The Corum place was sold Saturday, to J. B. Crossen, of The Dalles, bringing $3000. Under the present circumstances the price is fair, but the property is worth double that sum.

Company D's last dance came off Wednesday night, as its time expires Monday. The attendance was large and a pleasant time was had. Quite a number were up from the Cascades.

Came to my place, about January 1st, a Jersey bull calf, no brands nor ear marks, scarcely big enough to hold a brand. If you own him come and get him.
CHAS. CHANDLER.

The snow has about all gone, and the purple iris and other wild flowers again show themselves. Specimens of the former, found by Charles Rogers' little girl, were left at this office January 31st.

It is East and West Hood River precincts now. The election officers for the new precinct are: Judges, P. M. Jackson, Robert Rand and George Crowell; clerks, C. M. Wolford and Axel Rahm.

School district 2 held a meeting last Saturday and voted a 2-mill tax. The report of the clerk showed that there were $43 on hand, and it was decided to hold a month's school, which will carry it up to the beginning of the school year.

J. E. Armor's team ran away Tuesday morning, starting from the depot. The wagon was pretty badly demolished. The moral is, to never leave a team unattended, but this moral, although taught almost daily, does not seem to make any great impression.

As there was some difference of opinion as to the time school should commence in this district, the directors, after thoroughly examining into the matter, decided to commence school Monday, February the 12th. This will prove satisfactory to everybody, especially those living out of town.

The Frankton Literary Society evolved itself Tuesday night. The society will meet every Friday evening at the school house in district 2, at 7 o'clock. After the literary programme next Friday evening, the question for debate will be: "Resolved, That the creation of Cascade county will be of greater benefit to those in the proposed county than remaining in Wasco county." The leaders in the debate will be W. J. Campbell in the affirmative and M. P. Lambert in the negative.

Attention!
All those interested in the formation of a new company are requested to meet at the armory Monday evening, February 5th, at 7 o'clock.

The Precinct Divided.

The county court, at a special session held January 19th, divided Hood River precinct on the following lines: Commencing at a point in the mid-channel of the Columbia river directly north of the center of Third street, in the town of Hood River, running thence south through the center of said street and the continuation of the line thereof to the north line of section 33, township 3 north of range 10 east. Thence west along the north line of said section to the northwest corner thereof; thence south along the west line of said section 33, and its continuation to its intersection with Hood river, thence up the center of said Hood river to Baldwin precinct.

Whist.

A number of our citizens met at K. of P. hall Wednesday evening and organized a whist club. The game was indulged in for a couple of hours, and the next meeting will probably be a very interesting one. D company's dance kept many away that would have joined. Those present express themselves as having spent a very pleasant evening.

DIED.

At his home in Hood River valley, Monday morning, Jan. 29th, David K. Ordway, aged 68 years.

Mr. Ordway was well known through eastern Oregon, having been engaged in the lumber and wood business on the middle Columbia for many years. He had been sick for the past six months, and his death was not unexpected. He leaves a wife and five children, who have the sympathy of all, in their bereavement. The funeral took place Wednesday, the interment being in the Neal cemetery.

Letter List.

The following is a list of the letters remaining unclaimed in this office Feb. 1st. Mrs. Viola Burdick, Mr. Harsh, James Miller, Mrs. Frank More, T. G. Smith, Theo. Smith, M. L. Sherry, S. J. Wilkinson.

L. E. MORSE, P. M.

Midwinter Fair.

If you intend visiting the great midwinter fair, call on the nearest Union Pacific agent, and he can tell you all about the exceedingly low rate and the advantages offered by this line to San Francisco and return, or address W. H. Harburt, assistant general passenger agent, Portland.

School Meeting.

The voters of this precinct met at the school house Saturday afternoon for the purpose of voting a tax for carrying on the school and other purposes. The meeting was well attended, and after the report of the clerk had been read Director Henry gave a brief resume of the condition of the district, showing that a seven-mill tax would be necessary to carry on the school and pay off the indebtedness, and then moved that a seven-mill tax be levied. Hon. E. L. Smith moved to amend by substituting five for seven, which, after some debate, was adopted, and the motion as amended passed. A general discussion of school matters followed, and a motion was made to the effect that it was the sense of the citizens of the district that the directors open the school as soon as arrangements could be made, and that they employ the present teachers. This motion carried, but was followed by a similar motion, made by Capt. Coe, that school commence next Monday, which also carried. No further business offering, the meeting adjourned.

She Got the Sugar.

The season of the year has come again when the human digestive apparatus demands vegetables and pines for the early and the facerandine radish. This longing is not confined to the proud Caucasian, but is equally strong in the perfumed denizen of the rude shanty, by poetical license called a wig-wam. Our old friend, Cullis Dave, made an early morning call recently, plaintively and pathetically recapitulating the dread effects of the demonization of silver and the threatened reduction in the tariff on huckleberries, on the aboriginal industries, stating that his finances were gone, his credit ruined and his aged wife, who has heroically borne all of Dave's burdens, now longed for a change of food. Her stomach, for the second time in four years, revolts at being made a warehouse for dried salmon, and demands sugar. We felt for Dave, and realized that the two bits that kept one another company in the depths of our pants pocket were doomed; but still we made a bold stand and tried to convince our brunette friend that he could sweeten the old lady much more cheaply with soda. Arguments were useless, for Dave's love for the woman who has gathered his berries, dug his canamas and ministered to his comfort since Cornwallis surrendered to the great white chief at Yorktown, has grown with his growth and strengthened with his strength until you can smell it, even when the weather is not sultry, would not admit of defeat. His wife wanted sugar, and Dave was going to have it, and after we had tried to get rid of him for three hours—unsuccessfully, he got the coin, but he left with us as a token of his gratitude the best scent he had. It is still in this office.

Only the Scars Remain.

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines, writes Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Philadelphia, Pa., 'I have known many cases. Twenty years ago, at the age of 18 years, I had swellings come on my legs, which broke and became running sores. Our family physician could do me no good, and it was feared that the legs would be amputated. At last, my good old mother urged me to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles, the sores healed, and I have not been troubled since. Only the scars remain, and the memory of the past, to remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me.'"
