THE ELECTION.

The election is over, and settled by such overwhelming majorities that no such a sweep since Grant's first election. The returns are not complete and exact majorities can not be given, but quibbles can arise. There has not been Cleveland will have 300 electoral votes across Hood River. We also made a without doubt. Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana, and California, have been taken from the republican column, while Connecticut and New

He says: "The party challenged the judgment of the country on the Mc-Kinley bill, and the verdict must be accepted as the will of the people that a different policy shall be adopted. Other questions entered somewhat into the contest, but not to such an extent as to materially affect the result. Nor would it have been different if other candidates had been selected, or other leaders managed the campaign. No administration ever went before the country with a clearer record.
