THE SILVER OUTLOOK.

From present indications Africa is going to take a hand in the money question, and the outlook for silver is considerably brightened thereby. The great argument against silver, has been that the production of that metal has increased so much more rapidly than gold, that its relative value has proportionately decreased. Report comes from Africa that indicates a rapid increase in the output of gold. Indeed it is premised that it will reach in a few years the enormous sum of $200,000,000 yearly. Should this prove true or should the gold production be increased by even half that sum, silver becoming the scarcer metal, if given an opportunity by having its good character as money restored will go to par, or perhaps even to a premium at the present ratio.

BIMETALLISM.

India is in about the same condition financially and otherwise that the United States is. Business is at a stand still and a financial panic pervades the land. The United States demoted silver a few months ago and so did India. Is it a case of like causes producing like results? It would seem so. One result of the conditions existing is that the bimetalists have again taken heart, and are organizing clubs throughout the United States. It is thought that England will be forced to join the United States in another effort to adopt a bimetallic standard.

The income tax is by no means a novelty. It is already an established thing in many states of this Union. In Massachusetts, a typical republican state, there is a law of long standing which taxes all incomes over $2000. In Virginia, a typical democratic state, there is a tax on incomes of over $600. Pennsylvania taxes the incomes or net earnings of all corporations, including banks and insurance companies. The constitutionality of the Massachusetts law was tested and upheld by the supreme court. Hence the idea that the income tax is "monarchical" exists only in the minds of the republican editors.—Portland Telegram.

Some weeks ago we stated that it was useless to nominate Senator Raley for congress for the fact that he was a banker. We are informed that Mr. Raley is not now connected with the Pendleton or any other bank. This removes the only objection that could be made to Mr. Raley as a candidate. We recognize in him a sterling democrat and an able man, who, whether he carried his party flag to victory or defeat, would carry it with honor to himself and to the party.

Dunbar, the smuggler is in jail in Portland. Blum, his fellow smuggler is in Washington accompanied by a lady friend, and is having a high old time. Of the two, Dunbar is the better man. He is a convicted criminal, so is Blum, but Dunbar is neither a sneak nor an informer. The administration will do well to remand Mr. Blum to the custody of the U. S. Marshal, and then let him be sentenced, and set to work.

From the dispatches yesterday it is probable none of the applicants for the Portland post office will be appointed, and that a new man will be selected. Benton Killen, seems to have the inside track.

Suit for Damages.

The case of J. G. Smith against J. G. and I. N. Day, was tried at The Dalles Wednesday, the suit was for damages for injury to the person of Smith's son, who was working for the Day's and got his hand crushed through the carelessness of a fellow employe. The jury brought in a verdict fixing the damages at $1154.

The senate is monkeying with the Wilson bill, and by the time it is remodeled by its upper house friends, its father wouldn't know it. Instead of being the Wilson bill, it will come out of the Senate the billy Wilson.

NEWS NOTES.

The crew of the U. S. ship, Kearsarge which was wrecked near Aspinwall, last week, has arrived in New York.

Latest statistics give the gold output for 1893, as about $150,000,000. This is an increase of $12,000,000 over 1892.

Canada wants the catching of seals in Behring's sea to be continued under the arrangements of last year. Canada got then, 100,000 skins and the United States, 7500.

Bland has introduced a bill in congress, providing for coining the silver seigniorage. It is thought the bill will pass.

A fight has been inaugurated in England against the house of lords which promises to knock that august body out.

THE POPULIST PLATFORM.

The following is the national platform of the populist party, commonly known as the Omaha platform:

1st. We demand a national currency, safe, sound and flexible, issued by the general government only, a full legal tender for all debts, public and private; and that without the use of banking operations, a just, equitable and efficient means of distribution direct to the people shall be established at a tax not to exceed 2 per cent per annum, to be provided, as set forth in the sub-treasury plan of the farmers' alliance, or some better system; also, by payments in discharge of its obligations for public improvements.

a. We demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at their present legal ratio of sixteen to one.

b. We demand that the amount of circulating medium be speedily increased to not less than $50 per capita.

c. We demand a graduated income tax.

d. We believe the money of the country should be kept as much as possible in the hands of the people, and hence we demand that the national and state revenues shall be limited to the necessary expenses of the government economical administered.

e. We demand that postal savings banks be established by the government for the safe deposit of the earnings of the people and to facilitate exchange.

2. The land, including all the natural sources of wealth, is the heritage of all the people and should not be monopolized for speculative purposes, and alien ownership of land should be prohibited. All lands now held by railroads and other corporations in excess of their actual needs, and all lands now owned by aliens, should be reclaimed by the government and held for actual settlers only.

3. Transportation being a means of exchange and an actual necessity, the government should own and operate the railroads in the interest of the people.

a. The telegraph and telephone, like the post office system, being a necessity for transmission of news, should be owned and operated by the government in the interests of the people.

St. Paddy's Day Dance.

Arrangements have been completed for having a grand ball at the Armory Friday night, March 10th. The fact that Jack Luckey, Henry York, Dick Fisher and P. C. Maguire, are the committee in charge guarantees that first-class music will be furnished. It will probably be the winding up ball of the winter and we predict will bring together such a crowd as never before gathered in the armory on similar occasions.

Rand, went to the Locks, Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mr. Clark a fellow-mason, and one of the stone cutters employed there, who died Tuesday. The masonic funeral services were conducted by Mr. Morse, the funeral being attended by the masons of the Locks, and his brother stone cutters to the number of 85 were in the procession.

A Sudden Death.

Charley Mercer, commonly known as French Charley, was found dead in his room in The Dalles at 1:30 Tuesday morning. Charley had resided in The Dalles since 1880 and was known by everybody. He was a good-hearted, kindly old man, a relic of bygone days, but the rugged and honest worth of the old man made him many friends who sincerely regret his loss. Peace to your spirit, old friend, and may it find abiding place where your old calling need not be pursued.

A blizzard swept over the middle and Eastern states, beginning Monday and keeping up for two days. In Oklahoma many persons were frozen to death, not being properly sheltered. As the storm swept on eastward trains were tied up, railroads blockaded and street-car traffic in the cities suspended. In places the wind reached a velocity of 70 miles an hour, and the snow, which ranged from nine inches to two feet on a level, drifted in places ten or fifteen feet deep. It was the most extensive blizzard at has visited the East in many years, reaching from the gulf to the lakes, and sweeping across the country from Oklahoma to New York.

The following, clipped from the dispatches, shows the severity of the storm in Oklahoma:

"Reports of suffering and death come in from all parts of the territory. Mrs. Fannie C. Spencer, a homesteader near Cross, was found frozen stiff. Many persons are living in tents and their condition is awful. James Mulligan, near Perry, was found frozen to death, and his partner, Harvey Newcomb, died from exposure. At Ponca, Mr. Cramer and two children were found frozen stiff in cayotes' burrows, ten yards from their abode. Colonel Henry Melton, a cowboy, who was with Buffalo Bill at the world's fair, was discovered by a party of hunters, early this morning, dead under his horse. At Anadarko two Indian pupils were found yesterday buried under a snow bank. Upon being taken to a house one of the children immediately expired. The other shows signs of recovery. This evening a report reached here of a family named Sears being found near Woodward frozen to death, but no particulars were obtained. Word comes from Cross that Sherman Stone and family, consisting of his wife and five children, were found sitting about a stove with their throats cut from ear to ear. The following note, found on a table near by, from Stone, gave the horrible story of the murder and suicide in connection with the storm:

"Our wood is all gone. Mollie is frozen to death, and the rest of us are freezing. I have killed my family, and now I kill myself to prevent further suffering. God have mercy on us."

Speaks through the Boothbay (Me.) Register, of the beneficial results he has received from a regular use of Ayer's Pills. He says: "I was feeling sick and tired and my stomach seemed all out of order. I tried a number of remedies, but none seemed to give me relief until I was induced to try the old reliable Ayer's Pills. I have taken only one box, but I feel like a new man. I think they are the most pleasant and easy to take of anything I ever used, being so finely sugar-coated that even a child will take them. I urge upon all who are in need of a laxative to try Ayer's Pills. They will do good."
