BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Write it 96.
F. I. Hubbard, photographer, Hood River, Oregon.
John H. Cradlebaugh of The Dalles was in town Saturday.
Lou Morse is periodical agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
Mrs. C. L. Gilbert of The Dalles visited Hood River during the week.
The Regulator made her last trip Tuesday for a month or six weeks.
Rolled wheat, the best of horse feed, can now be had at the box factory.
Read all the new ads. They contain something of interest to everyone.
Wm. Luckey and wife of Portland visited Mr. Luckey's relatives here during the holidays.
Saturday and Monday of each week will be our grinding days throughout the fall and winter. HARRISON BROS.
Mr. S. J. LaFrance came home from Portland for the holidays and expects to remain here for a couple of months.
Miss Mary Frazier, a teacher in the Portland schools, is spending the holidays with her parents at Hood River.
J. H. Lentz of Hood River was in The Dalles, Saturday last, receiving medical treatment, says the Mountaineer.
Several of the families on Phelps' creek have been suffering with bad colds. Earl Eastman and his son Alfred were confined to the house a week or more.
Our war poet broke loose last week in earnest. He threatens to send in more of the same sort if J. Bull does not show a disposition to arbitrate, which he will likely do if he reads our last issue.
The GLACIER is in receipt of two copies of C. I. Hood & Co.'s handsome calendars, for which they have our thanks. Send six cents in stamps to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass., and get one.
We can furnish the St. Louis Republic with the GLACIER to paid up subscribers for $2.50 a year. The Republic is one of the great papers of the country. In fact there is no paper surpasses it in general information.
Frank McFarland and wife returned from an extended trip East, arriving at Hood River the day before Christmas. They have since been visiting Mrs. McFarland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Potter.
Will Yates now wears a black eye. He undertook to cut the kindling, the other day, and a knot flew up and hit him in the eye. A man generally gets into trouble when he undertakes work that belongs to his better half.
The O. R. & N. commenced, Monday, to cut ice at Perry, in the Blue mountains, where it is said to be eleven inches thick and clear as crystal. Some 4,000 tons will be stored in the company's ice houses along the road.
Mr. C. Wells made final proof on his homestead, Monday, before the register and receiver at The Dalles. His witnesses were Wm. Baskirk and P. H. Emerson. The total cost of making proof, Mr. Wells says, was only $2.80 at the land office.
Notice our fancy new graham sacks. We will use these henceforth and they will always be filled with the choicest product. Examine the brand and see that you get our "Whole Wheat Graham." Beware of inferior stuff.
HARRISON BROS.
Mr. E. D. Calkins was around last week delivering the Christmas number of the Horse Review. The Christmas number is a leafty. It is bound in a handsome cover and contains one hundred pages of interesting reading matter.
The ring advertised in last week's GLACIER was found by Miss Eliza Stevens and is the property of Mr. Louis Clark, who lost it while coasting. Mr. Clark, who is now in Portland, wrote to the editor describing the ring, and it will be kept for him until his return.
Persons who are buying second-class fruit trees from abroad can get the same kinds of trees of Tillett for less money. He has 2,000 second class trees, two to three feet high, well rooted—Yakima, Spitzburg, Ben Davis, Gano, King, Red Russian, Delaware Red and Jonathan—which he will sell for $25 per thousand. Or, if you wish first class trees at regular rates, he can accommodate you.
Many merchants are well aware that their customers are their best friends and take pleasure in supplying them with the best goods obtainable. As an instance, we mention Perry & Cameron, prominent druggists of Flushing, Mich. They say, "We have no hesitation in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to our customers, as it is the best cough medicine we have ever sold, and always gives satisfaction." For sale at 50 cts a bottle by Williams & Brosius, druggists.
Prof. Howard C. Tripp, the "Towa Temperance Cyclone," aroused great enthusiasm at his lectures in Troutdale. He was invited by a saloon keeper to lecture in his saloon and accepted the invitation. Here he had a chance to talk to the habitues of the saloon and get in his work on the old sock in good shape. A three-column article, with a portrait of the professor, and accompanied by some of his poetry, appears in the Troutdale Champion of last week.

The Columbia pad calendar for 1896 has made its appearance. Handy and convenient as it has been heretofore, the new issue certainly surpasses any of its predecessors. The cycling fraternity, to say nothing of the general public, has acquired a decidedly friendly feeling for the Columbia calendar, and its annual advent is looked forward to with interest and pleasure. The new calendar contains a much better arrangement than in previous years, more space having been allowed for memoranda, while a greater charm has been added by liberal illustration and an unique and convenient grouping of dates. The calendar can be obtained for five 2-cent stamps by addressing the calendar department of the Pope Mfg. Co., Hartford, Conn.
Mrs. Heald, Hood River's accomplished musician, whose piano playing is much admired in The Dalles, has decided to leave for the East. The citizens of Hood River wished to give her a farewell benefit, but owing to the early date of her departure, Mrs. Heald was compelled to decline the offer. The offer of the testimonial was signed by a large number of Hood River's best citizens, and is highly complimentary to Mrs. Heald's personal and musical accomplishments. The people of The Dalles who have listened to this lady's playing will join with the citizens of Hood River in regretting her departure.—Chronicle.
The annual meeting of the Congregational church was held last Tuesday. The following officers were elected: Deacons, J. F. McCoy and J. H. Dukes, for unlimited periods; trustees, J. F. McCoy, J. H. Dukes and J. F. Armor; clerk, George T. Prather; treasurer, J. F. Armor; Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Rose McCoy; assistant, H. C. Bateham; secretary and treasurer for the Sunday school, George T. Prather; librarian, Roy Slocum; chorister, Dr. Brosius; assistant, H. C. Bateham; organist, Miss Fay LaFrance; lesson illustrator, Prof. H. L. Howe.
Mr. H. Pugh came to Hood River two or three years ago for his health, and is pretty well satisfied that our climate agrees with him. Although nearing the three score and ten mark, his health is better than it has been for years. He has a very desirable home here and has spared no expense to make it comfortable for his family. His wife, we are sorry to learn, has not been in the best of health lately.
Here is still another proof that advertising pays: Joe Purser came into the GLACIER office Thursday last week and inserted an ad for a stray heifer he had been inquiring about of every farmer whom he met since the first snow storm. On his way home from our office he met a farmer who told him of the whereabouts of his long lost heifer. It pays to advertise.
A hen belonging to Mrs. C. J. Hunt stole her nest away under the house and about two weeks ago brought out a dozen chicks. The hen and her brood were given to little Dot Watt, and although the weather has been anything but favorable for young chickens, they are alive and doing well.
The Bartmess boys have a miniature steam engine at work in a show window in their father's store. The engine is said to be 5,000-foot power, which ought to be quite powerful, considering that one lone wicked flea has often been known to turn a grown person out of bed.
A stock of shoes that will invoice over $600, I will sell for $500, or will sell a pair at less than first cost, and several pairs still cheaper. Will sell for considerably less than my closing out prices of the past two months. Sale closes Saturday, January 25th.
D. F. PIERCE.
The steamer Regulator was drawn off the route between Portland and the Cascades January 1st. On the 24th the railroad company raised the price of freight on apples from Hood River to Portland from 10 cents a box to the old rates of 17 cents.
Mr. A. B. Jones' new ice house is nearing completion, but the prospects for filling it with ice made here continue unfavorable. Mr. Jones says if we have none here to put up he will ship it in from the Blue mountains.
John Hakel found a wild cat in his chicken pen one morning last week. It ran at his approach and climbed a big fir tree, where he shot it. The animal lodged in the tree and it was some time before he recovered his game.
A wood bee was held at the residence of Mrs. Charles Berger last Saturday. Eight or nine of the neighbors attended and cut and hauled a good lot of wood. Mrs. Berger is living on Fred Doniker's place.
D. F. Pierce is slaughtering prices in disposing of his stock of shoes. He is preparing to leave some time during the present month for his future home at LaGrande.
The name of J. J. Luckey will be presented to the county commissioners at their meeting next week for road supervisor in the district west of town.
Dr. Carns, S. E. Bartmess, Earl Bartmess, Melgs Bartmess and Grant Evans were seen on the streets on their wheels the first day of the year.
Mrs. Mattie Williams of Portland, who has been visiting her brother in Killekat, is now visiting relatives and friends in Hood River.
The pile driver moved to Albina Thursday. Mr. Eddings, L. E. Morse, M. F. Sloper, Tom Lucy and John Buck went with it.
T. C. Dallas is engaged in manufacturing tin eaves troughs and spouting for the residence of H. Pugh and others.
Mrs. Alma Howe left Monday for Portland, where she will undergo surgical treatment for her injured ankle.
Mrs. W. J. Baker went to The Dalles last evening on a visit to friends. Her health is much improved of late.
Rev. J. L. Hershner moved into the new and commodious Congregational parsonage on Thursday.
West Bros.' meat market presented a fine display of meats New Year's day.
Miss Ethel Smith, who has been sick for the past few days, is improving.

Lessons in Music.

Mrs. Billings, teacher of Piano Music and Harmony, can be seen at Mrs. M. Sue Adams' residence, Paradise Farm.

Winter Prices for Milk.

From and after Jan. 1, 1896, the price of milk will be 7 1/2 cents per quart; 15 quart milk tickets for $1. "Pint" tickets at the rate of 10 cents per quart. F. H. BUTTON.

R

PRESCRIPTIONS.

We take special care to fill prescriptions correctly and promptly and know that our drugs are absolutely pure. We take no chances on this latter point, and you can't afford to take any chances in the filling of your prescriptions. The best pharmacist is the one you want to patronize. We want your prescription trade.

WILLIAMS & BROSIOUS, Druggists.

The weather for the past month has been disagreeable. We have had rain and snow, and mud and slush, and freezing weather and chinook winds alternately, but no really cold weather. And when we read of the cold waves, high winds and floods in the East, we congratulate ourselves that we live west of the Rocky Mountains, where neither Jack Frost, old Boreas nor Jupiter Pluvius run things to extremes.

Phelps Creek Notes.

As Mrs. Berger is left here alone with several small children, some of the young folks conceived the idea of giving a wood bee for her benefit. So John and Frank Rogers started out and on December 28th the bee was held. Mr. Galligan and Mr. Castner furnished the trees. The boys cut and hauled up about nine cords of wood. Mr. J. W. Connell generously contributed two boxes of choice apples and some spare ribs, which were delivered by Mr. Charles Wallace, who then hauled up the wood. Mrs. Berger gave the boys a fine dinner and let them have a party in the evening. Those present at the chopping bee were: John Rogers, Frank Rogers, Fred Rordan, John Castner, Hubert Galligan, Frank Pierce and Arthur Pierce.

In the evening the boys got their best girls for the party and were reinforced by others, 29 in all. Those attending the party were: Mrs. Berger, Misses Lula Rordan, Ada Rogers, Eliza Rogers, Bertha Berger, Anna Berger, Alice Berger, Ruth Berger, Cora Fuller, Daisy Fuller, Amy Rogers, and Messrs. Fred Rordan, John Castner, Hubert Galligan, Antone Frohn, William Ellis, Roy Ellis, Alfred Eastman, Frank Rogers, Charles Rogers, John Castner, Fred Berger, George Berger, Frank Berger, Frank Pierce, Arch Pierce, Charles Tubbs, Ed Birth and Elton Hayden. All enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

From Mount Hood.

EDITOR GLACIER: Perhaps a few items from this place would not come amiss. So here goes, let it be good, bad or indifferent.

A good old-fashioned chinook is rapidly taking the snow off, which reached a depth of 18 inches.

Everybody's larder, seemingly, is well filled and all are content to take the winter let it be what it will.

Christmas passed off with the customary dance. The girls' snow-shoe strings were cut, evidently by some old back who got the mitten, and the girls were left to trudge home in the snow. "Vengeance is mine, saith the Lord, and I will repay!" but the old man wanted his own way of administering punishment.

Mr. H. Edick of Red Lodge, Montana, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. N. J. Devoe, a retired shoe merchant of Portland, who has located on a homestead here, went to the metropolis to spend the holidays.

The boys of this place are to be complimented on the way they kept the roads open during the recent snow storm.

Walter Gribble arrived from Montana, a short time ago, to spend the winter with relatives here.

There is to be a dance at the bachelor residence of Paul Aubert on New Year's eve.
