In Defense of the Sapsucker.

WHITE SALMON, Dec. 23, 1893.
EDITOR GLACIER:
There appears in the issue of December 22d of the Weekly Oregonian an article written by F. S. Washburn, advising the orchardists to kill the sapsucker, on the ground that it is injurious to fruit trees. I do not wish to go into any argument with Mr. Washburn relative to the sapsucker's desire or ability to seek sap, but merely to state a few facts noted by careful observation in a twenty-years' experience with orcharding in general and sapsuckers in particular.
I have never seen a sapsucker on a healthy tree; I have never seen a tree killed by a sapsucker; I have never seen a sapsucker draw sap out of a dead tree. If sap is their principal dish, why do they work most on unhealthy and dead trees? My observation has been that sapsuckers work on fruit trees mostly in the fall and winter months, when the leaves have fallen and we know there is no sap in the body of the tree. The resonous chirp and pine indignant to our climate and soil are full today of sapsuckers, rapping, tapping away incessantly. Would Mr. Washburn affirm that they are boring away for tar, pitch and turpentine? It is a noteworthy fact, noted by all careful orchardists, that the sapsucker does work on fruit trees, unhealthy ones, and it would look as if he was a worker of mischief. His work is soon healed over with a new growth of bark and wood, and the tree comes out all the brighter for his good and noble work. How can the statement be reconciled that the sapsucker sucks sap, when every dead cedar throughout this valley is bored full of holes by the sapsucker? Don't kill the sapsucker on M. F. Washburn's say-so. Note for yourselves the fact whether either Mr. Washburn or any other sapsucker is injurious to your trees. If you find they are, then smash them.

Before the Ball.

Do not forget to remember that D company's dance comes off next Monday evening. Every preparation has been made, and that it will be the affair of the season is a foregone conclusion. Hood River is proud of its militia company and will show its appreciation by its presence Monday night.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family always found that the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it.

PREMIUMS

THE
Fashion High Arm Singer

Five Years Guarantee.
Delivered Railroad Freight Paid.
Full Set of Finest Steel Attachments, in Plush Lined Case.
Our Finest Premium is without doubt the Fashion High Arm Singer Sewing Machine. The "Singer" has stood the test of 40 years and made a princely fortune for its inventor. The "Fashion" Singer, however, is an improvement on the original machine, as it has all modern improvements up to date which are known or found in a first-class family sewing machine.
The automatic bobbin winder winds all sizes of thread on the bobbin as easily as a spool of thread is wound, without care or attention on the part of the operator, except to keep the treadle moving. Owing to the machine having what is termed a tight and loose wheel, the bobbin can be wound without running the working parts of the machine. This is quite an advantage, as it does not necessitate removing the goods from underneath the presser foot, or even unthreading the machine.
The needle is short and straight, thus insuring great strength; it is also self-setting, requiring no care on the part of the operator.
The pressure on the sewing foot is adjustable, and when the foot is raised to remove the work from the machine, it brings into play the automatic tension release. This takes the tension from the thread, and the goods can be removed from the machine without bending the needle or breaking the thread. Every operator on old style machines will appreciate this.
The woodwork is of either antique oak or walnut, at choice of purchaser.
Each machine is furnished with the following accessories and attachments:
Oil can (filled with oil), 12 needles, 6 bobbins, french, gilette and zinc screw, large and small new driver, instruction book, foot lifter, roller, rubber, tucker, binder, and a set of 4 lemmings of assorted widths. We also furnish a written guarantee warranting the machine for five years, breakage of needles and shuttles excepted. This shows the great confidence we have in the machine, which we justly claim to be the best value for the money ever offered.

How to obtain this Machine.—We will send this machine FREE, freight paid to nearest railroad depot, to any one sending us 40 yearly paid subscriptions, or for 20 paid subscriptions and $10.00 in cash; sold to subscribers only for $24.50 cash, railroad freight paid. Sewing machine agents sell this machine for $25.00 and $25.00.
The following testimonials were furnished us by the manufacturers:
LAFAYETTE SPRINGS, Quincy, Ky., under date of June 21, 1892, writes: "I have one of your High Arm sewing Machines. We have had it about 3 years, and it has proven to be just as good as represented. It is sold to be one of the best machines in our neighborhood. I will be able to send you some orders by mail. Everyone likes this one so much."
MISS SALLIE McLELLAN, Vanceburg, Ky., under date of June 22, 1892, writes: "I received the machine and am delighted with it. It does lovely work. There is not another machine in our town for which I would willingly exchange mine. It is a perfect gem in itself. I think I will be able to send you some orders by mail. Everyone likes this one so much."
HENRY JORDAN, Millersburg, Ky., under date of June 23, 1892, writes: "Your Premium Machine is the best one I ever saw. I would not give it for any of my neighbors' or some of whom have paid 30 for their sewing machine. I will tell all of my neighbors about your machine."
