S. E. Bartmess received a carload of lime Monday.
F. I. Hubbard, photographer, Hood River, Oregon.
M. H. Nickelsen has a large stock of fishing tackle.
Found—a glove buttoner. Call for it at this office.
Geo. Rordan has three or four first-class milch cows for sale.
A trio of quina fowls for sale at $3. Inquire at GLACIER office.
Lou Morse is authorized agent for all newspapers and periodicals.
Largest stock of crockery and stationary at M. H. Nickelsen's store.

Blank promissory notes and notices to trespassers for sale at the GLACIER office.

E. V. Husbands has made another cut in price for Pierce's stock of shoes. Big reduction this time.

Mr. Pratt Whitcomb came up from Portland last Thursday and will farm Mrs. Hutton's place this summer.

Now is the time to order your trees for planting next fall. Call and see Tillet at the Hood River Nursery.

A large supply of wall paper just received at S. E. Bartmess, with prices lower than ever before offered in Hood River.

The Dalles concert band have chartered the steamer Regulator and will run the first excursion of the season, to the Cascade Locks, Sunday, May 24th.

If your strawberries show signs of rust you must spray them. Get a knapsack sprayer at Mountain Stage and Livery Co.

To Trade—Furniture, consisting of bed room set, dressing case, etc.—all nearly as good as new, to trade for good cow. Inquire at this office.

Lost—A new back-skin glove, between Tucker and town. Finder will please leave it with Mrs. Alice Kemp, or at this office.

Get your fern sweeps to put on your fine-tooth cultivators at the Mountain Stage and Livery Co. They have a stock on hand.

Here is your chance to secure cheap town property: The Methodist congregation offer the tabernacle and the lot on which it stands for sale at $800.

Mrs. T. A. Templeton has not yet fully recovered from the injuries received in the runaway accident three weeks ago, when Mrs. Rich was so badly hurt. She still has a lame side.

Hon. J. W. Armistead, editor of the Wasco News and democratic nominee for joint senator for Wasco, Sherman and Gilliam counties, and Joe Marsh of Wasco were in Hood River Tuesday.

The O. R. N. Co.'s timetable for Hood River is as follows: Westbound overland, 5:50 a. m.; eastbound overland, 9:45 p. m.; local passenger eastbound, 11:32 a. m.; local passenger westbound, 3:23 p. m.

Subsoil plows at the Mountain Stage and Livery Co. at astonishing low prices. The time is here when every farmer must have a subsoil plow to loosen the ground 12 to 15 inches deep without turning up so much wild soil. Come and see them.

Write to Davenport Bros. Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere.

A Sunday school was organized at the Frankton school house Sunday before last and the following officers elected: Miss Madge Warren, superintendent; Mrs. W. S. Boorman, assistant superintendent; Willie Warren, treasurer and Eben Boorman, secretary. Sunday school will be held every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use each one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question every one must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of these quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that every family should be provided with. For sale by Williams & Brosius, druggists.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liveryman and merchant of Goshier, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with inflammatory rheumatism and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm eased the pain and the use of one bottle completely cured him. For sale by Williams & Brosius, druggists."

Miss Rosmer Shaw of Portland spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker. Oregon-grown strawberries were in The Dalles market Saturday.

Any one wanting a good gentle cow will do well to see B. Warren.

Mrs. Rich was brought up from Portland Tuesday.

Miss Mellie Rigby is teaching school at Chenoweth.

The interest taken in the meetings of the Frankton literary society still continues. The house was full again last Friday night, when the society disposed of the following question: "Resolved, That Columbus deserves more praise for the discovery of America than Washington does as its defender." Willie Warren led the affirmative and Eben Boorman the negative. The judges decision was in favor of the negative by a unanimous vote. Mr. F. E. Absten's speech on the side of the negative was well worth listening to. Tonight the society will debate a local question, "Resolved, That the Japs are a detriment to Hood River valley." Will Ellis will lead the affirmative and Wm. Isenberg the negative.

"General" Coxe, of "keep off the grass" fame, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Hood River Monday on the Regulator from The Dalles. Mr. Coxe made a two-hours' speech at the armory in the afternoon and left on the local for Portland. Coxe's presence in town caused more excitement than the arrival of a circus. Everybody in the country, and a great number from White Salmon, came to town through curiosity to hear him speak. The "general" is a small, unassuming man and looks very much like his pictures.

Hon. T. R. Coon has announced himself an independent candidate for joint representative for Sherman and Wasco counties, having filed his petition with the county clerk last Friday. In his letter of acceptance, published in The Dalles papers, Mr. Coon makes the statement, that if given a seat in the next legislature, he will cast his vote for John H. Mitchell for United States senator.

In the market report in Wednesday's Oregonian was the following item: "The first Oregon strawberries of the season appeared in the market yesterday. The lot weighed only a pound and was sent in from Hood River." Joe Wilson tried to find out who shipped them, and inquired of Mr. Hean, the station agent, who said no one had yet shipped any strawberries by him.

Lindsay & Co. of Helena, Mont., in a letter to the Hood River Fruit Union, concerning the new berry box, say: "We have had berries shipped to us from the South in the Leslie box, but our trade does not take kindly to them. The square box is in general use all over the West and as it seems to give general satisfaction we do not think it is desirable to attempt a change."

A petition was presented to the county clerk Monday morning asking for the nomination of P. P. Underwood for county school superintendent, in place of Miss Josie Hansberry, made ineligible by the late decision of the supreme court. The petition is from Mr. C. L. Morse, chairman of the populist county central committee.—Chronicle.

The case of Jas. Grabam vs. Al Foster, an attachment case for the recovery of a debt, was argued in Justice Wishart's court at Mount Hood Wednesday afternoon. Will Langille acted as attorney for the plaintiff, and Al Foster appeared in his own behalf. Our reporter has promised full particulars next week.

Mr. Jos. Wilson says he has been questioned forty-seven times in regard to the Oregon Fruit Union for the first crate of ripe strawberries, and he wishes us to state again that the $6 is a premium over and above the price for which the berries will sell.

Mr. Frank Chandler left for Butte, Mont., Saturday night, as a representative of the Oregon Fruit Union from Hood River. On his way up he stopped off at Walla Walla, where he reports the prospects good for a big crop of strawberries and cherries.

Preparations have begun for the shipping of our big strawberry crop. The O. R. & N. Co. have a number of refrigerator cars in readiness at Portland. People are getting anxious and inquirers for our berries are being received daily.

The O. R. & N. Co. have made a slight change in the arrival of the through passenger trains. Note the change in the timetable and don't get left when the train leaves.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Welch of Mount Hood went to The Dalles on the Regulator Wednesday for a week or ten days' visit with friends and relatives.

Hubbard, the artist, is now located in L. Neff's front yard in a tent, and is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line. Call and see samples.

We asked Mr. O. Fredenburg the other day what the people were doing at Mount Hood. "Waiting for it to stop raining," he replied.

Mrs. W. J. Baker has been confined to her bed for over a month, but is improving slowly. She was up for the first time Tuesday.

Mr. J. A. Newell of Portland came up on Tuesday's local to visit his family, who are stopping at Mr. T. A. Templeton's.

Mrs. L. H. Adams of Portland, came up last Friday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Pugh, and friends, returning Monday.

The railroad men are now working on the approaches to the new bridge, and trains will be crossing upon it by Sunday.

Hon. T. R. Coon is expected to start for the East, Saturday, in the interest of the Hood River Fruit Growers' Union.

Louis Burkhardt came up from Portland Wednesday and went out to his claim on the middle fork of Hood river.

Chris Nickelsen, while in The Dalles on a business trip, paid a visit to his parents in Hood River Wednesday.

James Hoag came down from Wasco Tuesday. Mr. Hoag is now in the livery business at Wasco.

The Mitchell men are wearing buttons having the inscription "I am for Mitchell, are you?"

Miss Rosmer Shaw of Portland spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker. Oregon-grown strawberries were in The Dalles market Saturday.

Any one wanting a good gentle cow will do well to see B. Warren.

Mrs. Rich was brought up from Portland Tuesday.

Hood River was invaded Thursday by an army of candidates from both sides of the political fence. Most of them arrived on the noon train from the Cascade Locks and were on their way to The Dalles. Among them were Hon. John Michell and J. B. Huntington, republican candidates for the legislature; Hon. Robt. Mays, republican nominee for county judge; Judge Blakeley, D. L. Cates and Frank Woodcock, democratic nominees for county judge, clerk and sheriff; C. L. Phillips and C. L. Gilbert, republican nominees for county treasurer and school superintendent.

If you want to make arrangements for berry pickers don't wait until your berries are ripe. We cannot guarantee to get them, but if you let us know how many you want in time, will do our best. White people want 1 1/2 cents per box. Chinamen are offering to contract for 1 1/2 cents, but don't know how many pickers they can furnish. We prefer to furnish white labor, but those who prefer to contract can make arrangements with us.

H. F. DAVIDSON.
Hon. John Michell, while in town Thursday, made a call at the GLACIER office and "spelled" the devil for a while—took his place at the case. Mr. Michell first acted in the capacity of devil and mastered the intricacies of the "art preservative" in a little country newspaper office in Wisconsin.

The Regulator company has not yet completed arrangements with the telephone company for placing a bulletin board at the drugstore, but in a letter from Mr. W. C. Alloway to Mr. S. R. Husbands, he says the company will see if they can make arrangements.

A twice-a-week mail service has been established between White Salmon and Troutlake, leaving White Salmon Tuesday and Saturday at 7 a. m., and leaving Troutlake Monday and Friday at 7 a. m.

Mr. W. L. Morris returned to his home in Centerville, Wash., Sunday. Mr. E. D. Calkins accompanied him and will bring back the rest of his colts when he returns.

Hood River Tent No. 19, Knights of the Maccabees, will celebrate the 15th anniversary of the Order, June 11, 1896. Further announcement will be made.

Mr. E. Moore arrived here on the Regulator Wednesday evening from Colfax, California. Mr. Moore expects to spend the summer in Hood River.

Mr. S. C. Zeigler of White Salmon brought the first box of ripe strawberries to town Wednesday. The berries were grown on the old Brooke place.

Mr. A. J. Brigham of Dufur will be in Hood River on the 29th of May for the purpose of speaking in the interest of Mitchell and Ellis.

The post office at Drano, Skamania county, Wash., has been discontinued, and mail for that point will hereafter be carried to Chenoweth.

Mr. E. C. Rogers will petition the county court for a road from Troy Snelley's place to his claim near the head of Neal creek.

The GLACIER received a pleasant call from Messrs D. L. Cates and Frank Woodcock, democratic nominees for county clerk and sheriff.

J. R. Rankin of White Salmon came to town Thursday with a box of ripe strawberries—the first for the Hood River market.

Our editor has been at Spokane during the past week and the work of getting out the paper devolved upon the "devil."

Messrs. John H. Michell and J. B. Huntington spoke to a small audience in the A. O. W. hall Thursday afternoon.

Prather & Coe give notice that they can furnish all the white strawberry pickers needed for the crop of 1896.

Hans Lage was in The Dalles Wednesday, attending to business in the probate court.

The GLACIER yesterday received a nice box of strawberries from J. R. Rankin of White Salmon.

W. E. Neff will open his photograph gallery May 23rd. All work guaranteed.

The thermometer went up to 84—summer heat—in the shade, Thursday.

Mrs. J. H. Shoemaker, who has been quite sick, is rapidly recovering.

Dr. Brosius was called to Sprague Landing, Wash., Wednesday.

Gents' unlaundried, handkerchiefs and persic shirts at the Racket Store.

How to Treat a Wife.
From Pacific Health Journal.
First, get a wife; second, be patient. You may have good trials and perplexities in your business, but do not, therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look, will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom.—To this we would add, always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed, sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale by Williams & Brosius, druggists.

Church Notices.
Remember the Sunday school picnic to be given by the Congregational Sunday school on Saturday at Prospect Point, just outside of the city limits. This is not intended as the annual Sunday School picnic, but just an outing for the children and their parents. Such as wish, may gather at the church at 10:30 o'clock. Let everybody come, and don't forget lunch baskets.

Owing to the memorial service, there will be no preaching service at the Congregational church on Sunday morning. Christian Endeavor service will be held at 6:30 and the pastor will preach at 7:30.

U. B. church services will be as follows every Sunday unless otherwise announced: Sunday school 10 a. m.; preaching services 11 a. m.; Junior Endeavor 4:30 p. m.; Senior Endeavor 6:45 p. m.; preaching services 7:30 p. m.
F. C. KRAUSE, Pastor.

M. E. services in Hood River every Sabbath evening, and in the mornings of the first and third Sabbaths of each month; at Mosier on the mornings of the second and fourth.

J. M. DENISON, Pastor.
Belmont Circuit Appointments.—First Sunday of each month at Mount Hood; second Sunday, Belmont at 11, Crapper school house at 3, and Pine Grove at 7; third Sunday, Pine Grove at 11 and Belmont at 7; fourth Sunday, Belmont at 11 and Pine Grove at 7.

F. L. JOHNS, Pastor.
Congregational Church—Rev. J. L. Hershner, pastor. Worship, with preaching, will be conducted every Sunday, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., unless otherwise announced. Prayer meeting and Sunday school conference on Wednesday evening. Christian Endeavor society on Sunday evening. All who attend these services will be made welcome.

Sunday school at the M. E. tabernacle every Sunday, at 10 a. m. A welcome to all.

"Little Bloomers."
I don't go much on fashions,
An' all that kind o' thing,
With dresses that's cut delectable,
An' sleeves like that is, by Jingo!
I don't take stock in the notion
That women can't dress as they please—
Providin', of course, that it's proper
An' gives them a reason o' case.

Last fall I drove in with the wagon,
And our horses came along along—
Purtest girl in the country,
So liver, an' limber, an' strong;
Boys an' girls, 'em all, was me,
So gal in the valley her like—
An' she sported the turkey-red bloomers
She'd made to wear on her bike.

As we reached Tom's store I noticed
His kid was a-playin' near
When all of once came a shoutin'
An' straight down the road to and a cheer.
An' straight for the kid he heaved;
"Why, blame me, if I could yell!"
When somethin' red wizzled by me
A paintin' just like—well,

Of course it was our Rosie;
She rode past the crowd's head;
She knew that she could turn him
When he saw the turkey-red.
For when I saw her, I knowed her,
My heart just swoop took still;
But, lawdy, no she dooped him
An' drew him down the hill!

The boys came up a-runnin',
An' we stood there in a line
As watchin' their red bloomers
An' the crazy brute begin;
At last I turned the horses
An' let 'em have the whip,
An' down that break-neck highway
We went a mighty clip.

A mile away the poor critter,
Great beam, and tumbled kerslump;
An' there by her wheel, "Little Bloomers"
Was restin' herself on a stump.
I felt so blamed proud that I blubbered,
But Rosie just said, with a grin:
"Say, dandy, I've busted some gathers,
Please send 'Little Bloomers' a pin."

That's why I'm mad when the fogies
Think they've got the right to assert
That woman's science of cultivation
Depends on the length of her skirt.
Sens to me that savin' 'a baby
Bears petticoats, roony or small;
An' I guess the angels 'll take good
An' carry her in, bloomers 'n' all.

Scalps.
J. P. Jaegling and J. S. Egan, on a Syracuse tandem, set the pace for nearly all the famous riders at San Francisco in the recent indoor tournament, and the following are their world records for themselves as follows: 1/2 mile, 22 seconds; 1 mile, 1 minute and 2 1/2 seconds; 1 mile, 2 minutes and 7 1/2 seconds.

W. A. Taylor, at Santa Barbara, went 2 miles in 4 minutes and 36 seconds on a "Crinson Rin."

The girls also win on Red Birds. At St. Paul, Dotie Fancaster won the 6 day, 12 hour, women's race, scoring 27 miles. She also won the 5 mile handicap in 14 minutes and 50 seconds. Ida Peterson, on a Syracuse Crinson Rin, scored the 3 mile race was won by Miss Villarde (Crinson Rin) in 10:11; and the 5 mile open by Fannie Mack (Crinson Rin).
