THE MAILS.

The mail arrives from Mt. Hood at 11 o'clock A. M. Wednesdays and Saturdays; departs the same days at noon.

For Chenoweth, leaves at 8 A. M. arrives at P. M. Saturdays: For White Salmon leaves daily at 8 A. M. arrives at one o'clock P. M.

From White Saimon leaves for Fulda, Gil-mer, Trout Lake and Glenwood Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

SOCIETIES.

Canby Post No. 16 G. A. R., meets at Odd Fellow's Hall, first Saturday of each month at 2 o'clock p. m. All G. A. R. members in-vited to attend. M. B. POTTER, Commander. C. J. HAYPS, Adjutant.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

C. Welds has two houses for rent; good location.

Just received, new stock of tinware

Mrs. Creed and Mrs. Powers of Mosier were here Tuesday.

and Tuesday would have not been found had it slipped into latitude 85.

Mrs. Bert Graham returned from Vancouver Wednesday.

Geo. T. Prathar and family visited friends at Viento, Sunday. S. E. Bartmess is agent for the Bridal Veil Lumber Company.

F. H. Button has several of his h orses training in Portland.

S. F. Blythe went to spokane Falls Sunday night, returning Friday.

O. B. Hartley has horses and fresh milk-cows to trade for cordwood.

Hartley has a badger in his chicken coop, and still, chickens are "skace." Calumet baking powder at the Racket store, only 80 cts a pound. Try it.

If you want to buy a farm, come to this shop and we will give you some pointers.

For sale cheap, a No. 5 Davis Stump uller. Levi Monboe. Puller. From present indications the fusion ticket in Multnomah county will be elected. Mrs. J. R. Steel of the Dalles is visit-ing her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joss, at Mt. Hood Evans & Husbands have added a nice bath room to their barber shop. Don't Double moulded doors, $1.75.

kinds moulding a cent per inch.
HOOD RIVER MFG. Co Ice cream and cake 10 cents a dish and soda water 5 cents a glass at the Bakery. Rev. Hodgson attended conference Waseo this week, returning home Friday morning.

A union temperance meeting will be held tumorrow, Suaday, at the Congregational church.

Mr. Hilstrom of Mt. Hood had a fine colt, six weeks old, taken by the cougars last Sunday.

Amos Billings, who has taken a claim south of Arthur Disbrow's place, had a house raising Monday.

Co. D 3rd Regt., will give a grand bail on July 4th, full notice of which will be given in due time.

We need ten cords of wood, and will adly trade newspaper for it. Sixteen inch stove wood preferred.

Three new settlers have located homesteads near Wils. Winans' place, and all have good claims too. If you want to buy a farm, anything from five acres to 500, call at this shop and we will give you a pointer. The Multnomah ballot is a curiosity, it being two feet long by eighteen inches wide, and containing 193 names.

Fred Knutson of Mt. Hood, who cut his foot very badly about a month ago, be out.

leaving at 8 and 10 o'clock, returning alone. at 3 and 5. Rev. Kaufman accompanied by his wife, visited the Cascade Locks Satur-day returning Monday. He filled the pulpit there Sunday. at The Dalles, was torn from its moor- Coopers spur, and thence into town in ings by the high water and lost. Loss between $500 and $800. Roseburg takes the record for the first strawberries this season, a few crates reaching Portland last Saturday. They sold for 25 cents per box.

probably be increased by 100 acres. Our "Whole Wheat Graham" is for sale at all the stores. We guarantee every sack to be made of clean No. 1 of wire and pickets. The best and cheapest fence made. Call and see it.

HARBISON BROS.

Bartmess got a carload of brick from The Dalles, Friday, and there is no excuse for any of our voters passing at 4 o'clock p. m., to perfect arrange- 000 are well clothed, 250,000,000 go election day without one in his hat, if ments. Everybody attend and help to habitually naked and 700,000,000 only he so desires.

Rev. T. L. Eliot passed through Hood River on the morning train, yesterday, on his return from an extended trip to Los Augeles, St. Louis, Waitsburg and Lewiston.

table Sicillian Hair Renewer is a re-newer of the hair, including its growth, health, youthful color and beauty. It will please you.

Hons, G. W. Irwin, A. A. Jayne, and T. R. Coon will address the citizens of Monkland, Sherman county, at the same hour Governor Pennoyer speaks here, at I o'clock May 30th.

A republican friend tells us the populist candidates on their recent visit to the Cascade Locks, must have carried an incubator with them. The populating invited to be present, By order lists claim they will have a majority of the post. in that precinct.

The ballot in Multnomah county is large enough that the defeated candi-dates will realize that it fell with a "dull, sickening thud,"

The Regulator Saturday met a small sized cyclone at Crate's Point and did not get down here until nearly noon, and on her way back passed about midnight.

Governor Pennoyer passed up on Sunday night's train and spoke at Huntington Monday evening. He expresses confidence in the election of Nathan Pierce. Hon, T. R. Coon and M. P. Isenberg arrived home Monday from a canvas of the northern part of the county. If you want to make either of them smile just say-Antelope. 75 acres of land for sale all fenced in, and within 3 miles of Mosier station. Half-cash balance on time a living spring on the property. Enquire at this office. Price $15 per acre. Mrs. U. M. Brandon, sister of Mrs. John Parker and Mrs. C. D. Hayner, arrived here from Burlington, Kansas, last Friday, and will remain here during the summer with Mrs. Parker. Ever since Pague left Portland the Oregon weather has run wild. Monday would have passed muster at Pasco, its muchinery and is prepared to roll barley or wheat. The Co. also keeps on hand all kinds of rough and dressed lumber. Agents for combination fence.

Mr. I. N. Wilson arrived from Wa Inut Hill, Ill., Saturday morning. This, we believe, is the third trip from the states, and we could see by the peaceful look on his eyes that this time he comes to stay.

I have arranged for handling strawberries and other fruits the coming season, and having had ten years experi-ence in the commission business, feel confident of getting the best returns C. R. Bone for my customers.

Strawberries will begin to move out next week, a few ripe ones being reported, from White Salmon, early this week, and a glass of nice ripe ones have been on exhibition at Mr. Hartley's butcher shop, coming from Mr. Creed's place at Mosier Tuesday.

Mays & Crowe's hardware store was broken into by robbers, Monday night, and four revolvers and one Winchester rifle were taken. The robbers are reported as six in number, among whom are two Dalles boys. At the present writing they have not been captured.

The body of Indian Dominick whose death by drowning we chronicled last week, was found a day or so after the week, was found a day or so after the accident and brought here for burial. The Indians held their own peculiar services over the deceased, and they could be heard for a mile. Dominick was a pretty industrious Indian, but when he tackled a sail boat he overreached himself, for in attempting to tack he turned the boat over, and he couldn't swim. couldn't swim.

BORN.

At Mt. Hood, Sunday, May 20, 1894, to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Neely, a daugh-

The Biggest Bird.

EDITOR GLACIER;

place last Saturday evening at the ion was botly contested until midnight, cooked food. the honors finally being awarded to Coxey.

He won it not for deed or word, But because he was the biggest gallows bird.

MEMBER.

The Governor Wednesday.

Governor Pennoyer will speak here Wednesday next, at 1 p.m., and will no in two or three hours one of the old hive, only elongated. Here also doubt, have a large audience. While the majority of the voters of this section do not agree with the governor on political questions, they will take advantage of the opportunity to hear is improving and will soon be able to what his arguments are. Mr. Waldrop is advertised to speak with him, but The steamer Irma will carry pas-sengers to the picnic at Mosier Sunday, have been made, and that he will come hands were as grimy as possible; but buryport case.—Sylvester F. Deacon

Cloud Cap.

Ed. Williams and Doug. Langille arrived home from Cloud Cap Friday night. They made the trip from the A fish wheel belonging to A. Winans, Inn to a point nearly a mile beyond one day, on foot. Ed. has had one foot tied up in a sling ever since but he is highly pleased with the trip. The snow is all gone from the ridge in front of the cottages, but for a mile of small tools are made from the Quite a number of our farmers are this side of the summit the drifts are preparing ground for planting trees deep and numerous. It will probably this fall and the orchard area will be late in June before the road is open

Hood River will Celebrate. At the meeting held Wednesday evening a committee of five was appointed to make the necessary arrange-The Hood River box factory has the ments for a Fourth of July celebration. agency for the combination fence made An interesting programme will be arranged, including a yacht race, horse races, etc., etc. A general meeting will be held at Blowers' store on June 4th, make this a grand celebration.

COMMITTEE.

Adjutant.

Decoration Day.

The members of Canby post, G.A.R., the W. R. C. and Sons of Vets, and As the name indicates, Hall's Vege- Company D, National Guard, has kindly consented to be with us and assist in the exercises, and all citizens are notified that they will meet at Perry and Calkins corner at 2 o'clock p. m. and can appreciate the difference. march to the cemetery, where the graves of soldiers will be decorated according to the custom of the ritual of pathy, and undoubtedly that is why the G. A. R. All the children of the different Sabbath schools, with their superintendents and teachers, are cor-C. J. HAYES.

Mr. Theodore Cook of Spokane Falls, a former resident of Hood River, is visiting friends here.

Hartley's meat wagon yesterday made its first trip to the mills. During the summer it will make trips twice a Lawn Social.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

dersigned has taken out letters testa- beholding such a wonderful sight. mentary upon the estate of John L. Rich, late of Hood River, Wasco county, Oregon, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are notified to present them to the under-signed, at her residence near Hood River aforesaid, in said county, properly verified, within six months from the date hereof. ANNIE RICH, Executrix of the last will and testament of John L. Rich, deceased. Dated May 26, 1894. [

Danger In a Barber Shop. It is dangerous to get shaved by an inexpert, clumsy handed, negligent or groggy barber. It is dangershop in which the lather is not perfectly pure, or in which any of the tonsorial appliances are unclean. The man who would guard against danger ought to have a lather mug and brush for himself, ought not to let his face be touched by a sponge that is in general use and ought not to patronize a barber who will use the same towel for different custom-

We whisper these words here, not as knowledge for men of circumspecmen, who throw away dull care when assure them that there are doctors encountered under the razor.-New York Sun.

Care of the Eyes.

Avoid all sudden changes between read or write or sew for several minor moonlight or on a very cloudy ment when they come of ago. day. Never read or sew directly in It is best to have the light fall from peal most readily to the American above, obliquely over the left shoul mind. Here, as in Germany, the conder. Never sleep so that on first tract made to run for a limited time, awaking the eyes shall open on the as when the girl marries or comes of light of a window. Do not use the age, would put it into definite shape eyesight by light so scant that it re and unlikely ever to become a burquires an effort to discriminate. -Na den. The American girl in her prestional Educator.

Genuine Politeness

In the compartment with me were three ol & Hindoo merchants, gray bearded, dignified and respectable, who evidently were natives of the better sort.

still many hot and dusty miles from a refreshment station, and from the The Coxey, Cleveland debate took depths of some of their bundles the old gentlemen, who had evidently Pine Grove school house. The quest- traveled before, evolved a supply of burybort, Mass., a structure some

I accepted the food with my politest in New York Sun. bow and ate it with every appearance of gratitude.

I would have eaten it had it been ten times as dirty as it was. The act was as friendly as any man could perform, and I was pleased with its pure charity and benevolence, if not with the food,-"Two Years In a Jun-

It is claimed that the best handles wood of the apple tree, which is very hard when dry and possesses a fine that day. grain. Moreover, it is said, it does not crack easily after it has been dressed.

Fishes swallow their food hastily and without mastication because they are obliged unceasingly to open and close the jaws for the purpose of respiration and cannot long retain food in the mouth when quite shut.

Of the entire human race 500,000,-000 are well clothed, 250,000,000 go cover the middle parts of the body.

The modern Italian wine jars, holding about 20 quarts, are almost identical in shape and size with the amphoras found in Pompeii.

The injury done to vegetation by pelting rains is incalculable, and those who have watched the benefits and a hand organ strikes up near by; of applying moisture only to the roots Mankind is ever looking for symwe do of our pleasures. is the element of madness.-J. Ster monwealth.

The "Changeable Rose" of Mongolia. One of the achievements of the Chinese-the one on which they pride themselves above all others, unless it is the art of raising oaks in thimbles-is the "changeable rose," a real rose in everything except that it is white, when in the shade and Ice cream, moonlight lawn social blood red as soon as the sunlight at Mrs. Neff's Friday night, June 1st, strikes it. The words "as soon" in given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the the last sentence above do not liter. U. B. church. ally mean instantaneously, but one thing is sure, the transformation is rapid enough for the wondering eyes Notice is hereby given that the un- that are allowed the rare pleasure of

After night, or when in a dark room, this curiosity of the rose family is a pure, waxy white blossom, the thick, succulent petals much reminding one of gigantic mandrake flowers, with the exception that even the stamens and pistils, are of the same immaculate color.

When transferred to open air, the transformation immediately sets in, the time of the entire change of the flower from a livid whiteness to the most sanguine of all sanguine hues depending on the degree of sunlight ous to got shaved in any barber's and warmth. First the petals take on a kind of washed or faded blue color which rapidly changes to a very faint blush of pink. The pink gradually deepens in hue until you find that your lily white rose of an hour before is as red as the reddest peony that ever bloomed. -St. Louis Repub-

For Endowing Daughters. In Germany when a girl is born her parents make her a member of a marriage association. The premium the father keeps up until the girl is tion, but as a warning to negligent old enough to contribute, if necessary, this premium out of her earnthey get into a barber's chair. We ings. When she marries or comes of age, she is entitled to draw the entire who can tell of the perils that may be amount of the premiums, with interest and any dividends that may have accrued. In England and Ireland the daughter's dowry is not a prevailing custom. In the middle class, light and darkness. Never begin to however, not infrequently the father insures his life for the benefit of his utes after coming from darkness to a daughters severally. This sum they bright light. Never read by twilight | may receive at his death, or by agree-

This form of insurance, it seems, is front of the light or window or door. an endowment for girls that will apent alert state of mind and body would in any emergency be equal to keeping up the insurance if it should be necessary for her own benefit. Thus her father would be relieved of the responsibility of her future, and her husband, if she marries, one may hazard the guess, would not think of Breakfast time came. We were her the less for her prudent dowry.-New York Evening Sun.

Sound In Two Buildings. The First Baptist church of New-200 years old, has a wainscoting ex-It consisted simply of a large bowl tending entirely around it from the of "dal," like stiff pea soup, and a choir loft to the opposite end of the pile of "chapathes," small, leathery, church, directly over the pulpit, and with my usual indifference to the wants of my inner man, I had neglected to provide myself with a luncheon, and while I was thinking of the nice breakfast I should have in two or three hours one of the old gentlemen saddenly thrust his fingers into the bowl of cooked "dal"—they had no spoons, forks or knives—they had unleavened pancakes made of flour. by placing a watch on the wainscot

What He Was.

The drummer sat down to the feed on the table at a hotel, and he did not lock as cheerful as some men look who sit down to some tables. The looked like leather and set them down before the guest. Just then another drummer came in and took a place opposite the first one. They had been working the town together

"By Jove, Jim," he exclaimed, "what's the matter with you? You look as if somebody had been imposing on you?"

Jim gazed sadly at the feast spread before him. "That's it, Charlie," he murmured. 'You see before you a man cowed by a glass of milk and bullied by a beefsteak," and Charlie ordered something else and got the same. —Detroit

Little Things That Bother.

Perhaps you do not want your presence known and down goes your umbrella, or, still better, your seissors fall with a whack! Perhaps you make a beautiful cake and leave out the eggs and flour! You accost a stranger, mistaking him for a friend. You feel at peace with all mankind you try to sew and your thread either has no knot or is all knots, and your thimble is too large; you stumble going up an aisle or ascending a platform; your hair comes out we tell of our woes more readily than of curl when you want to look your best, and the terrible infant mentions Emotion turning back on itself, and a few incontrovertible but embarrassnot leading on to thought or action, ing facts in company.-Boston Com-

Only the Scars Remain.

"Among the many testimonials which I see in regard to certain medicines performing cures, cleansing the blood, etc.," writes remind me of the good Ayer's Sarsaparilla has done me. I now weigh two hundred and twenty pounds, and am in the best of health. I have been on the road for the past twelve years, have noticed Ayer's Sarsaparilla advertised in all parts of the United States, and always take pleasure in telling what good it did for me." For the cure of all diseases originating in impure blood, the best remedy is AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Cures others, will cure you

T. C. DALLAS.

Stoves and tinware, kitchen furniture, pruning tools and plumb-

Repairing of tin ware a specialty. C. J. HAYES, SURVEYOR.

All work given him will be done correctly and promptly. He has a few old on May 5th, 1884, is free from all blemish good claims upon which he can locate parties; both farming and timber lands. the and kind, a good traveler, and is owned by February, 1894.

A. S. BENNETT.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. OFFICE INSHANNO'S BUILDING CORNER

OF COURTAND SECOND STREET,

The Dalles, Oregon.

J. F. WATT, M. D. Physician and Surgeon

- HOOD RIVER, OR. Is especially prepared to treat Diseases of one and Thront.

Local surgeon for Union Pacific Ry. DUPUR & MENEFEE,

Chapman Block, over Postoffice THE DALLES OREGON.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

Attorneys-at-Law,

[Timber Land, Act June 3, 1878.]

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, executor of the estate of Elmer E. Griffin, an insane person, has who sit down to some tables. The miled in the county court of the state of waiter brought in a glass of blue Oregon for Wasco county, in probate, milk and a piece of beersteak that a full, complete and final account as such executor; and that he intends to and will, on Monday, the 7th day of May, 1894, apply to the Honorable George C. Blakely, Judge of said court, for an order allowing approving and settling his accounts, discharging him as such executor and exonorating him from further liability as such executor.
WM. BUSKIRK, Executor of the estate of Elmer E.

THE SAINTS' REST.

at

Griffin, insane.

AMESVILLE

WINES.

LIQUORS CIGARS.

CYRUS NOBLE WHISKY

a specialty.

RAW FURS.

I will pay the highest market value for all kinds of raw furs during the season at Hartley's butcher shop.

H. D. LANGILLE.

-THE-

REGULATOR LINE."

The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Co.

Through Freight and Passenger Line.

The steamer Regulator will run triweekly trips, leaving The Dalles Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, connecting with steamer Dalles City. Returning, will leave Portland Tuesdays Thursdays, and Saturdays, connecting with steamer Regulator at the Locks. All freight will come through without delay

PASSENGER RATES.

One way$2 00 Round trip...... 3 00

Freight Rates Greatly Reduced.

Shipments for Portland received at any time, day or night. Shipments for way landings must be delivered before 5 p. m. Live stock shipments solicited. Call on or address,

W. C. ALLAWAY, General Agent.

B. F. LAUGHLIN. General Manager,

ers goods of all kinds. THE DALLES, -- OREGON YOUNG GENERAL

ROCHAMBEAU

Is a dapple gray, 16 hands high, weighs 1300 pounds, three-quarters Norman, 4 years old on May 5th, 1894, is free from all blemish

JOHN SWEENY, OF HOOD RIVER, OR.

Rochambeau, will make the season, at Mr. Sweeny's place, but will be at Hood River Fridays and Saturdays. Terms; single service $5 cash. To insure $10. In case of failureservice following season, free.

S. BLOWERS & CO DEALERS IN Dry Goods, Groceries, Hats, Caps,

Boots and shoes: Flour, Feed etc. Country Produce Bought and Sold. A. S. BLOWERS. W. M. YATES.

PRINCIPAL POINTS

EAST, WEST, NORTH and SOUTH

EAST BOUND FROM HOOD RIVER. No. 28, Freight leaves at 11.45, A.M. No. 3, Mail 10.01 P. M. WEST BOUND FROM HOOD RIVER. *No 27 , Locat, leaves at 3.45 P. M *No. 1, Mail # 4:42 A. M THROGH SLEEPERS RECLINING CHAIR

Steamers from Portland to San Francisco every 4 days. Tickets to and From Europe.

CARS AND DINERS.

For rates and general information call on DEPOT TICKET AGENT. W. H. HURLBURT, Asst. Gen. Pass. Agt. 254 Washidgton St., Portland egon.

E. SALTMARSHE & CO.,

AT THE-END STOCK YARDS,

-DEALERS IN-

Hay and Grain in Carload Lots or Less.

Live Stock Bought and

Sold, And stock in transit fed, watered and given the best of care. . THE DALLES, - - OREGON.