The Hood River Box Factory has plenty of apple boxes on hand.
Dr. G. E. Sanders at the Mt. Hood hotel November 25th and 26th.
For fine Yellow Newtown apple trees, see Tillet at Pilkington nursery.

Stranahan & Wilson want 150 dozen of eggs, for which they will pay the highest market price in cash.

Leave your orders for Thanksgiving turkeys, geese, chickens, etc., with Hartley & Langille.

E. C. Rogers went to The Dalles Monday as witness in the case against Eccles and Davison.

J. R. Galligan has two fresh cows, one full blood and the other half Jersey, and some pigs for sale.

Albert Reiner has rented and moved onto the Sherman ranch and will sell strawberries the coming season.

For sash, doors, mouldings, brackets, combination fencing, and turning, go to the Hood River Box Factory.

The Portland Sun is for sale every day at the post office upon the arrival of the noon train from Portland.

William Rodenhiser of Mt. Hood was in town Monday. He will make final proof on his claim December 18th.

Mrs. Virgil Winchell of the East Side, who has been sick for three weeks, is now up and is able to do her work.

Dr. Sanders is provided with a dental chair for his Hood River office. Also prepared to extract teeth without pain by the use of narcotized air, called gas.

For Sale! Forty acres unimproved land, east side of Hood river, 4 miles from town. Will sell 5 or 10 acre tracts cheap. Inquire at GLACIER office.

Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers can be applied when at home, and is uniformly successful in coloring a brown or black. Hence its great popularity.

Any one wishing to donate any fruit, either fresh, dried or canned, for the use of the Portland hospital, will please leave the same at M. H. Nickelsen's at any time before Thanksgiving.

The celebrated apple
ARKANSAS,
Which sells for $1.50 per barrel more than BEN DAVIS in the Eastern markets. Trees for sale by Wm. Tillet.

ESTRAY.—Any one knowing the whereabouts of a spotted heifer calf, about 9 months old, with bullet hole in left ear, and very gentle, is requested to report to the GLACIER office.

Saturday and Monday of each week will be our grinding days during the fall and winter. Our "Whole Wheat Graham" is for sale at the stores as usual.
HARRISON BROS.

The Columbian Educational club of Pine Grove has now sixty-six volumes of well-selected books in their library. They have just bought Dred's "Black Beauty," "Norwood," and "The Fair Good."

In the case against Eccles and Davison, appeared from Judge Soesbe's court, in which they were fined for obstructing the highway, Judge Bradshaw sustained the demurrer and the trial was not held.

Quite a delegation of members of the U. B. church went from here to Portland to attend the dedication services of the new U. B. church on the east side. The party included Rev. P. H. Davis and wife, S. E. Bartness and wife, J. E. Hanna and wife, Mrs. M. V. Harrison Miss Alice Cleaver.

Wm. Tillet of the Pilkington nursery has finished digging his trees, and has 5000 standard apple trees, which he is willing to exchange for cash at low prices. He gathered the scions himself from the orchards of E. Locke, B. Warren, M. V. Rand and Wm. Davidson, did the grafting last spring, and can warrant them all true to name. Call around and examine stock.

Monday morning Mr. Herbert Ellsworth was riding horseback out of town, and when near Dr. Adams' place the horse bucked and threw him off. He fell with his head and shoulders striking the hard ground in the middle of the road. He was picked up insensible and brought to town in a wheelbarrow, and remained insensible all day. Tuesday he was about town as usual, feeling no worse for the accident except a soreness in the shoulders and a lump on the back of his head. The horse was never known to buck before. After it had thrown Ellsworth it returned to town, bucking nearly all the way.

F. M. Broadbent was arrested here Tuesday morning on complaint of his wife, charged with adultery. His preliminary examination was held before Justice Soesbe, and the evidence was sufficient to hold him to appear before the grand jury. Constable Olinger was directed to take him to the county jail at The Dalles, where he now languishes in default of $1500 bail. Broadbent is a young man of probably 30 years. He at one time managed the saloon known as the "Salut's Rest," across the Columbia river, and later has been in the same business at Stevenson. He is good looking and intelligent, and if so disposed could succeed at most any honorable calling. But his reputation is bad, and if he does not get the full extent of the law it will be the fault of the prosecution.

Mr. Leo Harris of Harrisville, Utah, was in Hood River during the week. Mr. Harris is a railroad engineer, and was one of the unfortunates thrown out of employment by the strike on the U. P. last July. He owns 120 acres of land on the east side of Hood river, adjoining the land of John Sweeney. He says he has been all over this western country and has never seen any part of it he likes as well as Hood River. It is his intention to sell part of his land and improve the rest by planting apple trees, and will then make his home here.

R. J. Ellis and family were coming to town Thursday when an axletree broke and all were thrown to the ground, but without injury. The spring wagon contained Mr. Ellis, his wife and mother and son Don and a basket of eggs. The eggs were a total wreck. The accident happened on level ground. There is no telling what would have been the result if the break had occurred, say in coming down the Roger's hill.

Wm. Tillet, Saturday, showed us a lot of trees he had brought to town on an order, yearling apple and cherry trees. They were about six feet high and had good roots. He uses extra care in digging, so as to preserve the roots, and herein lies success in transplanting trees. See that the trees you buy have good roots that are not mutilated in digging.

"Where there is a will there is a way." If you are determined to set trees and have not the money to buy, call at the Columbia nursery and I may be able to help you get some.

H. C. BATHAM.

M. N. Scroggin and family arrived here Wednesday from Markham, Wash. Mrs. Scroggin is a niece of J. C. Markley. They come to make Hood River their home.

Plenty of water was struck at 50 feet on Fred Miller's place, while on Axtel Rahm's place one-half mile east he had to go 77 feet. Mr. Clough did the work on both wells.

Mr. E. E. Lyon and wife wish to return thanks to their neighbors and friends for their kind services rendered during the illness of their father, Mr. Wm. Lyon.

Mr. Samuel Husbands of Mosier was badly hurt last Saturday by being thrown from a young colt. He had several ribs broken.

Rev. P. H. Davis, the new minister of the U. B. church of Hood River, and his wife arrived here Saturday from Missouri.

The grand jury Thursday returned a true bill against Savage and Klein and "not a true bill" against Ralph Gibbons.

Captain Ferguson and C. E. Markham went to Sherman county the first part of the week to hunt wild geese.

L. Neff was home Saturday from Riparia. John W. Buck went back with him to work through the winter.

Mr. McDow of Yakima has rented the house on Robt. Rand's place, next to Mr. A. C. Cook.

After three or four weeks of fine weather, Friday we had a good rain.

F. J. Wright is building a small house on the C. A. Ross farm.

Prices at Hanna & Wolfard's.

We hear that some of our competitors are so elated over the election returns that they have already raised the price of their goods. We still sell as cheap as ever, for cash, as witness the following:

We carry a full line of Buckingham & Hecht shoes and Woonsocket rubbers. We also have a fine line of hats and caps. Our grocery line is complete. We sell d. g. sugar at 6c per lb, roast coffee from 20c per lb up. We have flour, feed, oats, chop barley and hay for sale cheap. If you hear of anybody selling goods cheaper than we sell, please let us know.

Yours for low prices,
HANNA & WOLFARD.

Grand Thanksgiving Ball.

A ball will be given at the armory on Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 28, 1894; given by the Hood River Dancing School. Good music will be secured for the occasion. Grand march will take place at 8:30 sharp. Every effort will be made to have it prove a success. By order of committee, F. E. Jones, master of ceremonies; Jas. H. Dimmick, floor manager.

Hay for Sale.

Good timothy hay, loose; will be sold at a bargain if sold next week. For particulars call at GLACIER office.

Dr. E. T. Carns, Dentist.

Dr. Carns arrived from Portland on the 1st and is prepared to do all kinds of dentistry work—examine, fill, extract, regulate and make new teeth; also, crown and bridge work.

CHURCH NOTICES.

Service will be conducted at the Congregational church next Sunday at 11 a. m. The subject will be "A New Testament Good Man." No evening service.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held at the U. B. church next Thursday at 11 a. m. The Methodist Episcopal, United Brethren and Congregational churches will unite in this service. Rev. J. L. Hershner will preach the sermon.

The revival service will continue at the Methodist church. Thursday night there were four new converts. Mrs. Cooley will conduct the service Sunday, at 11 o'clock.

In Regard to "Incorporation."

HOOD RIVER, Nov. 21, 1894.—Editor GLACIER: I see in the GLACIER of the 17th that voters are called on to nominate one mayor, six aldermen, one recorder, one treasurer, and one marshal on Saturday night, Nov. 24, 1894.

These officers are to rule over and tax and pass laws for an "incorporation" which up to date exists only in the imagination of a few non-paying hoodlums who live on what they owe and squat around stores (the saloon is gone now), and perhaps one or two responsible men who have a very dull ax to grind.

This notice of the nominating meeting is signed "Committee"—nothing else. Why did not the "committee" give us their names? I infer it means the "committee of safety" that has been posting notices on trees and stumps for the last ten years. This committee wants to incorporate. Incorporate what?

They first notified us of the territory they wanted to incorporate. It did not take my home in. I rested easy and thought if others wanted to go in and be taxed, all right. The "incorporation" drummed up their forces and concluded to take in my home so as to get tax enough to make up the ten thousand dollars they wanted, to pay the salaries of the officials, to grade the streets, to build the "calaboose," to make a "pound" and hire a poundmaster to catch and imprison every animal running at large, to kill every dog running in the "incorporated limits" without a collar—costing the owner from one to five dollars; to pay a police judge, and to pay a city attorney a salary for stirring up all sorts of trouble in the neighborhood so he can get a fee. Can any man tell us what advantage it will be to any taxpayer to incorporate?

The move is designed to fill the pockets of those who have nothing and ruin those who, by honest industry, have made comfortable homes. It will reduce the value of property 50 per cent within incorporated limits. No man of sense will invest in property where he is subject to the whims and malice of a board of aldermen and other officers intent only on lining their own pockets. Look at the history of New York, where Boss Tweed robbed the city of fifty millions, voted into the treasury by irresponsible foreigners and hoodlums. Look at Portland, where excessive and unnecessary taxation has reduced the value of property 50 per cent. Our large cities are the centers of corruption. There do vagabonds congregate and there rests the fulcrum of the lever that will eventually overthrow the government. Every incorporated town is a nest egg which it is hoped will grow into a city to feather the nests of those who are too lazy to work for an honest living.

Are not our taxes now unnecessarily exorbitant? We work hard the year round and the tax gatherers come for more money than we make on the farm. Incorporate, and we may as well turn over everything we have to the authorities and leave the country.

Farewell Entertainment.

The K. of P. lodge of Hood River gave a farewell entertainment and supper, on the evening of the 16th, to their brother knight, J. H. Gerdes, and his wife, who left on the 17th for Stockton, California. The following programme was rendered:

Address by Prof. C. L. Gilbert.

Music by choir ("Musician and his Harp")—Wm. Haynes, J. R. Nickelsen, Eva Blowers and Mrs. Georgia Rand.

Recitations by Rev. McKenzie (Christian Maidens and the Lions), Mary Wolfard, Irma Coe and Clarence Gilbert.

Song by the choir—"Duffy's Cart."

Recitations by Maud Gilbert, Walter Faulkner and Bertha Prather.

Select reading by C. M. Wolfard.

Recitations by Clyde Faulkner and Anna Wolfard.

Song by the choir—"Mother's Good Night."

Recitations by Dot Watt and Wilbur Faulkner.

Supper.

The New Pastor of the U. B. Church.

Burlington Junction (Mo.) Post, Nov. 17th.

Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Davis started Monday morning for Hood River, Oregon, where Rev. Davis has been assigned work as pastor of a charge of his denomination, the United Brethren. For two years past he has been pastor in charge of the Salem society at this place, and he leaves a host of friends, both in and outside of the church, who join the Post in good wishes for his future success and happiness. May God bless his work, as He undoubtedly did among our people, and may he and his excellent wife live long to enjoy the blessings that go only with the sacrificial laborers in God's cause.

The Companion's Calendar.

The Youth's Companion has just published a calendar for 1895 which is a work of art—in deed, three works of art in one. Scenes typical of three seasons of the year, winter, summer, autumn, are shown. The first picture represents a mother and son pausing in their walk in a snowy field, across which a rabbit is running, much to the amusement of the boy. The artist in the summer scene has pictured three children rowing down a winding river; and were it not for the apples which fill the pan in her arms, one would scarcely imagine that the graceful girl in the third picture was typical of autumn. Around the pictures are grouped the monthly calendars, tied together by ribbons. This attractive calendar and a full prospectus for 1895 will be sent free upon application, to any one considering a subscription to the Companion. From no other paper can so much entertainment and instruction be obtained for so little money (only $1.75 a year). If you subscribe now you will receive the paper until January 1, 1895, and for a full year from that date, including the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's double numbers. The Youth's Companion, Boston, Mass.

DIED.

In Hood River valley, November 19, 1894, William Lyon, aged 81 years.

Deceased was the father of E. E. Lyon, with whom he has lived since he came here from Illinois, in April, 1892. Mr. Lyon was born in Adams, Mass., and when a young man went to the Western Reserve, in Ohio, when that country was yet a wilderness. He followed farming most of his life. Lately he has been in poor health, which ended in paralysis, after which he lasted but 33 hours. He was buried Tuesday, at 1:30 p. m., in K. of P. cemetery.

Everyday Law.

Herewith are the most important laws, succinctly stated, that touch the needs of the average business man. An observance of them, says a trade journal, will enable one to avoid many mistakes that may be serious and steer the innocent from many pitfalls that may be calamitous. They contain, in few words, the essence of a large amount of legal verbiage, not always very intelligible.

Each individual in a partnership is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm, except in cases of "special" partnership.

Contracts made on Sundays cannot be enforced.

A contract made with a minor is void. A contract made with a lunatic (or with one who has a general reputation for weak-mindedness) is void. The latter case must, however, be clearly established.

The act of one partner binds all the other partners.

It is a fraud to conceal a fraud.

No consideration is sufficient in law if it is illegal in its nature. (Many "failures" are upset because of this law.)

A receipt for money is not always conclusive.

An agreement without consideration is void.

The law compels no one to do impossibilities. (This must be liberally construed.)

Ignorance of the law excuses no one.

Note especially the following, as affecting the giving and taking of notes: A note made on Sunday is void.

A note obtained by fraud from a person in a state of intoxication cannot be collected. (This is a corollary to the law governing contracts with the weak-minded.)

Notes bear interest only when so stated.

If a note is lost or stolen it does not release the maker; he must pay it if the consideration for which it was given and the amount can be proved.

Signatures made with a lead pencil are good in law.

The maker of an "accommodation" note (one for which he has received no consideration, having lent his name and credit for the accommodation of the holder) is not bound to the person accommodated, but is bound to all other parties, precisely as if there was a good consideration.

If the maker of a check or draft has changed his residence the holder must use "due diligence" to find him.

Checks or drafts must be presented for payment without "unreasonable delay."

Ignorance or oversight of or wilful inattention to these fundamental injunctions is the frequent source of annoying and expensive litigation.

Sunflower Seed for Fowls.

The mammoth Russian sunflower has but one bud at the top, which, when half grown, turns upside down, which completely protects its seeds from those little depredators, the English sparrow and the yellow birds, that are so fond of it. For this reason poultrymen should plant nothing but mammoth Russian variety. All who raise poultry should have a supply of sunflowers for their fowls, who should begin to feed on them as soon as the seeds are fully matured. They will produce four times as much nutriment for fowls to the square acre as Indian corn, and are better suited to the health of the fowls than any grain. Bend down a few of the stalks a few times a week and let the fowls pick them out; it will be a good healthy employment for them. In addition to the supply of food they offer, they afford a shade from the heat in summer, which is very desirable.

Single heads of the mammoth Russian sunflower measure from 16 to 24 inches in diameter. The seeds fatten poultry and give them bright, lustrous plumage, which indicates a healthy condition. It is the most remarkably productive food known, and can be raised cheaper than corn. It is acknowledged to be an article of value wherever grown.—Coleman's Rural World.

A Bright Lad,

Ten years of age, but who declines to give his name to the public, makes this authorized, confidential statement to us:
"When I was one year old, my mamma died of consumption. The doctor said that I, too, would soon die, and all our neighbors thought that even if I did not die, I would never be able to walk, because I was so weak and puny. A gathering formed and broke under my arm. I hurt my finger and it gathered and threw out pieces of bone. If I hurt myself so as to break the skin, it was sure to become a running sore. I had to take lots of medicine, but nothing has done me so much good as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It has made me well and strong."
