"When in Rome do as the Romans do," says the old proverb, and we might add, when in Hood River do as the Hood Riverites do. Call at Columbia Nursery and see what an assortment of fruit trees and plants can be had for a home garden. The best is none too good for the fruit growers.

The O. R. N. Co.'s timetable for Hood River is as follows: Westbound overland, 5:50 a. m.; eastbound overland, 9:45 p. m.; local passenger eastbound, 11:12 a. m.; local passenger westbound, 3:23 p. m.

Write to Davenport Bros., Lumber Co. for delivered prices on all kinds of lumber, rough or dressed. They have a large and good assortment of finishing lumber on hand, good and dry. Call and get our cash prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Mr. D. F. Pierce and family came down from LaGrande Monday and left here Wednesday for their new home at San Jose, Cal. Mr. Pierce sold his harness business at LaGrande and will buy into a like business at San Jose.

H. L. Crapper has a five-year-old Hungarian prairie tree that bore 100 pounds of fruit this season. His Italian prunes are a pretty fair crop, while his Petites are a full crop and unusually large.

M. E. Montgomery, one of the most popular engineers on the O. R. & N., accompanied by his bride, nee Miss Della Watson of Hood River, arrived from the coast Saturday night. They were married in Portland, August 28th, and since then have been visiting popular resorts on the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will make their home in The Dalles—Mountaineer.

Mr. John McCoy, who returned last week from the mines that bear his name in the Cascade mountains in Skamania county, Wash., informs us that the members of the Mazama mining company will not return to the mines to work this season. They got to the mines too late in the season to accomplish much this year, but hope to get a better start and be better prepared for work next spring. About 100 men from different sections of the country visited the mines during the short time the Mazamas were at work. Some of them were old prospectors and were convinced that the company had a good prospect of striking it rich. The creek above and below them has been protected and claims located. The company had considerable work to do this season, in the way of building cabins and sluice boxes and flumes, that they will not have to do next year, and they expect that with about two months' hard work they can make a clean up that will pay them well for all their labor.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the Spectator, Rushford, New York, says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were held here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism; lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit and unequalled by any other. They are for sale here by Williams & Brosius, druggists.

It is reported by the men who were engaged in excavating for Davenport's saw mill at the head of the ditch, and they are all truthful men, that after a blast was set off a live toad was set free that had been imbedded in the hard basaltic rock 18 inches from the surface. The toad had swelled up to several times his natural size and completely filled the cavity where he had been imprisoned for thousands of years. As soon as set free by the blast, the toad writhed to the ordinary size and hopped away, probably to hunt up the companions of his youth. The kind-hearted men stood and watched the toad enjoy his liberty. They couldn't think of making the toad a prisoner again even for exhibition, and brought to town only the hole in the rock to verify their story.

Last Sunday morning T. C. Dallas received a dispatch from Portland conveying the sad intelligence of the death of little Clara Louise Champlin, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Atkinson, who died in that city early Sunday morning. The cause of her death was membranous croup and congestion of the lungs. Mr. George Booth, grandfather of the child, went to Portland on the afternoon train Sunday. The funeral was held Monday. Little Clara Champlin was a bright, handsome child, loved by all who knew her. She was aged 10 years and 7 months. The afflicted family have the heartfelt sympathy of this entire community where their acquaintances and friends are numerous.

Mr. E. C. Rogers was at The Dalles during the first part of the week, looking after the interests of the new road to the head of Neal creek. He went with his team and was accompanied by Mrs. Rogers, his daughters Ada and Rosa and Josie Nealeigh, and John and Revell Rogers went along on horseback. The whole party went into camp on Chenoweth creek, Tuesday evening they were serenaded by a squad of the Salvation Army, who entertained them with comic songs.

A young man named Frank Jordan passed through Hood River Monday, on his way to Portland. He was on crutches, claiming that his foot was crushed between two carts at Walla Walla, some time in July, while crossing the track while a freight train was backing up. As he was not in the employ of the company and was trespassing at the time, he can recover no damages from the company. He received a good contribution from our citizens.

Wm. M. Evans, traveling representative of the state and county exhibit committee of the Portland exposition, was in Hood River last Tuesday. Mr. Evans has traveled over the Willamette valley and Southern Oregon as far as the state line. He found no fruit of any kind worth mentioning till he got to Hood River. He says the exposition will have to depend on Hood River almost entirely for its fruit exhibit this year.

After the appearance of the fish story in last week's GLACIER it was decided by some of the old fishermen that his author deserved a prize, and a suitable one was designed in the shape of a salmon fly and presented by a committee consisting of W. C. Stranahan and Elmer Raud. The fly is on exhibition at the barber shop.

Ladies, come and have a health talk. Learn how to get well and keep well. Mothers are especially invited. Mrs. Carrie Smith of San Francisco will be pleased to meet the ladies of Hood River on Monday afternoon at the Congregational church at 3 o'clock. On Tuesday at the Belmont church at 3 p. m. Admission free.

Mr. Tillett, in his rounds over the valley, is much pleased to learn that there has been very little loss of trees coming from his nursery. Shoemaker Bros. planted 1,100 of his trees last spring and have not lost a tree. J. J. Gibbons reports the same good luck with 700 planted last spring.

H. C. Hengst is building a green house and apple house combined, 13x24 feet, two stories high. Mr. Hengst is a great lover of flowers and always has a fine lot of them in his garden, and he means to build a place that will protect them from Jack Frost.

West Bros.' market makes a good display of fruit and vegetables every day. A neat railing protects the tempting fruit from covetous hands nowadays, which works a hardship on those of us who used to help ourselves to the best.

Rev. George C. Rowe and wife arrived from Eugene Wednesday and are moving into the property he purchased of D. F. Pierce. W. C. Stranahan, the former occupant, has moved into the Hanna cottage, Fourth and River sts.

The public is cordially invited to the ice cream social to be given by the ladies of the Congregational church at the residence of Rev. J. L. Hershner, this (Friday) evening. Price for refreshments, 15 cents.

Rev. H. K. Hines is the new minister for the M. E. church at this place. Mr. Hines is one of the leading divines of Oregon, and Hood River is to be congratulated on his appointment.

McKinley may be elected, and Bryan's admirers are confident their candidate will win, but there is no mistake about Tillett's trees being the best for Hood River.

Prof. Miller, principal of our school, arrived here last week with his family, and has moved into the cottage east of the school house, formerly occupied by C. P. Head.

E. L. Rood has purchased of Calder & Simmons their outfit for palting roofs. He is now prepared to fill all orders given the old firm and make new contracts.

McKinley and Hobart club meets for the purpose of organizing, Saturday, September 12th, at A. O. U. W. hall.

Miss Mary Frazier came up from Portland last Saturday to spend a week visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. W. H. Mansfield, foreman of the Times-Mountaineer office, was a caller at the GLACIER office yesterday.

James Ellison went to Bonneville Wednesday, where he has been given the position of night operator.

Hon. E. V. Brock and wife of Sherman county were in Hood River during the week.

The State union shipped, Tuesday, 210 and yesterday 215 crates of prunes.

E. D. Calkins will exchange harness work for wood, hay and farm products.

The Lateral Ditch Co. directors will hold a meeting tomorrow, at 4 o'clock.

O. B. Hartley sold ten acres of land last Monday to G. L. Simmons.

Gents and boys' hats at the Racket Store.

Mrs. Caroline M. Wentworth, mother of Mrs. Moody, died at Frankton, last Monday morning, aged 60 years and 10 months. Deceased came here from the state of Maine about a month ago and had been in feeble health for some time. Her remains were taken to Tacoma for burial, where Mr. Moody had gotten ready to move to and had his goods packed when Mrs. Wentworth died.

We are informed by Van Johnson that his neighbors are all busily engaged in setting strawberry plants. J. Wickham and John Kelley will double their patches. Charles Reed has set a good sized patch and will set more after the rains come. H. C. Hengst is setting four or five acres and will have a patch altogether of about nine acres.

A new ditch company has been formed in the upper part of the valley to take water out of the middle fork of Hood River. This ditch will irrigate a large and rich section of country lying above and west of the toll bridge. The incorporators are P. F. Foutz, James Knight, Henry Ries and Horace Richmond.

Mr. S. R. Husbands and family left Wednesday for Santa Cruz, California, where they expect to remain for the winter, and may make it their permanent home. Mrs. Mary L. Harbison, mother of R. E. and J. S. Harbison, accompanied them and will stop in California for the winter.

Everybody having choice fruit they are willing to donate for Hood River's exhibit at the Portland exposition is requested to bring it in. Mayor L. N. Blowers will take charge of all samples and ship the same.

Underwood Bros. stocked the town with another lot of their luscious water-melons on Wednesday. The GLACIER correspondent thanks for one of the biggest in the lot, a melon weighing 32 pounds.

Tomlinson Bros. of Mount Hood have purchased the old shingle mill that stood on Sandy Flat, and will set it up by their saw mill and manufacture shingles and apple boxes.

T. C. Dallas has fitted up the front room of the Champlin store building for a drummer's sample room and for the use of socials and other gatherings.

Mr. Clark, who recently moved here from The Dalles and bought B. M. Woodward's place, will commence the erection of a residence next Monday.

Mr. O. Fredenburg returned yesterday from a trip to The Dalles. He reports there was a killing frost at Mt. Hood Wednesday morning.

Proprietor Reeves is having a new range put in the kitchen of the Mount Hood hotel, and other improvements are being made.

Mrs. M. V. Shelby, daughter and granddaughter, who have been summing here, returned to Portland yesterday.

Mrs. Haynes has been sick in bed for the past week or ten days, but we are glad to learn she is now improving.

The thanks of the GLACIER office are due Van Johnson for a nice basket of peaches and Petite prunes.

Little Ada McIntosh, who has been very sick with lung fever, is reported better this morning.

Capt. J. H. Ferguson, mother, sister and aunt and Miss Wolfard went to Trout Lake last Friday.

There were light frosts in portions of the valley on the mornings of the 9th and 10th.

L. Nell's crew of railroad carpenters was laid off, indefinitely, the first part of the week.

J. J. Gibbons is building a residence on his place' fronting the road on the south.

John Vouthiers has entered the claim at Mt. Hood formerly taken by J. R. Galligan.

Sam Monahan of The Dalles was in Hood River Tuesday.

Wm. Tillett returned yesterday from a trip to Portland.

Blue stem wheat for seed at the Racket Store.

Grand Army Camp Fire.

Canby post, G. A. R., held its regular monthly meeting last Saturday. Wm. H. Jones, late of the Third Wisconsin veterans, was mustered into the post. Notice was given that at the next meeting a motion will be offered to amend the by-laws reducing the annual dues to one dollar. It was decided to hold a camp fire and the date was fixed for tomorrow, September 12th. Capt. Blowers offered the use of the grounds at the big spring of the Hood River Spring Water Co., and the offer was accepted. A committee of five was appointed to act with a like committee from the Relief Corps, to make all arrangements for the camp fire. The committee decided to hold a basket picnic, inviting all members of the Grand Army and old soldiers and their families, Woman's Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans. Everybody is expected to bring well filled lunch baskets, and meet at the grove at 10 o'clock.

Later the committee decided that the old camp ground at Parkhurst would be a better place to hold the camp fire, and the changes will be made. The Isenberg band will furnish music, speeches and army reminiscences will be indulged in, a big cup kettle of beans will be cooked, coffee served, the champion bean eater will be present, and a right good time is expected.

Pitifully Contemptible.

Dalles Chronicle.
Sometimes what seems smart turns out to be pitifully contemptible. Last spring a woman living 2 1/2 miles west of Hood River planted four hills of water-melons in the garden to please the children, and by chance there grew thereon thirty fine melons. But before the children had a chance to enjoy any of them some bright young gentleman went in the night and helped themselves to all the best in the patch. The next morning the children contemplated the destruction with quivering lips and heavy hearts. The sorrows of childhood are just as distressing, though of a different nature, as those of their elders. Who can measure the pleasures of anticipation and speculation those little ones enjoyed while watching the melon vines lengthen and bloom, noting daily the increasing size of the fruit thereon, till just as they approached maturity, they were attracted while they innocently slept. Let us be charitable enough to hope the thieves did not think of this.

Death of J. K. Stranahan.

Mr. J. K. Stranahan, one of the oldest citizens of Hood River, died last evening. He had been in his usual good health and spirits all day, and about six o'clock carried some corn for - into the barn to feed the cow. A few minutes later his lifeless body was found in the barn. Heart failure was evidently the cause of his death. He was aged 87. Two of his sons at Minneapolis have been telegraphed for, and if they can come the funeral will be put off until their arrival. Mr. Stranahan was an agreeable, kind old gentleman, loved by all who knew him. His obituary will appear next week.

Columbia River Conference.

The M. E. annual conference for the Columbia river concluded its work in North Yakima last Sunday night. The conference was divided into three districts instead of four, as heretofore. This was done to save expense. The appointments for The Dalles district are as follows:

Newspapers in the Campaign.

In the present campaign the newspapers will be the greatest of educators in teaching the voters of the land the proper way to view the political questions of the day. The Republic, of Lewis is without doubt the most able instructor published on the democratic side, as it explains in almost every issue, by editorial or learned article, why the masses of the people should vote for the democratic presidential candidate. In addition, it prints all the news of the doings of both parties and all the speeches of statesmen. The Republic is only $1 a year, $1.50 for 3 months, or 60 cents a month by mail. Semi-Weekly Republic $1 a year.
