In buying baking powders, as well as anything else, insist upon having the worth of your money. If another brand is urged upon you in place of the Royal, bear in mind that it has from 27 to 50 per cent. less leavening strength than the Royal, as shown by the official chemical tests, which is equal to from 1312 to 25 cents per pound less value than the Royal. If you buy a low class powder, see that you are charged a correspondingly lower price.

To use a slang expression, the women are "getting there in great shape" in every part of the world. There is in London a firm of women tea merchants who have bought an estate in Ceylon, and carry on their business entirely through women blenders, tasters, packers and agents. PUT DOWN BY THE DOG

HOW A REVOLUTION WAS SUP-PRESSED BY A PLAYFUL PUP.

The Bull Pap Thought There Was a Grand Opportunity to Have Some Fun and Started in to Enjoy Himself-Consternation Among the Revolutionists.

Another revolution has been suppressed in Hawaii, and the supporters of the queen are congratulating themtelves on the strength of the government. Other people recall the fact that fae first Wilcox rebellion was suppressed by a baseball pitcher after the king had been driven to the royal boathouse for protection. A few who know are also telling the merry tale of how Harry Gillig's bull pup put down a revolution, saved a throne and scattered the leaguering armies of the rebels-all in the opera bouffe kingdom of the Colorado Maduros. This is the story George Nagle

"We were at the islands a year or two ago-Harry Gillig, Frank Unger, myself and Pierrot. Wanted to Jine.

While waiting at a station in South Carotina one day I was joined by a man who car ried an old fashioned satchel on his shoulder, and who had evidently walked many miles through the rud. He was fully 60 years of age, scrawny and beanely, and he simply nodded to me and sat down on a bale of cotton. In about ter minutes along came a woman in home spun, fully his age and about as bemely. She had also had a long walk. She noticed to me and sat down on another cotton bale. Not a word was said between us for ten mirutes. Then as the whistle of the train was heard in the distance she said to the man;

"Then, Jim, you ar' gwine off ter jine the

"I am, Hannah," he replied,
"An' you won't take met"

"And I'm to be left?"

"And it won't do no good to argufy!" "Not a bit."

"Wall, then, good-by to you." She started forward with extended arm, but passed his hand and seized the satchel an I flung it thirty feet away. Then she grabbed him by the hair and they went off the platform into a mud hole together, and as the train moved array she was on top and jamming his head into the old gold soil and saying between the jams: "Want to jose the Mormons, do you! Want to leave the ob wife who's dun fived with you
