TWO MEN ADRIFT FOR SIX DAYS IN A SMALL CANOE.

Six Indians of a Scaling Schooner's Crew Reported Lost While Off Cape Flattery.

Port Townsend, Wash., April 30 .-The steamer Al-Ki, from Alaska, brought to this place last night two sealers, who tell a story of much privation and suffering. They are Gus Peterson, a Swede, and a half-breed called "Siwash Jimmie." They left Victoria January 23 in a sealing schooner, the City of San Diego. On the 4th of April, the two men, while out hunting seals, were lost in a blinding snowstorm, and driven before the wind all night in a small cance. When nish the jackets, etc., of guns, and daylight came, the schooner was not in sight, and the two men were out of marked that there was $280,000,000 J. M. Indian crew, were lost while sealing off Cape Flattery. The six men left the schooner in two canoes five days ago, and have not since been seen. After a prolonged search they were given up, and the schooner returned to Neah bay and reported the loss. The Indians are very superstitious over such a thing, and are now bemoaning the hard luck which they say is sure to follow the mishap. They say they will now have bad luck during the rest of the sealing season.
