OREGON SENATE.

Personal Appearance Given in a Group of Portraits.

SERVANTS OF THE PEOPLE

And an Educated, Reading and Thinking Constituency are Expecting They Will Act Their Part Well—Biographical Sketches—Benjamin F. Alley.

B. F. Alley, holder Senator from Lane county, was born in New York State in 1840. His early life was full of hardships and struggles for an education. For a number of years he made his home in Illinois, enlisting in the army in 1861 and marching with Sherman to the sea. In 1874 Mr. Alley moved to California and later in 1883 to Oregon. In 1890 he settled with his wife at Florence, establishing The West, a weekly newspaper, of which he has since been sole editor and proprietor. Mr. Alley has twice been elected Mayor of Florence. He was a prominent figure of the Legislature of 1893, and is a free-silver Republican.

F. A. BANCROFT.

F. A. Bancroft, Senator from Multnomah county, is the local freight agent of the Southern Pacific railroad. He resides in East Portland, and has always been an ardent believer in the future prosperity of Oregon and Portland. Mr. Bancroft is a Republican, and was elected to the Senate in 1892.

HENRY BECKLEY.

Henry Beckley, Senator from Douglas county, was born in Indiana in 1833. His family removed to Missouri in 1840, and in 1853 Mr. Beckley came to Oregon, settling in Douglas county. He has engaged at various times in mining, farming and milling. In 1878 Mr. Beckley established the town of Elkton, where he is still a large property-owner and heavily interested in the milling business. He was elected Senator in 1892 as the candidate of the Democratic and People's party.

TOLBERT CARTER.

Tolbert Carter, Senator from Benton county, was born in Illinois in 1825, and after a youth of hardships came to Oregon as a pioneer in 1846. After mining for a time in California, where he also engaged in mercantile pursuits, Mr. Carter settled upon his Oregon homestead, which has since been his home. He was elected as Representative in 1878 and 1882, and again nominated by the Republicans and elected a member of the present House in 1894.

C. A. COGSWELL.

C. A. Cogswell, Senator from Lake county, was born in Vermont in 1844. During the war with the South he fought under General Sherman, and subsequently removed to Goose Lake Valley in Lake county, where he has since resided. He is a lawyer by profession and carries a lucrative practice. Mr. Cogswell was elected State Senator in 1888 as a Democrat, and re-elected to the same office in 1892 by double his former majority.

S. A. DAWSON.

S. A. Dawson, Senator from Linn county, was born in Indiana in 1860. After a temporary residence in Illinois he came to Linn county, Or., in 1861. For several years he engaged in different ventures in Oregon, Washington and Montana, but returned to Linn county in 1866, where he has since made his home. Mr. Dawson has always taken an active interest in politics. He was elected to the House in 1880 and to the Senate in 1886 and again in 1894.

O. N. DENNY.

Judge O. N. Denny was born in Ohio in 1838. He came to Oregon with his parents in 1852, locating in Linn county. His early life was full of struggles grandly overcome. In 1862 Judge Denny was admitted to the bar and practiced law at The Dalles, and was shortly afterward appointed County and Probate Judge by Governor Gibbs. After holding several offices and refusing others, he accepted the position of American Consul to Tien Tsin, China, to which he was appointed by President Hayes in 1877. While in China Judge Denny was a close friend of Li Hung Chang, and if that famous statesman had only followed his advice as regards Corea, he would not be in his present dilemma. Judge Denny was elected as State Senator from Multnomah county on the Republican ticket in 1892, and lasted the State Legislature at the latter session of the Legislature.

W. H. HOBSON.

W. H. Hobson, Senator from Marion county, was born in Missouri in 1846. He came to Oregon with his parents as an infant in 1847. The family settled in Marion county, where Mr. Hobson has since resided. He has been engaged in the mercantile business at Stayton since 1868. Mr. Hobson has always been a Republican.

SAMUEL H. HOLT.

Samuel H. Holt, Senator from Jack-county, is a native son of Oregon, having been born in Marion county in 1837. His youth was passed on a farm near Scio. Since 1880 Mr. Johnson has lived chiefly in Scio, engaging part of the time in mercantile pursuits, and since 1892 has conducted the Bank of Scio. He is a stalwart Republican, and has held several offices with credit to his constituents. As a legislator he will do his duty as he understands it for the benefit of the whole State.

WILL R. KING.

Will R. King, joint Senator for Baker and Malheur counties, is the youngest member of the Senate. He was born near Walla Walla, Wash., in 1864, and ticket in 1894, being elected by a large majority.

J. W. MAXWELL.

J. W. Maxwell, joint Senator from Tillamook, Washington and Columbia counties, was born in Illinois in 1831 and spent his youth in that State. He served in the Union army during the war and came to Oregon in 1882, settling a little later in Tillamook county. Senator Maxwell is a man of great strength and vigor, and enjoys the confidence of the community in which he resides, which is proved by the fact that this is his third term in the Oregon Legislature.

J. H. M'CLUNG.

J. H. McClung, Senator from Lane county, was born in Ohio in 1837. His parents moved to Indiana when he was a mere child, and in 1856 Mr. McClung came to Oregon by the Isthmus route. He settled at Eugene in June of that year, and has since made his home in that city. From 1869 to 1873 he was United States Deputy Surveyor in Eastern Oregon, and on returning home was elected to the House from Lane county in 1874. In 1883 Mr. McClung formed a partnership with A. J. Johnson to carry on a general merchandise business. Mr. Johnson retired in 1891, and Mr. McClung now conducts alone one of the largest dry goods establishments in Lane county as Prosecuting Attorney. During his tenure of this office he was the terror of all malefactors, and never failed to secure a conviction when the evidence of guilt was of a character to warrant it. Mr. McGinn is well equipped for service in the Legislature, both through practical experience of affairs and legal knowledge. He is a Republican in politics.

A. R. PRICE.

A. R. Price, Senator from Umatilla county, was born in Indiana in 1837, and moved with his parents to Iowa when a mere infant. After the death of his father Mr. Price crossed the plains with his mother in the spring of 1853, settling in Lewis county, Wash. Three

THE OREGON SENATE.

D. A. M'ALISTER.

D. A. McAlister, Senator from Union county, has resided in the Grand Ronde Valley for thirty-two years. By occupation Mr. McAlister is a farmer and also a breeder of fine blooded horses. He has always been a leader in the Democratic party in his section as well as a good citizen and neighbor. Mr. McAlister was elected State Senator in 1892, and has already made his mark in the legislative assembly.

county. In June, 1894, he was elected State Senator, as a Republican, for four years, and will have a chance to vote for two United States Senators.

H. E. M'GINN.

H. E. McGinn, Senator from Multnomah county, is one of Oregon's native sons. He has earned name and fame as a lawyer of great acuteness, and as a pleader at the bar has few equals in oratorical powers in the Northwest. Mr. McGinn has served two terms in Multnomah county as Prosecuting Attorney. During his tenure of this office he was the terror of all malefactors, and never failed to secure a conviction when the evidence of guilt was of a character to warrant it. Mr. McGinn is well equipped for service in the Legislature, both through practical experience of affairs and legal knowledge. He is a Republican in politics.
