BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

M. H. Nickelsen is agent for the White Sewing Machine.
Jim Covertson has been quite sick of late with his old enemy, asthma.
The new residence of Wm. Foss, on the East Side, is nearing completion.
George T. Prather has dug a well on his lot, striking a good vein of water at 14 feet.
R. M. Hunt and Old Arkansas are putting in four acres of strawberries on O. L. Stranahan's place.
Lots on the south side of Paradise Farm can be bought in tracts of 1/2 acre, 1 acre, 5 or 10 acres, as desired.
Saturday and Monday of each week will be our grinding days throughout the fall and winter. HARBISON BROS.
Our fair has drawn a good many peddlers, and Wednesday was a busy day in the recorder's office, granting licenses.
George T. Prather, O. L. Stranahan and Robert Husbands put up the tables in the armory Tuesday, doing a good day's work.
Peter Hinrichs was subpoenaed as a witness in the case against Dr. Rothermel, and went to The Dalles on Monday night's train.
Little Maggie Nickelsen, who has been quite sick with a fever for the past two or three weeks, is now out of danger and getting well.
Robt. Rand is building a neat barn, 36x32, on his country place 1 1/2 miles south of town. He is also building an addition to his residence.
Any thing you need in the line of doors, windows, window glass, mouldings, thresholds, castings, etc., you will find at the Box Factory.
Tillet has 100 Lambert cherry trees for sale; every one having the stamp of the horticultural society, showing their genuineness. Also, all varieties of standard apples.
Mr. Perry Taylor and wife of Indiana uncle and aunt of O. B. Hartley, will reach here in a few days to remain at Hood River for the winter. Their boy Nathan, is here going to school.
The carload of prunes shipped from Hood River Sept. 23, consigned to Minneapolis, arrived there the same day that five other cars arrived with the same kind of fruit. The carload was sold for about 50 cents a crate.
The ladies' aid society of the M. E. church will serve meals and lunches during the fair. A tent will be pitched close to the armory, where a good meal can be had for 25 cents, or coffee, sandwich and doughnut for ten cents.
Mr. D. F. Pierce is thinking strongly of moving to La Grande. He has been offered a bargain in business in his line at that place. Mr. Pierce is a fine workman, and his removal would be a serious loss to the community.
The lumber for the Congregational parsonage is being hauled and work on the building is expected to begin next week. The site of the building is on Sherman street, in rear of the church. Harbison Bros. will furnish most of the lumber.
Jas. Langille came down from his ranch Wednesday to attend the fair and also to have papers drawn up incorporating a ditch company to take 1,000 inches of water from Hood River. The incorporators are J. A. Langille, W. Gribble and Robert Leisure. The ditch will be three miles in length.
M. A. Cook, who is building a residence for H. C. Bateham, has the building inclosed and in a fair way towards completion. The building is 24 by 20 feet. Mr. Bateham seems to be in a hurry to have his house completed, which looks as if he intended to take advantage of the liberal offer of our executive committee of the fair for a wedding party.
Hon. E. L. Smith has bought fifteen acres of orchard from Chris. Dethman for $1,000. It will be remembered that last year Mr. Smith bargained to plant thirty acres of Mr. Dethman's land to orchard and take care of the same for four years, at the end of which time Mr. Dethman would deed him one-half of the tract. Mr. Smith has now bought the other fifteen acres, giving him possession of the whole orchard of thirty acres.
Work is now being pushed on the East Fork Irrigating Canal company, on the east side of Hood river. The head gate has been put in and about thirty rods of the ditch completed. The ditch will be six feet wide on the bottom, twelve feet on top, four feet deep and will carry 5,000 inches of water. The water is taken from the East Fork, about a quarter of a mile above the bridge on the Mt. Hood road, and the ditch will follow around the foothills and supply water for all the east side. The company expects to have the ditch completed in time for next year's crops.
Wm. Tillet came down from Mount Hood settlement Wednesday morning, bringing with him several boxes of choice apples for exhibition at the fair. He reports that a bear was seen in the vicinity of the Mount Hood school house Tuesday. Mr. O. Sandman started out Wednesday morning with his dogs to try to capture Bruin. Mr. Tillet found some fine fruit on his trip. George Booth, he says, tried to palm off some good-sized pumpkins for apples, but which he brought along to the fair, and the committee will have to decide if they are apples or pumpkins.

The Fair.

Everything seems to favor the horticultural fair, which opens today at the armory. The perfect weather of the past week tempted every one engaged in fruit raising to go through his orchards and gather samples for the fair. The large upper room of the armory is magnificently decorated with evergreens and bright colored autumn leaves, thanks to the untiring energy of the committee of ladies who had the work of decorating in charge. Appropriate mottoes adorn the walls, which add to the effect of the decorations. All day yesterday wagons kept coming with choice samples of the best productions of Hood River orchards and gardens, and exhibitors were engaged placing their exhibits to the best advantage. A most interesting exhibit will be made in the ladies department of fancy needlework, pictures, relics and curios, on the stage at the north end of the building. The display of cereals and vegetables at the south end of the hall will astonish old-timers. The exhibit of apples is fine, surpassing the display made two years ago in point of excellence as well as in the number of exhibitors.
The prevailing fine weather will assure a large attendance. People will come from Portland, The Dalles, Mt. Hood, and the country tributary along the Columbia. The reception committee will see that they are all provided with rooms and the ladies restaurant at the fair will be prepared to feed the multitude.
