BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Holiday goods at the Racket store.
The famous leather suspenders at the Racket store.
F. I. Hubbard, photographer, Hood River, Oregon.
M. H. Nickelsen is selling his Christmas goods below price.
Mayor Wolfard left Monday for a visit at Walla Walla.
Lou Morse is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
The steamer Regulator will be laid off for a spell after December 31st.
Just received at the Racket store, another full line of gent's underwear.
J. J. Luckey was confined to his house last week with a case of la grippe, but is now about again.
Saturday and Monday of each week will be our grinding days throughout the fall and winter. HARRISON BROS.
The ladies of Canby Relief Corps sent a box of Christmas goods to the inmates of the soldiers' home at Roseburg.
Mrs. I. N. McCoy of Kendrick, Idaho, and grand children are visiting her daughters, Mrs. C. M. Wolfard and Mrs. L. E. Morse.
Rev. J. A. Cruzan, a Congregational preacher well known by old residents of Hood River, is now pastor of a church in San Francisco.
Any thing you need in the line of doors, windows, window glass, mouldings, thresholds, casings, etc., you will find at the Box Factory.
Wm. A. Peairs recently returned from Des Moines, Iowa, from a trip of 35,000 miles around the world in the interest of the Chamberlain Medicine Co.
A petition is in circulation and is being numerously signed asking the county court to appoint Peter Mohr as supervisor of road district No. 5.
When making up your list for Christmas presents, don't forget that a most acceptable gift to a distant friend would be a year's subscription to the GLACIER.
F. I. Hubbard, our photographer, left samples of his work at this office, done since coming to Hood River. If he can turn out work like the samples shown, he will get plenty of it to do.
Notice our fancy new graham sacks. We will use these henceforth and they will always be filled with the choicest product. Examine the brand and see that you get our "Whole Wheat Graham." Beware of inferior stuff.
HARRISON BROS.
The wife of Mr. D. Robinson, a prominent lumberman of Hartwick, N. Y., was sick with rheumatism for five months. In speaking of it Mr. Robinson says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that gave her any rest from pain. For the relief of pain it cannot be beat." Many very bad cases have been cured by it. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Williams & Brosius, druggists.
Persons who are buying second-class fruit trees from abroad can get the same kinds of trees of Tillett for less money. He has 2,000 second class trees, two to three feet high, well rooted—Yakima, Sitka, Ben Davis, Red and King, Red Russian, Delaware, Gano, Jonathan—which he will sell for $25 per thousand. Or, if you wish first class trees at regular rates, he can accommodate you.
When most needed it is not unusual for your family physician to be away from home. Such was the experience of Mr. J. Y. Schenk, editor of the Caddo, Ind. Ter., Banner, when his little girl, two years of age, was threatened with a severe attack of croup. He says: "My wife insisted that I should go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future." For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Williams & Brosius, druggists.
The ladies of the bazaar held in the Langlie house last week had quite a scare Friday night. A large pumpkin suspended from the ceiling, in which was a lighted candle, dropped and knocked over a lamp. A lace curtain caught fire and was consumed instantly, and the burning lamp in the midst of the many combustibles threatened destruction to the building and everything in it. Roy Slocum heroically picked up the burning lamp and threw it through the window into the street, thereby averting what might have been a serious conflagration. The lamp, after lying in the street for awhile, exploded.
M. A. Cook returned home from Kilkittat county, Tuesday morning, where he visited the scenes of his former abode, after an absence of 13 years. It was in Kilkittat that he found his wife, and that country still has charms for him. He visited Goldendale, Centerville and other points, and found great changes wherever he went. He went to the Van Vacken gold mines, three miles north of Goldendale, where he found an 80-foot shaft with good prospects of paying quartz. He saw the engine for the flying machine at Goldendale, where it lies in dormant state and is expected to fly in the spring. He found six inches of snow on High prairie. Mr. Cook had just arrived from the boat when we interviewed him, and was on his way home, and there may be another chapter of this interesting serial.

The Congregational Sunday school will hold their Christmas festival on the evening of the 24th, at 6 o'clock. Exercises will consist of music and a few recitations. The principal feature of the evening will be the acting out of some 40 characters by about 25 of the children. Santa Claus will distribute the usual refreshments at 7:30, and the remainder of the evening will be spent socially.
The ladies' bazaar closed Saturday night after a very successful season of one week. A good meal was served each day at noon for 25 cents. The handsomest girls in town and country were selected to preside over the booths representing Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter. A fine lot of fancy work made up by the ladies was sold.
J. H. Middleton came up on the train that passed through here last night at 12 o'clock, the first train through from the blockade at Bridal Veil. He informed us that yesterday's local went back to Portland from Bridal Veil at 7 o'clock last evening. Mr. Middleton was on his way to Baker City.

Mr. A. B. Jones received word from his sister in Ovando, Montana, that her father died at that place Dec. 16, 1895, aged 77 years and 5 months. His death was caused by a tumor in his side and Bright's disease.
The GLACIER is in need of money. All persons knowing themselves indebted to us for subscription are requested to pay up. If you can't pay up all that is due, we will cheerfully give a receipt for any part.
All members of the American Protective Association of Hood River district are earnestly requested to be present at the next meeting of the council. By order of the PRESIDENT.
Owing to the storm, Hubbard, photographer, will continue his offer till New Years. Cabinets $2, cards $1 per doz. After New Years, cabinets will be $2.50, cards $1.50 per doz.
There will be a ball given at Odd Fellows hall Christmas night. Good music will be here from The Dalles. Everybody invited.
"Is now the loving little wife
Is searching each store shelf,
To find a gift for hubby,
That she can use herself."
The only Christmas presents we can give out this year are receipts for paid up subscriptions. Come and get your present.
Geo. T. Prather manufactured and gave to each of the ministers in town a wooden snow shovel.
Remember, the Racket store is originator of popular prices. We lead, others follow.
Be sure and call at the drug store and see the decorative crepe and tissue paper.
Rolled wheat, the best of horse feed, can now be had at the box factory.
A snow storm yesterday and two feet of snow, but a chinook today.
Candies, peanuts and gum at the Racket store.
One doz. cabinets and life size crayon, $5.
F. I. HUBBARD.
Gent's slippers at the Racket store.

Good Templars Lodge Organized.
Prof. Howard C. Tripp, "the Iowa Temperance Cyclone," organized a Good Templars lodge at the M. E. church on Thursday, December 12th, with 27 members. The following officers were elected: D. F. Pierce, chief templar; Mrs. A. L. Denison, vice templar; Mrs. W. H. Bishop, chaplain; M. I. Wheeler, secretary; Miss Mattie Mayes, secretary; Frank Jones, financial secretary; Frank Watson, treasurer; H. M. Dukes, marshal; Miss Theresa Morse, deputy marshal; E. Loy, guard; Miss Emma Ehrck, sen.; O. L. Stranaban, lodge deputy; Chas. Pickett, past chief templar.
The lodge will meet on Friday evenings. The charter will be kept open three weeks for charter members. Brothers over sixteen years of age can come in as charter members at 50 cents initiation fee; brothers under sixteen years of age and sixteen can come in as charter members for 25 cents. The initiation fees will be twice that amount after three weeks. The lodge starts out well officered and enthusiastic.
Good Templars have a membership in Oregon of about 1200; in the United States of 425,000; in the world of 800,000. Its aims and objects are to save and reclaim from the drink habit. It is the largest temperance organization in the world, having more members than all other temperance societies combined. Last year the society expended over one million dollars in lecture work alone. Prof. Tripp has recently organized lodges at Haines, Cove, Union, LaGrande, Belmont, Bridal Veil and Brower's Mill. Any young man who wishes to develop himself as a speaker and who wishes to become identified on the right side of the temperance question, should join the order and enter earnestly into the work.

Major C. T. Picton is manager of the State hotel, Denison, Texas, which the traveling men say is one of the best hotels in that section. In speaking of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, Major Picton says: "I have used it myself and in my family for several years, and take pleasure in saying that I consider it an infallible cure for diarrhoea and dysentery. I always recommend it to my guests in the hotel, and in every case it has proved itself worthy of unqualified endorsement." For sale by Williams & Brosius, druggists.

Obituary.
Alvie Markley, aged 19 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Markley, died at the residence of Mrs. Alma Howe, December 2, 1895. The last sad rites were conducted at the grave by Revs. Hershner and Johns. Many of her school friends attended, bringing beautiful flowers, showing their esteem for the departed. Alvie was a bright, lovely girl and a favorite with all who knew her. She was a promising young lady who was endeavoring to rise in the world, and had succeeded in getting a good common school education, also a teacher's certificate.
Why should we weep? Our beloved one
Is only lost to time.
She is safe within the Father's fold,
Safe in the Heavenly clime.
To a brighter, fairer, better world,
She has passed from death's cold sleep,
To sing the angels' glad new songs
Where none shall ever weep. A. P. M.

J. H. Lancaster writes from Clayton, N. Y., to the Kilkittat Sentinel, stating that there is a good market in that country for the pluto ponies raised in Kilkittat county. He saw a very common pony sell for $50 that could be bought for $5 in Kilkittat.
