Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Perry made the trip to The Dalles in their buggy Tuesday. They spent three hours in the town and returned home the same day.

C. J. Hayes is assisting the secretary of the Hood River Fruit Growers' Union in receiving and shipping strawberries at the union warehouse near the depot.

E. S. Olinger was the only delegate attending the republican club convention from Hood River. He carried the proxies of Captain Blowers, J. A. Soesbe and C. E. Markham.

S. E. Bartness has a child's seat attached to his bicycle by which he takes his little girl Sallie on before him when he glides through the streets and along the roads on his silent steed.

The family of C. L. Gilbert moved to The Dalles Monday. Mr. Gilbert is deputy in the county clerk's office. The many friends of the family hope their absence will be only temporary.

Mr. Joseph Frasier came down to town Friday for the first time since his sickness. The old veteran was very near death's door by a gripple, and he is loud in his praises of the skill of his physician, Dr. Brosius.

Postmaster Morse has posted a notice at the post office stating that during the berry season the office will remain open till 8:45 in the evening. This will prove a great convenience to berry shippers who get in late, and will be appreciated by them.

Company D was mustered out of service Tuesday. Ltut. Col. Patterson and Captain Keller of the Third regiment coming here from The Dalles to close up the affairs of the company. The company had dwindled to 35 members, the required number being 40.

June 14th is the date now fixed for Mrs. Heald's summer concert. She will be assisted by a few of her more advanced pupils, the Glee club and other talent, of which more particular mention will be made hereafter. She promises the best musical programme that has ever been presented in Hood River.

There are now stopping at Mrs. John Parker's the following summer boarders: Mrs. Brandon and Miss Daly of East Portland; Mr. Ira Hill of Portland, and Miss Grace Williams. This is one of the pleasantest boarding places in the valley and generally has its share of summer boarders.

The O. R. & N. Co., always alert to the welfare of their patrons, have decided to discontinue the mixed passenger and freight train leaving Portland in the morning, returning in the evening, and substitute a regular passenger train which will run daily including Sundays: Leaving Portland 8:00 a. m., arriving Dalles 12:15 p. m., and returning to Portland 6:30 p. m. About April 15th this train will carry an elegant observation car, and low rates for the round trip will be placed in effect.

Canby Post, G. A. R., of Hood River, has an application for membership from a man 85 years old. Edwin Gorton is his name, and he lives at Wyeth, where he has resided upon a homestead for five years, and in a few days he will make final proof before the register and receiver at the Oregon City land office. Mr. Gorton served a year in the 11th Oh' Infantry. He is a native of Massachusetts and says he can remember his father's return from the war of 1812.

The ladies of the relief corps served refreshments to members of Canby post, G. A. R., and invited guests, after the meetings last Saturday afternoon. The large hall was well filled by the veterans and their families and others, and a good social time was had. Excellent sandwiches, cake, tea and ice cream were served. The Grand Army boys enjoyed the good things immensely, and it was surprising what capacity some had for cake. The ladies intend giving a lunch like this once a month during the summer.

Mr. H. N. Wait of Mt. Hood informs us that he has a small patch of strawberries that are looking fine. The season for ripe strawberries in his neighborhood is about three weeks later than the lower part of the valley. He will set out an acre of plants, and as his berries will come in after the early berries are gone, he believes he can realize fair prices.

The valley is overrun with young men from Portland and The Dalles and other places looking for work at berry picking. They come here expecting to find plenty of work. The worst feature of it is that they are generally without means when they get here and are obliged to beg for something to eat. Some are willing to work for their board.

Justus T. Neff returned from Minnesota Wednesday. He has been teaching school at Duluth for the past three years. On his way here, coming through North Dakota, he found plenty of snow on the ground, some places six inches deep. He is glad to get back to Oregon and his old home at Hood River.

J. A. Soesbe has been appointed by Assessor Wakefield to assist in assessing the property of Hood River valley, and commenced his labors Tuesday. The state census is taken this year by the county assessors, which gives the assessor considerable more work.

The streets of Hood River presented a lively appearance during the week. A good many strangers were in town, and farmers delivering strawberries and hauling out crates have made it seem like old times.

T. B. Rand of Vancouver came up Saturday on the Regulator on a visit to his brothers, Robert, J. B. and M. V. Rand. Mr. Rand is an old soldier and was severely wounded at Antietam.

Mr. H. Prigge last week sold six acres of land to Arthur Reed for $50 an acre. Mr. Prigge has some of the best orchard land in the valley, and it is considered cheap at that price.

John Smith came up from Cascade Locks Saturday on a visit to his family, who are summering in the house formerly owned by Dr. Elliot, on the Lyman Smith place.

Judge Louis Davenport of Mosier was in town Monday. Mr. Davenport says he traded at Hood River because he can buy cheaper of our merchants than those of The Dalles.

Mrs. T. F. Moore and her two little girls came up from Portland Monday and went out to her claim at Mt. Hood. H. N. Wait came in with his team to meet them.

Rev. Krause, new minister of the U. B. church, arrived yesterday by the Regulator from Eugene. He will preach Sunday evening at the U. B. church.

Haskell Marsh of Forest Grove came up Saturday, returning home Monday morning.

Dr. Elliot went to Portland Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. New.

M. A. Foley went to Neal creek fishing, Saturday, and caught 67 trout.

The public schools of Hood River closed yesterday.

Carrage for sale—Inquire at the Racket store.

School in district 3 will close May 31st.

Decoration Day at Hood River.

A meeting of the members of Canby Post, G. A. R., and the W. R. C. was held Saturday afternoon to hear the reports from the committees appointed to make arrangements for memorial services on Decoration day.

The committee from the Grand Army reported they had secured Rev. J. L. Hershner to preach the memorial sermon on Sunday, May 26th. The services will be held at the Congregational church, to which all the churches and their ministers, old soldiers and their families and all patriotic citizens are invited.

Members of Canby post and all old soldiers and the W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans will assemble at Grand Army hall, Sunday, May 26th, at 11:45, and march in a body to the church.

Commander E. J. Hayes suggested that the pupils of the public schools especially should be invited to attend this service and the services at the graves on Decoration day. It is a day that should be given over exclusively to the memory of the heroic dead, and the young especially cannot have too often impressed upon their minds the lessons of patriotism and sacrifice made by the soldiers of the republic from '61 to '65.

Decoration day, at 2 o'clock, everybody is invited to meet at Calkins' corner and march to Irving cemetery near by, where the impressive services of the Grand Army will be read and the graves decorated.

The ladies of the relief corps reported they would furnish the flowers for the occasion. Belmont band will furnish music.

The Strawberry Crop.

The weather for the past week was not so favorable for the strawberry crop as could have been desired. It was too cool during the first part of the week for the fruit to ripen, and shipments were light. We have had no rain, except a light shower Tuesday evening, not enough to stop picking. Some of our growers report a light crop, but the yield generally is good. Shipments to Portland ceased early in the week and the bulk of our shipments were made to Montana.

Hon. T. R. Coon Writes to H. F. Davidson, secretary of the local union, under date of Walla Walla, May 22d: "Will give you a report of what I found at Milton. I talked with Davis, and he says Milton will not have over 5,000 crates; he says not over one-third of a crop; is shipping to Spokane and other points on the Northern. I sampled a box of their berries and find them quite soft and unattractive in appearance. Sharpless predominates, with Jucunda and Wilson. Milton will hardly conflict with Hood River. Walla Walla berries are about the same—retailing at 10 cents and shipping lightly."

A. B. Jones shipped four crates of strawberries through the Oregon Fruit Union to Helena Monday evening, May 20th. Thursday morning he received his account of sales, with remittance, the berries having sold Wednesday morning at $6 per crate.

At noon each day the Oregon Fruit Union will issue a bulletin of sales of Hood River berries made in the different markets that day. The bulletin will be tacked on their warehouse. This is a good move and one that will be appreciated by shippers.

The bulletins posted at the Oregon Fruit Union's warehouse show prices as follows: Tuesday, May 21st—Butte, $5.50; Helena, $8; Denver, $4; Salt Lake, none. Wednesday, May 22d—Butte, $4.50; Helena, $5; Oregon Fruit Union, $6; Salt Lake, $3.50 to $4. Thursday, May 23d—Butte, $4.50; Helena, $5; Denver, $4; Salt Lake, $3.50 to $4.

Shipments to date by the Hood River Fruit Growers' Union are as follows: May 14th, 12 lbs; 15th, 17 lbs; 16th, 2 crates; 17th, 5 crates; 18th, 1 1/2 crates; 19th, 15 crates; 20th, 42 crates; 21st, 44 crates; 22d, 54 crates; 23d 90 crates—total 173 crates.

No complaints have been received in regard to our berries. They arrive in the markets in good shape.

Trip to Trout Lake.

Sunday, Grant Evans, Dr. Carns and Ed Williams made a trip to Trout Lake on their bikes. The party left the store at White Salmon at 8:30 in the morning and made 18 miles up grade by noon. They afterwards rode to the big woods, where they rested for an hour or so, and then reached Rufus Byrket's ranch, a mile or so beyond Trout Lake, before dark. Monday they spent fishing in the lake. Grant Evans came home in the afternoon of Monday, reaching White Salmon in three and a half hours from the lake. On the way he ran into a party of school children on their way home from school. The rider and his bicycle being something new to the young folks of that backwoods neighborhood, they were frightened and took to the woods. Grant called to them and tried to assure them he and his bike were not dangerous, but only two or three of the boldest ventured near to inspect them. But most of the youngsters (boys and girls, some of them 13 and 14) remained

OFFICE OF THE PIONEER PRESS COMPANY, C. W. HOENICK, Supt. ST. PAUL, MINN., Sept. 7, 1894.

Eureka Chemical and Mfg. Company, La Crosse, Wis.—Dear Sirs: I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, and my physicians told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keely Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago today I commenced using your preparation, and today I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it to yours very truly,
C. W. HOENICK.
