HOOD RIVER, OR. JULY 8, 1893.

DEER A DOG, ANYHOW?

Mayor Rinehart of The Dalles says there are from 10,000 to 15,000 dogs in that city that are unlicensed. We knew our neighboring town had a phenomenal crop of canines, but we were totally unprepared for the grand total as stated by the mayor. According to this there are three dogs and a pup for each man, woman and child. At one pound of meat per day these dogs would eat 12,000 pounds of beef, requiring thirty head of beves daily. We are forced to the belief that The Dalles is a better town for butchers than for candidates for city office on the democratic ticket. We further timidly suggest to the honorable mayor that he obey the injunction to "throw physic to the dogs," and, as it were, curtail both species and number. Fifteen thousand dogs is too many for one town, anyhow. Strung out heads and tails, made into one longitudinal dog, so to speak, 15,000 dogs each four feet long, including tail, would equal a string of dogs, metaphorically speaking, 60,000 feet long—long enough to reach from The Dalles to Dufur, and that is too dogged long a dog for any one. Oh-pshaw! Dr., give us a reduction, a special rate on dogs. Fifteen thousand dogs weighing say 30 pounds each, would make a grand total of 450,000 pounds of dog, 225 tons, not counting the bark, and its putting on too much dog that way, even for The Dalles. We believe the mayor was mistaken, that metaphorically speaking he has been counting his chickens before they were hatched, and his estimate is made on possibilities. He is dealing in futures, and his statement is dog-mat-ficial. Anyway we figure it there is too much dog, and we—well we won't believe it. Besides, suppose that all those dogs' pants should give out at once, say in the dog days (and every dog has his day), and they had to wander up the back alley with nothing on but a collar, what would the administration do then? That's what we'd like to know. But we drop the subject; it is too discursive for us.

We have been urged by several of our farmers to agitate the irrigation question again. We would gladly do so if there was any possibility of it doing good, but it is too late. The season has arrived when water is needed and the question will now agitate itself. A community that runs on the Arkansas plan, and makes no effort to help itself until it is in need, is beyond the power of press or pulpit to force out of its old grooves. The GLACIER, (so we are told) made most of its readers tired on the irrigation question, and we don't propose to repeat that experience. Last year a company was formed, and $10,000 stock subscribed, and although the time for paying the first assessment was extended first 30 days, then 60, and then all winter, $72 was the grand total of all money paid in. At the same rate, it will take 193 years to get the stock paid in, and at the end of that time the paper will begin a new campaign, and again urge upon such of the mossbacks as have forgotten to die, the necessity of irrigation. But not before.

An exchange says: "M. J. Anderson, of Dufur, and family, left for Warm Springs Saturday on a bathing trip. Relatives of the family recently visited them from San Francisco." Whether our old friend was forced into this trip on account of the visit, or whether it was just his usual bathing time, the paper does not state; but being charitable we presume it was the latter. M. J. knows a good thing when he sees it and would take a bath if it was lying around handy, just as quickly as he would a whack at a reporter.

The dispatches Wednesday stated that Greece had had a bloodless revolution, that the king was deposed, and a republic founded. The Greeks picked out a lucky day for the change, but the character of the people is not such as to warrant a belief in their ability to run "a government of the people by the people." They are too handy with the knife, and too narrow in their views to manage even so small a country as Greece. Some king will soon "fry the fat" out of her.

We suggest to the new marshal Mr. Grady, that the sooner he fires the deputy now at The Dalles, and breaks up the gang engaged in arresting people for selling liquor to Indians, the better. We are told by parties in The Dalles that nearly 200 arrests for this cause have been made in The Dalles in the last 18 months, and as the officers get an average of $20 a piece for all of them caught, it is a good sized bonanza for them.

Governor Atgeld of Illinois, has pardoned the Haymarket anarchists, and has raised thereby a storm of indignation all over the country. The country was well satisfied with the verdict of the jury, and agrees with it in believing the best place for an anarchist is inside of the penitentiary.

The Salem Statesman and the Oregonian are having a tilt to decide the question as to which is a liar. So far, honors are easy.

SO SAY WE ALL OF US.

Potter Palmer, husband of Mrs. Potter Palmer of Ingham fame, has become tired of his name being left out of the dispatches and is again trying to agitate the Sunday closing of the world's fair. The most urgent need now, is a law that will close the mouths of Potter P. Mrs. Potter P. and all the little Pots, between Sundays. Potter says he is "sick and tired of petty evasions of the law," and fails to realize that the people of America are sick and tired of petty officials, Potters, Pots, kettles and pans and the whole "bilen" of cooking utensils, that are an exhibition in the official or freak department of the Columbian exposition.

Congress has been called to meet August 7th, the principal reason for the extra session being for the solution of the silver question. The silverites are making a determined fight and express confidence in their ability to defeat the repeal of the Sherman law. We doubt this very much. The president has made no use of the patronage at his command to win over numerous opponents, and we believe the bill will be repealed in the house within a week after congress convenes. The fight will be made in the senate, but, from all appearances, will be a defeat for the silver men even there. The present financial crisis is making converts to the gold standard very rapidly, and it looks as though silver was doomed as a coin metal.

The force of fanaticism and religious fervor is illustrated in the present pilgrimage of Mohammedans to Mecca. The deaths from cholera have run up to 650 per day in that place, and yet a steady stream of pilgrims pours into it, heedless of danger and regardless of risk. Ignorant of sanitation, guileless of cleanliness, the superstitious horde presses on to death, happy in having obeyed the behests of their priests and the commands of the Alcoran. Folly and religious zeal urge them on, and so persuaded, death loses its terrors and faith sustains them.

The attendance at the world's fair is steadily increasing and averages over 100,000 daily. On the 4th more than 300,000 attended. The great cut in railroad rates will swell the number attending from Pacific coast points. Just what the rate to Chicago is now, is hard to say. The Union Pacific says to "come and see us before you purchase a ticket over any other road." From which we judge that if anyone is going east, a satisfactory rate can be obtained.

The government engineers estimate that a canal can be built around the Celilo rapids for $4,000,000. The estimate was probably made in Washington by parties who never saw the Columbia. We have had one canal experience that is entirely sufficient, and a portage railroad is good enough. Let the ditch go and give us a portage road, is the sentiment of every man in Eastern Oregon.

The Dalles Chronicle of Monday contains a "pome" entitled "Pleasant Ridge School," that would shake the popcorn bandages off a Christmas tree. It was really wicked for the author to take advantage of the pupils in vacation by any such conduct. Take our advice, Brother Brooks, and always handle poetical contributions with the tongs—for they will burn your fingers every time.

Breaking banks are still the subject of the dispatches, every day adding to the number. Three Colorado banks, located at Pueblo, closed their doors Wednesday. The Sumas bank and bank at Everett, Washington, tied up Monday, while South Dakota and Kansas each added one to the list, and the end is not yet.

Two world's records were broken at Kirkwood, Delaware, on the 4th. Saladin paced a mile in 2:05, beating the record made by Guy, 2:06; and the trotter Ayers P., with Telephone as a running mate, trotted a mile in 2:23, beating the record made by Windship, 2:06.

A ton of gold is worth $607,688.21, says an exchange. Worth it in what? A ton of wheat is worth 33 bushels, and so is a ton of potatoes by the same kind of measurement. The same exchange says a ton of silver is worth $27,704.84. What is the measure for it?

The Pacific States that are loudest in their demand for silver all have the specific contract law, by which all notes of hand, etc., are made payable in U. S. gold coin. Gold is good enough for them, but silver will do for other people.

If you owe this office anything pay it, and do so at once. We don't intend to hang a notice of suspension on our door if we can help it, and we think we can, even if we have to suspend some one else.

The salmon run is not as good as it should be this year. They are probably deterred from active business on account of the possible reduction of the tariff on tin.

More than 4,000,000 pounds of wool have been received at The Dalles this season.

A New Law.

The following bill was signed by the governor on February 21, 1893, and is now in force:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful to sell, barter, trade, give, or in any manner furnish to any minor under the age of 18 years any cigars, tobacco or cigarettes in any form or any compound in which tobacco forms a component part, without the written consent or order of such minor's parents or guardian; then in that case consent may be given by the county court sitting for the transaction of county business, upon proper application in the county in which said minor may have his residence.

Sec. 2. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any minor under the age of eighteen years to smoke or in any way use any cigars, cigarettes or tobacco in any form whatsoever on any public highway, street, place, square or resort.

Sec. 4. Any minor violating the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction, be fined in any sum not less than one or more than ten dollars, or by imprisonment at the option of the court, two days for each offense.

Sec. 5. Justices of the peace shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court for all offenses arising under this act.

The people's party have nominated a state ticket in Ohio, with E. J. Backen for governor; D. Cooley, lieutenant governor; William H. Taylor, treasurer; and Col. J. H. Rhodes, attorney general.

Oregon now holds the world's record for the two-mile trot, Blondie having placed it at 4:48 at Salem on the 5th. Greater speed has been made against time, but never in a race.

The Celebration.

Independence day was appropriately celebrated here, the crowd being, perhaps, the largest ever congregated here on the day. Nearly everybody from the West Side attended, and The Dalles added 400 to the gathering. The wind was at times a trifle hilarious, but taken altogether, the day was a pleasant one. The programme as printed last week was carried out with one or two small exceptions. The ball game was won by The Dalles, by a score of 17 to 10. At 6 o'clock the Regulator took half The Dalles people home, but those remaining, after supper, repaired to the armory and danced until 10 o'clock, at which time they reluctantly left, to catch the boat. From conversation with our visitors, we feel assured that nearly all enjoyed themselves and were pleased with their visit. Those attending the dance were treated to a genuine surprise both at the size of the hall and the splendid floor, and it will be but a short time before the Regulator will be called upon to bring an excursion here for a dance. Hood River is pleased to have entertained her neighbors and hopes the good people of The Dalles will have pleasant recollections of their visit and come again.

Five years ago the only expression the Oregonian had for describing President Cleveland was "the democratic hind quarter of beef." That paper now endorses him as a statesman and a scholar. All of which goes to show that genuine conversion is not impossible even with the editor of a big daily.

Baldwin Items.

The 4th got here on time and the dinner was fine, but the rest of the programme failed to materialize. Quite a crowd of neighbors came from the upper settlement, and all enjoyed the occasion.

The dance at D. R. Cooper's barn was a success socially and financially; twenty-three numbers sold. Music by Knox and Murphy. Receipts, $7.

ONE THAT WAS THAT.

An Ideal Stage Ride. Sunday the first installment of visitors to Cloud Cap Inn 15 in number, arrived here and made the trip in Olinger & Bone's stages. These gentlemen are proprietors of the Mt. Hood stage line, and we have no hesitancy in saying they have the best stocked line and the finest coaches on the coast. Besides this the road abounds in fine views as the ascent is made, and the time slips away unnoticed as the grand panorama unfolds. Besides their regular stage line, they have the very best stock, single and double carriages, and light hacks for fishing parties. Hood River is the finest mountain resort in America and the trip to Mt. Hood is its crowning attraction.

Out of Sight.

The traveling public are now full alive to the fact that the Chicago, Union Pacific and Northwestern line offers the very best accommodations to the public from and to Chicago, Omaha and intermediate points, not only during the world's fair, but all the year around.

Berry Shipments.

Up to Friday, the 30th, 7627 crates; Friday, 146; Saturday, 141; Sunday, 59; Monday, 94; Tuesday, 8; Wednesday, 37; Thursday, 48—total to date, 8160 crates.

Preparatory Class.

I will organize a teacher's review class preparatory to quarterly examination in August beginning June 20th and continuing five weeks. Correspondence solicited.

C. L. GILBERT, Hood River, Oregon.

"MIDNIGHT."

Will make the spring season of 1893, at convenient places throughout the valley and White Salmon Washington. Time and place subject to future appointments.

Description and Pedigree.

"Midnight" is a real-black Hambletonian, 5 years old, 18 hands, weight 1400 pounds, sired by Shaw's Hambletonian dam, a Copper-bottom mare. "Midnight" is a good dispositioned horse, a tippy driver and quite a trotter for a horse of his size.

"Midnight's" service for will be $30 for single service, one at time of service, or $5 for the season. Persons breeding by single service and mare falling to catch, can breed by the season by the additional payment of $25. Season to close July 15, 1893.

For terms and other information apply to, A. L. FRIZZLES, Manager.

William Frazier was over to Vancouver Saturday looking after the closing details of a sale he has just made to the government of 30 cavalry horses. The animals are not bought for any special or unusual purpose, but are merely destined to replace those condemned by the government. They are bought at Vancouver for the department of the Columbia, and are distributed about among the various posts.

"The horses marketed here for military purposes," said Mr. Frazier, "are Oregon horses. They are chiefly the produce of improved stallions and common range mares. Every year sees an improvement in the quality of the stock. Stallions like Challenger, Lamont, Bendish, Mike, Morokos, etc., which have been freely bred without their yet being much trained, and leaving their impress upon the common run of horses, much as the pioneer stallions brought here from Kentucky at an early day did upon the native driver across the plains, only in a greater degree. In this way, one who is dealing in horses constantly sees a steady improvement in our home stock, and importations are growing less necessary than formerly."
