DEATH OF EUGENE FIELD.

Resolutions Adopted at a Memorial Meeting in Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 7 .- At the memorial meeting in memory of Eugene Field, pluralities were: held at the Press Club today, the fol lowing resolutions were adopted:

The Press Club of Chicago desired to express sorrow over the death of Eu gene Field. His was a nature rich in all those attributes which make a mar of mark, compelling universal love and respect and admiration. In the death of Eugene Field, the literary world has lost a man who in national and international appreciation had attained the widest distinction. Possessed of the highest mental gifts, he was in his personal education the plainest distinguish between right and wrong in individuals and movements. He was clean, successful, brilliant, a perfeet husband and father. His death is not the loss of his personal friends alone, but of Chicago and the world. He taught the good and taught it fascinatingly. He was as brave as the bravest in his opinions, and as gentle as a woman in his allowances toward those with whom he differed. Eugene Field's name will live in the degree in which the people loved him. His love was that which never fails of reciprocity; his heart went out to all that which most appeals to humanity— childhood. His name has won a place in every household; a place it will keep as long as children prattle and mothers tell them tales.'

ANOTHER RICH MAN'S GIFT.

The dedicatory exercises took place in the music hall of the new building, which was packed to the walls by one of the most representative gatherings ever seen in the Iron City. On behalf of the board of trustees, President W. N. Frew made the opening address, introducing Mr. Carnegie, who, in a brief address, formally turned over his magnificent gift to the people, delivering the keys into the custody of the trustees. In the course of his remarks he stated that he would give $1,000,000 as an endowment fund, to the art gallery, the interest to be used in the purchase of works of art, and that he would also erect libraries at Carnegie, Duquesne and Homestead.

The Ram Katahdin. Washington, Nov. 6 .- The indications are the ram Katahdin will not be rejected, notwithstanding her failure to accomplish all that was required of her in the matter of speed. As the vessel, which is otherwise perfect, made several hundred horse-power more than she was originally designed for, it is now quite apparent that the difficulty lies in the peculiar model of the ship, which the Bath iron works did not design or alter in any way. They are not pressing for another trial, The other papers have short dispatches believing that what is possible has been gotten out of the boat. As the law under which the Katahdin was built imposed no requirement of speed and the only stipulation on that point is contained in the contract, it is probable that Secretary Herbert may de- tations. ## PROTECTION FOR AMERICANS.

The Porte Has Issued Orders Not to Interfere With Their Rights.

London, Nov. 7 .- A special to the Chronicle from Constantinople says that Americans at Bitlis have wired to Constantinople that they are all living together. This is understood to mean that the wife and children of the Rev. Mr. Cole, who has been distributing relief at Sassoun, have taken refuge with the family of the Rev. George Cushing Knapp during the massacre. Mudir, at the time of the Moosh troubles, threatened to wipe out of existence the rest of the Sassoun Armenians unless the distribution of supplies to the sufferers was stopped. On account of protests from England and America, however, Kiamil Pasha, the grand vizier, wired instruction to Mudir ordering him not to interfere with the Americans engaged in the distribution

The correspondent of the Times says that the Turkish reports accusing Armenians of attacking the mosques are riduculous and made in order to envenom the Mohammedans toward the Armenians. One embsasy has news that the Kurds were the aggressors at Dirrbeckir and ruthlessly slaughtered the Armenians, women and children, and burned and pillaged the shops. The correspondent says:

"The massacre began on Friday and continued through Saturday and Sunday with unsatiable and sanguinary ferocity. These bloody scenes are the direct consequence of the sultan's evaoal. found that all the powers are in agree ment.

"The composition of the board of control of Armenian reforms greatly disgusts Kiamil Pasha, who is more than ever anxious to retire. The president of the board is a palace creature, against whom the Christian members

ON GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY

Trouble Is Reported at Different Points Along the Line From Minne sota to Washington.

St. Paul, Nov. 6 .- In the great strike of the American Railway Union on the Great Northern railway eighteen months ago, the start was almost exactly similar to what is claimed to be a new strike at this time. Then, as now, the officials of the road united, up to the time when the road was finalcan senators in the next senate, and the Utah senators, who will take their seats by tied up, in asserting that there was defeat of Blackburn, who will retire in as soon as chosen. Thereafter the no strike and no cause for one. Then, 1897, of Gibson of Maryland, and numerical strength of the senate will as now, the men went out at various points along the line in a semewhat scattering manner. Just what may be the outcome, it is difficult to say, but that there will be at least some trouble seems now assured in view of reports from along the line today. In favor of the company was the action of the en-gineers and firemen on the Montana Central, fifty-six out of sixty on that branch voting in favor of a communication to the Great Northern officials that they had no grievance and that they protested against any new schedule in which the American Railway Union was concerned.

The conductors of the entire system are acting today in line with the company, their vote being taken almost without opposition in favor of a somewhat similar statement to be presented to the officials. It is stated that other brotherhoods are about to take similar action. In the way of trouble, three er four went out at St. Cloud, but trains are in no way affected. At that point, it was thought necessary to place watchmen on the new bridge for protection.

At Devil's Lake, it was reported tonight that it had been decided to strike at midnight. As that was one of the on the carbon arc lamp of familar use. points where there was trouble of a somewhat riotous character in the former strike, the city council met there today and decided to do all in its power to protect the property of the railroad and to suppress any incipient riots.

Out in Montana, trouble was reported at several points. At Havre, the wires were cut and orders for three divisions that center there were interfered with. It is understood several arrests followed, though no definite information can be given. At Columbia Falls, near Kalispell, an unsuccessful attempt was made to burn the Great Northern bridge.

Loss of the Crystal.

Tacoma, Nov. 6 .- The steamer Topeka, arriving tonight from Alaska, brought down Captain Nick Lawson and three of the crew of the schooner Crystal, which was wrecked September 21 at Yakutat bay. All are well and glad to get back. The sixty-five-ton schooner was run into the bay to escape from a terrific gale which was blowing outside. Her anchor dragged and she tried to sail out, but could not, being dashed against the rocky beach and a large hole was stove in her port bow. Her crew of five men and seven passengers were thrown out into the water, but all escaped. Mate Thomas Smith was left at Yakutat bay to save the schooner if he could. She cost $3,000 to build. She had aboard a cargo of codfish worth $2,000, which will be a total loss.

Jack Brady's Trial. Marysville, Cal., Nov. 6 .- The trial of Henry Williams, alias Jack Brady, the trainrobber, charged with the murderof Sheriff J. J. Bogart, of Tehama county last April, began today. During the day five jurors were selected. This was considered a good day's work, as it was generally understood that it would be difficult to secure a jury at all. The defendant is representd Attoney Carlin and Forbes, and District Attorney McDaniel is assisted by L. V. Hitchcork, of Red Bluff, who has been employed by Sheriff A. J. Bogart, the murdered man's brother and successor. If the selection of jurors proceeds as favorably as to day, the taking of testimony will begin Wednes-

From time to time new developments have suggested an increase in the capital stock, and Mr. Keeley proposed not long ago that it be enlarged to 250,000 shares, 100,000 of which were to go to him. This reorganization is now being arranged, and whatever shares Mrs. Moore acquires under it will go to Mr. Astor, when the increase is effected, if pending arrangements between Astor and Mrs. Moore are consummated. Mrs. Moore is a heavy investor in the original Keeley

DURRANTIS CONVICTED

Will Pay the Death Penalty for His Horrible Crime.

It Took the Jury but Twenty Minutes to Render a Verdict of Murder in the First Degree.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.-Theodore Durrant, assistant superintendent of the Emanuel Baptist church Sunday school, was today convicted of the murder of Blanche Lamont, for which he has been on trial since July 22 last. The jury was out 20 minutes, and arrived at the verdict on the first ballot. As there was no recommendation of mercy, the punishment was fixed at death.

It was exactly 21 minutes from the time the jury left the courtroom to the time the verdict was announced, but that time was all taken up in deliberation. In fact, there was no deliberation at all. The jury had evidently decided upon a verdict before they left the box. It was 3:34 when they filed out of the courtroom into the grand jury room which had been placed at their disposal. It took the twelve men until 3:50 o'clock before they settled themselves comfortably, and at 8:55 a knock on the door announced to the anxious waiters that a verdict had been found. It took just five minutes of actual time to elect a foreman and take one ballot necessary.

The scene in the courtroom when the verdict was announced will never be forgotten by those who were present. Judge Murphy finished his charge at 3:30, and the jury at once retired. Although there was supposed to be little prospect of a verdict being returned before 7 or 8 o'clock in the evening, the throng of spectators, who had remained Manufacturing Company of this city, in the overcrowded courtroom all the afternoon to hear the judge's charge, settled themselves back in their seats to await the return of the jury. Mrs. The patent has only a year to run, but Durrant and the prisoner talked and laughed together as if an acquittal were a foregone conclusion. They were joined by half a dozen friends, and the conversation was becoming animated, when it became whispered about that the jury had agreed upon a verdict. In an instant a hush fell upon the
