BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Holiday goods at the Racket store.
Fashion Books for sale at Mrs. C. J. Hunt's.
The famous leather suspenders at the Racket store.
F. I. Hubbard, photographer, Hood River, Oregon.
Lou Morse is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
The United Brethren are putting a heating furnace under their church.
Just received at the Racket store, another full line of gents' underwear.
Henry York was in town for a few days during the first part of the week.
Mr. Geary, the piano tuner, was in Hood River the first part of the week.
A. B. Jones has bought W. B. Perry's interest in the Perry & Jones property.
Mrs. Stella Gray is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Rogers.
C. Welds wants all who are owing him to come and settle by Jan. 1st and save costs.
Mr. George Loy and family have moved into Mr. Nick Billen's house for the winter.
J. H. Cradlebaugh was in town Saturday and again on Tuesday, and is expected here tomorrow.
From now until Christmas, cabinet photos $2 per dozen, cards $1 per doz. F. I. HUBBARD.
Saturday and Monday of each week will be our grinding days throughout the fall and winter. HARRISON BROS.
Grandma Clark left Wednesday for Portland, where she will spend the winter with her son, Newton Clark, and family.
The chicken social at Mrs. M. B. Potter's, Thursday evening of last week, was well attended and the sum of $10.50 realized.
Several of our business men have had loads of gravel hauled in the street in front of their stores, which is a great improvement on mud.
At the Missionary concert held at the Oddell schoolhouse, last Sunday, the sum of $10 was raised, which was sent to the Armenian sufferers.
Any thing you need in the line of doors, windows, window glass, mouldings, thresholds, casings, etc., you will find at the Box Factory.
A. B. Jones received a telegram Sunday evening from Ovando, Montana, informing him of the sickness of his father and stating that he was not expected to live through the night.
And still they come! M. H. Nickelsen last week advertised the loss of his scarf pin. Before the paper was printed, Mr. Nick Billen brought the lost pin to its owner. It pays to advertise.
Inspecting officer Leonard, from the Grand Army post at The Dalles, inspected Canby post Saturday. The boys all had their buttons shined and their boots blacked (except behind), and passed inspection in good shape.
Notice our fancy new graham sacks. We will use these henceforth and they will always be filled with the choicest product. Examine the brand and see that you get our "Whole Wheat Graham." Beware of inferior stuff.
HARRISON BROS.
Col. Hartley started Monday with a band of 44 Hood River horses for Sherman county. At The Dalles he was taken with rheumatism and had to return home. Bert Taylor and Matt Russell of The Dalles took the horses on to their destination.
Wm. Tillett returned, Tuesday, from a trip to Mt. Hood. He reports about six inches of snow at Cooper's place. In some places he found a good many trees fallen across the Mt. Hood road. Mr. Tillett took up a lot of trees for spring planting.
Those who ordered Lambert cherry trees of Tillett will not be supplied for two weeks yet. The horticultural board has not yet received its seal, the stamp of which has to accompany every tree. In the meantime, digging goes merrily on. Call and get the best trees in the valley.
W. B. Perry came up from Portland last Friday, bringing with him Mr. Moody, a prominent attorney of Tacoma, who wanted to take a look at the Hood River country. The gentleman left so well pleased with the country that he expects to make his home here at no distant day.
The GLACIER is in receipt of a kind invitation from Mr. Wells Howe, the genial superintendent of the Palmer house, Chicago, to accept the compliments and courtesies for ourselves and wife of that famous hotel for three days at any time prior to April 1, 1896. Thanks. We'll get there, if the walking continues good, and "it's a cold day when we get left."

Prof. Tripp lectured at Belmont Saturday night. Wednesday night he organized a Good Templar lodge with 20 charter members. The following officers were elected and installed: Chief templar, John Castner; vice templar, Mellie Rigby; secretary, Charles Castner; treasurer, Herbert Galligan; guard, Edith Potter; sentinel, Elton Hayden; marshal, M. P. Isenberg; chaplain, F. L. Johns; lodge deputy, Howard Isenberg.
The ladies holding the bazaar are at the Langille house. They have every pretty thing conceivable for Christmas at the lowest prices possible. They want to see you and your family at the noon hour, and will serve you a bountiful dinner of hot meats, vegetables, tea and coffee, Boston brown bread, Boston baked beans, mince pies, etc., all for 25 cents, and a tea at night for 10 cents.
Mr. C. P. Heald and family expect to leave Hood River in a short time and return to their old home in Illinois. By their going Hood River will lose a valuable citizen in the person of Mr. Heald and an accomplished and most useful instructor in music in the person of his estimable wife. My their lives fall in pleasant places is the wish of their many friends here.
E. C. Rogers and his sons Frank and John have taken homesteads at the head of Rock creek, about 14 miles southeast of town. Mr. Rogers informs us there is room for 75 or 100 families on good claims in that locality.
The Markley family, who have been so sadly afflicted with typhoid fever, are now recovering, and all are at home except Gladys, who is still at Mrs. Howe's.
A. B. Jones is putting up an ice house on Fourth street, in rear of the butcher shop. The building will be 20 x 24, with a capacity of 100 tons.
Quite a number of horses were sent from the Phelps Creek and Belmont neighborhoods, last Monday, to Sherman county to be wintered.
Mrs. J. C. Porter is giving lessons in drawing and painting. Her class meets at Mrs. C. J. Hunt's every Saturday afternoon.
There will be Sunday school at the M. E. tabernacle at 10 o'clock, the usual hour. A welcome to all. SPT.
M. A. Ketchum is now living at Esterville, Iowa, where he has charge of the electric light works.
Hood River's crop of winter apples is beginning to move to market, and prices are good.
Remember, the Racket store is originator of popular prices. We lead, others follow.
Wm. Rogers is now running a photograph gallery in Salem and doing well.
The Frankton and Barrett boys will play ball at Belmont Saturday afternoon.
One doz. cabinets and life size crayon, $5. F. I. HUBBARD.
Gent's slippers at the Racket store.

A dwelling house belonging to Geo. Cooper, two miles from The Dalles, occupied by a Mr. Walker and family, was destroyed by fire Sunday night.
A Pennsylvania apple grower, who recently shipped 61 barrels on a 5,000-mile journey to South America, stores and packs his apples by using alternate layers of maple leaves.
Major C. T. Pictou is manager of the State Hotel, Denison, Texas, which the traveling men say is one of the best hotels in that section. In speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Major Pictou says: "I have used it myself and in my family for several years, and take pleasure in saying that I consider it an infallible cure for diarrhoea and dysentery. I always recommend it to my guests in the hotel, and in every case it has proved itself worthy of unqualified endorsement." For sale by Williams & Brosius, druggists.
Card of Thanks.
To those of our friends and neighbors who so kindly sympathized with us and helped us materially during the long continued illness and bereavement in our family, we desire to tender our sincere and heartfelt thanks, especially to Dr. Watt, for his kindness and attention to our welfare.
MR. and MRS. J. C. MAKLEY.
When most needed it is not unusual for your family physician to be away from home. Such was the experience of Mr. J. Y. Schenk, editor of the Caddo, Ind. Ter., Banner, when his little girl, two years of age, was threatened with a severe attack of croup. He says: "My wife insisted that I should go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Williams & Brosius, druggists.
For Sale at Belmont.
The Ketchum place, by E. C. Rogers. Also, E. C. Rogers' place, cheap for cash, or one-half down and balance on easy terms. d13

Belmont Notes.

BELMONT, Dec. 11.—Messrs. Will Isenberg and Dave Gibbons started Monday morning for a trip through California.
On Wednesday evening, Dec. 4th, a party of young folks gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Isenberg, in honor of the birthday of their son Louis, and passed a very pleasant evening. Those present were: The Misses Stella Richardson, Maggie Bishop, Emma Cuning, Pearl Templeton, Lollie Templeton, Ella Isenberg, and Messrs. Elton Hayden, Thos. Bishop, George Rich, Marshall Isenberg, Walter Isenberg, Will Isenberg, Howard Isenberg, Alfred Ingalls, W. Hibbard, Roy Shoemaker and Caleb Richardson.
The entertainment and social held on Thursday of last week was well attended, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, and every one seemed to enjoy themselves. The sum of $10.50 was taken in, which will go towards the fund that is being raised to repair the M. E. church.
Belmont Juvenile Temple will give an open meeting Monday evening, Dec. 16th. A good programme will be presented and a collection taken up. Everybody invited.
Rev. J. M. Denison will preach at Belmont on Sunday evening next.
Preparations are being made for an elaborate Christmas tree and entertainment on Christmas eve at the M. E. church. Last year the decorations were beautiful, and no doubt they will be equally so this year. Nature has so lavishly endowed the valley with such beautiful evergreen trees and clinging vines, with which any one with an eye for the beautiful may have no difficulty in making handsome decorations. REME.
Old People.
Who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys, will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alternative. It acts mildly on stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50c and $1 per bottle at Hood River Pharmacy.
Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price, 25 cts per box. For sale at the Hood River Pharmacy.
SANTA CLAUS
Has again made his headquarters with M. H. NICKELSEN. He has the
