

Hood River Glacier

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1895.

THE MAILS.

The mail arrives from Mt. Hood at 10 o'clock A. M. on Wednesdays and Saturdays; departs at the same days at noon. For Clatsop, leaves at 8 A. M.; arrives at 4 P. M. Saturdays. For White Salmon, leaves daily at 1 P. M.; arrives at 6 o'clock P. M. From White Salmon, leaves for Felda, Gilmer, Trout Lake and Greenwood Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

SOCIETIES.

Canby Post, No. 14, G. A. R., meets at 8 o'clock A. M., first Saturday of each month at their Castle Hall on every Tuesday night. J. A. SOSSIE, C. C. GEO. T. PRATHER, K. of R. & S. Riverside Lodge, No. 88, A. O. U. W., meets first and third Saturdays of each month. H. F. WATT, Financier. J. L. HOWE, Recorder.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Town election, December 3d. Sturgeon are plentiful in the Columbia river. Fashion Books for sale at Mrs. C. J. Hunt's. C. H. Rogers and family returned from Portland last Friday. Lou Morse is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals. Henry McGuire returned last week from a ten-days' visit in the Willamette valley. Bishop J. S. Mills will lecture in the U. B. church the night before Thanksgiving. Subject, "Sociology." Saturday and Monday of each week will be our grinding days throughout the fall and winter. HARRISON BROS. Mrs. Pealer was delivering turkeys for Thanksgiving last Saturday. Order your turkey of her before they are all gone. Wednesday, S. E. Bartness, Will Rand, F. E. Hill and Prof. Nauman started for Camas Prairie on a wild goose hunt. Mrs. D. H. Hill found a ladies' shoe in the road Saturday, that had been newly half-soled. Owner can get it at the GLACIER office. The heavy rains Wednesday and during Wednesday night, and the chinook winds, caused Hood River to boom all day Thursday. Any thing you need in the line of doors, windows, window glass, mouldings, thresholds, casings, etc., you will find at the Box Factory. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bone will start East about the first of December. They will visit the Atlanta exposition and expect to remain in the East all winter. At the session of the county commissioners, last week, a bounty of $1 was ordered to be paid for each scalp of a coyote, wild cat or cougar which may be brought in. Good advice: Never leave home on a journey without a bottle of Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy. For sale by Williams & Brosius, druggists, Hood River. Mr. Grant McGuire and wife of Woodburn, Oregon, are visiting his parents and brothers here. Mr. McGuire has been in the butcher business at Woodburn, but recently sold out. F. G. Miller came up, Tuesday, from Scholl's Ferry. He is here to look after his apples on the Morton ranch, and will ship them to Portland and store them in the Multnomah Fruit Union's warehouse. The boys of our public school succeeded in raising the money for a handsome flag, 10 by 16, which they have received from Jersey City. The directors are now asked to erect a suitable flag-staff, and then Old Glory will again float over the school house. Judge Soesbe returned from a trip to the Dalles Thursday morning. While in the county clerk's office he learned there was a good many Hood River citizens having unpaid claims against the county, for which no warrants have been issued, some bills dating as far back as 1879. The circuit court for Wasco county convened at The Dalles Monday, Judge Bradshaw presiding. The following grand jurors were drawn: A. S. Blowers, foreman; W. L. Hinkle, Wm. Heiser, M. B. Zumwalt, James L. Kelly, Haus Lage, Thomas Leate. John Cates was appointed grand jury bailiff and J. H. Jackson court bailiff. The U. B. church has recently received a new coat of paint. The members of the congregation desire to return thanks to Mr. O. C. Bartness and Prof. Nauman for their diligence and the good taste displayed in the work. They were engaged about three weeks, and although not professionals, have reason to feel proud of their work. One day last week some parties entered the house of Chas. Rogers, on his homestead on Bald mountain, by breaking down a panel of the door, they destroyed furniture, pictures, etc., and overturned about everything left in the house. Mr. Rogers says he has a clew to the perpetrators, and he now asks the parties to come and settle damages and save themselves further trouble. O. D. Crane of The Dalles was in Hood River Sunday. Mr. Crane is an old printer. He came from Nebraska, about a year ago, where he published a paper but was driven out by the drought. He came to The Dalles with his printing material and started a populist paper last winter, but it soon failed for want of support. He has since been traveling over the country looking for a location to move his material and start a paper and thinks he has found a good place in Northern California. At the apple packing contest, Saturday, George Macintosh got away with the prize of $10 given by the Oregon Fruit Union for the best packed box of apples. The prize box were Baldwin, grown on Paradise farm. The committee appointed to award the prize consisted of Mr. Mansfield of the Oregon Dalles Union, Emilio Schanno of The Dalles and Mr. Triplov. W. A. Slingerland's handsome box of Vandeveres got second prize. The prize box was sent to the Oregon Fruit Union at Portland. Mr. Mansfield brought D. G. Hill's box of Baldwins and Henry Prizge's box of Spitzburgers, paying $1.50 each.

As announced in last week's GLACIER, we are selling only for cash. We make no exceptions. The richest man in Oregon could not get goods from us on time. We treat all alike. We will sell as cheap as anybody. Did you get a price list from The Dalles? Consider it ours; we will fill your orders from it. May be you got one from Portland. Don't send there for your goods, you can get them just as cheap of us. We want your trade. Patronize home. Come and see us, you'll find our hatch string out. Yours for business, HANNA & WOLFARD. Last Saturday a large shipment of fruit trees was received at the boat landing, and after they had been nearly all hauled away and scattered over the valley, it was found that they were affected with woolly aphis. The trees had been inspected and certificates issued. Hood River has heretofore been free from this pest, which is considered one of the hardest to get rid of. The first snow of the season fell Tuesday morning, November 12th. At daylight the ground was covered with the beautiful snow, but it soon turned to rain, and by 8 o'clock the snow had disappeared. Wednesday there was a heavy rainfall, which was welcomed by everybody. Premiums awarded at the Hood River fair remain uncalled for at the store of S. E. Bartness for the following persons: H. C. Coe, J. A. Wilson, Charles Chandler, M. P. Anderson, M. P. Isenberg, Dr. R. Watt, M. V. Rand, F. H. Button, D. R. Cooper, E. Locke. C. R. Collier, one of the publishers of the directory for Wasco county, was in Hood River Wednesday, delivering the books. It is a very creditable work, printed by the Portland Printing Co., 204 Stark street, Portland. Mrs. E. Brandon of Portland returned to her home on the Sunday afternoon train, after a week's visit with her daughter, who is boarding at Mrs. John Parker's. Three spuds, weighing 3 1/2 pounds each, raised by J. Koburg, on the old Stanley place, are on exhibition at Hanna & Wolfard's store. Col. Hartley started this morning for Sherman county with a band of 30 horses from Hood River to be wintered in that country. Freight rates on apples from Hood River to Portland by the O. R. & N. Co. are now 10 cents a box on five boxes or over. Miss Mollie Dunlap's school in the Crapper district closed Wednesday, and today she left for her home at Wasco. Rev. J. W. Jenkins came down from The Dalles on the afternoon train Thursday. Dallas sold a bath tub Thursday for the new house of Wm. Foss, on the East side. Geo. T. Prather is working the roads inside the corporation, assisted by Robt. Husbands. There are only six teachers, all ladies, at the teachers' examination at The Dalles. Lela Hersher has been quite sick with a fever for the past ten days. Don't forget the stereopticon lecture this evening at the U. B. church. Fishermen report the Columbia river above town full of sawdust. Perry Taylor and wife went to Wasco Thursday on a visit. Dr. Brosius had two colts in the pound Thursday. Tucker Items. Milton Odell has moved into his new house, which is very comfortable. Mrs. Kemp has been dangerously sick with erysipelas, but is slowly getting better. Mr. Tucker also has the erysipelas. Mr. Wm. Ehrck is plastering John Tucker's new house. There are several in this neighborhood who will go up to Davenport's mill to work. The Odell boys got a fine bear last week. Mr. Boswell has sold his farm to Mr. Baird, father-in-law of Mr. Boyd. Mr. Boswell will move to Eastern Oregon. Candy Pull. The Busy Bees of the Crapper school district held an old-fashioned candy pull at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crapper, November 8th. A good time was enjoyed by all. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Crapper, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Markham, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. King, Mr. and Mrs. Buck, J. Wickham, Luke Blount, Harry Hacke, Mrs. Hattie Hanson, Misses Ella Reed, Mollie Dunlap, Emma Cuning, Lewra Wickham, Nellie Wickham, Lena Kiser, Emma Lyon, Mamie Wickham, Nettie King, May King, Ruby Chandler, Pearl Crapper, and James Kiser, Roy Shoemaker, Fred Chandler, Lester Wickham, Willie Miller, Ashley Miller, Guy Crapper, Roy Crapper. Council Proceedings. At the council meeting, last Tuesday, all the members were present. A bill of A. S. Blowers & Co., for $1.75, for hardware, was allowed and ordered paid. The principal work of the council was to consider ordinance No. 14, providing for town elections. The ordinance was completed and passed at an adjourned meeting on Wednesday, and will be found printed elsewhere in this issue. The Langille house was designated as the place for holding the election on December 3d, and L. Henry, O. C. Bartness and G. T. Prather, were appointed judges, and L. N. Blowers and F. C. Krause, clerks of the election. The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there, sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day, he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents a bottle by Williams & Brosius, druggists, Hood River, Oregon.

D. F. PIERCE'S
Harness and Shoe STORE.

I have signed a contract to buy the only harness business in LaGrande, and must move in January. I shall not carry shoes there, so in the short time intervening, must close out my entire stock of shoes.

Regardless of Cost!
REMEMBER Portland isn't in The Dalles, nor to mention any little burges like Mosier and It with prices.
Don't Fail
To call and get prices before the assortment is broken. No trouble to show goods and no kick if you don't buy. In the meantime I will sell.
HARNESS AND SADDLES
Cheaper than they can be bought elsewhere in the state. Make me an offer on any part or all of my property in Hood River.
D. F. PIERCE.

How to Prevent Croup.
Some reading that will prove interesting to young mothers. How to guard against the disease. Croup is a terror to young mothers, and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily, and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy, for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Williams & Brosius, druggists, Hood River, Or.

RUPTURE CURED
Instantly relieved and permanently cured. Without knife or operation.
Treatment Absolutely Painless.

Electric Bitters.
Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Fifty cents and one dollar a bottle at Hood River Pharmacy.
