Be on your Guard.

If some grocers urge another baking powder upon you in place of the "Royal," it is because of the greater profit upon it. This of itself is evidence of the superiority of the "Royal." To give greater profit the other must be a lower cost powder, and to cost less it must be made with cheaper and inferior materials, and thus, though selling for the same, give less value to the consumer.

To insure the finest cake, the most wholesome food, be sure that no substitute for Royal Baking Powder is accepted by you.

Nothing can be substituted for the Royal Baking Powder and give as good results.

Decorated Prayer Books.

Prayer books are a fad this season, especially those for youthful brides. A beautiful volume containing four original sonnets done in antique silver lettering upon rough edged parchment has a center piece upon the outside of old Flemish lace, bordered with small imitation pearls. Orange buds and leaves are embroidered in groups on both sides of the white satin cover and silver filigree protectors lap over the corners. The richest covers for brides' prayer books, which contain only the marriage service, are of moire or silk, suede kid, or of white satin, moire or silk corduroy. The last named material admits of but little embroidery, and this appears at the corners, the bride's initials in silver taking the center of the cover in front. The reverse has the date of the marriage also in silver lettering. For covers of white satin or moire narrow borders of ecclesiastical couching in silver thread and ecclesiastical silk are used .-

The City and the Country Dude.

A city dude seldom does anything worth chronicling, for he is universally regarded as empty headed, incapable of even arousing genuine curiosity. But a country dude-well, he is pretty certain to be interesting. Here is a speciimen: A Buckfield young man recently tried to lift his carriage out of the mud while standing on the axle to save soiling his shoes.-Bar Harbor Record.

Why Children Are Always Doing Things.

Temptation, which is continual in children because everything is new to them, is nothing else than the force of an idea and the motive impulse that accompanies it .- Alfred Fouillee in Popu lar Science Monthly

Royalty and Mustaches. It has been remarked that in addition to her other personal attractions the infanta is in possession of what the French call leger duvet, or, in plain English, the down upon the upper lip. American women, more particularly those whose associations and observations have been confined to their native land, have come to look upon the leger duvet as something unfeminine and unattractive. It is rather a distinctive matter of pride, however, to the beauties of the Latin nations, and is taken, moreover, as a badge of strength of character and an indication of self reliance without assuming the coarser vigor of masculinity. When Rome was in its "most high and palmy state," the women of the refined and cultured set affected not only the down on the lip, but a hirsute growth on the face. They resorted to artificial means and smeared ointment over their cheeks to stimulate the growth of hair. Cicero says that the practice became so universal that a law was passed against it. The Greeks also were affected in the same manner and gave their Cyprian Venus a beard to enhance her good looks. -New York World.

Driven to the Rouge Pot.

Says a correspondent: I lost my complexion very young, grew sallow, and in order to remedy this pumpkinlike mask I took to rouging. It was a success. People began to say: "How well you look! Such a fine color." I pride myself on the fact that I have an exceedingly finished touch. I never left my mirror without giving my face the most careful scrutiny. I learned to shade off the edges until I really believe that my homemade flush was prettier than a good many going the rounds that were perfectly natural, for it never spread over n nose and forehead

Cleanliness Saves Life.

With the approach of hot weather the question of clean, healthy surroundings is one that must command the attention of every one, and especially in view of the fact that reports have been published that cholera can always be prevented by keeping things clean. The physician should be the preacher of cleanliness, for cleanliness saves more lives than all of the drugs known to us. This includes body cleanliness as well as that of surroundings. Use water, deodorizers and disinfectants steadily through the hot season. There is a sanitary condition of our bodies as well as our surroundings. Bad matter is continually exuding from the pores of the skin, and if this is not washed off frequently it will become the breeding place for disease germs. Fatal germs are in dust dirt and particles that float in the air. These cling to the body, and under the warmth of the heat from the body they multiply. Many who are filthy get infectious diseases, while those who are clean escape. It is the safest protection that one can obtain to surround the body with a clean skin. Our surroundings must also be clean, sweet and pure. Filth creates infectious atmospheric conditions that bafde the wisest sanitarian, and every epidemic begins in dirt. Decaying animal and vegetable matter, imperfectly cleansed clothing, person or bed, are all breeding places for diseases that may in time become epidemic. The physician should work to prevent all of this, and every one who has the good of his country in mind should aid him in trying to keep the surroundings of the community clean and weet in hot weather .- Yankee Blade.

Immigration For May.

The immigration figures just issued by the bureau of statistics of the treasury department for the month of May show a very considerable reaction in the direction of increased immigration from the falling off of last year. For the five months ending May 31, as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year, there was a falling off of 40,000 and upward, and for the 11 months a falling off of 116,000. But for the month of May, as compared with the corresponding month of 1892, there was a gain of 3,143. The details of the showing are interesting. The largest gain over last year was in Italian immigration, 7,692. The largest loss was in German immigration, 6,199. There was a falling off in the immigration from Great Britain of nearly 2,000, and a gain in Austrian-Hungarian of 1.300. There were considerable gains from the Netherlands, Russia, Sweden and Norway, and a small gain from France. The account with Denmark and Switzerland shows osses. The aggregate for the month was as follows: Austria-Hungary-Bohemia, 1,060; Hungary, 5,150; other Austria (except Poland), 7,833. Denmark, 1,191; France, 691; Germany, 13,936; Italy, 17,-638; Netherlands, 2,112; Poland, 2,184; Russia (except Poland), 11,281; Sweden and Norway, 10,261; Switzerland, 697. United Kingdom-England and Wales, 5,634; Scotland, 1,688; Ireland, 11,018. All other countries, 3,011. Total, 95,385. -Detroit Free Press.

THE WRONG WAY.

There is a way of looking at a thing that is curious and wrong. The old adage, 'proof of the pudding is in eating it," is sound sense. And another "never condemn before trial." In the treatment of anything, treat it in good faith, so when infirmities beset us, beset them with good will and force. Thousands have in this way overcome the worst forms of rheuma-tism by using St. Jacobs Oil. Never shrink from what is known to be by thousands a positive cure for this dread complaint, and that is the thing to remove the trouble and solve the doubt. solve the doubt.

Much favorable comment was expressed at the Portland Fruit Convention over a publication devoted to the fruit industry issued by the new competitor for Eastern traffic, the Great Northern Railway. This document was handsomely printed and illustrated and treated every feature of the business and every fruit locality in Oregon and Washington with perfect fairness and truthfulness. ## A Bank Failure. AN INVESTIGATION DEMANDED.

A general banking business is done by the human system, because the blood de-posits in its vaults whatever wealth we may gain from day to day. This wealth is laid up against "a rainy day" as a reserve fund —we're in a condition of healthy prosperity if we have laid away sufficient capital to draw upon in the hour of our greatest need. There is danger in getting thin, because it's a sign of letting down in health. Ta-gain in blood is nearly always to gain in zwhole-some flesh. The odds are in favor of the germs of consumption, grip, or pnemonia, if our liver be inactive and our blood im-pute, or if our flesh be reduced below a healthy standard. What is required is an increase in our germ fighting strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enriches the blood and makes it wholesome, stops the waste of tissue and at the same time builds up the strength. A medicine which will rid the blood of its poisons. cleause and builds up the strength. A medicine which will rid the blood of its poisons, cleanse and invigorate the great organs of the body, vitalize the system, thrill the whole being vitalize the system, thrill the whole being with new energy and make permanent work of it, is surely a remedy of great value. But when we make a positive statement that of per cent. of all cases of consumption can, if taken in the early stages of the disease, be CURED with the "Discovery," it seems like a bold assertion. All Dr. Pierce asks is that you make a thorough investigation and satisfy yourself of the truth of his assertion. By sending to the World's Dispensary Med-ical Association, Buffalo, N. One day I heard a woman lecture on the evils of painting the cheeks. I went home, threw my box of carmine in the fire and resolved that I would be natural at all hazards. In a few days I began to be greeted with commiserating glances. Friends asked if I were ill. "You look so fagged. Must be something the matter." I stood it as long as I could, when back to my rouge I went, and I shall not desert it for anything more natural unless it be to adopt beet juice, which, I hear, is not only a beautifier, but a tonic for the skin as well.

A Bridal Scrapbook.

A bridal scrapbook is novel and adds much to the merriment of the occasion. It is of course bound in white vellum, with the monogram of the bride and groom and the date in silver. There is space for the certificate made out by the officiating clergyman, which is to be signed by each and every guest. It may be placed in charge of one of the ushers and should rest on a cushion of white on a table large enough to hold a massive silver inkstand and penrack. One of the prettiest spectacular effects of the affair is the sight of the bride signing her new name for the first time.

The book also contains spaces for the photographs of the entire bridal party as well as for bits of the gowns worn. Just before the departure of the happy couple a maid might carry around a silver bowl full of rice, so that each guest may shower the departing bride with the emblem of prosperity. The last detail, although its preparation may antedate others, is the writing of the marriage notice for the press .- New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Chicago baking powder concern, advertising far and near that its product received the highest award for strength, parity and excellence at the Chicago The usual resultant conditions of the pilpurity and excellence at the Chicago World's Fair, has been obliged to take a double somersault backward. Mr. John Boyd Thatcher, chairman of the Agri-cultural Awards, has written a letter to the said Chicago concern showing it that its advertising statements, speaking mildly, are incorrect, while the Judge of Awards on Baking Powders sends an-other in which he brands the claim of the pretenders as false in the most un-mistakable language.
