The whole of the republic of Honduras has been placed under martial law, pending the settlement of the civil revolt in Nicaragua, in which the president of Honduras has espoused the cause of the Zelaya government against the rebels. The near approach of the contending forces in Nicaragua to the Honduras forntier, and the disposition of the president of Guatemala to interpose for the settlement of the war, are the considerations that made the step seem advisable of placing the country under martial law.

It is reported that the sugar refineries in the vicinity of New York will probably shut down. John A. Searles, treasurer, said that some of the refineries might be closed, but that there was no special significance in this. Times were dull and it is said the pirce may be reduced again. The Cuban controversy in congress is gaving the sugar trust some concern, for if the belligerency of the insurgents is recognized the trust may be cut off from receiving supplies from that source for an indefinite period, whereas, if the debate on the resolution is postponed the shipment of sugar from Cuba will continue for a while longer.

Evidently Discovered it Was a Trap, and Maintained Perfect Silence -The Police at Newport Instructed to Exercise Great Vigilance.

Newport have been instructed to exercise great vigilance. The prisoners were first put in a sensitive cell, absolutely dark, in which were twenty telephone transmitters. In a floor above were stenographers and other witnesses. So far as hearing any communication between the prisoners is concerned, it was a failure. They evidently discovered that it was a trap, had been given to set speeches by and maintained perfect silence. Judge Helm announced that next Thursday the case would be called without the presence of the prisoners, to enable the attorneys to arrange for the regular hearing. Today it has been forty-five hearing. Today it has been forty-five puy de Lome, the Spanish minister. days since the murder, and forty days. This had been referred to some days since the arrest of the prisoners. Sheriff Plummer has been untiring in his efforts to detect the murderers and secure their extradition. He has spent over $400, without any assurance that the state would reimburse him. The general belief is that the trial will begin next week, as the criminal court of canefields and the disorganized is in session. On the trip to Kentucky the prisoners were handcuffed to the officers. The detectives say that both of the prisoners trembled like aspen leaves as they entered Newport. All who saw them landed at the jail testify that their faces were pale as those of dead men.

No Longer a Town.

Spokane, Wash., March 19 .- President Hill, of the Great Northern, has his way. Hillyard has ceased to be a municipality corporation. The carshops of the Great Northern are located there, five miles from Spokane. Their location built the town. When the place took on airs and voted to incorporate, Hill fought the move, but was beaten. He objected to paying taxes to keep up a town government, and a short time ago sent word to the town that unless it was disincorporated he would remove the shops. After many preliminaries, the city government was legally killed today in the courst.

Cockrell's speech was an elaborate presentation of the financial question from the silver standpoint, so much so that Hoar stated that it was the ablest silver speech he had ever listened to.

Washington, March 18.—The senate had been given to set speeches by Lodge on immigration and Pugh on silver. The Cuban discussion was mainly important in bringing out the full reading of a statement of the Spanish side of the case by Senor Duago, but could not be made public. Today, however, Morgan read a letter from Secretary Olney saying the Spanish minister gave his permission for the public use of the statement. It claimed to detail the insurgent methods of guerilla warfare, the bunring character of the insurgent bands.

Washington, March 19.—The Cu-ban debate in the senate is drawing to a close, and the expectation is that a final vote will be taken in a day or two. Snerman is keeping the question before the senate continuously, so that the speeches are not likely to last much longer. Mills and Platt are yet to be heard, but their remarks will not be lengthy. Morgan occupied almost the entire session today, speaking until nearly 6 o'clock tonight in support of propriety in criticising senators. He also recited many evidences of the "I have just filed with Secretary of cruelties and atrocities with which

To partly balance the allowances for Commodore Hichborne's bureau, the general appropriation therefor was cut down from $14,000,000 to $12,500,000. There are twelve boats which the 'epartment will put into condition for service, and for which the appropriation is asked. Some of them are new craft, and others old ones now out of ommission.

Washington, March 18 .- This was suspension day in the house, and severeal bills were passed. The most important was the Oklahoma homestead bill, which relieves homesteaders in Oklahoma of the payment of the purchase price of their homesteads. The house also decided, at the request of Hitt, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs to consider the resolutions censuring Ambassador Bayard on Railroad Company the right of way through the Sac and Fox Indian reservations. Bills were passed granting to the First National bank of Sprague, Wash., the right to change its location to Spokane, Wash., and to increase the rank and pay of the judge-advocate of the navy when appointed from the navy.

Washington, March 19.-The house tion. The bill was drawn after extensive hearings and upon the advice and with the assistance of the treasury department, the board of general appraisers, importers and others with practical experience on the subject. One of the most important changes makes increased duties and penalties for undervaluation, commencing at the point of undervaluation, and not at 10 per cent above the undervaluation, as provided by the present law.
