E. L. Smith has plenty of good hay for sale at $13 a ton.
Otis Eastman has been laid up with erysipelas in his hand.
S. E. Bartness is agent for the Bridal Veil Lumber Company.
Ed. Fewell, the well-known railroad, was in Hood River Tuesday.
Lou Morse is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
E. V. Husbands has recovered from his sickness and is again at his work.
In district 61 it is expected that Miss Dunlap of Wasco will teach the spring term.
Will Langille has been on the sick list for a week, but is again able to be about.
Ed Fewell went to Portland to attend the funeral of his deceased friend, John Fredly.
Davenport & Bros. Lumber Co. are now ready to deliver lumber to any part of the valley.
M. F. Sloper has moved to town, occupying Mr. Hartley's house, corner Fifth and Oak streets.
Capt. Blowers went to The Dalles Wednesday to attend a regular session of the county commissioners.
All varieties of peach trees, 5c each; Spitzenburg and Ben Davis apple trees, 5c each, $45 per 1000. See Tillett.
Supervisor Sloper has done some good work on the road just west of town by filling the chuck holes with gravel.
Miss Emma Shepard left for The Dalles Saturday, where she will take a position in the millinery store of Mrs. C. L. Phillips.
Send in your orders for trees for spring planting. Prices $40, $50 and $55 per 1000, in 500 and 1000 lots, at Tillett's nursery.
Mr. Lindsay and son Arkley arrived in Hood River last Friday from California. Arkley has been attending school in San Jose.
Willis Brown, manager of the Oregon Fruit Union, was in Hood River Saturday and gave the GLACIER office a pleasant call.
Arthur Disbrow of Mt. Hood expects to remove with his family to Pleasant Ridge, 12 miles south of The Dalles, about the first of April.
A. E. Curtis is having five acres cleared at Curly Top and is digging a ditch 450 rods long to bring water from a spring south west of his place.
Will Langille last week received a letter from Henry Reis, confined in St. Vincent's hospital, stating that he was recovering rapidly from his injuries.
Dr. Sanders is provided with a dental chair for his Hood River office. Also prepared to extract teeth without pain by the use of narcotized air, called gas.
Mrs. E. C. Mooney of Cascade Locks came up Saturday and will remain during the summer so allow her children to attend the Hood River schools.
Miss Edith Montgomery and her brother Archie, of Portland, have come to spend the summer at Hood River, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Slingerland.
C. D. Hayner has removed to Monkland, Sherman county. Mr. Miller, the man with whom he traded places, has arrived with his family at his new home in Hood River.
Seven new styles of mens' fine dress shoes in the lot received Wednesday at Pierce's Harness and Shoe store. Also, nice line of boys' shoes, Oxford ties and cloth top shoes for women.
John Fredly, the railroad bridge builder, died in a Portland hospital Friday last week. His remains were taken to the Wallowa valley for interment, where the deceased had a ranch.
M. F. Loy disposed of his interest in the livery business last Friday to O. B. Hartley. The latter in turn sold to H. F. Davidson the same day, and now the name of the livery firm is Ferguson & Davidson.
While excavating beneath the office building of Hon. E. L. Smith, Thursday, W. C. Strauhman found an old rusty rifle with home-made stock, that fell to pieces when picked up. It is evidently an old-timer.
Rev. Chris Nickelsen, in charge of the M. E. church at Waldron, Crook county, was in Hood River Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Nickelsen accompanied the remains of his mother-in-law, Mrs. J. W. Rigby, from Bickleton.
Miss Irene Callison was selected by the school board in district 2 to teach the spring term of three months. But one teacher will be employed for the spring term, and it is expected that only the pupils of the primary department will attend.
Con Repp cared for half a dozen quail during the past winter, by feeding them when the snow was on the ground. He would put out the feed at night and in the morning the quail would come regularly at day break and help themselves. These quail were turned out by the Hood River Rod and Gun club a year ago.

Patrons of the Portland and Dalles accommodation train will be pleased to learn of the change made in the passenger equipment. The O. R. & N. Co. has replaced the former one combination car carried with a straight baggage car and an elegant lately remodeled first-class coach and smoker. This arrangement virtually gives a day passenger train between Portland and Dalles, leaving Portland at 8:00 a. m., arriving at Dalles 1:00 p. m., and returning, leave Dalles at 2:00 p. m., arriving at Portland 7:00 p. m. daily except Sunday. The through passenger train still retains its old schedule, leaving Portland at 7:00 p. m. for the east and leaving Dalles at 4:00 p. m. for Portland.

A horse belonging to E. C. Rogers last Sunday night fell through the bridge that crosses the flume at T. E. Wickens' place. He was found next morning and rescued after sticking in the bridge probably all night. Supervisor Sloper had the bridge repaired Tuesday.
L. B. Anway of Portland is in Hood River buying and packing apples for a Portland house. Mr. Anway is a very competent orchardist and is engaged pruning Mr. H. Prigge's apple orchard.
The weather for the past week has been delightful. Warm, sunshiny days, with frosty nights, when the thermometer gets down to about 32° by daylight. The fruit crop is all right.
M. F. Sloper has sold 18 acres of his place, including his house and improvements, to Mr. Thompson, who recently returned from the East. The price paid was $100 per acre.
Miss Bertha Prather found an umbrella Thursday evening. Owner can have the same by calling at the GLACIER office.
The Hood River schools commenced Monday, with a total attendance of 118. There are 188 school children in the district.
Fruit growers should read the notice of stockholders' meeting of the Hood River Fruit Growers' Union, in another column.
Farmers intending to irrigate will be interested in the Hood River Water Supply Co.'s notice in this issue.
Dr. Carns arrived from Portland Tuesday. He was due here Sunday night, but business detained him.
W. H. Perry, clerk of school district 2, reports 104 children of school age in the district.
Mrs. Oscar Stranahan is on the sick list with a severe attack of sciatic rheumatism.
Mrs. Rawson of The Dalles spent last week with her sister Mrs. F. L. Johns.
Mr. Lage of Pine Grove was in The Dalles on the 4th attending court.
Rev. F. L. Johns was in The Dalles on the 5th and 6th.
S. J. LaFrance left Monday for a trip to the Sound.
Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Perry went to Portland Monday.

CHURCH NOTICES.
Sunday school at the Valley Congregational church each Sunday at 10:30, except on church days, when it meets at 10 o'clock. "Come, now, let us reason together, saith the Lord."
Regular services are held at the M. E. barracks morning and evening of the first Sunday of each month; in the evening the remaining Sundays of the month. The fourth Sunday evening occupied by T. D. Gregory.
F. L. JOHNS.
Rev. R. A. Rowley of Portland is conducting a very successful series of meetings at the Congregational church. The attendance is large and the interest is good. Supt. Rowley will preach Sunday morning and evening and will continue the meetings next week. Every body invited and made welcome.
Rev. R. A. Rowley will preach Sunday afternoon at the Crapper school house at 3 p. m. In connection with this service an effort will be made to organize a Sunday school. Sunday school supplies will be on hand.

BORN.
In Hood River, March 5, 1895, to Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Blowers, a daughter.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
The bulk of the season's grinding is over, but the miller will be at home every Saturday during the summer months, prepared to grind your grist promptly.
HARRISON BROS.
Pure blooded Pekin Duck, eggs for $2 per dozen. These are the most profitable birds to raise on the farm; they will lay from March 1st to July 1st. Eggs large.
W. R. WINANS, Hood River, Or.
First class timothy hay for sale by Ferguson & Davidson $15 per ton.
Black harness oil, 35 cts a quart, at Pierce's Harness and Shoe Store.
Wm. Tillett is still in the nursery business, with a good stock of home-grown trees. If he is out of what you want, he can supply you with the following varieties from one of the largest nurseries in Oregon: All kinds of cherry trees; Spitzenburg, Gano, Ben Davis, Red Delaware, Hyde's King of the West, Tompkins King, and other leading varieties of apples. Would be glad to quote prices on lots of 500 and 1000 trees. Drop him a postal for terms.
The Hood River Box Factory has plenty of apple boxes on hand.
For sash, doors, mouldings, brackets, combination fencing and turning, go to the Hood River Box Factory.
Wm. Tillett has ordered apple trees of the following varieties: 3000 Spitzenburg, 2000 Baldwin, 1000 Northern Spy, and 500 Gravenstein. Apple trees, it is expected, will be scarce in the spring, and is behooved planters to order early.

Council Proceedings.
At the meeting of the common council, Monday evening, March 4th, permission was granted C. A. Bell to enclose a portion of the street lying between the Mt. Hood hotel and the O. R. & N. Co.'s depot, for the purpose of beautifying and putting the same in grass.
A proposition from Robert Rand, to rent the council a room over his store for $5 per month from April 1st, was accepted.
Ordinances numbered one, two, three, four and five were passed and ordered published.
A vote of thanks was given to Mr. E. L. Smith for the use of his typewriter, and to C. P. Heald for preparing enrolled ordinances.
Ordinances numbered six, seven and eight, relating to the expenditure of town revenues, licenses, and taxing of dogs, were considered and ordered enrolled.
By ordinance number one, all regular meetings of the council hereafter will be held on the second Tuesday of each month.

School Elections.
At the school elections in the valley, Monday, so far as we have heard from, the following officers were elected:
In district 2—J. J. Luckey director and W. H. Perry clerk.
District 3—J. A. Soesbe director and M. H. Nickelsen clerk.
Crapper District—Chas. Candler director and J. Wickham clerk.
Pine Grove—Wm. Johnson director and Joseph Porter clerk.

Obituary.
Julia Case Rigby was born at Mt. Morris, N. Y., March 14, 1842; was converted and joined the M. E. church in December, 1859, while at school in Perry, N. Y. Removed to Iowa in 1870; was married to Rev. J. W. Rigby August 17, 1871, and died at Bickleton, Washington, February 28, 1895.
The deceased, as a pastor's wife, exercised a wide influence. Her piety and devotion was like the deep flowing stream, not noisy nor demonstrative, but full, strong and prevailing. In her devotion to her husband and children she knew no bounds but that of possibilities, but all was overshadowed by an unceasing devotion to God in all her private Christian duties. She leaves a husband and four daughters to revere her memory and imitate her virtues.

Fruit Growers, Attention!
We have in stock, economically and scientifically prepared, condensed forms of sprays as recommended by the Oregon state board of horticulture, as follows:
Spray No. 1—Lime, 30; sulphur, 20; salt, 15—in such form as to require only to dissolve 1 lb in 2 gals. water.
Spray No. 2—Sulphur, 100; lime, 100; blue vitriol, 8, of which 1 lb in 2 gals. for winter, down to 8 or 10 gals. for summer use, is required.
Spray No. 3—Wheat oil soap (80 per cent.), 20; sulphur, 3; caustic soda (98 per cent.), 1; potash, 1; of this 1 lb in 5 gals. is the proportion.
Spray No. 7—Bordeaux mix—Copper sulphate, 8; lime, 4; of which 1 lb in 2 gals. of water for winter, to 4 gals. for summer, is the proper strength. Also, Paris green, London purple, etc. Do not fail to see us before buying your insecticides.
WILLIAMS & BROS., U.S.

The Pokymville Postmistress.
That dude down in Chepateterville
He's "ridin'" twice a day
Loo' like a half-inch thick
To young Matilda Pray.
An' Miriam Fitz she has two beaus,
One 'at is a solemn Turk
One hez his letters post marked "Pike,"
The other "Kalamazoo."
Sich things as this, 't'ain't your soul
An' 't'ain't your body no more.
For I'm postmistress, as you know,
Down here in Pokymville.

An' Rastus Perkins gits a dnm
From Follenham & Pack
Most every week, and sometimes twice,
For his wife's seakins in saquee.
An' Martha French—the stuck up thing!
With all her lace and frills—
Is gettin' done from Frank each month
For three years' bonnet bills.
For I'm postmistress an' I bear
The weight of the mail and kith;
For I'm postmistress an' I bear
The sins of Pokymville.

An' so I'm worried to death
'Bout Bascom's flour bill,
An' 'bout how scrippins Jones
Comes on with her bean, while
An' lest good Deacon Angewine
Shall fall away from grace,
An' lest our Elder Green shall bring
A new way to the place,
I carry all their woes myself,
A burden fit to kill;
I feel responsible for all
The folks of Pokymville.

I work ez hard ez I can work,
The best that I can do,
'Tis half-past nine afore I git
The postal cards read through,
An' when Crapper writes to John,
Or Susan writes to Ned,
I rack my brains in wanderin'
'Jest what them gals hez said,
I think I do not know,
This awful work will kill,
An' then a new postmistress here
Will reign in Pokymville.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO
IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stopping of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about BACO-CURO. It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO-CURO. It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you first took your first chew or smoke. An iron-clad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded. Price $1.00 per box, or 3 boxes (30 days' treatment and guaranteed cure), $2.50. For sale by all druggists, or will be sent by mail upon receipt of price. SEND SIX TWO-CENT STAMPS FOR SAMPLE BOX. Booklets and proofs free. Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.
