U. S. Gov't Baking Powder Tests.

The report of the analyses of Baking Powders, made by the U. S. Government (Chemical Division, Ag'I Dep't), shows the Royal superior to all other powders, and gives its leavening strength and the strength of each of the other cream of tartar powders tested as follows:

I am a farmer at Edom, Texas. I have used German Syrup for six years successfully for Sore Throat, Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Pains in Chest and Lungs and Spitting-up of Blood. I have tried many kinds of Cough Syrups in my time, but let me say to anyone wanting such a medicine-German Syrup is the best. We are subject to so many sudden changes from cold to hot, damp weather here, but in families where German Syrup is used there is little trouble from colds. John F. Jones. 3

The tall, aged, sad looking man ate a then with a check calling for 75 cents made his way to the cashier's desk. He banged down the check with a battered silver dollar and looked sadder than ever.

The cashier picked up the dollar and exwish your lordship would overrule this amined it suspiciously. It had a deep dent on one side, and looked as though it had been plugged. At that moment the customer spoke: "It is very painful for me to part with that dollar. It saved my life once, however, and must do so again. At the siege of Vicksburg I carried it in my vest pocket, and the dent you see there was made by a bullet, which otherwise would have killed me. I have kept it since as a memorial, and it well nigh breaks my heart to let it go, but I must-I have noth-that the parrot was addicted to the pernicious habit of "exaggerated colloquialisms." The lady at once took the bird back and complained, requesting him to refund her money. The man refused, saying it was quite easy to cure the parrot. He then told her the next time the parrot offended to take it out of the cage, grasp it by the tail and swing it violently round her head several times. It was not long before the parrot raised the lady's ire by a string of choice expressions, and the lady proceeded to "take it out" of the bird. After swinging it round her head till she was tired she laid the parrot on the table. The bird got up, and shaking his feathers together quietly remarked;

A Long Sleep in Silesia. A most peculiar case of prolonged sleep is at present occupying the attention of medical circles in Germany. A miner named Johann Latus is an inmate of the hospital at Myslowitz, in Silesia, where he was admitted four months and a half ago, and since then all efforts to wake him have been fruitless. Dr. Albers, the doctor attending him, is of the opinion that the apparent sleep is really a state of catalepsy, though medical science has on record no previous case of such a prolonged nature. He has arrived at this conclusion on account of all the limbs being absolutely rigid. The appearance of the man, however, betrays no signs of this. The body lies quite still, the breathing is regular, and there is a healthy color in the cheeks. In the last few days the body has become much less rigid, and the patient has even made some slight movement, without, however, the eyes opening or the condition of apparent sleep being in any way dis turbed. In the four months and a half that the sleep has lasted the hair has in creased in length, but the beard has remained stationary. Nourishment to the extent of two or three liters of milk is administered daily by a tube inserted into the throat.—Vienna Letter.

MARRIED LIFE.

Two flowers blossom on one stem, Two streamlets mingling run.

And love and habit blending make Two lives as truly one.

One in each interest, hope and fear, Whatever chance betide; One in affection's bond, though two, To comfort, strengthen, guide

When passion's torrid zone is past, Hearts only draw more near: And silent sympathies of love Strike deeper year by year:

When every little fault is seen. And every fleeting mood, Are shared and understood

Yet still our secret, separate dread Vill sometimes cloud each mind; Ah! which must face this cruel world When left alone behind? -W. E. H. Lecky in London Spectator.

Matrimonial Advice for Young Women. Rev. Dr. John A. Brooks preached recently on marriage. Among other things he said: "A young lady ought never to marry until she is matured, and then when she finds a man to suit her she ought to marry him. But do not marry to keep from being an old maid. Old maids are henorable. Nearly all the women who have figured in history as poets, orators, composers and queens have been old maids. Do not marry a stingy man. He will always be complaining of your expenditures, and will refuse you the necessary money to insure your happiness and will lead you a miserable life. Do not marry a fop or dandy. His brains are all in his heels and clothes. While he may be a good thing for the girls to play with, he would be an awful thing to live with. "Do not marry a lazy man, for even if possessed of gold it will soon be dissipated, and he will not have the energy to earn a living. Do not marry a stranger. You ought to know the man and his antecedents. These might be such as would shame you and bring sorrow upon your heart. Venture slowly Do not marry simply for money. Money may take wings and fly away and leave you with nothing to love and admire. Do not marry an immoral man. His association with you would drag you down to his own moral level. Be sure that the man you marry is an honest man in all things. Let him be an industrious man and he will build up a home and maintain it with all the necessities and comforts of life. Be sure he is possessed of manliness, and finally that he has love and reverence for God. A man who does not love and honor God will not love and honor his wife."-Kansas City

The Garterphone.

An ingenious little instrument called the garterphone has recently been invented which, attached to my lady's garter, registers the distance she walks each day. The physical culture craze has put an end to the reign of the lanit is," he replied. "How could I have an guid belle. Women go in for all sorts of outdoor sports, and just now walking is the fad. The heroine of the hour is the woman who has walked the greatest number of miles a day. Hitherto it has been impossible to determine to a nicety the distance covered in a given time, as when a day is spent in the deviating A lady who had bought a parrot of a bird peregrinations of a shopping tour. Now fancier was shocked afterward to discover the young woman proudly exhibits her peregrinations of a shopping tour. Now garterphone to admiring friends, and it is not unusual for the little machine to register five or six miles, and even ten occasionally.

The young woman who was too lazy to walk and yet who did not wish to be entirely out of the race, sat in the hammock all day enjoying a novel, while she swung her pretty foot back and forth, thereby attaining the same result on her garterphone as her more energetic sister.—San Francisco Examiner

A Women's Hospital.

The New York Women's hospital has received some much needed assistance of late, including $100,000 from Morris K. Jesup, in memory of his mother, the income of which is to be devoted to those who are unable to pay their board at the hospital. From the Fayerweather estate a fund of $10,000 has been received, and the executors have decided to add $200,000 and one-half of the ultimate residuary estate. These gifts will enable the hospital to change its present noisy quarters to a more desirable location, and to provide a more commodious home for the many suffering women who come here for aid. Nearly 700 indoor patients have been treated the past year, over one-third of whom were free patients, and as many more have received aid outside of the building .- New York Ledger.

The Founder of a Girls' School. Mrs. Harriet L. Packer, whose sudden death in Brooklyn a few days ago brought a sense of loss and personal bereavement to many Brooklyn homes, was a woman of rare grace and beauty. Her air of distinction was as marked as her sincerity and nobility of character. In 1853 her liberal gift of funds to endow the Packer institute set in motion a train of educational influences which have benefited not Brooklyn only, but the numerous other towns from which Packer students come. Mrs. Packer belonged to the Church of the Pilgrims, of which Rev. Dr. Storrs is the pastor. She was the widow of William S. Packer, who

A HERALD OF THE INFANT YEAR.

Clip the last thirty years or more from the century, and the segment will represent the term of the unbounded popularity of Hostetter's Stomzeh litters. The opening of the year 1894 will be signalized by the appearance of a fresh Almanae of the litters, in which the uses, derivation and action of this world-famous medicine will be fueldly set forth. Everybody should read it. The calcular and astronomical calculations to be found in this brochure are always astonishingly accurate, and the statistics, illustrations, humor and other reading matter rich in interest and full or profit. The Hostetter Company of Pittsburg, Pa., publish it themselves. They employ more than sixty hands in the mechanical work, and more than eleven months in the year are consumed in its preparation. It can be obtained, without cost, of all druggists and country desiers, and is printed in English, German, French, Weish, Norwegian, Swedish, Holiand, Bohemian and Spanish.

PREVENTION BETTER THAN CURE.

It is no easy thing to cure lung trouble when it once fairly gets a hold upon the system. It can easily be prevented by the guish between daylight and darkness. I tool use of Allcock's Porous Plasters, Just as soon as any intimation of soreness about the lungs or stiffness of the joints appears, put on one of these plasters, and you will be sure to gain great advantage.

So also with rheumatism. A cold is a comparatively slight thing. The application of an Allegora's Policus Plaster to any part affected by it will not only relieve, but overcome it. If, however, the cold gets a firm hold on the joints and muscles, rheumatic pains are not so quickly overcome. To cure is good, to prevent is bet-
