BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

School commences Monday.
George Coleman was at The Dalles Thursday.

Miss Anne C. Smith, teacher of piano, organ and voice.

Mrs. M. E. Nickelsen went to The Dalles Wednesday night.

Carlson of Redie Harbor line just received at S. E. Hartness.

Papa's plaster dyes marbling fluid and calico paper, at the drug store.

County and state taxes will be delinquent April 1st. Don't forget it.

Mrs. Howe came up from Portland, Tuesday, to remain until next fall.

Dick Jones, who has been spending the winter in the East, is again with us.

Wallace and Harrison have for sale apples, dried fruit, butter, eggs, bacon, etc.

Several members of the A. O. U. W. were down from The Dalles Tuesday evening.

The hay scales have been moved and are now located in front of Graham's butcher shop.

If you want to do a cash business in buying or selling produce, see Wallace & Harrison.

Frank Noble was at The Dalles Wednesday, paying taxes for everybody—except us.

Elmer Hand, S. E. Hartness and J. T. Bell were passengers for Portland Wednesday evening.

Gardner Palmer has bought the Wallace property in Waucoma and will move here at once.

Jack Luckey's cow was struck by the east-bound passenger train Monday, and was quite badly hurt.

Mrs. Southern, whose husband died here some time ago, is visiting friends here, arriving Monday night.

Every strawberry grower should have a Planot Jr. hand hoe cultivator, and glow. For sale by Olinger & Bone.

Miss Maud Gilbert, who has been visiting her little friend Frank Coe in Portland, returned home this week.

Waucoma Lodge K. of P. has purchased the Oak Grove cemetery and will fence, clear and plat the ground.

The contract for the stone work on the new county road down the White Salmon bluff has been let to Tom Quigley for $250.

Mrs. Sidney Coates and children came up from Portland Wednesday. She is the wife of Rev. Coates, formerly of this place, and is visiting friends in the valley.

The Winans brothers have placed a wire across the Columbia, near the fish wheels, and will send their fish across to the cannery by the "cable line."

Grand Chancellor E. E. Sharon visited Waucoma Lodge K. of P. Saturday. After the lodge adjourned the members repaired to the Langille house where a fine supper was served.

County Clerk Crossen, attempting to board the west bound train at The Dalles, Wednesday, slipped and fell across the rail directly in front of the car wheel, the train being in motion. He rolled quickly to one side, just in time to save his life, as the wheels were almost upon him. He was not hurt, but it was a close call.

The firm of Woodard & English is dissolved and so is Woodard. He has gone to Portland, leaving the partnership debts, which he assumed in the settlement, with English for that gentleman to pay. It is quite probable Mr. Woodard may return to Hood River at the urgent request of the sheriff, if he does not settle.

A combine has been formed by the box factories of Portland, and hereafter all taxes will be charged for at the uniform price of 25 cents, filled. The Hood River Fruit Co. have several car loads on hand, and it will pay all berry shippers or others wanting crates to call on them, as they will be sold at less than Portland prices with freight added.

Sheriff Ward was here Wednesday looking after an escaped prisoner. As the fellow was arrested by deputy marshal Jamison, and would have netted $10, to the government, and perhaps $75, to the deputy marshal, while depleting the treasury to the extent of $150, we congratulate the government, and the prisoner on their escape, while tendering our sympathy to the stricken marshal. It was unkind of the prisoner to lacerate his feelings by such conduct, but a week and long suffering public will forgive him.

Gilmer Notes.
GILMER, March 19, '23.

R. Heyting sold some very fine beef to Mr. Hartley of your place last week. The snow here is over a foot in depth yet, and last night added three inches more to it. Quite a number of our people have turned their cattle out on the range, but there is but little on them to eat yet. Hay is getting very scarce, and they may have to drive their stock over to Cammas Prairie, where everybody has an abundance of hay. The snow on the divide between here and there is said to be three feet deep. L. Stump went down last week with a band of beef cattle for the Portland market. School commenced the 7th, with Miss Bess Isenberg in charge. Will Gilmer is getting out timber for a barn. J. O. Shaw came over from Glenwood, Sunday, through two feet of snow.
FARMER.

I have purchased the harness stock and tools of M. H. Wilson, and am prepared to furnish anything in the harness line at Portland prices. Repairing of all kinds done on short notice. Shop back of Graham's butcher shop.
E. D. CALKINS.

Some Fine Apples.

W. J. Baker shipped 37 boxes of apples, Yellow Newtown pippins, to Portland this week, and went down Tuesday to sell them. As soon as the apples were shown, every fruit dealer in the city wanted them, and Mr. Baker could have obtained almost any price he wanted for them. As it was, he sold them to the world's fair commission at considerably less than what he was offered by others. As it was, the 37 boxes sold for $63.25, or $2.52 per box. Dr. Carlwell and others, expert fruit growers, pronounced them the finest seen in Oregon this year, and predicted that the exhibition of these apples alone at Chicago would be worth thousands of dollars to Hood River as an advertisement. Indeed, they have already proven valuable, for some of those who saw them declared their intention of owning some of Hood River's fruit land, and that this summer. Mr. Baker is wide awake to the benefits of advertising and is to be commended for the sacrifice of his pecuniary interests in letting the apples go to Chicago, as well as for producing and caring for such fine fruit. Hood River can raise the finest apples in the world as well as the finest strawberries, and while the latter crop this year will probably yield a larger return financially, in a few years it will be displaced by the king of all fruits, the apple.

School Matters.

The school meeting Monday was quite well attended and peace hovered her white wings over it. The situation was generally discussed and the opinion was practically unanimous that it was not best to borrow money to carry on the school, especially as the district will probably have to put up a new building next year. The county and state funds will run the school with two teachers for six months, and the directors were instructed to run the school for that time. It was intended to hire a room and employ three teachers, but the impossibility of levying a legal tax forced the directors to abandon this project. By unanimous vote the directors were authorized to borrow money sufficient to pay for janitor and incidental expenses and for paying a small portion of the debt, which falls due the coming summer. Capt. Blowers, who holds the note of the district for $100, kindly consented to extend the time of payment one year. No pupils will be received from outside the district, owing to the lack of room.

Easter.

At the U. B. church on Easter Sunday, at the 11 o'clock hour, a beautiful service, entitled "Hail the Prince," will be rendered, by the Sunday school. The exercises consist of solo's, duets, quartets, choruses, responsive reading, with appropriate recitations.

At the close of the morning sermon at the U. B. church last Sabbath the following persons were baptized, Mrs. Hartley, Vessey Hershey, Eugene Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Creed, and Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Harrison.

Hood River Fruit Grower's Union.

Notice is hereby given to stockholders of the Hood River Fruit Grower's Union, that an assessment of 10 per cent, (50 cents per share) is now due. Dated Hood River Oregon, March 25, 1923.
H. F. DAVINSON,
Secretary.

BOOKS.

At White Salmon, Wednesday, March 23d, to Mr. and Mrs. George A. Thomas, a daughter.

Mount Hood Locals.

MOUNT HOOD, March 21.

We are still snow bound, and very little prospect of the snow going off in a hurry. Neither are the girls going off in a hurry.

Mr. Hensen of Kingsley was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Robert Lelsure, last week.

There was a social hop at Mr. Joe Divers' last week. From what we can learn there was quite an attendance. We presume it is the last for this season.

We learn through "Cumtux" that Jim Cook has taken up a "goat ranch." We would suggest that Jim hunt up a Cooper for a partner in his enterprise.

School commences in this district (No. 6) the first Monday in April; Aaron Cochran wielding the rod.

Robert McKaney came home, last week, from The Dalles, where he has been since January. More anon.
CORRESPONDENT.

A Cougar.

The big cougar that has haunted the east side of Hood river, near town, was seen again Monday near J. B. Hand's place. In the afternoon several of our mighty hunters went out to interview him, but unsuccessfully, he crossing the river at the mouth of Indian creek. Tuesday the boys tried him again, but the only result was the killing of a gray squirrel and a porcupine. A determined effort should be made to kill this big cat, as he evidently has his den near town and may do some damage.

Attention, D Company.

D company will assemble at the armory Wednesday evening, March 29th, at 7:30 o'clock, to elect a first lieutenant.

Captain.

How a Husband Should Be Regarded.

At a recent meeting of Sorosis, at which the subject of "Husbands" was discussed, Mrs. Herrick attributed the failure of marital happiness to girls being taught to expect too much happiness from marriage, and that love is its only essential by romance, poetry, songs and tradition. But, while not belittling love, she claimed that respect based upon superior qualities; esteem for those attributes that would make the wife desire the husband as a friend if she could not have him for a husband; common sense, which teaches her that a faulty woman need not expect a perfect husband, and great patience—that passion of noble souls—are quite as essential elements in the domestic bliss.

She cautioned the wife against holding up her soul to her husband always with a thorn in it. Men cannot understand intangible griefs and unrest. She also said that one of the first lessons a wife has to learn is that her husband has a right to his own individuality, and that, while she can inspire him to greater achievement in a work for which he has a bias, she cannot, as she may fondly dream, mold his character, and she wouldn't respect him if she could.

Girls should be taught that marriage is not the gateway to heaven, and that even at this Eden the angel stands with the flaming sword to turn back souls that seek an earthly paradise. Women should know their lovers so well that marriage can bring no great disappointments. Marriage is not a match made in heaven, but an earthly union founded on mutual respect, over which the love that made the bond possible sheds a tender influence.—New York Sun.

An Incident of Travel.

Not long ago, when one of the great through western trains left New York city, a man and a woman, aged about eighty, got on the cars. They were accompanied by a younger man, who appeared to be their son, who got their tickets to some place in Nebraska, put them on the cars and left them. Shortly after passing Poughkeepsie the old lady was taken ill. This drew around them sympathizers, and upon inquiry it was found that they had but a very indistinct idea of the journey before them, and that they had only a dollar and some cents in money between them.

The passengers raised a collection which furnished them with a berth in one of the sleeping cars to Chicago and seven dollars in money. It was evident from their actions that neither of them had ever seen a drawing room or sleeping car before, and the luxury and comfort was something entirely outside of their experience. They went on, the picture of content, and it is to be hoped reached their destination in safety.—Poughkeepsie Eagle.

A Wonderful Dakota Well.

The reports from the artesian well at Huron, N. D., show that it is the most wonderful well known to exist. The water spouts up to a distance of about 100 feet, and the amount that flows from the well is tremendous, being estimated at from 8,000 to 10,000 gallons a minute. Even at the lowest figures enough water is ejected to furnish every man, woman and child in the state of North Dakota with at least four gallons of water every four hours. As to the pressure, that has not yet been fully ascertained, but from tests already made it is known to be considerably more than 200 pounds to the square inch. With a fair test it is likely to reach 228 pounds. The pressure has steadily increased in the last three days, and may exceed the above figures.—Cor. Rochester Post-Express.

The Shot-Shedding Ram.

The back frame of the big United States defense ram is now in place at the Bath Iron works and shows the skeleton of the great hulk in all its oddity. The philosophy of the whole thing is now made clear at a glance, and any man with an idea of the comparative ease with which a shot can be deflected when striking upon an angling surface will see that the gun capable of piercing that armored deck is not made yet. The only thing the strange looking vessel has to fear is a torpedo, and she is no more exposed to them than are any of the big battleships.—Lewiston Journal.

A Fireproof Solution for Dresses.

A chemist of Vienna has succeeded in discovering a composition which will make even the slight material of ballet dancers' dresses fireproof. The Prince of Lichtenstein gave this composition a first trial on the stage in his own palace in the presence of a numerous company. The rise of the curtain discovered two life sized dolls, dressed as ballet girls, to both of which a light was applied. One of the dolls was rapidly reduced to ashes, while the other, well saturated with the protective composition, escaped with a small hole in her dress.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

He Dreamed Wrong.

Pierre Ruau, an aged banker of Paris, had a prophetic dream a few years ago which told him that he would live until the year 1922. He was so firm in the belief that the dream was correct that he had a monument erected with his name, age and the date, 1922, cut upon it. The old man has just died and the marble cutter had another Pierre Ruau inscription and date put on.—St. Louis Republic.

Married on the Threshold of Their Home.

Thomas Netting and Mary Jones were married by Justice Sloane, who pronounced the ceremony while the twain stood in the doorway of a prettily furnished cottage on Columbia street, which the groom had just completed for the woman of his choice.—San Diego Sun.

It Did Not Cease.

One hundred and twenty-seven years ago England seized the first eight bales of cotton grown in the south, and declared that its production should cease. For last year the estimate of the cotton crop is something over 8,500,000 bales of 500 pounds each.—Manufacturers' Record.

"GAINES."

Will make the season of 1923 at F. H. Burton's farm at Hood River, Oregon; limited to fifteen mares besides my own.

Description and Pedigree.

Gaines bay, right hind foot white, bred by Alie Gaines, No. 230 (sire of Jessie Gaines 2:15; J. H. S. 2:30; Ira Gaines 2:19; Lillah Bookh 2:30; Alta 2:21; Billie Gaines 2:25; Alie Graham 2:29; and Douglas Almont 2:29 and several other speedy ones and sire of Gold King with two in the 2:30 list) a son of the Great Almont, also a full brother to Hamlin's Almont, the sire of Bell Hamlin and Globe who hold the world time record of 2:12 and many other speedy ones.)

Dam, Kit Wheeler, (sire 2:28) by Thomas P. Wallace (sire of the dam of Upsilon 2:25, a son of John C. Irackenridge, (sire of Minnie R. pacing record of 2:16, and trotting record of 2:12.)

Gaines has shown himself to be a game and speedy colt. As a 2 year old last year with four weeks handling he trotted an eighth in 21 seconds, a 2/4 clip and improved right along until thrown out of training.

Gaines' service fee will be $20.00 due when mares is known to be in foal, or will breed by single service or season, if parties should so desire. Good pasture will be furnished to mares of patrons at $2.00 per month. Due care will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible should any occur.

THE NEW TOWN has been platted on the old camp ground, at the Forks and Falls of Hood river, with large slightly lots, broad streets and alleys, good soil, pure cold water and shade in profusion, perfect drainage, delightful mountain climate, the central attraction as a mountain summer resort and for all Oregon, being the nearest town to Mt. Hood. It is also unparalleled as a manufacturing center, being the natural center for 150 square miles of the best cedar and fir timber, possessing millions of horse power in its dashing stream and water falls easily harnessed. Where cheap motive power exists, there the manufactures will center, surrounded by soil and climate that cannot be excelled anywhere for fruit and agriculture, and with transportation already assured you will find this the place to make a perfect home or a paying investment.
