled to a diploma.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bartmess left Monday night for their home in Indiana. They go by the way of Sacramento, thence over the Central Pacific to Kansas City, where they will visit their daughter. They have been here over a year and leave many friends to regret their departure. We feel certain of their speedy return, as a year on the Pacific coast, especially if spent in Hood River, makes the East distasteful, at least.

Dinner Election Day.

The ladies of the Riverside Congregational church, will serve dinner and supper on election day, at reasonable prices to all wishing to partake. Further notice will be given.

Mrs. C. G. Roberts and family started to Portland Monday from The Dalles on their way to California to spend the winter.

Mrs. B. Warren, Madge and Willie returned last week from their trip to Kent, Washington. Miss Bessie Lloyd returned with them.

Remember that the celebration of Columbus day will take place at the school house next Friday, and be on hand to make it a success.

Supt. M. W. Smith of the State Reform School stopped off at Hood River Monday evening, looking after two boys that had escaped from the school.

Arrangements have been completed for carrying out the official programme for the celebration of Columbus day in District No. 3. See programme elsewhere.

$500,000 BEATTY'S organs for parts of which address Daniel F. Beatty, Washington, New Jersey.

BORN.

At Hood River, Sunday, October 9th, to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Todd, a son.

At Arlington, September 29th, to Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Harrison, a daughter.

At Hood River, Tuesday, October 11th, to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rand, a son.

At Mosier, October 8th, to Mr. and Mrs. Amos Root, a son.

At Mosier, October 8th, to Mr. and Mrs. Amos Root, a son.

Official Programme for the National Public School Celebration October 21, 1862—District No. 3.

Reading of the President's Proclamation.—T. J. Gilbert.

Eulogy on the late Gen. Wm. T. Sherman.—Gen. J. G. Foster.

Song of Country Home.—By the people.

Prayer.—Rev. Dr. W. W. West.

Song of Columbus Day.—By the people.

Address.—The Standing of the Free States.—J. H. Pendleton.

The Old Columbian Landing.—John C. Frémont.

Song.—Mrs. T. L. Smith.

Concert.—H. C. Beatty.

Armenian song.

Hyman to the South in Autumn.—A. C. Jackson.

National song.—W. B. C.

Commemoration.—Frank Watson.

Chorus.—The Standing of the Free States.—J. H. Pendleton.

Organ.—John C. Frémont.

Organ.—H. C. Beatty.

Organ.—John C. Frémont.

Organ.—John C. Frémont.