The good people of school district No. 2 will meet at the school house Thanksgiving day, the 20th, and after a brief literary programme will have a "community dinner." Everybody invited to come and bring their baskets.

There was a dance at Chemawa Saturday night. Henry York furnished the music. Owings to some misunderstanding about certain visitors up from the river, the dance did not commence until nearly midnight. It was well attended.

Oscar Sandman of The Dalles, who is employed by J. V. M. Arthur & Co's, of Portland, was arrested Monday for attempting to rob the Roslyn Smith Co's store of a lot of cigar. Sandman is said to have confessed and will go to trial probably be sent to the penitentiary.

The county commissioners have set the contract for paving for the county road to Mt. M. Cushing of The Dalles. As the commissioners are a bit niggardly themselves, they did not receive for bid, but took a poor shot and knocked over the present arrangements. Cushing's contract, we understand, goes into effect on the 22d this month.

Wednesday an old man named Johnson, who has a claim near the Underwood place, near the mouth of the White Salmon, was found dead in his bed by Billy Woods. A coroner's inquest was summoned Thursday, but we have been unable to get their verdict though it is probable death was caused by heart disease of some kind. Johnson was a Swede and about 60 years old.

BORN,

At Tucker's, Monday, to Mr. and Mrs. Christian, a son.

At the Sosse farm, last week, to Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, a son.

Some Fine Apples,

Strandman and Wilson shipped a carload of apples to Porter Bros. at Olympia Thursday. It was an exceptionally fine lot, coming principally from the orchard of John Sweeney, though part of them were brought by J. L. Gibbons. We predict that the high opinion already held by our Oregon buyers of Hood River apples will be further increased when this lot is received. Another carload will be shipped in a few days to the same firm.

What Will You Do About It?

In a few weeks the money available for paying our teachers in this district will be exhausted, and as we understand it, nothing is being done towards providing the funds for next year. At least it looks as though it would either be no school or else the teachers will have to be paid by taking up a collection.

That Water Nut,

The case of the Dutch Creek Company against W. R. Whisman is on trial, and Thursday the jury came down on the boat to take a look over the grounds and the water in dispute. It is quite probable that ere this issue reaches its end the case will have been decided.

FOR SALE,

Eighty acres, six miles from town, five acres in meadow and alfalfa. Nearly three acres in strawberries, in full bearing next year one of the very earliest berry patches in the valley. Small orchard in bearing. Good horse barn and wood shed. Apply to J. Wickham, on the premises.

If you have property to sell, list it with us. We have concluded to handle all the Hawaiian property we can and are prepared to close on the very smallest living commissions. We are accustomed to easily reach all possible purchasers. Give us a list of the property you desire to sell and we will do the rest. Call and see us at the Glaciar office.

He Pulled the Gun,

John Aurig, a stepson of W. Wingerter, living on White Salmon, shot himself accidentally Wednesday. He came over from Switzerland about a month ago, and expecting to start home next week was anxious to secure a pair of deer horns to take home with him. Arriving at the house from a deer hunt, Wednesday, he sat down on the porch and pulling the gun towards him, the hammer caught and the gun was discharged. The bullet struck him about an inch above the left nipple and passed inside of the ribs, entering under the edge of the shoulder blade. No bones were broken, and a few weeks will repair all damage. Dr. Brooks was called and attended to his injuries.

Slate Ice Turkey!

There will be a shooting match at Mount Hood P. O. on Wednesday, November 23. Come early and secure your tickets for Thanksgiving.
