

W. H. Wilson, Attorney-at-Law, Rooms 24 and 25, New Post Office, The Dalles, Oregon.

Hood River Glacier

HOOD RIVER, OR., NOV. 29, 1892

THE MAIL. The mail arrives from Mt. Hood at 11 o'clock A. M. ...

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS. New line of fine toilet soap at the drug store. Pictures framed to order at the furniture store.

Some fine violins for sale at M. H. Nickelsen's. Fresh eggs of the best brands only, kept at the drug store.

Andrew Wright of the mills has ten geese of excellent quality. Flower pots, plain and fancy, in profusion at the drug store.

Santa Claus is making his headquarters at M. H. Nickelsen's. Handkerchiefs, white and colored, for sale at the drug store.

U. B. church services, at 11 a. m., and 7 p. m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening. $1.00 per barrel for Huntington lime.

Rev. E. P. Roberts of The Dalles, passed through here Monday enroute to California where he will spend the winter of this year.

Mrs. A. B. Middleton, came up from Portland Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Howell, and is now visiting her daughter Mrs. Bone, and will return here.

Mr. Hengel has just completed a residence on his place near the big spring above Tucker's and will move into it soon. He has an acre of berries planted on the place.

The summer regulator is doing a fine trade here. The Dalles stock yards are covered with cattle and the demand goes on with them every day.

Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m., Mrs. Helen B. Harford, State Organizer and Lecturer for the Oregon W. C. T. U., will lecture in the U. B. church, also at 4 p. m., Saturday will hold a mothers' meeting at same place.

The Ladies Aid Society will repeat the medley social Tuesday night in the Middleton building. A number of novel features will be introduced, and a prize given to the girl adjudged by the votes of those present to be the handsomest.

The case of the state against young McNulty, was tried Monday and submitted without argument. The jury after being out all night, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

A. B. Jones expects to go to Montana next week to remain until January 1893. He will visit his father at Grand, and confidentially told us that he intended to kill seven elk, and found out a hundred to his credit, as he has already killed 31. One good set of horns will fall to our share.

The "Tuesdays" held a meeting at the residence of Mrs. E. L. Smith, last Tuesday evening. Seven new members were received. The treasury report showed $2.40 in the treasury.

Some devout souls, desiring to return thanks for divine mercies, stole three chickens from M. H. Nickelsen Tuesday night to do it with. If he would return the chickens along with the thanks, Nickelsen would have a better opinion of the person, and greater faith in the efficacy of thanksgiving.

At the close of the children's exercises last Sunday evening the Congregationalists were very pleasantly surprised by being presented with a fine new paper for use in the church.

Some persons or persons have been seen to go to the best spots and pick up some of the best beyond the city. Such good quality work is scarce in this country.

At the residence of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Lange, Rev. E. W. Watts officiating, Charles G. Dyball and Miss Myra Lange.
