JOHN A. WILSON, Commander.
M. P. ISENBERG, Adjutant.

W. J. Baker has more orders for his Yellow Newtown apples than he can fill. He is now shipping to Seattle and San Francisco, where his shipments net him $2.45 and $2.50 a box. His only kick nowadays is that his business is not so good as it used to be. He says orders have been coming in for his apples so fast that he could ship 100 boxes a day at above prices if he had the apples.

Mrs. S. E. Bartness and little daughter Sally left Tuesday for Portland, where they will take the Great Northern railroad for her old home at LaFayette, Indiana, where they expect to visit for two or three months. Mr. Bartness and Meigs went to Portland on the early morning train to purchase tickets and met them on the local.

Farmers find no sale in Hood River nowadays for nice fresh butter. It is refused by our merchants for the reason that they have no means of disposing of it. If shipped to Portland it will not bring half price in competition with creamery butter. Farmers will now quit making butter, and in a short time the summer boards will be here and butter will have to be imported.

Uncle Billy Eastman of Phelps creek was in town Monday. Uncle Billy cast his first vote for William Henry Harrison in 1840, and is proud to say he has voted for every white and republican candidate since. He votes a straight republican ticket, but this time he says he will depart from the good old custom and vote for John H. Cradlebaugh for district attorney.

Mr. A. P. Bateham has had the land on the Coe place fronting the state road, just below the residence, grubbed and plowed and is now getting it in readiness to set strawberries. Under the management of Mr. Bateham, it will no doubt prove more valuable as a strawberry patch than it would as sell for town lots.

Hon. J. S. Messinger, populist candidate for joint representative from Wasco and Sherman counties, was in Hood River yesterday. Mr. Messinger is an extensive farmer and stock raiser, living near Erskineville, Sherman county. He has 2,000 acres in wheat, which promises a good crop for the coming harvest.

Sunday night, the Elworth league of the M. E. church at Belmont elected the following delegates to attend the district convention of the league that met at Wasco in June: Miss Madge Warren, Mr. Ellery and Wm. Isenberg. The league voted a number of new members at the same meeting.

Mr. J. W. Wallace came down from Deschutes yesterday. He says the high winds and drifting sands make life in that part of the country very disagreeable, and he don't see what can induce people to remain in that country while there is a place like Hood River near at hand.

Supervisor Prather had a force of men at work Wednesday grading the foot of Second street. This will give teams a better chance in getting to and from the depot and prove a great benefit in strawberry shipments, now close at hand.

The Graham Bros. have about completed the warehouse for the Oregon Fruit Union, which is located west of the Hood River Fruit Union's warehouse. The building is 30x40 feet in size.

Elliot & Son, fishermen at the Morton place, three miles below town, are having a successful catch of salmon. Kallish & Dunning, on the sand bar above, have had poor luck so far.

Louis Clark and Lou Morse and others started out Tuesday for the head of the Improvement Co's ditch to survey the route for the same and get all ready for the letting of contracts for its construction.

S. E. Bartness has purchased a horse, which he will use in connection with his business of undertaking. This is the first horse ever brought to Hood River.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the Hood River post office: Frank Cowling (Towson), Louis L. Royak, and J. H. Townsend.

The Junior C. E. entertainment Monday evening called out a full house at the U. B. church, and the young people all did well.

Carpenter work on the new railroad bridge is now completed and trains will be crossing on the same as soon as the grade is finished on the east side.

Get your fern-sweeps to put on your fine-tooth cultivators at the Mountain Stage and Livery Co. They have a stock on hand.

The first shipment of strawberries from Hood River last season was made by Frank Miller, May 14th, from the Morton ranch.

Mr. E. J. Middleswart, who bought the Husbards ranch at Mosier, arrived there from Montana with his family Wednesday.

Errick Johnson, a fisherman, was drowned at the Cascades, Monday evening, by falling into the canal.

John L. Henry has been confined to his house during the week by sickness.

California strawberries are selling in The Dalles for 25 cents a box.

Geo. Rordan has three or four first-class milk cows for sale.

J. H. Cradlebaugh left The Dalles, Tuesday, for Prineville.

Hats cheap at Mrs. Hunt's for cash, but no credit.

The Columbia river is rising rapidly.

Degree of honor, A. O. U. W., will serve ice cream and cake election day.

Blank promissory notes and notices to trespassers for sale at the GLACIER office.

Mrs. Woodward and her mother, Mrs. Stevens, are stopping in the Henderson house.

Rev. J. B. Parker, presiding elder of the U. B. church, will spend Sunday in Hood River.

Wm. Tillett received orders, Friday of last week, for $140 worth of fruit trees, to be delivered next fall.

Now is the time to order your trees for planting next fall. Call and see Tillett at the Hood River Nursery.

A large supply of wall paper just received at S. E. Bartness, with prices lower than ever before offered in Hood River.

Mr. C. D. Moore has promised to send us today a sample of ripe strawberries grown on his place at White Salmon.

If your strawberries show signs of rust you might spray them. Get a knapsack sprayer at Mountain Stage and Livery Co.

E. V. Husbards is now located in his new quarters in the Laughe house, where he will continue to sell the stock of shoes left by D. F. Pierce.

Here is your chance to secure cheap town property: The Methodist congregation offer the tabernacle and the lot on which it stands for sale at $300.

J. J. Luckey's colt snaged itself one day last week, while in the pasture, and when found was in bad condition. By careful treatment it is getting along all right and will recover.

C. A. Phelps, populist orator from Colorado, spent last week Friday night, and last week and again on Monday night. Good audiences were present to hear both speeches.

The O. R. & N. Co's timetable for Hood River is as follows: Westbound overland, 5:42 a. m.; east passenger overland, 10 p. m.; local passenger westbound, 11:12 a. m.; local passenger westbound, 3:23 p. m.

Much interest is being taken in the date on the silver question at the Frankton school house this evening between W. J. Campbell and Wm. Isenberg, and they may expect a full house.

Subsoil plows at the Mountain Stage and Livery Co. at astonishing low prices. The time is here when every farmer must have a subsoil plow to loosen the ground 12 to 15 inches deep without turning up so much wild soil. Come and see them.

Write to Davenport Bros., Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our best prices before purchasing elsewhere.

"We learn from Mr. H. F. Davidson that the Jews will not come to Hood River this year to pick berries. Squaw R. K. Ketchum will be our chief reliance for berry pickers. White labor of the right kind is always preferred and there will be plenty of work during the picking season for those who are willing to accept the wages earned by this class of labor.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liveryman and merchant of Goshen, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with inflammatory rheumatism and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm eased the pain and the use of one bottle completely cured him. For sale by Williams & Bros., druggists.

The stores of A. S. Blowers & Co. and R. Rand & Son were closed last Saturday night. Blowers' store was broken into by prying off the outside lock with a pick. Nothing was taken from this store, so far as could be noticed. The cash drawer was found to be empty, and it is presumed money was what the burglars wanted. At Rand's store they carried off the cash register, and taking it over to E. L. Smith's barn, burst it open and secured $1.85. The tools used by the burglars were secured by first breaking into John R. Nickelsen's blacksmith shop.

The strawberry season will soon be here. We have not heard where the growers will get their pickers from this season. If Jack Frost is not too hard on us, the crop of berries will be larger than ever—probably twice as many berries will be shipped as were ever shipped before from Hood River. The young people of the valley should be looking after situations for the berry season—the boys and girls to pick and the young ladies to pack the fruit. Some of our young women have, but there is not enough of them that know this business thoroughly. Every young person that can be spared from other pursuits should be trained in the art of packing fruit. Hood River fruit growers will need more of this kind of skilled labor every year.

W. J. Baker has more orders for his Yellow Newtown apples than he can fill. He is now shipping to Seattle and San Francisco, where his shipments net him $2.45 and $2.50 a box. His only kick nowadays is that his business is not so good as it used to be. Dick Nealeigh is grubbing an acre and a half of land for John Sims. He has signed up a grubbing machine of his own make that does good work. The machine is not handsomely finished, but it gets there just the same.

We will furnish at mill common rough lumber at $6 per thousand, and second grades, $5. Other grades in proportion. Kept through the season, 8 cents each. Terms spot cash or its equivalent. B. R. TUCKER, Tucker, Oregon.

How to Treat a Wife.

From Pacific Health Journal.

First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have good trials and perplexities in your business, but do not, therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contrived brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look, will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom. To this we would add, always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed, sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale by Williams & Bros., druggists.

Wheel Talk.

There is but one Crimson Rim—it is the Syracuse.

Some people think Morgan & Wright are bluffing when they claim to make 65 per cent, or two-thirds, of all pneumatic tires which are used in the United States. But if they knew what proportion of the tires made by Crimson rubber for M. & W.'s account, they would not think so.

Morgan & Wright tires are good tires. Whenever the face begins to flush and the heart to palpitate, it is time to check the gait.

Do not decide you are a confirmed pessimist until you have learned to ride a "Syracuse" bicycle. That which appears to be a gloomy philosophy is frequently only the need of exercise.

The pedestrian counts the steps; the "Crimson Rim" rides the miles.

Little drops of water,
Little grains of sand,
Make the foolish cycler
Do the thing up grand.

Williams & Bros. can show you taking quality in tires. They make 65 per cent, $100, $85 and $65. Ladies or gent. Installment plan, if desired.

The Little Country Town.

You may talk about your cities,
And your big brick buildings tall,
And your elevated railroads,
And your fine fire engines small;
But the "rural rooster" lines up
When it comes to counting joys,
And the city's crowd is down,
With the homespun country boys.

Although we have no railroads,
Our quick trails don't beat,
And when we want to travel
Why—we get there with both feet.
Ner the boys smoke coffin nails,
And we do all our drinking
From a spring that never fails.

Yes, we know that life in the cities
Is said to be all joy,
And to mingle with the busy world
The hope of every country boy.
But the years fly on your ward,
And the hands of time run down,
The heart will turn in longing
To that little country town.

And again you're among the cottages,
Nestling here 'neath the trees,
And the tinkling of the cow bells
Will come from the breeze in wheels;
And the sweetheart of your childhood,
Long been gathered home to God—
You lies slumbering 'neath the greenward
Where the ox-eyed daisies nod.

Will come to you in memory,
As you saw her years ago,
And again you'll hear the music
Of the sweet voice soft and low;
And the tender page you're scanning,
You'll find a leaf turned down,
Marked, "Some Loving Recollections
Of Dear Old Country Town."
—Hazel Green (Ky.) Herald.
