How to Keep Posted.

To be kept thoroughly well posted on the news of such an eventful year as 1896 promises to be, a person should read the columns of a live, wide-awake metropolitan paper be-sides the county or local newspaper. Now is the proper time to begin a yearly subscrip-tion, which will cover the presidential cam-paign, the great speeches, the November elec-tion and the outcome of all the wars and troubles abroad. If intending subscribers will heed a word of advice they will send $1 to the twice-a-Week Republic. They will receive in return twice every week for a year a copy of the spiclest, newslest and most entertaining newspaper in the country. The Twice-a-Week Republic will make a specialty of giving all the political news and speeches on both sides and at the same time keep up the very enter-taining departments it has always contained. A big inducement is offered to those who politan paper will meet their wants. The baily and Sunday Republic has been reduced to only $3 a year or $3 for is ix months. ises to be, a person should read the columns
