A full line of gents' wool overshirts and wool underwear at the Racket Store.
O. H. Rhoads of the East Side lost a valuable Jersey cow last week from dry murrain.
Captain Blowers went to The Dalles Wednesday to attend a session of the commissioners' court.
Mr. J. Wickham returned Sunday from Wasco, where he has been working during the harvest season.
Saturday and Monday of each week will be our grinding days throughout the fall and winter. HARRISON BROS.
J. O. Eastman sent to Chicago, Monday last, two Bartlett pears and two peach plums grown by him which weighed 43 ounces.
Anything you need in the line of doors, windows, window glass, mouldings, thresholds, casings, etc., you will find at the Box Factory.
D. D. Rogers has his elder press in order and is prepared to make cider for any one furnishing the apples, or he will sell you cider already made.
Those who have agreed to pay their subscriptions in wood are hereby notified to bring it along. Sixteen-inch stove wood, delivered at our residence, preferred.
Tillett has 100 Lambert cherry trees for sale; every one having the stamp of the horticultural society, showing their genuineness. Also, all varieties of standard apples.
Ed Williams and Doug Langille made a trip around the base of Mount Hood week before last. They passed about three miles above Government camp, on the south side.
Stop and think one minute! Is it not reasonable that without rent to pay, I can sell doors, windows and all kinds of building material, paints and household furniture, and compete with any dealer in any city or town? Call and see. S. E. BARTMESS.
The O. R. & N. Co., always alert to the welfare of their patrons, have placed on sale at principal stations a 100-mile ticket at the rate of three cents per mile; good one year from date of sale, and good for passage over the rail and water lines of their system.
During a high wind last week the big watch that hung in front of Capt. Ferguson's jewelry store was blown down and the stem winder broken off. We hope it will soon be repaired, as it was the only time piece we could afford to patronize, and we are much lost without the time.
The residence of G. H. Woodward, on the hill west of town, was burned to the ground Monday afternoon. Mrs. Woodward was engaged cooking dinner, and after putting some collins in the frying pan on the stove, she stepped into the next room for a moment, and on her return found the whole kitchen ablaze. She gave the alarm and two or three neighbors arrived in time to get out the organ, and that was about all that was saved. The house was new and cost about $1,200. Insured for $800.
Our old friend E. W. Winans, who with his wife has been visiting their old home in Illinois during the summer, returned the first part of the week. He says five persons were killed by lightning in the neighborhood where he was stopping during his stay, and he is glad to get back to Oregon, where we don't have such terrible storms. From what he says about the corn crop there, it must be immense—probably ahead of any corn Joe Purser ever raised on his Hood River ranch.
The twice-a-week edition of the New York World has been converted into the three-a-week. It furnishes 3 papers of 6 pages apiece, or eighteen pages every week, at the old price of one dollar a year. This gives 156 papers a year for one dollar and every paper has 6 pages eight columns wide or 48 columns in all. The three-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it contains all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly. We will give the GLACIER and the three-a-week World to cash subscribers for $2.50.

Amos Underwood and John Dark returned Sunday from a trip to the mines in the Cascade mountains, discovered by the McCoy brothers and others in July last. They made the trip from the mouth of the White Salmon to the mines and returned in nine days, spending one day at the mines north and about the same distance west of Mount Adams, and about an equal distance from Mount Rainier and St. Helens, on a stream flowing north to the Cowlitz river. Mr. Underwood says the country has the appearance of containing gold. He met the McCoy party on their return from their second trip. They had made locations for themselves and friends and will not go back before next spring. Underwood and Dark also made locations and think they have some good quartz.

The Hood River box factory, operated by W. J. Smith, has been quite busy of late turning out all kinds of boxes and crates for the fruit that is being shipped. The peach and prune crates this year are gotten up in different shape from any thing of the kind we have seen on this coast. They are made square, with four baskets that just fit the crate, dividing the contents into four quarters. It is a great improvement over the old style, and should certainly be the means of selling more fruit.

Rev. J. L. Hershner and family desire to express their gratitude and appreciation to the members of the Congregational church and friends who so lavishly bestowed upon them substantial tokens of regard at their residence on Wednesday afternoon. The pastor and his family can never repay such kindness, but ask all to accept their heartfelt thanks.

The Belmont Comedy company will give an entertainment at the Crapper school house, Friday night, September 13th. The programme will consist of farces, comic lectures, songs and instrumental music. The Belmont band will also furnish music. Of the proceeds, part will go to pay for the Crapper school organ and balance for the benefit of the band. Admission, 15c.

We acknowledge receipt of tickets to the Portland Industrial exposition, which will open October 5th and close November 5th. The business men of Portland have subscribed $10,000 to insure the success of the exposition, which will be a good thing for the state at large as well as for Portland. The daily admission this year will be 25c.

John H. Cradlebaugh is again in the editorial harness, writing editorials for the Times-Mountaineer. The mention of this fact alone should give that paper a big number of new subscribers in Hood River, where everybody knows John Cradlebaugh and likes to read his writings.

Rev. Criss Nickelsen has been appointed by the Columbia River conference to preach at Prineville during the coming year. Criss is a Hood River boy, and we consider it highly complimentary to him to receive as important a charge as that of Prineville.

I. M. Wilson and wife left Tuesday night for Walnut Hill, Ill. Mr. Wilson's parents, who are living there, are quite feeble, and he feels it his duty to go and care for them. We hope they will some day return to Hood River.

Mr. Charles Elrey and family moved up from Portland the first part of the week and will occupy the residence of Mrs. King in the country. Mr. Elrey will commence a nine months' term as teacher in the Barrett school next Monday.

Articles of incorporation of the Central Ditch Co. of Hood River were filed with the county clerk last week. The incorporators are: D. H. Clough, Robt. Baird and A. J. Graham, and the object is to supply water for irrigation purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Price, who lost their residence by fire about six weeks ago, will leave us next week for The Dalles, where they will reside with their son during the winter.

Never before have we seen such fine peaches as Hood River has produced this season. The Early Crawford average well in size and are of fine color and flavor.

The Crapper Sunday school have bought an organ, which was hauled out last week by H. L. Crapper and placed in the school house.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitcomb of Portland came up on the Regulator Tuesday and are visiting his grandmother, Mrs. S. A. Hutton.

Judge J. A. Soesbe and family left Wednesday for a three-weeks' visit in Portland and with his parents at Marion.

Rev. J. M. Denton, the newly-appointed minister for the M. E. church of Hood River, is expected here next week.

Lace & Co.'s threshers finished threshing grain on the East Side last week. They report a good yield.

Miss Madge Warren left for The Dalles Thursday for a week's visit among friends.

Mayor Underwood of Amesville, Wash., was in town Thursday.

Remember Dr. Driver's lecture tonight at the U. B. church.

George P. Crowell has been re-commissioned notary public.

Potatoes are a good crop in Hood River valley this year.

Miss Laura Wilson will leave for North Yamhill Friday.

Steelenameled ware at the Racket Store.

School in Hood River begins Monday.

Preachers Assigned.

Heppner and Arlington—E. P. Green.

Hood River—J. M. Denton.

Moro and Spaulding Chapel—E. C. Alford.

Prineville—C. D. Nickelsen.

The Dalles—J. H. Wood.

Wasco and Grant—Ed Baker.

Waldron—To be supplied.

Another Cooning.
EDITOR GLACIER: As there has been considerable damage done on my place by coons, and also by persons who go cooning, I concluded to follow the example of neighbor McGinnis and see if I could not be more successful. Accordingly, about dusk Sunday evening, I armed myself for the occasion and took my station in a little grove of trees. It was not long before I caught sight of a large dark-complexioned two-legged coon crawling along near the edge of the corn field. He was filling a sack with arm loads of my finest ears of sweet corn that I had intended for the fair. Presently he came on down the hill to where I was stationed, but was suddenly brought to a halt amid great surprise and consternation. He said he did not want to see me, but was only getting some corn to roast. He was, however, ordered off the premises and warned not to set any fire in the neighborhood. He replied that he had been camping (more likely tramping) all his life and would be careful. But if he or any other coon gets caught in the same trap again he may get a leg broken. H. C. B.

A Veteran Orchardist.
EDITOR GLACIER: I planted a small orchard here in Hood River valley when I was in my 70th year, and am now enjoying the fruits of it. I am now in my 80th year. I send you a sample of my fruit. I formerly lived in Douglas county, Oregon, and have planted many orchards. Yours respectfully, THOMAS POLLOCK.

The above was accompanied by some finely flavored peaches and Bartlett pears. Mr. Pollock informs us he has been fifty years in Oregon. He saw Portland when it had but one house. Forty-eight years ago he passed through this valley on his way to the Cayuse war. We hope he may live long to enjoy the fruits of his Hood River orchard.

A light frost in the valley this morning.

Isaiah I. Burget, of the firm of Crandall & Burget of The Dalles died in that city last Sunday morning, of consumption. Mr. Burget was loved and respected by all who knew him.

Mosier will ship three or four carloads of prunes this season.

Rev. O. D. Taylor, who was recently arrested at The Dalles for obtaining money under false pretenses, and taken back to Michigan, the scene of his operations, has been placed under $10,000 bonds, which at last advises he has been unable to give. Taylor has secured the services of a prominent Michigan attorney.

Hood River was visited by a good soaking rain Wednesday night, which cleared the atmosphere and laid the dust.

There will be Sunday school at the M. E. tabernacle at 10 o'clock, the usual hour. A welcome to all. Supt.
The woman's missionary society will give their last open meeting for this fiscal year at the Congregational church next Sunday evening. The exercises will consist of good music, select readings and recitations. The ladies extend a cordial invitation to all.
The Christian church will begin a meeting in the Valley church on Wednesday evening, Sept. 11th, at 7.30. The meeting will continue for two or three weeks and Rev. W. F. Cowden of Tacoma will arrive on Saturday from Boise City, Idaho, and will preach Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Cowden is superintendent of missions in the northwest for the Christian church and is said to be an able and pleasing speaker. An effort is being made to secure the services of Elder J. V. Crawford of Waitsburg, Wash., as singing evangelist. Elder J. W. Jenkins has labored for this church one-fourth of his time since its organization a year ago and both pastor and people are making an effort to make this one of the best meetings ever held in the valley. Let everybody attend.

WEBSTER'S
DICTIONARY

Successor of the
"Unabridged."

Standard of the
U. S. Gov't Printing Office, the U. S. Supreme Court, and of nearly all the Schools.

Warranted certified by every State Superintendent of Schools, and other educators almost without number.

A College President writes: "For ease with which the eye finds the word sought, for accuracy of definition, for effective methods in indicating pronunciation, for terse yet comprehensive statements of facts, and for practical use as a working dictionary, 'Webster's International' excels any other single volume."

The One Great Standard Authority.

Hon. D. J. Brewer, Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, writes: "The International Dictionary is the perfection of dictionaries. I commend it to all as the one great standard authority."

"A saving of three cents per copy for a year will provide more than enough money to purchase a copy of the International. Can you afford to be without it?"
