The Hood River public library has received through Congressman Ellis eleven volumes of the United States Geological Survey.
C. P. Ross has been engaged during the week hauling lumber for his residence now building on the land purchased of Peter Hinrichs.
D. S. Crapper has been offered $1.15 per box for his Ben Davis apples. This offer was made through samples sent to Portland by Capt. Blood.
Mrs. E. J. Haynes will go to Portland about Tuesday next, where she expects to remain for a month or more, visiting relatives and friends.
Dr. Sanders is provided with a dental chair for his Hood River office. Also prepared to extract teeth without pain by the use of narcotized air, called gas.
H. F. Davidson, of the lively firm of Ferguson & Davidson, moved to town, last week, and is occupying the house on the corner east of Hanna & Wolfard's store.
E. D. Calkins is building fences, painting, and otherwise improving his place. He will enlarge his windmill, and has sent for a fine lot of flowers and shrubs for his celebrated gardens.
Dorance Smith left Wednesday for Astoria, where he expects to remain during the summer. Will Haynes accompanies him, and will try his luck at finding a situation in the city by the sounding sea.
James McDonald, foreman of the sawcutters at the Cascades, has bought 66 acres of Mr. Miller, who traded for C. D. Hayner's place. Others of Cascade Locks are negotiating for land in the same neighborhood.
The present year of the Annie Wright Seminary is progressing most satisfactorily to pupils and teachers. This model school for young ladies possesses so many advantages in the highest culture, that it is no wonder that the neighboring states avail themselves of its privileges.
Will Langille has received notice from the secretary of the Mazamas, that Mr. Adams has been chosen as the peak for the "goats" to climb this season. The party will assemble at Trout Lake, remain there a few days, then move to snow line and be ready for the climb on July 10th.
Edgar Button, a son of F. H. Button, while playing on his way from school Tuesday, fell and broke his leg just above the ankle. Dr. Brosius set the injured limb, and reports that the little fellow is getting along well, and if he keeps quiet for a few days, will be able to be out on crutches.
H. H. Bailey of Missouri, who recently bought twenty acres of land from C. H. Stranahan, has arrived with his family and has commenced the building of a fine residence. He brought with him his team and some fine hogs. He is well pleased with the country. His son, Fred Hendricks, has bought ten acres of Thos. Hendricks.
The O. R. & N. Co., always alert to the welfare of their patrons, have decided to discontinue the mixed passenger and freight train leaving Portland in the morning, returning in the evening, and substitute a regular passenger train which will run daily including Sundays: Leaving Portland 8:00 a. m., arriving Dalles 2:15 p. m., and returning to Portland 6:30 p. m. About April 15th this train will carry an elegant observation car, and low rates for the round trip will be placed in effect.

Patrons of the Portland and Dalles accommodation train will be pleased to learn of the change made in the passenger equipment. The O. R. & N. Co. has replaced the former one combination car carried with a straight baggage car and an elegant lately remodeled first-class coach and smoker. This arrangement virtually gives a day passenger train between Portland and Dalles, leaving Portland at 8:30 a. m., arriving at Dalles 1:30 p. m., and returning, leave Dalles at 2:30 p. m., arriving at Portland 7:30 p. m. daily, except Sunday. The through passenger train still retains its old schedule, leaving Portland at 7:00 p. m. for the East and leaving Dalles at 4:00 p. m. for Portland.
An ordinance prohibiting stock from running at large in the city limits was introduced at the meeting of the council Monday evening. This is a move in the right direction, if its provisions can be limited to the months when there is no grass. In winter, when there is no green feed, a farmer cannot leave anything eaten in his wagon while his team is hitched in the streets of Hood River unless he stays right by it to guard against the depredations of loose stock.
If you have land, or a cow, or horse, or pigs for sale, a little ad in the GLACIER might make the sale for you. Or, if you wish to purchase a cow, or horse, or land, a little ad will help you and not cost much. Two bits might find a buyer for what you have to sell, or find you some one who has what you want to buy.
The Congregational church received their new bell from Cincinnati, and it was put in position last week. It is a good "bell metal" bell, weighs 688 pounds, and has a clear and pleasant tone. Every one seems to be highly pleased with it. Its cost was about $150.
The parties who went to Mt. Hood, the other day, spoke well of Hood River's good roads. One of them said he frequently has occasion to travel over the roads in other parts of the county, and has always found our roads kept the best.
A gentleman writes from Sellwood, wanting to trade property in Portland or Sellwood for Hood River property. Call at this office for particulars.
Rev. F. L. Johns has received the programme for the Easter services to be held at the M. E. church in Hood River and at Belmont.

Mr. Harry Richardson arrived here last Thursday from Forest Grove and is visiting his brother, J. F. Richardson. Mr. Richardson expects his father and mother here soon, to spend the summer.

Colonel Thompson, commanding the Third regiment O. N. G., inspected D company Monday evening.
Supervisor Prather is opening and improving Sherman street, next street south of State street.
The ground is so full of water from the recent rains that it is too wet to plow in some places.
Mrs. Crowell has been quite sick for the past week, but we are glad to learn that she is better.
George Slocum came home from Forest Grove Tuesday to remain for the summer.
Miss Sallie Zeller of Portland is visiting her brother, D. W. Zeller.
J. F. Richardson has moved from the planer to the Head place.

The Queen of Fruits.

Willis Brown, manager of the Oregon Fruit Union, has kindly sent us a cut of the brand he has had designed for Hood River strawberries, which we produce here. He has had this brand registered at Salem, he says, "so that others cannot impose upon us by using it, and we will thus endeavor to have Hood River fruit sold on its merits and not make a name for other localities." Mr. Brown has appointed W. B. Perry as local agent and manager for the warehouse at this place. He will soon ship a couple of carloads of k. d. boxes, and expects to have a force of men at work making them up.

A Lively Battle.

W. B. Perry returned Friday morning on the Regulator from a trip to White Salmon and Lyle, for the state union, looking for potatoes for shipment. He reports peach trees in full bloom on the north bank of the Columbia, and as he was coming home snow was flying, and fruitmen were feeling nervous over the prospects for fruit.
At Lyle he heard of a fracas between a farmer named Wright and his boy and three Indians. It seems Wright had fenced up an old Indian trail, and these Indians coming along the trail, called at the house to make a kick against it being fenced up. Two of the Indians were doing the talking, while the third was inclined to be neutral and the peace-maker. After some abuse from the Indians, Wright slapped one of them in the face. Young Wright had a six-shooter in his hip pocket, and one of the Indians slipped it out. The young man then grappled with the Indian, recovered the pistol and beat him unmercifully with the butt of it. In the melee the pistol was discharged, but no one hurt. In the meantime the old gentleman had come to blows with his Indian and vanquished him. The friendly Indian then took the part of the Indian that was being beaten, and had to choke the young man to make him let up. The Indians are much excited over the closing of their trails by new settlers, and the end is not yet.

Dear Sirs: I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physicians told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keely Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago today I commenced using your preparation, and today I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I truly consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours very truly, C. W. HOENICK.
